rious exhibitors at the Exposition was a vell-attended affair. About 1000 invitauncheon was served.

Commissioner, and Mrs. Wilson H. Fairbank, of Massachusetts, have two busy weeks ahead of them before they leave for their home in Warren, Mass. During the past week they have been purchasing

Mrs. T. Jefferson Myers plans to re-sume her professional work as a physician upon completing her duties as hostess at the Oregon State building. Mrs. Myers is an Ohloan by birth. She practiced medicine for several years in Salem before coming to Portland.

At Colonel Altman's dinner on Tuesday evening Mrs. Duniway's word picture of the dissolving views of the closing days of the Dream City was particularly ap-propriate. She also gave a prophetic por-trayal of "these historic grounds"—as she viewed them in imagination 'a hundred years hence, when palatial and permanent homes shall have arisen from the backgrounds of the elemal hills. And these homes shall be," she said, "the lasting abodes of poetry, art, science, literature sculpture muste and leavanton. ture, sculpture, music and invention, all gleaming with electric lights from a thou-and trees shining as if laden with a fruitage of stars. But most important of all," she added, "will be the part the men of today will enact in the history of this era, when by their chivalry and pa-triotism they shall have opened, by their votes, the doors of constitutional liberty for the joint occupancy of the sons of women and the mothers of men."

The following courtly invitation was extended to Hon. H. W. Goode, president of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and Mrs. Goode: Hon. Oskar Huber, Director of Works of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and Mrs. Huber, and Mr. Ion Lewis, Di-rector of Architecture, Lewis and Clark Exposition—My Dear Friends: On behalf your now known magnificently successful Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, we ask you to spend its last night under the roof of the New York State building. You will find our latchstring out, and oming hearts within.
(ned) HENRY ALTMAN.

Commissioner.
This is the culminating courtesy of the New York Commission to the Exposition

Mrs. Theodore Hardee and her mother, Mrs. Charles Stewart, left for the East on October 8. They will remain a few days in Chicago and then go on to Phila-delphia, where Mrs. Hardee will remain until some time in December. Mr. and Mrs. Hardee are looking forward to the visit of the stork early in November. Mr. Hardee leaves for New York on October 22, where he takes up his work in con-nection with the National Civic Fede-

-Dr. Elizabeth Denio, who is undoubtedly one of the most scholarly persons that the Exposition brought to Portland, plans to start homeward tomorrow. She will stop at several places en route to lecture.

Miss Lloy Galpin left for her home in California this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberle, who have seen favorite guests at many Exposition ing the last week of the Fair. The hostess was Mrs. Frank Reeves, of Wenatchee, assisted by 20 ladies from the different towns of the county. Every afteracon a very pleasing musical programme was rendered in the pariors and souvenirs and fruit were distributed. Wednesday, Wenatchee day, a very handsome cut glass dish was presented to the hostess by her assistants-Mrs. Wright, Mrs. McCready, Mrs. Mall, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Trask, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Knelbs, Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Fitch, Mrs. Littlefield, Mrs. Mrs. Gray, Miss Tholin, Miss McNell Miss Calmers, Friday afternoon Governor Mead, escorted by the Chelan County Band, visited the Washlugton building. There has been a large attendance at the Washington building, attracted by the distribution of fruit. The last week has proved very successful and has attracted much attention to the State of Washington and Chelan County in particular.

A very pretty little dinner was given by the New York State Commission at their state building on Thursday evening to those officially connected with the commission. Colonel Henry Altman presided. Mrs. D. M. Eilis, wife of the executive officer, acting as hostess, ably assisted by Mrs. E. P. Savage, of Tacoma. During the course of the dinner Colonel Altman, in an entertaining speech on behalf of the state building staff, presented Executive Officer Elils with a handsome umbrella suitably engraved as a souvehir of the Exposition. At the conclusion of the dinner every attache was called upon to make remarks. A thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all, and it was voted the most successful dinner held at the New York State Building. Those present were: Colonel Henry Altman, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ellis, Mrs. E. P. Savage, Seward H. M. Ellis, Mrs. E. P. Savage, Seward H. Prench, Hugh J. Kelly, Miss Lizzle Vo-gel, E. J. Haddleton, T. P. Carney, Miss Mary Harms, Frank J. Stewart, C. R. Hotchkiss, Miss Helen Noonan, B. Pindat and Henry Tuttle.

