

REBELS HOLD ALL

Entire Caucasus in Hands of Revolutionists.

COURIER HAS BLOODY RIDE

Anarchy and Violence Covers Russian Interior While Red Flag Gives Passport in Czar's Dominion—Towns Taken.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Chicago Daily News says:

A private courier of the Czar has arrived in St. Petersburg, bringing a confidential report from the Caucasus. To your correspondent the messenger said: "Tiffs and the entire Caucasus are in the hands of the revolutionists. The severe measures practiced by the authorities in other parts of Russia are inapplicable there. The situation is more acute and the population is heterogeneous and frenzied, while the garrisons are small and politically unreliable. The supremacy of the revolutionists compelled me to discard my military uniform and to assume the character of an agitator carrying red-flag proclamations. On arriving at Baku I again donned my uniform.

Artillery Fights Sharpshooters.

"At Petrowsk I found a battle raging between the Czar's artillery and a number of revolutionist sharpshooters. The latter were well entrenched behind a railroad embankment, while the former, like their comrades in Manchuria, were fastening sharpshooters on the roofs of buildings. "Not knowing how otherwise to facilitate my progress toward St. Petersburg, I crossed the fighting line of the revolutionists on horseback. I was attacked by two Georgians and one Tatar. They took my papers and searched me for more. Conscious of being in a hopeless position and unable to be shot on my way to St. Petersburg for the loss of the dispatches, in desperation I drew my revolver, killed the man who had the dispatches in his possession and recovered them from his body. Then mounting, I spurred on my horse. Flinging I was pursued, I turned in my saddle and shot another of my assailants and escaped.

Had to Don Dikhuise.

"On arriving at Rostov I found the town was no longer in possession of the revolutionists. I was obliged to disguise myself and pay tribute to the revolutionary leaders for a pass. I managed with great difficulty to reach Moscow, where the question of my return to St. Petersburg for the loss of the dispatches, being fought out in the streets. Still, the situation there seemed tranquil compared with the conditions in the Caucasus. The revolutionists refused railroad transportation, and traveling on horseback was impossible, owing to the lawless conditions in the districts. I continued on to the Tver, disguising myself as a monk. There I came direct to St. Petersburg. I shall remain here two days, awaiting the Czar's instructions, and then return to the Caucasus. I trust that my former experiences will not be repeated."

DEATH COMES WITH SONG

MURDER GREETED NEW YEAR IN RUSSIAN TAVERN.

Student Refuses to Cheer National Anthem and is Shot in Midst of Throng.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 11.—(H. A. M.)—A tragedy, in which a student paid with his life the penalty of refusing to do honor to the old regime, took place in the famous restaurant, "The Bear," shortly after midnight. The custom of watching the old year out was observed with something like the old-time festivities. The hall was crowded and the orchestra of the student lay on the floor. Indescribable confusion followed.

Count Sheremetief, in addition to killing Davidoff, wounded two women. Three companions of Davidoff, armed with champagne bottles, attacked the murderer, who, with blood streaming down his face, managed to fight his way to the door. Women shrieked and fainted. The confusion culminated in a wonderful dramatic controversy across the body of the dead student. The impassioned spectators having ranged themselves according to their political opinions, on either side of it, demonstrations and recriminations followed each other hotly. A well-known courtesan, her head proudly in the air, stamped her foot as from the side the loyalists she declared the student had been an agent of Davidoff, who had fainted when the boy was shot, having regained consciousness, rushed forward and threw himself between the desperado and upon the body, passionately kissing the cold, blood-stained face. A regular panic followed.

The guests at "The Bear," many of whom were the more prominent society leaders of St. Petersburg, including a number of diplomats, hastened away in order to avoid being summoned as witnesses. Mounting Davidoff's body was covered by the waiters in order to conceal the ghastly sight, but it lay for more than two hours and until the police arrived to draw up a formal complaint. A representative of the Associated Press, who was present, was informed that the Sheremetief is a retired officer of the Svernosky Regiment of the Guards. Davidoff, when he was attacked, attempted to draw light rapier which students carry, but he was dead before the blade left the scabbard.

RUSSIA GETS HELP IN PARIS

Temporary Loan of $50,000,000 to Maintain Gold Standard.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 12.—Confirmation has been received of the report that ex-Minister Kokovoff has been partially successful in his mission to Paris. A credit of $50,000,000 has been obtained from the French banks, with the assurance of an increase in the amount which will prove necessary to maintain the stability of the rouble. It is explained, however, that the credit is not in the nature of a loan to the Russian government, but is strictly an operation between the State

Lawyer Attacks Court

Finced for Contempt While Arguing Greene and Gaynor Case.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 12.—The pleas in abatement to indictments Nos. 46 and 47 against Greene and Gaynor were read this morning soon after the convening of the Federal Court. The pleas set up that these bills of indictment had not been legally returned on the ground that the jurors were drawn from among residents of the southwestern division of the southern district of Georgia, whereas they served in the eastern district, wherein they returned the indictments against the defendants, and that the court had no right to appoint the two special commissioners to prepare the special grand jury list that had been prepared, on the order of the court. The defendants say that the grand jurors were therefore illegally drawn and had no right to return indictment.

