

DAUGHTER OF MAYOR

AND STAS LANE

The marriage of Mr. J. Couch Flan-ders and Miss Mabel Claire Houston on Thursday is to be a very quiet affair.

son. Oregon University naturally sends the largest number, and her students had a longer vacation this year than was anticipated, owing to the slight outbreak of smallpox, which closed the college before the appointed vacation date. From Stanford University the three Portland girls who are students there journeyed homeward together, These are Miss Milola Ward, a sentor daughter of Mile Ward; Miss Carolyn

Benson and Miss Alice Collier, daughter of Mrs. Robert Collier, of Portland

Heights, who graduated last year at St. Helen's Hall. From Berkeley came lan Snyder, Miss Daisy Mansfield, Miss Sturgis, Miss Agnes Beach, daughter of F. E. Beach, and Miss Maud Cleveland, of Gresham, Or. From Oregon University there is a goodly number of college maidens. Miss Lella Goddard, daughter of Mr. H. W. Goddard, and a Dix Secority girl, is here. So also are Miss Ella Dobie, who has been such a skillful captain of the basketbali team; Miss Harriet Lane, daughter of Mayor Lane, who is on the com-militee of arrangements for the an-

Chase, Miss King, Miss Allee Bretherhave been spending holiday week at home there are Edna and Clara Cau-

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Van Schuyver gave a card party of 11 tables. Prizes on this occasion were carried off by Mr. H. C. Buwers and Dr.

field and Nieta Harding.

Nottingham, Miss Gladys Mac-

Of the Oregon City girls who

W. J. Van Schuyver and Miss

A large number of people from the West Side, as well as practically everybody in irvington, may be expected to be present at the recital for children to be given on Frony evening next, January 5, at the Irvington Tennis Club. Mrs. Scott has nual freshman dinner, soon to be given; Miss Miriam Van Waters, Miss prepared her programme with great care, and many fond and familiar songs will be heard. The hour is set at 8 o'clock, from which it may be inferred that grown-ups Jean Slawson, a junior; Miss Jessie ton, a senior; Miss Frances Gill, Miss which it may be inferred that grown-ups as well as the little people have been thought of. Among the sough which Mrs. Scott will sing are "Little Orphant An-mic." whose advice that the "Gobble'uns "Il Git You, Ef You Dan't Watch Out!" is familiar to every one; "Mister Grime," whose wooden leg has caused much metri-ment heretofore; "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," and "I Once Had a Sweet Little Doll, Dears."

Relen Van Schuyver and Miss Relen Van Schuyver gave a five hun-dred party last Wednesday afterneon, at which line tables were filled with playing guests. Much admiration was expressed at the Christmas decorations Mrs. Warren E. Thomas will be at the piano, and music-lovers in general as well as those who are particularly interested in songs for children may expect a treat. This recital will take the place of the with which the house was made gay. The green of holly and evergreen was mixed with red berries and glowing red carnations, while the mistletoe surgs were tied with red and white ribbons. Prizes were won by Mrs. William Wallace and Miss Maud Hahn. On Thursday evening Mr and Mrs. regular Thursday evening social, which will be omitted this week.

The University Club is to be out in full force to witness the opening performance of "The College Widow" at the Marquam. They have pre-empted a block of 50 seats.

Justice and Mrs. Thomas G. Haley are in town for a few days, and are staying at the Hill.

Holbrook and by Miss Andrews and Miss George Williard Brown. Miss An-drews "cut for favor" with Mrs. Nitchy, whose score equaled hers. at the Hill.

The dance and candy sale given on Wednesday evening last by the Alpha Club was undoubtedly one of the most enjoyable and altogether successful parties for young people so far given this season in Portland. The parish bouse was filled to overflowing with pretty girls and their escorts, about 400 in all being present. Everything moved merrily, and, so far as one could see, there was not a duil moment for Mrs. Walter V. Smith has invitation out for a luncheon on Friday next and for a bridge party on Saturday. Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr., gave unique are. Richard Martin, Jr., gave unique card parties on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of last week, which she called "railroad parties." Decorations for these affairs were in harmony with this name. On the walls were railway posters, flags and folders. Red lanterns were hung about. The score cards were in form of herenes chacks. moved merrily, and, so far as one could see, there was not a dull moment for any one. Refreshments were served from booths decorated in unique fashion, each of the five booths being sponsored by one of the leading schools of the city. From the H. M. A. booth lemonade was dis-pensed in generous quantities by Anita Burns, Helen Doble and Evelyn Wilson. terns were hung about. The score cards were in form of baggage checks, and were marked "Martin Railway and Navigation Co. Good for One Chair in the Parlor Car." These were kept in miniature trunks. Seven tables played each afternoon. On Wednesday prizes were won by Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. James Clock, Mrs. Charles King and Mrs. H. D. Walker. On Thursday, by Mrs. Fred Prehn, Mrs. J. B. Livingston, Mrs. John Edwards and Mrs. W. H. Grenfell. Guests were enthusisatic over the decorations and appoint-This booth was decorated with the Acad-emy colors, blue and white, with swords, and with the emblem of the school, which were won by Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. James Clock, Mrs. Charles King and Mrs. H. D. Walker. On Thursday, by Mrs. Fred Prehn. Mrs. J. B. Livingston. Mrs. John Edwards and Mrs. W. H. Grenfell. Guests were enthusiastic over the decorations and appointments for these parties.

