the New Year each person was presented with a horn. Then the fun began. Form-ing in line, the jolly party marched around the neighborhood, making good use of their horns. Upon their return to the house, 500 and other games were played their horns. house 500 and other games were payte until 5:30 in the morning, when a most inviting breakfast was served. A general good time followed, and the day was well on its way before the party came to a close. Those present were: Misses Jessie Harkins, Camilla Herz, Kathryn Rams-Corinne Reed, Eula Bennett, Kathdell, Corinne Reca, Edua Bellocci, Saldee ryn Burney, Arvilla McGuire, Saldee Knapp, Messrs, Gordon Sterling, Ray-mond O'Connor, Wilson Smith, Ralph Hahn, Milton Werschkul, Walter Vonder-worth, Clinton Reed and Harry Taylor. . . .

The 12th annual installation of Camelia at the residence of Mrs. C. Baum, 354 College street, New Year's eve, In honor of her daughter, Miss Ray Rosenthal, whose engagement to Mr. Oscar Rogoway The 12th annual installation of Amelia Chapter, No. 27, Order of the Eastern Star, occurred Monday evening. Besides the regular ritualistic initiatory pro-gramme, there were solos by Mrs. A. P. Staples, L. E. Staples and a duet by Mrs. and Miss Staples. The officers installed are: Worthy matron, Mrs. Sarah E. Trogo; worthy patron, William Campbell; associate matron, Miss Nellis McKinley; secretary, Mrs. Flora G. Whipple; treasis announced. About 10 guests were pres-ent, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all. A delicious supper was served.

associate matron, Ams Neine arckiney, secretary, Mrs. Flora G. Whipple; treas-urer, Miss Eva Jamison; conductress, Mrs. Lilliar P. Doty; associate conduct-ress, Mrs. Grace Rose; chaplain, Mrs. Ev-telle M. Pye; marshal, Mrs. Bessie White; organist, Mrs. Hattle L. Aldrich; Adah, Mrs. Barbara Weigand; Ruth, Mrs. A. M. McDavider, Berbas, Mrs. M. E. Van J. McDaniels; Esther, Mrs. M. E. Van Kirk; Martha, Mrs. Lucy A. Sherrod; Electa, Mrs. Addie Snyder; warder, Sarah C. Perry; sentinel, James Snyder.

. . . Mrs. H. S. Hudson entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club last week at her home in University Park. Members responded to rollcall with quotations from Bacon's essays. Mrs. Balley read the first paper, her subject being, "Theologians and Re-ligious Controversialists." A good review of "New Atlantis" was given by Mrs. Glines. Selections from three of Bacon's essays were read by Mrs. Eshelman, Mrs. E. E. Miller and Mrs. Stiles respectively, E. E. Attiler and Mrs. Silies respectively. During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess. The house was tastefully decorated with Oregon graps and accrlet carnations. Mrs. White, the club president, was in the chair for the first time in several weeks, having just returned from a visit to California cities, The club will meet this week with Mrs. Karl A. Miller, 709 East Salmon street, at

Among the enjoyable New Year parties of the week was that given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cate, No. 604 Holly street. Monday night in honor of their daughter, Miss Leslie. Features of the evening were music, both vocal and instrumental, and a mind reading exhibi-tion by Dr. John Topping. Delicious re-freshments were served at the close of the evening's entertainment. Among se present were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Shillock, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mayor, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bondurand, Mr. and Mrs. F. Le-grand, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bates, Mrs. John T. James, Migs Nellie Marshall, Miss Louise Crouise, Miss Hazel Riggs, Herbert Wells, Richard Bates and Paul Bates. . . .

. . .

The Portasia Club was entertained, Thursday evening, December 27, by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zander, in their new home in Tillamook street. Whist was played during the first part of the evening, Miss Stipe and Mr. Thornton were awarded the prizes, while Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn received the consolation prizes. New offi-cers were elected as follows: Mr. L. Thornton, president; Miss C. Stipe, vice-president; R. R. Schomp, secretary; N. Paulsen, treasurer. The club was reor-ganized upon a new basis. As it was found impossible to secure any hall of unfidient size the partice back been disbership of 40. sufficient size, the parties have been dis-continued for this Winter, but it is an-nounced that by next year a desirable hall will be available.

