CORVALLIS, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—In an interstate game of football here this afternoon, the Oregon Agricultural College eleven defeated the team from the Washington State College by a score of 29 to 0. Four touchdowns were made by the Oregon men in the first half and one in the second. The first score came after seven and one-half minutes of play, in which the ball was rushed 55 yards; the second, after an additional four and one-half minutes and 48 yards of rushing; the third required four minutes, during which the Oregonians carried the ball 35 yards, and the fourth required seven minutes of play and 51 yards of rushing. In the fifth touchdown Oregon carried the ball 110 yards in nine minutes of play.

In all, Oregon carried the ball 309 yards and Washington 40 yards. It was impossible for Washington to pierce the Oregon line, yardage only being made once or twice through it on fake plays. Oregon pierced the Washington line at will, especially on the left side, and ran both ends. The best feature of the game was the fine team work and the precision with which the formations were launched by the Oregonians. Coaches Short and Bishop were interested spectators at the game.

Root kicked off, and Pullman ran in to the 20-yard line, and after two downs, punted. The Oregon men worked the ball back 13 yards to the seven-yard line, where Washington held Pullman back for three minutes, when Oregon took the ball on the 40-yard line and rushed it through for a touchdown, Abraham carrying the ball over and Corvallis kicking the point. Washington kicked off and sent the ball over the goal line. Rootfree kicked from the 25-yard line and the Washington runner was stopped on the 45-yard line. Starting at the ball on a fumble, and by rushes and end runs worked Root over for a second touchdown in four and one-half minutes.

Root kicked and Washington ran the ball in to the 35-yard line, where, after a couple of downs with no gains, a Pullman man fumbled, and Walker dropped on the field 70 yards, when the 25-yard line, the Oregon men pushed the Washingtonians back until William was sent over for the third touchdown in four minutes of play. A feature in making the distance was a 15-yard quarter-back run by Rinehart.

Washington kicked off and Rinehart advanced the ball to the 30-yard line and Dolan carried it 10 yards more on the first formation, and by short gains the Oregon men worked the ball another 12 yards, where they were held for the second time and forced to punt. The ball went to the 25-yard line, and Washington punted back Rinehart ran the ball in to the 30-yard line, and with fierce rushing the Oregonians worked Root over for the fourth touchdown, two minutes before the 25-minute half ended. Score, O. A. C. 29, Washington 0.

In the second half Washington kicked off to Dolan, who ran in the ball to the 30-yard line, from where, without a break, Oregon rushed their opponents back the field 70 yards, when Washington held and Root tried a place-kick from the 20-yard line.

Washington free kicked from the 25-yard line, and Oregon ran the ball back to the 40-yard line. Starting there, Oregon rushed the Washingtonians 40 yards for the fifth touchdown of the game, nine minutes after the second half opened.

A penalization of 15 yards for Oregon when on the 20-yard line and headed straight for Washington's goal and the ball surged back and forth between the two 25-yard lines, much of the play being a punting duel.

At this point of the game Washington made her only yardage, ten of which was netted on a fake through the line in a single formation. Kenneth Cooper kicked five out of the six goals. The officials of the game were Kirkley, of Multnomah, and W. Lair Thompson.

STANFORD DEFEATS NEVADA

Poor Exhibition of the Game Given on Both Sides.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 21.—The Stanford "Varsity" defeated the University of Nevada football team on the campus oval this afternoon by a score of 21 to 0. Nevada lost the game on fumbles and weak offensive playing. At no time was the Stanford goal line in danger of being crossed by the Nevadans.

Willie Stanford won the game, her play-

DROP-KICKS A GOAL

Chicago Quarterback Defeats Wisconsin.

MAKES THE SCORE 4 TO 0

Badgers Bring Ball Three Times Within Twenty Yards of the Vectors' Goal, but Are Thrown Back.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 21.—Walter Eckersall, Chicago's quarterback, today for the third time brought victory to the University of Chicago football eleven by a score of 4 to 0. Three times, with the ball within scoring distance of the Wisconsin goal line, he tried to drop-kick a goal. The third trial was successful, the ball sailing squarely between the goal posts and placing four points to the credit of the Maroon team.