The following is a list of the pictures sold from the collection in the Museum of Fine Arts, Spring Plowing-in Lyme, Conn.," by William H. Howe; "The Coming Squall," by George Michel; "The White Horse," by Adolphe Monticelli; "The Brook," by Lewis Cohen; "Medfield, Massachusetts," by George Inness; "On the St. Lawrence," by George Inness; "Through the Pines," by Birge Harri-son; "The Budding Earth," by Gustave gand; "Three Boats," by Edward Redfield; "October Hillside," by Frederick Bailard Williams; "A Con-necticut Orchard," by Lewis Cohen; "In the Forest of St. Germain, Spring," Lewis Cohen; "Aqueduct, Algeria," William Sartain; "Sunset at Mystic River," by Edward H. Potthast; "The New Moon," by Edward H. Potthast, "Near Hastemere, Surrey," by Lewis Cohen: "Autumn, Connecticut," by

From Section B-The Faggot Gatherer, by Jules Guerin; Folding the Sheep, by William Ritschei; East River Park, by Maurice Prendergast; sketch, by Harry Weniz; sketch, by Frank Vincent Du Mond; sketch, by Allen B. Talcott; Red Sunset, Holland, by Charles Warren

The complimentary lecture given on Tuesday evening last by Miss Lioy Galpin to about 125 of her Portland friends, was one of the unique entertainments of the week. Miss Galpin lectured for an hour and a half. Following this Mrs. Norton sang and Mr. Definison gave a reading from Bret Harte. The refreshments served were all made of California products. The lecture hall was decorated with Autumn branches. Mrs. Wiggins and Mrs. Filcher received for Miss Galpin.

Mrs. E. A. Lamport's card party, in Salem, on Friday afternoon, October 6, in honor of her niece, Miss Lillian Schell, of Hamilton, O., was a very charming affair. The decorations consisted of delicate vines of Southern woodbine in its Autumn-tints, with here and there the addition of bright red hearts, thus lending an artistic and suggestive effect. Dainty tally-cards were distributed among the guest of each being heart-shaped and decorated with different floral designs done in water colors by the guest of done in water colors by the guest of honor, Miss Schell. An Oregon souvenir spoon was won by Mrs. S. P. Bishop as being most successful at hearts. Miss Nan Wagner received second prize, a handsome china cup Friday, October 6, by Mrs. Margaret by Eli Harvey; Giotto Giovane, by Carol Brooks MacNell.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. E. A. Lamport's card party in

Miss Franc Lucile Hard entertained a few of her friends at a "firelight evening" before leaving for Boston to enter the Boston University. The rooms were lighted only with the light from the huge fireplace, over which marshmallows were roasted and the most thrilling of ghost stories told. A picnic feast was served, when toasts were offered to the hostess and college songs were sung. It was a late hour when "Good Night, Ladies" was sung

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Otterstedt, in Adams, Umatilla County, Wednesday evening, October 11, at 8 o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Leta Estella Otterstedt and William S. G. Rosenstock, of Portland. Rev. Mr. Stoor, of the First Methodist Church, of Adams, performed the ceremony. The home was beautifully decorated, and a light wedding supper was served to a few of the intimate friends of the family. The bride was gowned in white mousseline de soi, and carried white carnations. She was attended by Miss Bertha Otterstedt, who were silk organdle and carried bridesmald roses. Several telegrams from Portland friends were received and read immedaltely after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Rosenstock left Adams for Portland, their future home, on the Thursday train. An elaborate reception was prepared for the happy couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Rosenstock, parents of the young husband, at 20 Pippin street, Peninsula, where they were again the happy recipients of the congratulations of their many friends and relatives. The bride is well known in Portland, having lived here for many years. Mr. Rosenstock is a Native Son, and has a host of friends in Portland, who wish him and his bride a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenstock will be at home to their friends at 389 Pippin street, Peninsula Addition.