. . . dent of the guild. A morry party gathered at the home of Mr, and Mrs. Fred Terry, at Meldrum Station, Christmas day. After the con-tents of a well-loaded Christmas tree were distributed, an old-fashioned dinner was served. In the evening, games and dancing were enjoyed, much amusement served. being created by a cakewalk in fancy costume. Miss Edna Gregory, assisted Mrs. Terry in receiving. Those present from Portland were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L.

entertained at "500" on Thursday by Mrs. George W. McMath, at her apartments LeRoy, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Cavaline, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Labowitch, Mrs. M, A. on Sixth street Hurley, Mrs. C. L. Pense, the Misses Marie and Lucretia Cavaline, Miss Dorothy LeRoy, A. Edward Labowitch, Jr. Alfred Livingston and Professor St . . .

being won by Emery Schmeer and Cipde Evans. The decorations of the rooms con-sisted of ferns, holly and ivy. The even-ing's entertainment was concluded with refreshments, and each guest on depart-ing bore away a bunch of holly. the evening telegrams of congratulation Evans. The decorations of the rooms con-sisted of ferns, holly and ivy. The even-ing's entertainment was concluded with refreshments, and each guest on depart-ing bore away a bunch of holly. Miss M. B. Zeller entertained the Thursday Atternoon Whist Club in a charming manner, on January 4. The charming manner, on January 4. The first prize was won by Mrs. George Zel-

Elizabeth Johnson, a sister, was brides-maid, and Ray Lang, of Portland, acted main, and ray charge was performed under an arch of Oregon grape and ever-greens. "O Promise Me" was sung by Miss Edna Savage. Mrs. Cliffe played the wedding march. After the ceremony a Montag-Drumeller.

A programme of especial interest has A pretty wedding was that of William been arranged for the Gaelic school meeting of this evening in Hibernian J. Montag and Miss Leona Drumeller, Hall, and it is hoped that all mem- which took place at M. S. Stonebrink's, bers will make an effort to be pres- $42 East Powell street, on Monday even-

Mr. James H. Fuller.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Jan. 6 .- (Special.)-The marriage of Mr. James H. Fuller and Miss Ethel McDermoth, which took place on New Year's night. while it was conducted with informality and in the presence of a very few friends and relatives of the young persons, was nevertheless of considerable interest on account of the extended acquaintance and social prominence of Mr. Fuller served a term in the Common Council, and has been, in a business way, well known to many persons in Portland and in the Sound cities. He is at present connected with the Lindstrom Shipbuilding Company. Miss McDermoth is the youngest of three daughters of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles McDermoth. They have all been married recently. The marriage was devoid of ostentation, and everything of a formal nature in connection with the affair was dispensed with. The father of the bride, who is pastor of the Congregational Church, performed the ceremony, though it had been his decision not to marry any of his children. In the case of the youngest daughter he put aside his hitherio inviolable rule. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller have dispensed also with a honeymoon trip. They have begun housekeeping in a house recently purchased by the bridegro

ent. The school, aithough organized ing. January 1. Rev. J. Bowerson offi-but a short time, already has a memthe bride, served as bridesmaid, and Earl Small as best man. A number of friends shared the joy of the occasion, Mrs. H. B. Adams entertained the Woman's Guild of St. David's Episcoand the excellent supper. Mr. and Mrs. Montag took their departure for a trip to Seaside. pal Church Thursday afternoon. Af-ter a business session, refreshments were served and a pleasant hour spent socially. Mrs. S. E. Josephi is presi-Last Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at he home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dale, Miss Lillian Haynes and Edward Gray were Dr. Luema Johnson entertained the leaders of the Woman Suffrage move-ment on Wednesday evening last. About married by Dr. Charence True Wilson. The bride, who wore white net over white silk, was unattended save by her ring-bearer. Gertrude Towne, and the flower giri. Mildred Byam. The bouse was pro-15 were present. A buffet luncheon was fusely decorated with Oregon grape. A reception took place from 6 to 7:50 o'clock. The Thursday Afternoon Card Club was

Bray-Haynes.

Reynolds-Anderson.

occurred the marriage of

tor of the White Temple, who performed the ceremony.

. . .

Mrs. Z. Ricen announces the engage-ment of her daughter, Fannic, to Mashie Berenson, of Boston, Mass. The wedding will take place on February II. No cards, . . .

The marriage of Miss Helen Meilis, of this city to Julius J. Wolf, of Seattle, will take place January 8.

COMING EVENTS.

dainty wedding supper was served.