The Old Maids' Convention" which was to assemble in Trinity parish house on the 5th of January has been postponed until the 11th. It was telt that some of the ladies in question and mumbers of the prospective listeners at their "convention" might wish to waich the performance of "The College Widow" who will be "ganging" lege pennants and American flags. So her fliriations gait for three days at the Marquam, and who is believed to be almost as great a merriment producer as the "old maids."

great was the demand at this booth that lo girls were needed to serve ices. These were as follows: Caroline Wilson, Helen Coldwell, Cully Cook, Dorothy Effinger. lo girls were needed to serve ices. These were as follows: Caroline Wilson, Helen Coldwell, Cully Cook, Dorothy Effinger, Clara Welder, Sthei Chamberiain, Louise Williams, Gladys Heard, Theoda Pulton and Margaret Coldwell.

All the Alpha Club girls wore white dresses, with smart little red aprons. which were lettered in white. The club colors were also seen in the large red Maltese cross at the end of the room, which bore the white-lettered inscription, "Alpha Club of Trinity Church." Above this were crussed flags, which displayed only the red and white bars.

Unstituted praise for the girls who planned and carried out the party was heard on all sides, and Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain, who gave generous advice, was cordially complimented. So enjoyable was the evening that the club has been asked to give a party every month.

Edmond C. Giltner and Miss Zera Mae Forrester are to be married at Gresham, at Miss Forrester's bome, on the 18th of this month. They go south on

The Thursday evening social at the Irvington Club last week was a most enjoyable affair, and about 160 club members were present. Mrs. Woodward was matrou of the evening, and received with Mr. Woodward. Christmas decorations gave a festive note to the evening, and refreshments were served. Mordaunt Goodnough played two piano solos; Henry Teal and Mr. Epping sang. The "Paul Jones" dance was very merry.

Mrs. two standards and the Irvington was to be given in

The subscription dance to be given in Larowe Hall, on January 2, is $\omega$ be rather a small affair, after all, as only about 100 invitations have been issued. Patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Tom Kerr, Mrs. Hunt Lewis and Mrs. Herbert Nichols. As may be inferred from the fact that only the younger matried women have been asked to serve as patronesses, the affair is only for young people.

At the Bridge Club which met with Mrs.

At the Bridge Club which met with Mrs. Warren Houghton on Thursday prises were won by Mrs. John Eben Young and Mrs. John Shepard. This club meets next Thursday with Mrs. Chenery.

The dance given by Mrs. A. B. Steinbach on Monday evening for her son, Jerome, who is home from college, was a very enjoyable occasion. About 30 young people were present. Christmas decurations were in place, consisting of Oregon grape, holly, red bells and mistletoe. A very effective feature of the decorations was the arrangement of mistletoe, tied with red bows. The dining-room was in red, and the favors were red backets of bonbons and other articles of the same color. Dancing began at 3 o'clock, and was continued until midnight. At 11 o'clock supper was served. On Thursday evening Jerome Steinbach was the honor quest at a large theater party at the Marquam, about 25 of his young friends acting as hoats.

Arrangements for the three subscription dances, to be given at the Irvington Clubhouse, have now been completed, and the list of patronnesses and the dates were announced last Thursday evening at the weekly social. The dances will be under Mrs. T. S. Townsend, at their ter of the Sigma Nu Fraternity, held their annual hanquet at the University Club, on Tuesday evening. The time passed pleasantly with numerous toasts, stories and college songs. Those present were: Lieutenan; Fred S. Price, of Vancouver. Wash.; Rev. Paul Rader, of Boston, Mass.; J. B. Knapp, of Eugene; M. A. Zollinger, Dr. C. C. McCormack, Condon R. Bean, C. N. McArthur, Ross Plummer, A. D. Leach, Douglas W. Taylor, Jr., and Robert Rountree, of this city. The fraternity chapters at Purdue, Georgia. fraternity chapters at Purdue, Georgia, Missouri, fowa and Oregon were repre-sented at the banquet.