served. Miss Schell is an artist of Elmer I ability and of marked individuality. ber 12. ability and of marked individuality. She is leaving for Ohio the early part of this week. Those enjoying Mrs. Lamport's hospitality and meeting Miss Scheil were: Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Mrs. E. Hofer, Mrs. Squire Farrar, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, Mrs Arthur Lawrence, Mrs E. A. Pierce, Mrs. F. E. Slater, Mrs. Tom Cautield, Mrs. Culbertson and Mrs. Charles Bier, Miss Amy Breasett of Youngstown, O. Miss year with a membership of 22 with Amy Breasett, of Youngstown, O., Miss Bier, Miss Nan Wagner, Zoe Stockton.
Miss Cecilia Haines, Miss Ruth Gabrielson, Miss Kate Carmichael, Miss Elizabeth Erkins, Miss Jeunie Fry,
Grace Fawk, Masie Frisby.

A birthday party, given by Norwood
Relivery at his home 436 Surmon

the dining-room were suddenly drawn aside. The shades had been drawn, leaving the room in darkness, but for a few lights casting a dim glow over the table. As centerpiece predominatedlarge squash, cut into the shape of a boat, loaded with Autumn leaves and pine twigs. A doll, which deft fingers had transformed into a most weird-looking witch, was seated on top driving a black swan Remaining surface of the table was carelessly strewn with Autumn berries and leaves, and here the table stood motionless, a girl dressed in a witch costume, bearing the fateful branch of "weal or woe." the dim light of the solitary candles, each guest was asked to select from the branch an envelope containing a mystic message of faic. After the dainty lunch had been served, the guests were taken into an adjoining room, where their fortunes were told.

The following announcement is from the service of October 3: "The corage. by the witch. Somewhere in the room the clock struck six; a smile, a bow and the witch vanished behind the curtains of the dining-room, not again. A few minutes later found Mrs. Levy at the door bidding her guests farewell. Those invited were: The Mesdames T, A. and M. Gevurtz, Miss L. Gevurtz, Mrs. D. Liere, Mesdames D. and L. Buck, Mrs. A. Simon, Mrs. T. Rakow, Mrs. G. Shemanskey, Miss A. Mellis, Mrs. A. Stahl.

The Thursday Night Club held its meeting October 12 at Unity Hall, Her-bert Booth King, the president, in the chair. A varied entertainment was given, consisting of plane sole by Mrs.
Dolly Nelson, vocal sole by Miss von Buzee, mandelin sole by A. R. Wirt, recitation by Fred Granich, and dramatic reading by Paul Pilkington. An-nouncement was made that the Suburban Repertoire Company would give a dramatic performance of "The Vaga-bond's Daughter" at the next meeting. Announcement was also made of the forthcoming banquet to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the club. Refreshments were served and the evening's en-tertainment ended with dancing. Among those present were Mesdames Collinge, Ebeling and Nelson, Misses von Buzee, Nitch, Wallberg, Kennedy, Nellie, Grace and Myrtle Vandemarr, Messrs. Herbert Booth King, R. C. Clyde, N. H. Robinson, F. Granich, M. Sugarman, E. R. Wilcox, E. C. Pratt, C. C. Myers, Lee Collinge, Wilbur Collinge, Athey, A. R. Wirt, D. Robinson, J. Otto, Brede-meler, M. D. Jacobs, Paul Pilkington.