This was all the scoring done by either team. Three times the Wisconsin team had the ball within 20 yards of Chicago's goal line. Once it rested on the ten-yard line, but, with defeat staring them in the face, Chicago's line men dug their feet deep into the soft ground and threw back the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the fiercest ever seen on a Western gridiron. It was football, clean, hard, each man playing to the last ounce. Little fumbling was done. Chicago's men let the ball get away from them three times, the last time almost resulting in a touchdown for Wisconsin, as Eckersall dropped a punt on Chicago's 15-yard line. Wisconsin fumbled twice. Outside of this, the play was clean and sharp. Fully 10,000 persons witnessed the game.

NO SCORE MADE AT SALEM

Portland High School Boys Make Yardage by Fake Plays.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Salem and Portland High School football teams played a scoreless game here today, but the advantage was with the Salem eleven in both halves. Expiration of time was apparently all that prevented Salem from scoring at the end of the second half, when the Capital City boys and the ladies from the metropolis going and the ball within seven yards of the goal. The Portland team registered 14 pounds heavier on an average than the Salem boys, but the latter were more experienced.

The chief features of the game were the successful working of a number of fake plays by the visitors and the running back the field by Rhodes for 30 yards. The Salem team put up a stubborn defense and its line held well. There were no injuries. The line-up:

Chemawa Defeated at Chemawa.

CHEMAWA, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The Chemawa second team defeated the Mite School by a score of 13 to 6. Chemawa carried the Mutes off their feet in the first half and scored three touchdowns. In the second half the Mutes played a much stronger game and scored a touchdown and made a strong bid for a second score. Long end runs by Wilson, Chemawa's midfoot halfback, were the features of the game.

FIRST PAPER CHASE

Portland Hunt Club Riders Take to the Field.

DOZEN EXCELLENT JUMPS

Twenty-Eight Riders Cover the Course in Lively Time, With Fine Weather Favoring Hounds and Hares.

The first paper chase of the season was run by the Portland Hunt Club yesterday under most auspicious circumstances, the weather, roads and riders being in the prime of condition. It was one of the most successful runs the club ever made and the field was an unusually large one, 28 riders covering the course and a number of others attending who did not go through. Judge Tanner on Buster won the cup and T. S. McKeith on Call Bond came in second, after a close run for this honor with Mrs. F. G. Bufum on her little thoroughbred, Will-Wehrung, and Mr. Straun, on J. H. Bennett. The chase was as pretty a run as ever was seen in the vicinity of Portland, and, judging from the large number of riders who participated, the interest in cross-country riding this winter will be unusually keen.

The start yesterday was made at the junction of the Barr Road and Wiberg Lane, with a finish at Gravelly Hill Road. The distance covered was from eight to ten miles and included fully a dozen good high jumps and good, stiff riding. The entire club voted it a fine course and the afternoon's ride was one of unusual enjoyment to the devotees of horsemanship.

F. O. Downing on Budget and J. C. Mues on Nigger were the hares, and the contestants and mounts were as follows:

D. A. Patullo, Barnato; R. H. Jenkins, Jane; Willie Walters, Frank; J. B. Alexander, Ties; E. B. Eldredge, Uncle Paul; James Nicol, Soap; Frank Wilder, Breta; T. S. McKeith, Call Bond; T. S. Brooke, Joe Jewett; J. N. Coghlan, Humbert; W. M. Davis, Stimy; A. H. Tanner, Buster; T. T. Strain, J. H. Bennett, Ed Striding; Bedad; John Latta, Quaido; S. C. Kerr, Dexter; H. H. Herdman, Peggy; J. E. Laidlaw, Sam; J. T. Horan, Granger; Mrs. C. H. Leadbetter, Chief; Mrs. F. O. Downing, Tom; Mrs. Brunst, Misty Maid; Mrs. F. G. Bufum, Will Wehrung; Mrs. P. H. Blyth, Rocket; Mrs. J. R. Stephens, Dennis; Miss Pitcock, Rustus.

The following ladies did not ride through: Mrs. A. N. Norton, Bob; Miss Ainsworth, Mowitta; Miss Flanders, Johnnie Moore.

FOOTBALL NOT FOR A FEW

President Wheeler Says the Rules Must Be Changed.

BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 21.—American football as it is played today will have to go, or it will have to be more modified than it ever has been," said President Benjamin H. Wheeler, of the University of California, to students assembled around the bonfire on the college campus last night in the big "senior rally" in honor of the freshmen football victory.

"The view I give you of the game is now rapidly being accepted throughout the country as being the only logical solution of the problem which has been reaching a head for many years. The game in its essence is too good to abandon entirely, and the thing for us to do in the immediate future is to change its nature radically so that it will come within the pale of other college sports, where highly specialized training, costly equipment, unnecessary chances for serious injury and a minimum of participation on the part of the student body are absent."

"I have long favored such a revolution in the game," he continued. "It is not right that this sport should be confined to a mere handful of players, while the greater part of the student body is relegated to the benches or behind the lines. The game, it should never be lost sight of, was originally designed for exercise, and not solely for a victory over a rival college. We need a game that many can take part in, and the football rules should be so altered that many students, at present barred, may get a chance to participate."

Slavery Stories Preposterous.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Consul James W. ## POSTAL CLERK EMBEZZLER

Trusted St. Louis Postoffice Employee Short in Accounts.

ST. LOUIS MO, OCT. 21—FRANCIS B.

Runder, cashier of the St. Louis Postoffice, was arrested this afternoon by Postoffice Inspectors J. L. Dice and John Sullivan, following the discovery of an alleged shortage of $900 in his accounts.

The Federal warrant issued for Runder into custody, the inspectors applied to United States District Attorney Dyer, and a warrant charging embezzlement was issued. It is understood by newspaper circles that Runder admitted the shortage of $900.

Runder was immediately arraigned before United States Commissioner Babbit, waived preliminary hearing and his bond was fixed at $10,000. Pending the securing of bond he was held in the Marshal's office. He declined to make any statement.

Postmaster Wyman stated that he had regarded Mr. Runder as one of the most efficient and faithful employees in the service. "I was shocked when the inspectors informed me of the situation," he said. "The investigation of Mr. Runder's affairs is still in progress, and it will continue until all the facts are obtained."

Perry Belmont Buys Newspaper.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 21.—An announcement was made today of the sale of a controlling interest in the Newport Herald by Colonel Samuel R. Honey. It was not given out who the purchaser was, but it is understood by newspaper circles to be Perry Belmont, of New York.

URGE PRESIDENT'S DICTUM

Misconduct Not Offense in Any Act of Congress.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—President

Roosevelt's letter of acceptance of the nomination for President a year ago or more was quoted by a lawyer today in defense of Moses Haas and Frederick H. Peckham, who recently were indicted by the Federal grand jury in Washington on a charge of conspiring with Edwin S. Holmes, Jr., to defraud the Government by securing in advance information of the Government's cotton report. A portion of the President's letter was that "there is no common law of the United States that can give jurisdiction of an offense in a Federal Court." The indictment alleged that Holmes was guilty of misconduct in entering into a conspiracy. The defense declared that no such offense as misconduct could be found in any act of Congress, which alone could give jurisdiction of an offense to a Federal Court, but the prosecution contended that it was an offense against the common law of the District of Columbia. It was to controvert this assertion that the President's statement was quoted by the lawyer for the defense. It was also pointed out by the latter that the Government was not actually defrauded of anything, and that, if the alleged conspirators secured money, it was from speculation. Decision on the motion to discharge Haas and Peckham from custody was reserved.

HONOLULU BEEF TRUST

Evidence That It Creates a Scarcity and Raises Prices.

HONOLULU, Oct. 21.—United States District Attorney Breckons has filed a suit against the alleged local beef trust. It is charged that an unlawful combination is controlling the business here and charging oppressive and exorbitant rates for beef. The list of defendants includes the President of the Territorial Senate Ivensberg, Speaker of the House Knudson, Senators Achl, Baldwin, McCandless, Paris and Wilcox, ex-Supreme Justice Perry, Sheriff Broderick, the W. O. Irwin Company, President Damon, of Bishop's Bank, and Colonel Samuel Parker. Altogether there are 78 defendants, including many other corporations.