Cooper, Catherine Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donald, Mrs. George Cooper, Mrs. F. C. Forbes, Luther F. Steele, Dr. Wicke,

Mrs. Cecit H. Bauer matronized the Steinbach theater party on Thursday evening. She was accompanied by Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pratt and their children came up from California, where they are wintering to spend Christmas with Mrs. Pratt's mother. Mrs. Ladd. They returned resterday. Several small affairs were given in their honor. On Thursday afternoon, Miss May Montgomery gave a card party in compliment to Mrs. Pratt, there being four tables for bridge and one for whist. Prizes were won by Miss von Destinon, Mrs. Wilbur and Miss Warren. On Friday, Mrs. W. J. Burns had a bridge party of eight tables, there being a prize for each table, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett eniertained for Mr. and Mrs. Pratt on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pratt and their

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd entertained the two small bridge clubs, of which she is a member, on Wednesday afternoon last. An additional table was formed by Mrs. Vederick Pratt. Miss Palling, Mrs. Minot Frederick Pratt, Miss Pailing, Mrs. Minot and Mrs. Herbert Nichols. A basket of flowers rewarded the luckiest player at each table.

Mrs. P. J. Mann opened her house on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of last week for card parties. Five Hundred was the game on Tuesday, and progressive whist on Wednesday, but the lovers of bridge were permitted to form two tables each day. Mrs. W. H. Chapin, Mrs. Heitkemper and Mrs. Walte captured the prizes on Tuesday. Mrs. W. H. MacRae and Mrs. Leroy Parker wos bridge prizes on Wednesday, and Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. W. H. Boot and Mrs. H. S. Gile thous for whist. The decorations employed by Mrs. Mann consisted of potted palms and ferns from her greenhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair reached Portland on Wednesday last, and a very happy family reunion has since been taking place at the home of Governor and Mrs. Chamberlain. It is understood that sev-eral welcoming parties in honor of Mrs. Blair and Mrs. Charlie Chamberlain are being planned.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox is giving a card party tomorrow evening, invitations for which have been out for two weeks.

hing game criented much merriment, ings by Mrs. David S. Williams and al instrumental solos by Miss May has were much enjoyed. Delicious its were served. The occasion ise-warming for Mr. and Mrs. LAURA LEONARD.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

On December M. 1995, the five sons and one daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ritter, all residents of Portland, were entertained at the home of Mrs. William Ritter, 72 Roosevelt street, in honor of their father and mother. It was an occasion of great happiness. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon a sumptious Christmas dinner was served. The table and rooms were beautifully decorated, the color scheme being red and green. After dinner came a specially-prepared programme, the lighting of the Christmas tree and the distribution of the many presents by Santa Claus. This caused a great deal of merriment among the children present, Grandpa and Grandma Ritter were especially remembered with coastly gifts. In spite of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Ritter are almost 80 years of age, they are both robust and healthy, and enjoyed the occasion as much as did the young folks. Those present were: Grandpa and Grandma Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ritter, Miss Martha Riter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ritter, Miss Martha Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ritter, Miss Martha Ritter.

music and games. One of the features of the evening was a fancy dance by the grandfather, who is 78 yearn old. The children present were C. J. Vaughan, F. A. Vaughan, G. G. Vaughan, Mrs. G. J. Epperly, Mrs. E. C. Stephens and Mrs. E. L. Bradhury. These were accompanied by their wives and husbands, respectively, and the four granddaughters, the Misses Kathleen M. Vaughan, Muriel C. Vaughan, Gladys M. Stephens and M. Ione Epperly. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Cone and A. Graham, Many recrets were expressed because of the absence of two of the children, who were unable to be present.

On Saturday evening, December 23,

On Saturday evening, December 23, Shiloh Circle, No. 19, Ladies of the Grand Army, met in their hall at Woodmere, the occasion being a Christmas tree. Comrade Aldrich gave the children an interesting and drausing talk. Miss Opal Hand sang a solo, Paul Brown gave a recitation, Opal Paul Brown gave a recitation, Opal Paul Brown gave a recitation, Opal and Carol Hand played an instrumenand Carol Hand played an instrumen-tal duet, followed by a recitation by Florence Long. There were many presents on the tree. The children were all remembered and given a bag of candy and nuts by Santa Claus. Af-terwards the grown people were re-membered. The great tree was soon depleted of its load of presents.