The opening day of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, called president's day, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Warren S. White, 344 Hall street. A 1 o'clock New England dinner was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Marshall. A delightful programme followed, consisting of an address by Mrs. White; a paper on "Rus-ela," by Mrs. P. J. Mann; two enjoyable piano numbers by Mrs. William shall and a short talk by Mrs. A. S. Duniway. Beside the club members, Mrs. White's guests were: Mrs. P. J. Mann. Mrs. A. S. Duniway, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Mrs. A. King Wilson, Mrs. Helen Guerin, Mrs. S. A. Evans. Regular club work will begin next week, the club meeting at the home of Mrs. A. A. Bailey 1516 Hawthorne avenue.

Eaton.
Sculpture—His First Journey, by Bessie
Potter Vonnoh; Girl Reading, by Bessie
Potter Vonnoh; Mother and Child, by Ressie Potter Vonnoh; A Study, by Bessie Potter Vonnoh; "A Youn Mother, by Bessie Potter Vonnoh; Girl Dancing, by
Bessie Potter Vonnoh; Girl Dancing, by
Bessie Potter Vonnoh; Indian Hunter, by John J. Boyle; Stone Age in North America, by John J. Boyle; Lioness and Cub

A. A. Balley 1516 Hawthorne avenue.

A. A. Balley 1516 Hawthorn

and saucer, while Happy Hooligan was given to Miss Cecilia Haines as a good consolation. Light refreshments were Miss Mary Price, whose marriage to of Elmer E. Mallory took place on Octo lity. ber 12. About a dozen guests wer been favorite guesis at many Exposition functions during the past Summer, leave for St. Louis via Southern California on Tuesday.

A delightful tea was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Levy, a bride, in her home, 455 Couch street, in honor of Mrs. Mith two bands and a carload of fruit, arrived from Chelan County to act as hosts at the Washington building during the past Summer, leave hosts at the Washington building during the past Summer, leave for the East Twenty-fourth arrived from Chelan County to act as hosts at the Washington building during the past Summer, leave for the East Twenty-fourth arrived from Chelan County to act as hosts at the Washington building during the past Summer, leave for the East Twenty-fourth arrived from Chelan County to act as host of the guests played whist. After the prizes were awarded, the portieres to the dining-room were suddenly drawn were received by the host.

A birthday party, given by Norwood Bellinger, at his home, 436 Surman Bellinger, at

The Women's Auxiliary of Railway Postal Clerks was entertained by Mrs. Carl Abraham Thursday afternoon. This being the first meeting held since June, a short business session was held, after which the boatess, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Frater, served light re-

Mrs. W. F. Edwards gave an enjoy able musicale on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Blanche Sorensen, formerly of Portland, and Miss Ed-wards, of Newberg. Miss Evelyn Hurley and Miss Anna Rankin contributed Seattle Times of October 8: "The engage-ment of Miss Becky Schoenfeld and Joment of Miss Becky Schoenfeld and Jo-seph Gardner was announced yesterday stayes by Mr. and Mrs. L. Schoenfeld. They will be be at home at Mr. Schoenfeld's residence on October 15. No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will occur neka. about Christmas time.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, The wedding will be a family affair.

Lounsbury have returned, and will be at home to their friends at 706 Marshall street, on the first and second Thursdays.

COMING EVENTS.

Wednesday evening next is expected to be a red-letter event at the Y. W. C. A. rooms at Oak and Sixth streets. Bache-lor girls may then learn to cook meals lor girls may then learn to cook meals for 10 cents with a $1.50 equipment, and how to use up odds and ends in making pretty and useful Caristmas presents. The conking will be demonstrated by Mies Lillian Tingle, and the "odds and ends" lesson will be given by Miss Bernice S. Maynard. Mrs. Goodrich, formerly connected actively with the local association work, will exhibit some interesting Indian curios from Western Washington, and all curios from Western Washington, and all are invited "free of charge." Girls are not expected to "dress up," but to appear in "every-day clothes," ready to make