At the next meeting of the Woman's Club Friday, January 12, the programme will be in charge of Mine. Julia Bauer. The subject chosen is "Jocelyn." an epi-sode by Lamartine. The synopais of "Jocelyn" will be given by Mine. Bauer. There will be also an essay on Lamar-tine by Mira, Miller, readings of extracts from "Jocelyn" by Mirs. C. R. Temple-ton and Mira Arthur C. Newill, and trans-tations of the same by Mirs. E. P. Fraser and Mira, Francis Prager. The music will be as follows: "Jocelyn's Lullaby." in French. by Mirs. Mille Perkins, with violin obligato by Miss Barker; French violin obligato by Miss Barker: French songs by Miss Edwina Mastick and Miss Elsie Garrett. . . .

The Z. R. R. S. announce their New Year's party for tomorrow (Monday) night, January 8, at New Woodmen Hall, East Sixth and East Alder streets. Invi-tations have been issued. The patronesses are: Mrs. M. U. Zeitfuchs, Mrs. E. S. Brown and Mrs. M. E. Butler.

. . . There will be a meeting of Division No. 1, A. O. F., next Wednesday even-ing in Hibernian Hall, when officers for the ensuing year will be installed. There will be also an entertainment and smoker and a full attendance of members is requested.

A number of friends were entertained on New Year's day at an elaborate dinner given by Mrs. J. Sechtem at her residence, 312 Clay street, in honor of the marriage of her son, Mr. E. T. Reynolds, to Miss Huida Andergon, which took place on the evening of January 3.

At the Y. W. C. A. this afternoon Miss Cornwall will continue her reading of Scotch stories, which gave so much plea-sure last Sunday. Miss Louise Forsyth, of St. Helens Hall, will read, and Miss McCorkle will give a New Year's talk.

The January meeting of the Portland Freebel Association will be Friday, Janu-ary 12, at 3 P. M., in the kindergarten at St. Helen's Hall. The programme will be in charge of Miss E. Harris. Those interested in education are invited.

The members of Company B, Third Infantry, O. N. G., by the request of many friends have decided to add four more dancing parties to their Winter series the first to be given on Friday, January 19. Invitations are now out.

The annual social tea of the Illinois Study Club will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. M. E. Worrell, 1183 Garfield avenue, on Wednesday, January 10, at 2:30. Take Woodlawn car. . . .

Orphia Temple, No. 18, Rathbone Sisters, will give the next of their series of whist parties on January 13. After whist there will be dancing. Alisky Hall, corner Third and Morrison streets.

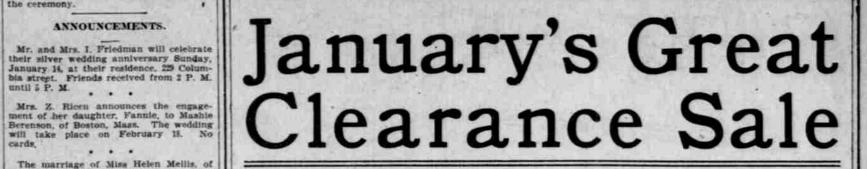

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mr. L. Krause has gone to San Fran-cisco where he will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. J. Lesser and her daughter Esther have gone to San Franceico, for a visit of several weeks' duration.

Miss Anna Hurd left Thursday morning for the East, where she will spend the Winter with her parents.

Miss Jean C. Slauson, aft

Another mighty blow has been struck at prices and values and in many instances shattered beyond recognition. It means a mighty money-saving event will be the programme Monday and all week. To force a quick clearance of all the odd lots, broken lines, remnants and Winter goods. We make prices for Monday, Tuesday and all week selling that are bound to attract buyers, not only from the city but all surrounding suburbs. In your own interest we ask you to carefully note the many remarkable opportunities today's advertisement tells of and you will no longer wonder why we are always thronged with shoppers and customers. Gilt-edged goods and gilt-edged values-no shoddies or shopworn goods-GRAND BONA FIDE SALE.

Linen Section

all the states

60-in, Mercerized Damask, 75e value; sale, yd. 50c 72-in. Mercerized Damask, 90c value; sale, yd. 75¢ Extra quality Bleached Crash, 81-3e value;

sale, yard 5¢ All Linen Brown Crash, 10e value; sale, vard 6c 121/2e Brown Crash, all linen; sale, yard 8c Sheets, size 72x90, hemmed, 50e val.; sale, ea. 39¢ Sheets, size S1x90, linen finish, 60c val.; sale 50¢ Pillow Cases, 42x36 inches, 11c value ; sale, ea. 9¢ Pillow Cases, 42x36, extra heavy; sale, each 11¢ 12 dozen Bedspreads, worth 95c each; sale 68c Napkins, extra heavy, size 20x20, $1.00 value;

Heavy Mercerized Napkins, $1.25 val.; dozen 90¢

Extra Specials

10e Zephyr Ginghams, new patterus; sale, yd. 7c New Challies, 60 patterns, 8c value; sale, yd 5c Entire line of 1Se Flannelettes on sale, yard 121/2¢ Entire line of 121/2 Flannelettes on sale, yd. 81-3¢ Best 10c Outing Flannel, buy it now at 71/2¢ All Remnants at Clearance Prices.