The complaint alleges that Honolulu uses annually about 75,000 pounds of beef, 50 per cent of which is sold by the defendants through the Metropolitan Meat Company. It is further alleged that an agreement has been entered into for the control of the supply and to withhold cattle from the market in order to create a scarcity and raise prices unreasonably. It is asserted that prices have been raised from 25 to 50 per cent as a result of the alleged unlawful agreement. All the big ranch-owners of the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Kauai and Oahu are practically defendants in the suit.

THEY RACE FOR DEATH

Two Friends Drown a Short Distance From Each Other.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Henry Schwawedel, a wealthy retired merchant of Brooklyn, could not rest easy because he had nothing to do, so he watched his physical symptoms for various ailments. He found it gloomy business. One day, while walking near the Brooklyn Gas Works, he met Adger Hillman. Hillman was much younger than he, and his good looks troubled him. He and Schwawedel got along famously comparing symptoms. One day recently Hillman was heard to say to his friend that he would wager that he died first. Schwawedel accepted, but no one knows the wager or who the stakeholder was. A week ago Schwawedel's body was found floating near Fifth street. Yesterday the police found Hillman's body two blocks from where Schwawedel's body was found. Whether the two men died together or whether it was a race for death for prize, or whether it was a coincidence, no one will ever know. Schwawedel was a bachelor.

Oil Company Charged With Violating Texas Statute.

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—As a result of disclosures made by the Missouri state authorities in the anti-trust investigation of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which go to indicate that it is practically owned and controlled by Standard Oil Company, Attorney General Davidson is preparing to proceed against the company for violation of the Texas anti-trust law. It is not unlikely that criminal prosecution against persons who caused the redemption of the company to do business in Texas may be instituted.

Slaves and Commuters Do Not Score After the Eighth.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Seattle tied Oakland in the eighth inning today and, although seven more innings were played, the score of 3 to 3 could not be increased by either side. The game was called only when it was too dark to distinguish the ball. Both pitchers were touched up quite freely in the last seven innings, but neither side was able to budge hits for a winning run. Yesterday's ball game was presented to the San Francisco team by the easiest sort of a way by the tribe of McCredie, which of late seems to go up in the air the minute Bill Esick makes his appearance on the slab. It had performed in a highly satisfactory manner up to the time that Ly Ferry bruised a digit on his pitching hand, and the blond head was delegated to relieve him. When Bill ambled out on the hit sheet, McCredie was a trifle cooler, one run in for the inning and a man on the second sack. Householder was the batsman facing the blond, and he was disposed of on a chance to Atz. With two down, Hill became a trifle unsteady and passed C. Irwin, who immediately purloined the mid-station. Gochbauer drove one to Atz that meant certain for the side, but he failed to get a strangle-hold on the Spaulding with the result that all hands were safe and Spencer planted his toes on the rubber for run number two. Both stole second, and both he and Irwin scored when Shea laced a safe hit to right. Shea stole second and scored when Mitchell kicked in with his second error for the inning, and the Seals' vote for the session was with the ace running up in the second on a single by Irwin and Gochbauer's triple, gave them a total of six.

The best that the home guard could do with Hill was to amass a couple in the second inning on an error by Mohler and hits by Sweeney, Ferry and Atz.

Umpire Rankin again had a bad afternoon, for almost before he had fairly started the game he had to chase Jimmy Whalen to the tall and uncut, and plaster numerous and sundry fines on the belligerent players who were holding an unwise meeting on his tributes in the effort to inform the local man that he was the tottens ever. As to the opinion held by the players, the umpire cared not the least, but the fact that they went so far as to amble on his horns and jostle his dignity, he thought it advisable to attach a fine of five or so in each instance, and so many before he had a chance to ban that he had to sit up half the night on the battletship figuring out the assessments levied.

Last in the game Joe Nealon fanned out, and blamed it on the indicator-handler, with the result that he was sent to keep der Whale company, and was succeeded on the first bag by Nick Williams. The game was a close one, with the home guard, it requiring two hours to play the seven and a half innings when the game was called.

Two games will be played this afternoon, the first of which is called for 1:30 sharp, and the second game will start ten minutes after the first contest is concluded. The first game will be for Portland and Seattle, and Cliff will be given a chance to show what he can do in the second.