The programme for the tea at the Patton Home on Tuesday afternoon next is as follows: Vocal duet, "O That We Two Were Maying" (Neidlinger). Mrs. X. S. Hamilton and Mrs. Emily Hampson; song. "Genevieve" (Tucker-Adams). Mr. James O'Donnell: rending, "Flash, a Fireman's Story," Miss Maud Jones; song, "My Heart Is Singing" (Sans-Souch). Miss Bingham; song, "Darby and Joan" (Molloy). Mrs. Emily Hampson; reading, selected; song, "When the Heart Is Young" (Dudley Buck), Mrs. J. S. Hamilton.

Portland Council, Knights of Columbus, will entertain their lady friends at a mu-ricale in the Elks' Hall, Marquam build, ing, next Tuesday evening, October II. This will be the first of a series of enter-tainments to be given during the Winter months. The knights have a very unique programme, which will be presented to each of the ladies attending this concert on next Tuesday evening.

An Autumn ball will be given by Astra Circle. Women of Woodcraft, next Thursday evening at East Side Woodman Hall. This affair will be the opening event of the Winter series planned, and a large attendance is expected. All mem-bers and friends of the order are wel-

The Centennial Girls, a club of four, are planning to give a series of parties during the coming season, the first to be given in Ringler's Hall, early in Novem-

SOCIETY PERSONNALS.

Mrs. S. Sternberg, of Spokane, is visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Alfred Osmund left last week for Berkeley, Cal., to visit her sister, Mrs. H. S. Brasfield,

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Madsen, of Seattle, are visiting Mrs. Madsen's parents, Mr. and-Mrs. W. J. Cuddy.

Miss Dora Smith left Wednesday for the East, where she will spend the Winter visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Charles F. Schermerhorn, of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lawier, of this city.

Mrs. M. Hexter and Miss Caroline Hexter have returned to Portland, after an extended visit to Seattle and Spokane Miss Nell Leary has returned home, after spending two years in San Fran-cisco visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Sydney H. Lawton and family have Sydney H. Lawton and family have moved to Seattle where they will make their home for the future. They are spending the Winter at the Otla. Mrs. James H. Wilson and her daughter.

Bessie, of Forest Grove, are visiting this week with Mrs. Wilson's sisters, Mrs. P. M. Graham and Mrs. B. H. Hawes.

Mrs. Max Fresdenthal and her two aughters have returned home from a our months' tour visiting relatives and friends in San Francisco and Southern

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Thayer, of Lincoln Vt. are visiting friends in the city. They will return home by way of San Pran-cisco and Los Angeles now that the Ex-

Mrs. J. H. Dalton, wife of J. H. Dalton. deputy auditor, South Bend, Wash, and her daughter, Miss Dalton, are visiting with a married daughter, Mrs. J. D. Sullivan, 48 Rodney avenue, this city. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Kent, of 335 Third street, are entertaining this week Mrs. Hugh Clerk and children, of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Johnson of Seattle and S.

Mrs. Kent's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Glessner, Warsaw, Ind., are visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Glessner, of 34 East Ninth street North, having stayed over on their way to spend th Winter at Riverside, Cal., in order to at-tend the wedding of their nephew, J. Walton Glessner, to Miss Minnie Doe-

Mrs N. V. Shelby and daughter, Miss At the family residence, Sixteenth and Portland for the past month and who are Yamhill streets. Miss Gertrude Kahn will most enthusiastic in their praises of the be married to Isaac Baer, of Baker City. Fair, leave tomorrow for a short trip to Wednesday evening next at 8 o'clock by the Sound, Spokane and possibly Victoria.