Men's Goods

Men's 50c Fleeced Undewear, clearance sale, Men's 75c extra heavy Underwear; sale, gar. 45c Men's 25c Lisle Hose, extra special at, pair 19c Men's 20c Gray Merino Hose; sale, pair 121/2¢ Men's heavy all-wool Underwear, $1.25 value;

$1.25, $1.50 Shirts, soft and stiff fronts; sale,

Sample Skirts

We have placed on sale a maker's entire line of Sample Skirts-latest materials and extra well made -at less than original cost. It will pay you to select one. See Morrison-street window.

Ladies' Underwear 75e wool and fleeced Pants and Vests; sale,

35e fleeced and ribbed Pants and Vests; sale,

Sample Waists

300 of the new Spring Waists now on sale at a fraction of their real value. Come and have a look at them.

40e Corset Covers, lace trimmed: sale, each 29¢ Ladies' 35c Drawers, lace and plain; sale, pair 25c Children's 35c Union Suits now on sale, suit 23c Ladies' 65c Union Suits now on sale, suit 38c

Corset Sale

$3.00 La Victoire Corset; clearance sale, ca. $1.47 $1.25 Corsets, rust proof; elearance sale, ea. 95¢ 75e Corsets, colors and white; sale, each.....47¢ Thomson's style 111 and 112; $1.50 value, ea. 95¢ 50e Tape Girdles, white and colors; sale, ea. 35c Children's Muslin Corset Waists, 75e val.; ea. 45c

Dress Goods

$1.00, $1.25 Mixed Suitings, 48 inches wide; Shepherd's Checks, black, blue, brown; sale, $1.75 Cravenettes, rainproof; elearance sale, yard$1.29 $2.50 Cravenettes, rainproof; clearance sale, 22-inch Black Taffeta Silks, 85c value; sale, 36-inch Black Taffeta Silks, $1.25 grade; sale,

Great Sale Ladies', Children's Hosiery Starts Monday Morning

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wood-Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brooks entertained ward was the scene of an unusually pret-ty wedding Monday evening, when their a number of their friends New Year's eve, at their home, 872 East Davis street, in honor of the New Year. The occasion in bonur of the New Year. The occasion was also Mrs. Brooks' birthday. Supper was served in the dining-room, which was very tastily decorated in red, with elec-tric lights and red shades. Promptly at the midnight hours, while the bells were ringing and withins blowing, greetings were exchanged and wishes for a happy and prosperous year given. Those pres-ent were: Mr. and Mrs. El L. Hand, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Minges, Mr. and Mrs. H. Havdishi, Mr. and carefully carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Five large rooms were thrown into one and the doorways were festooned in Oregon grape and English ivy. The maniels in the back parlor and Minges, Mr. and Mrs. Havdahl, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tichner and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brooks. . . .

OR.

12

official party entered the front partor and stood under a canopy of pink biossoms and green foliage. Dr. William H. Heppe officiated, using the ring service. Just before the ceremony Mrs. E. S. Miller sing "O Promise Mc." The bride, who is a brunette, made a lovesy picture in a On Tuesday evening, the 5th, the Philo-lexian Society, of the Portland High School, entertained in a charming man-ner, at the home of one of its members, Miss Vivian Place, 170 North Twenty-secis a primette, made a lovely picture in a gown of white chiffon with point lace trimmings. She carried a shower bou-quet of white carnations tied with bunches of illusion. The bridesmaid, Miss Gertrude Gloyd, wore pink silk orond street. Progressive games were played, the prizes being awarded to Mr. Glen Keep and Miss Ahlma Hallock the "boobles" to Mr. Benjamin Rybke and Mr. Merle Magness. Dainty refresh-ments were served. Cardinal red, the school color, was used, effectively in the spacious rooms in streamers and big red Christmas bells. Oregon grape and mis-tletor added a holiday touch.

