"APPLIED CHRISTIANITY" USED AS WEAPON IN WARFARE ON VICE

The Industrial methods of training at the People's Institute in Portland, Oregon, are shown in these photographs. The institute, located at 11th and Burnside, is a coeducational institution for the education of transient boys and girls. It is said to be the only one of its kind in the United States. The institute was opened in 1907 and has since been attended by thousands of children. The institute provides education, clothing, and shelter for those in need. The photographs depict various activities at the institute, including singing, playing games, and enjoying leisure hours. The institute's motto is "We are cordial in the morning, pleasant in the afternoon, and cordial in the evening."