Kensington Club was entertained in a delightful way on Thursday after-noon by Mrs. W. H. Patterson, 32 Love-joy street. All the rooms contained elabo-rate Christmas decorations, even to a beautifully-decorated Christmas tree in beautifully-decorated Christmas tree in the dining-room. Home-made candy and other refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Julia Jostyn. There was an election of officers, resulting as follows: Mrs. Stacy Matlack, presi-dent; Mrs. W. H. Patterson, vice-presi-dent; Miss Julia Joelyn, secretary and treasurer. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. John Barnard, 82 Front street. The club had one visitor. Miss street. The club had one visitor, Miss Pearl Hudson, of Milton, Or. Last Wednesday afternoon the Cenenary Ladies Ald Society gave a argely attended social at the home of firs. Humphrey, 602 East Aakeny street, to celebrate the payment of the final $1890 to the church debt, which was $10,000. The society has still over $50 left in its treasury. After the Robert Donald, Mrs, George Cooper. Mrs

F. C. Forbes, Luther F. Steele, Dr. Wicke,
Miss Towsiey, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bennett, Amanda Lewis, George Lewis, William P. Lewis and Horace Tillard Jones, Members of the Portland Alumni Chapter of the Sigma Nu Fraternity, held their annual banquer at the University Club.

The Wishbone Club gave the third of its series of delightful parties on Thurs-day, December 8, at La Rowe Hall. The hall was prettily decorated with the club hall was prettily decorated with the club colors—red and gold. Delightful music was furnished by Van Houten's Orches-tra. The members of the club are Mr. Al-bert Abraham. Mr. Leo Baire, Mr. Will Sandy and Mr. Struble; Miss Nell Baker, Miss Mona Baker, Miss Eva Sandy and Miss Winnie Wiggins. The patronesses were Mrs. R. C. Baker, Mrs. J. M. Thomp-were Mrs. R. C. Baker, Mrs. J. M. Thomp-son and Mrs. Marion Wilcox. The next party will be late in January.

Miss Jean Dunbar gave a delightful Christmas party on Wednesday even-ing, December 27. Fantan was played during the evening, the prizes being received by Miss May Duffy, Miss Molle Bernolds and Will Stenday. The received by Miss May Duffy, Miss Molly Reynolds and Will Strahan. The Christmas tree had little gifts and bags of candy for all. Those present were: Misses Tilly Dresser, Agnes Duffy, May Duffy, Jean Dunbar, Alma Fay. Grace O'Neill. Molly Reynolds, Mabel Smith and Messrs Dresser, Dun-bar, Hingley, McKinnon, O'Neill. Quinlan, Smita and Strahan,

The Misses Myrtle E. and Anna G. Long and Anna V. and Virginia D. Newby were hostess on Thursday evening last to a dancing party given in Artisans' Hail. Fifty guests were present and danced until late. Christmas decorations danced until late. Christmas decorations of Oregon grape, mistletoe and holly made the hal most attractive. Ice cream and other refreshments were served. Flaher's orchestra gave an enjoyable musical programme for the 14 dance numbers. Chaperones for the affair were Mrs. D. Watkins, Mrs. Long and Mrs. Newby. Newby.

Mrs. O. F. Kuykendall gave a family Mrs. O. F. Kuykendall gave a family dinner party at her cory home. 225 East Everet; street. December 24. The rooms were beautifully decorated with holly and Oregon grape. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. N. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and Mr. Ed Brown. After dinner presents from the lovely Coristmas tree were distributed and all enjoyed the delightful music rendered by Professor and Mrs. N. Hodgson.

by Professor and Mrs. N. Hodgson.

The ladies of the Rose Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. C. Hare at hea pretty home. It's Caruthers street. Whist was played. The prizes were won by Miss Bessie Johnson and Miss Bertha Botefahr. After the games the guests retired to the dining-room, where covers were laid for E. The decorations were all suggestive of Christmas. Each guest was presented with a pretty souvenir. Mrs. J. C. Cook will entertain the club January 9 at her home, Tenth and Burnside streets.

Bureka Council, No. W. K. and L. of S. had a Christmas tree at their hall on Christmas night. Before the appearance of Sania Claus a short programme was rendered, as follows: Recitation, Miss Frances Johnson; piano solo, Miss Mary Westergard; recitation, Miss Meta Seidler; selections, by phonograph; recitation, Mrs. Johnson. Santa Claus and candies.