The various organizations of young peo ple at the White Temple united in a most successful "At Home" on New Year's day. They entertained several hundred of their friends in a most interesting manner. Informal games and musical num-bers, with refreshments served, were the amusements for the afternoon, and in addition to these the following programme gave much pleasure in the evening: Orchestra selection: reading, Miss Anita Pearcy; piano solo, Miss Gladice Grenler; orchestra; reading, Miss Leota Siegner; plano solo, Miss Emma Rounds; reading, William Dolph; orchestra.

Mr. J. C. Hare gave a stag din-ner January 1 in honor of his son, W. B. Hare, who was home to spend his vacation from a medical school in San Francisco. The decorations, which Francisco. The decorations, which were very elaborate, were in red and green. Those present were: Messrs. Cate, Morrow, Swope, Johnson, Downs, Smith, Palmer, O'Donnell, Cooper and Simonton. Mr. Hare 1eft Tuesday morning, January 2. for San Fran-cisco, where he will resume his studies. He will not return to Port-and until the close of the year's seeland until the close of the year's ses-

Among the pleasant New Year festivi-ties was a whist party given by the Seidal Genevieve Club at the residence of Miss Carrie Quimby in Mount Tabor, for which more than 40 invitations were issued. The pariors were tastefully decorated for the holiday season. The members of the club are Misses Gertrade and Nellie Kuizenga. May and Nellie Ahrens, Carrie Clarke, Martha Nilsson, Evalyn Young and Carrie Quimby. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Sutton enter-Mr. and Mrs. James N. Sulton enter-tained Licutenant Hugh A. Parker at dinner on Christmas day. Lieutenant Parker arrived from Fort Snelling, Minn., on December 2, and returned the following day. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. W. Campbell gave a New Year's party to a number of their friends Saturday evening, December 20, at 775 East Burnside street. Duplicate whist was played during the evening, the prises

WEDDINGS.

Gates-Woodward.

* * *

1.1

performed by Rev. Father McDevitt. The groom was attended by Joseph L. O'Far-rell, and the bride by Miss Katle E. Reynolds, sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left for Denver, Colo., where daughter, Margaret, was united in mar-riage to Louis A. Gates, of this city. The color scheme of pink and white was Emrich-Scott.

George J. Emrich and Miss Agnes J. Scott were married Tuesday, January 2, at the home of the bride's parents, 529 Williams avenue. The ceremony was perdining-room were artistically decorated in sword ferns interspersed with pink and white blossoms. At $ o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Marian B, Bobinson, the oridal party entered the front parlor and were married Wednesday evening, Janu-were married Wednesday evening, January 1, at 6% Sixth street, Rev. Henry Barden officiating. The bride was attend-ed by her son and his wife, and the groom by Mr. Thomas D. Hughes. Tennant-Haseltine.

On Thursday afternoon at the parson-age of the Epworth M. E. Church, 806 Thurman street, Richard J. Tennant and Rebecca Haseltine were married by Rev. Henry T. Atkinson. Trumbley-Kent.

gandy and carried pink carnations in shower effect. E. F. Woodward, brother of the bride, was best man. There were 60 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence 60 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gates, father and mother of the groom, were here from Angola, Indiana. During home of Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pas.

COLORADO GIRL WEDS IN PORTLAND

Mr. A. B. Maclellan, Mrs. A. B. Maclelian

On New Year's day, at 5 s'clock in the afternoon, Mr. A. B. Maciellan and Miss Bertha Breese were married at the home of the latter's purents, Mr. and Mrz. G. W. Breese. Mr. Maciellan is the local representative of a large San Francisco house. His bride recently came here from Seattle, but formerly ban prancheo house, shis broke recently came here from backle, but formerly lived in Colorado, where she has many friends. The bride wore a gown of soft gray and carried brids roses, while her sater, Miss Mahel Brense, wore white, Mrs. F. C. Brown played the wedding march. The decorations, which were in charge of Miss Grace Attix and Mr. Sheldon Attix, formed a pleasing background in green and red. enlivened with cut flowers, among which were ocange biomome and chrysanthemums from relatives in California. Rev. William S. Gilbert read the service, using the ring ceremony. Dainty refreshments were served, Miss Margaret Paffrath having charge of the tables. Among the outof-town guests present ware: Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Brown, of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson, of Dawsin City. Ataska. Numerous messages of con-gratulation from absent friends were received during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Mactellan will reside in Portland.

this city, has returned to her studies in J. V. Burke and wife, J. D. Robinson Miss Hulda Anderson to E. T. Reynolds, the ceremony taking place at the realthe University of Oregon. dence of Archbishop Christie, and being

Miss Mary E. Webb left Friday evening for Grant's Pass, Or., where she went to accept a position in the hospital just opened there. Judge and Mrs. John B. Cleiand, Miss Jewell, Miss Norcross, Mrs. F. Harlow and two children, were among the Seaside visitors during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Webb, who are spending the Winter in Southern Cal-ifornia, write of delightful trips in and about Los Angeles and San Diego. Mrs. William Matthews and her daugh-ter, Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews, of St. Helen's Hall, returned yesterday from their holiday outing in the country, where they have been keeping house in a bungalow.