PROMINENT YOUNG PEOPLE OF ABERDEEN TO WED

ABERDEEN. Wash., Oct. 12.-(Special.)-A marriage of much interest to Gray's Harbor people will be that of Roy Sargent, City Treasurer of Aberdeen, and Miss Isabel McDermoth, eldest daughter of Rev. Charles McDermoth, pastor of the Congregational Church, which will take place in the Congregational Church the evening of Wednesday, October 18. Mr. Sargest is 2 years old, and one of the popular young men of the city, and undoubtedly one of the best who has ever held the position to which he was elected a year ago by an overwhelming majority. He holds, besides the office of Treasurer, a position in the State Bank. Mr. Sargent is a

Miss McDermoth was born in Washington, and has an extended acquaintance throughout the state on account of her father's periodical changes as a member of the Methodist conference, with which he was connected a good many years, but from which he withdrew three years ago to be a Congregationalist. The pair will visit Portland after their marwhich has been the Mecca for all persons who have been married in the Gray's Harbor country this year.

FALL AND WINTER FRENCH DRESS GOODS

Great Special Sale Monday and Tuesday

Our Great Dress Goods Department is always sure to afford unusual opportunities. Visitors need not indulge in "searching investigations" to discover values. This has been true of us always in the past; it is still true of us in the present and will always be true of us in the future. The lowness of price on new Fall and Winter Dress Goods—cloths, tweeds and new Scotch plaids—Monday and Tuesday will surprise you. The greatest collection of fine black and colored Fall Dress Goods ever shown in the Northwest-Monday and

New Scotch Clan Plaids

We have the greatest stock and greatest variety of Plaids ever brought together in any retail dry goods house on the Pacific Coast. Special Monday and Tuesday 75¢, 85¢, 93¢, $1.00 and $1.25 yard-Noted for beauty and for weave.

Rainproof Cravenettes

58 and 60-inch Cloths, all colors, best goods manu factured on this continent. Monday and Tuesday $1.50, $1.67, $1.73, $1.97, $2 and $2.25 Acknowledged to be the best Rain-Proof and Shower-Proof Goods manufactured.

Ladies' Fall and Winter Underwear in medium weight and heavy all-wool and cotton and wool mixtures. American Underwear means the best in the world at the lowest price. There is no getting away from this fact. This store is equipped to meet your every demand in this matter. Be on hand Monday and we will show you the greatest values in Hosiery and Underwear for both ladies and gentlemen ever offered in the city.

SOUTHWEST CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON STREETS

Upon their return about November 1, Miss Shelby will resume her classes here for a brief period. Miss Shelby has just completed a "Bridge" poem, which bears the attractive title of "Bridge Abridged."

A very pretty medding took place at

William Brunger, of Grand Ledge, Mich., is in this city visiting his brother, Dan J. Brunger, 491 Goldsmith street. He has also visited another brother, Frank Brunger, at Washougal, Wash. He had not seen either of his brothers for B years. Dan J. Brunger is captain of the ferryboat W. S. Mason and Frank Brunger is captain of the steamer Ione.

Mrs. William Brunger accompanies her

Dancing School.

Portland Dancing Academy.

Professor Ringler, Miss Buckenmeyer 39 Alder street, near Sixth. Classes now

Mme. M. Stephan's dressmaking parlors, 411 Multnomah sreet, where she will be pleased to see her friends and customers.

WEDDINGS.