LEADING FURRIERS LADIES OUTFITTERS Fourth and Morrison Streets

THIS STORE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

Our Clearance Sale

year's wants in the line of Ladies' Wearing Apparel here and now, by offering values that are emphatically the very best in Portland—Best because prices are lowest—best because qualities are dependable -best because styles and sizes are right.

VERY GREAT REDUCTION ON FURS

There are many good bargains throughout our large stock of Furs. Every garment will be found bearing newly low prices for this great sale and then to think of the satisfactory qualities of the Silverfield garment-you find the better kind of furs marked here at just as good prices. We can tell but little here.

$45 Nearseal Coats for $28 Genuine Nearseal Coats, lined in Skinner's guaranteed satin, cut in this season's best styles with high storm collar and new leg-o'-mutton sleeves.

$30 Fox Boas for $17.85 Long Isabella and Sable Fox Boas, made of two full skins and trimmed with natural fox brushes-an extra good value.

UNDERMUSLINS AT CLEARANCE PRICES

Not a garment in our entire stock of fine Undermuslins but is included in the great sale, and every underwear want can be best filled from our large and comprehensive stock, including everything from the ordinary muslin to the highest-priced French lingerie. We mention a lew	special prices.

50c Garments	39¢
65c Garments
75c Garments	59¢
$1.00 Garments
$1.50 Garments	$1.23
$2.00 Garments	$1.59
$2.75 Garments	$2.25
$5.00 Garments	$3.98

EVERY ARTICLE IN THIS STORE RADICALLY REDUCED

nuts and fruit. Coffee and cake were then served and dancing was indulged in until

Chapter A of P. E. O. has been royally entertained during the last week. On Tuesday Mrs. Edwin E. Thomas, 784 Wassoo street, entertained the chapter at luncheon and Mrs. Russell Albee, Mrs. C. R. Davis, Mrs. D. M. Watson and Mrs. C. R. Graham were the special guests. On Friday evening the chapter was entertained at the home of Mrs. George W. Tribble, 555 Clackamas street, by Mrs. J. W. Ferguson, Mrs. W. Hull, Mrs. T. P. Thornton and Mrs. Tribble. Chapter A of P. E. O. has been royally

A delightful surprise party was given in home of her parents, train a venue and East Taylor, where about 35 guests as-sembled in her honor. The feature of the evening was progressive whist, Miss Louise Gade won first prize for ladies and Charles Gade first prize for gentle-men. Miss Laura Van Horn and Walter Banzemiller won gecond prizes. Re-

A most delightful evening was spent with Mrs. Analey by the Daughters of the Confederacy last week. The subject of consolidating the Dixie Society with the Chapter was discussed fully and an invi-tation was extended to all Southern peo-ple to meet with the Daughters at Mrs. H. H. Duff's, 522 Couch street. Thursday evening, January 4. The Southern spirit of hospitality makes these meetings both profitable and enjoyable.

The Daughters of the Temple and Martin's Men, two young people's organiza-tions of the White Temple, gave an inter-tions of the White Temple, gave an interesting Christmas party last Wednesday evening in the Sunday school parfor and hall. A programme of music, games and pantomimes was greatly enjoyed, and Santa Claus caused much merriment while remembering each one with a gift.

Mrs. A Schad entertained the Tuesday afternoon Whist Club in a charming manner December II. The first prize was won by Miss G. Zeller and the second by Mrs. C. C. Wise. The consolation fell to Mrs. P. Planch. After whist refreshments were enjoyed by all present. The next meeting will be with Miss M. B.
Zeller, 400 Second street, January 4.

The Diamond Whist Club was pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Wachsmuch, Saturday, December Eighteen hands of whist were played ges. The ciub will hold its next meeting at the residence of Mr. and meeting at the residence Mrs. H. Swint, January &

WEDDINGS.

Wolf-Bozorth

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bozorth Wednesday evening, December 27, at 8 o'clock, when their daughter Carrie Lillian was united in marriage to Mark Wolf. Miss Mabel Ohier, of Astoria, was bridesmaid, and William S. Curtis, of Portland, acted as best man. The erremony took place in the parlors of the residence, which were handsomely and tastefully decorated with holly, mistletoe, Oregon grape and ferns. To the strains of "Hearts and Flowers," rendered by Mrs. W. B. Hollingshead, the bridal party entered the parlor, where they were met by Rev. W. B. Hollings-head, presiding elder of the M. E. Church, who performed the ceremony, as-

BEST ENGRAVED WEDDING and Calling Cards W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Building. FOURTH AND WASHINGTON.