Captain William Gadsby and wife left for California Thursday night for rest and recreation. They will be absent sev-eral months. The business in this city will be in charge of Ben and Walter Gadeby

Miss E. Frankie Richet has returned home after a year's absence, during which time she spent several months traveling in Europe. She has been warmly welcomed by her many friends here, and several informal entertain-ments have been given for her. Miss Richet arrived last Sunday evening.

Natty Clothes for Women.

Since we opened our store about a week ago at 454 Washington street, opposite Belasco's Theater, we have received nu-merous orders. Our goods are of the latest pattern, the fit will leave nothing to be desired and our prices moderate. We are working for a reputation in Portland. The Royal Fashion Ladies' Tailors. Phone Pacific 1369.

Kindergarten. The Mattingly. 269 14th.

New Year's at Seaside.

SEASIDE, Or., Jan. 6 .- (Special.)-Register at the Moore Hotel shows the following persons spent New Year's day at this resort:

son, D. C. Lewis, A. K. Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Frank Grenough, Dr. H. C. Jefferds, Mrs. Jewell, Mrs. Murch, Mrs. Hamilton, Harry Story, C. E. Stolte and son, W. A. Gord and

and wife, C. S. Kelty and wife, Miss M. Van Horn, William H. Souls, J. B. Glover, H. C. Harlow, Mrs. F. E. Har-low, Edward Brey and wife, J. L. De-Bevoise, Sam L. 'Goldsmith, W. J. Montag and wife, of Portland; W. E. Schimpff, John Burke and wife, W. R.

Full assortment of Clu

black marten; regul

Macbeth, Sue H. Elmore, Floretta A. Elmore, Nell S. Sherman, Mrs. A. A. Finch, Mr. A. A. Finch, Grace Stokes, Mrs. H. W. Richard, of Skamokawa Wash., has been here for a day or two this week. Margaret Higgens, Elsie Elmore, D. A. McLean, F. E. Aleyne, Harriet Tallant.

Sadle Crang, F. A. Trullinger, Grover Ulzinger, Meroyn Lounsberry, Ethel remain for some time. Sabine, Astoria; Miss Norcross, Carlisle, Pa.; R. Ankeny, Walla Walla; Fritz Harradon, G. F. Kendall, Tacoma; F. W. Beardsill, Honolulu, Hawali; W. J. Warren, Seattle. At the Women's Union.

tere for some time, recently left. Miss Rebecca Williams has return from a Christmas and New Year visit to relatives down the Columbia.

dence here for the present.

name on the register. She expects to

Mrs. A. R. Ledt is making her resi-

Miss Julia Kellock, who has resided

Wash, has been here for a day or two this week. Miss Ada Lawrence is the latest the blood refiner.

STUPENDOUS CUT IN FURS Great Annual Clearance Sale of Modern Fur Garments That Has Never Been Duplicated in Portland

Come at once while every line is unbroken and avail yourself of the sweeping reductions made on every fur garment, scarf, boa, stole or muff in the house. The following are a few of the many tempting bargains during this sale:

	and a set of the most real to be a descent of the set o
1	Nearseal Jackets, regular $45.00 value, $25.00 special during this sale
	Astrachan Jackets, regular $50.00 value, $30.00 special during this sale
	Brook Mink Four-in-Hand Tie, regular $10.00 value, special during this sale $5.95
	Natural Squirrel Four-in-Hand Tie, reg- ular value $10.00, special during this sale $7.75
	Baum Marten Stoles, lined with Skinner satin and finished on ends with six full tails; regular price $15.00, special during this sale
	Brook Mink Stoles, fur or satin lined, finished on ends with six bushy tails; regular value $12.50, special during this sale
	fs, including baum marten, brook mink and $4.85 7.50, special during this sale
TT	DDDO OO

Mrs. D. McRae, Hubert McRae, Don-ald McRae, Hubert W. Eickmeyer, William S. Halfpenny, George C. Ma-