Smith-Case. The following, clipped from the Manila

American of August 29, will be of interest to many Portlanders: "One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Manila was that which unit-ed Miss Estella Margaret Case to West G. Smith at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jennings, last night. The ceremony was performed promptly at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Rossiter. The bridegroom was Robert V. Dell, and the bridesmaid hiles Woodward. Guy Jennings gave the bride away, and the ushers were Messrs. Bromfield. Sullivan. Hoggsetter and Boothby. About 100 friends of the happy Boothby. About 100 friends of the Sappy couple were present to wish them long life, peace and prosperity. The Jennings residence was most handsomely and taste-fully decorated with flags and palms, and a Filipino orchestra played during the en-tire eventing. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom received the con-gratulations of their friends, after which a very tasty collation was served. Wes icans in the Philippines. He has been here for seven years, and has made a host of very warm and true friends. He first met Miss Case in Manila about a year and a half ago, when she was here visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennings. It was a love match from the very start, and when she returned to her home in Port-land, Or., it was understood between the happy young folk that she would either return to Manila to become the bride of her lover, or that he would journey to the homeland to claim her. On account of his business interests Mr. Smith was unable to go to Portland to claim his bride, we she made the return trin to late. able to go to Portland to claim his bride, so she made the return trip to join him. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will leave Manila this morning at 6 o'clock for Gagupan, where Mr. Smith is engaged in business. The many friends of Mr. Smith among the newspaper profession extend to him and his charming bride their very heartiest congratulations."

Richardson-Gatzka

Last Thursday evening, at 8:50 o'clock, ni the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gatzka, at Sunnyaide. Clarence Ford Richardson and Miss Mamle S. Gatzka were united in matrimony. The service took place in the par-lors of the residence, which were very prettily decorated for the occasion. At the hour appointed, the bridal party en-tered the room, to the accompaniment of a wedding march played by Miss Grace Kemp. The bride was gowned in cream slik and carried a bouquet of bride roses, which was afterwards caught by Miss Margaret Lorent The young people which was afterwards caught by Miss Margaret Lorenz. The young people stood beneath a pure white floral bell, which formed the center of a canopy composed of Virginia creeper and other Autumn leaves. The service was conducted by Rev. Henry T. Atkinson, of the Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church, and was according to the impressive ritual of that church, the ring ceremony being used. The pariors were filled with the relatives and friends of the happy couple, and the presents were numerous and costly. Refreshments were lavishly served after the many guests had offered their congratulations to the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will be

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Doeneka, 824 East Pine Minnie A. Doeneka, being united in mar-riage to Joseph W. Glessner, formerly of Portland, but now of The Dalles. The bride looked charming in white, with an 'arm bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Ruby Rogers, was attired in pink, with pink carnations. Harry Kuntz was best man. Miss Ethel Davis played Mendelssohn's wedding march while the bridal party entered the par-Mrs. Nina Larowe will begin children's compared the parties of the common played softly the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," The ceremony was refused to parties of the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," The ceremony was refused to parties of the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," by Rev. Henry Marcotte, of the West-minster Presbyterian Church, and was very impressive, being the ring cereme

(Concluded on Page 31.)

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever

"Gourand's Cream" as the least hamful of all the skin preparations." For sale by all druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe FERD. T. HOPKINS, Pren., 37 Great Jones Street, New York. FOR SALE BY WOODARD, CLARKE & C.

THE LIGHT OF THE HOME

When you undertake to supply your family with food, clothing, medicine, nothing but the best and finest articles are good enough. Second-rate food or medicine wouldn't suit you at all, now, would it?

Then why put up with second-rate light? Why be satisfied with anything less than the best in the illuminating of your home? The home light at night in its effect upon the health and eyesight is as important as food or medicine.

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the only artificial light which does not consume the oxygen of the air nor try the eyes by unsteadiness and flickering. It is the only "best" light. We are sure you feel the best is none too good for you, especially since our reduced rate for current on meter basis puts ELECTRIC LIGHT within reach of everybody.

Be Electric-Light-wise. Write today for handsomely illustrated booklet-FREE.

Portland General Electric Company

SEVENTH AND ALDER STREETS Telephone Exchange 13

G. P. RUMMELIN & SONS

FURRIERS

Royal Ermine Neckwear In Ties, Ricas,

Black Lynx Scarfs Sable and Mink Stoles

Alaska Sealskins, London Dye, Our Specialty

Fur Coats, Fur Muffs, Fur Robes and Rugs, Best Quality, Newest Styles, Lowest Prices

LEADING AND RELIABLE FURRIERS