Special Assistant Attorney-General

Mr. Lawrence, of counsel for the defendants, read a written reply, which developed a sensational Mr. Lawrence charged the appointment of special jury commissioners was improper and contemptuous, and he ordered the clerk to enter a fine of $100 against Mr. Lawrence for contempt. Judge Spear asserted that Mr. West was one of the most prominent men in southwestern Georgia, president of the Georgia Senate and ex-Lieutenant-Governor of the State. Judge Spear said he would not tolerate the contempt and insult by counsel in his presence.

Mr. Lawrence concluded his argument after the imposition of the fine, making an apology for the language employed. Judge Spear then announced a recess to consider the matters presented.

FIELD THINKS OF BUSINESS

Recovery is Retarded by Effort of Merchant's Mind.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The physicians in charge of Marshall Field stated early this morning that they have had great trouble in keeping Mr. Field's mind from business. His constant thought of business, they said, had led to a slight rise in temperature. Aside from this, they said, there was nothing to be feared for the patient from the issuing of the bulletin at 11:50 last night. Dr. Billings stated that there was no danger of death in the next 48 hours.

HIS STRENGTH WEARING OUT

Illness and Age Together May Win Against Field.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The following bulletin relative to the condition of Marshall Field, of Chicago, who is ill with pneumonia at a hotel in this city, was issued at 11:50 o'clock tonight: "Mr. Field is not feeling so well tonight. The disease has not extended, but Mr. Field shows very much exhaustion." The opinion about the hotel is that Mr. Field will recover. The physicians, it is said, are quite satisfied with the situation. Dr. Frank Billings, Mr. Field's family physician, who read here yesterday, spent the night with the patient, who, it is said, was greatly cheered by the presence of his old friend.

EDWARDS CASE A MYSTERY

Coroner Has No New Evidence—Theory is Suicide.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Coroner Mix stated tonight that he would have his findings in the mysterious Edwards case ready on Monday and would file it in the Superior Court. It would then be made public. It will be a voluminous document, covering all the points of the case, including the coroner's report on the mysterious death. There is no reason to doubt that the verdict of the coroner will be in accordance with his earlier findings, namely, that Edwards committed suicide. The coroner declared he has obtained no new evidence that would throw any light on the strange case.

FLAMES BEAT HELP BACK

Efforts to Rescue Entombed Miners From Death Are Futile.

CALUMET, Mich., Jan. 12.—Machinery lowered to the 300-foot level of No. 2 shaft of the Tamarack mine to repair the pumps were overcome by gas. Distress signals came from the shaft men, who rescued the pump men and revived them at the surface. Flames in No. 2 shaft have reversed the draft, the current now being downward. All efforts to reach the entombed miners have thus far been futile.

PRIESTS TO GIVE WORD

Tabernacles to Remain Closed to the French Authorities.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, has addressed a circular letter to the priests of this city, in which he declares that he will never permit the tabernacles to be opened for the agents charged with making investigations of the Japanese Ambassador to the court of St. James, said to a correspondent: "The chief object of Japan in this suppleatory treaty is to open all ports of Manchuria to foreign trade and so get all the powers interested in the continued independence of this part of the Chinese Empire to agree to the treaty. It is many years, perhaps centuries, before their own interests. I do not believe the glowing reports of the new military development in Manchuria. Such reports have cropped up frequently during the last 50 years, but have never been realized. Remember that the Manchu dynasty depends on its existence upon the obliteration of military spirit among the Chinese. If that spirit took root, the dynasty would instantly be destroyed. Therefore, whatever outward steps may be taken, the Manchian government will always oppose real military reform.

MUST DEPOSE THE MANCHUS

Only Hope of Modernizing China Is Opinion of Hayashi.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—The publication of the Chinese-Japanese treaty is an important event, supplementing the treaty of Portsmouth, and the Japanese Ambassador to the court of St. James, said to a correspondent: "The chief object of Japan in this suppleatory treaty is to open all ports of Manchuria to foreign trade and so get all the powers interested in the continued independence of this part of the Chinese Empire to agree to the treaty. It is many years, perhaps centuries, before their own interests. I do not believe the glowing reports of the new military development in Manchuria. THE DAY'S DEATH RECORD

Louis Hecht, Banker, Boston.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—Louis Hecht, Sr., a well-known Jewish banker and philanthropist, died at his home in Brookline last night. He was born in Bernstadt, Prussia, in 1827, and while a boy came to this country. Mr. Hecht later returned to Boston and carried on a banking business, from which he retired a few years ago owing to ill health.

BITTER AGAINST AMERICA.

Missionaries Say Chinese Are Carrying on Negative War.

OAKLAND, Jan. 12.—The Rev. Arthur Smith, a missionary in China, who returned yesterday from the Siberia, is visiting in this city. The missionary said last night: "The strong anti-foreign feeling in China is due in a large part to the defeat of Russia by Japan. The Chinese are awaking to the fact they are not a subject people. "The feeling against the United States is very bitter because of the exclusion act. This feeling is heightened by imaginary wrongs against Chinese in this country, as sent home by the Chinese in the United States. "But China as a whole has come to the belief that it is easier and cheaper to carry on a negative war against the United States than to attack missions and kill missionaries. The country has learned that where there is no violence there is no punishment to follow. This feeling is confined to the coast cities, however, and I do not believe that it would be safe for an American to venture into the interior provinces. "What the more intelligent Chinese want is that the exclusion act shall be intelligently interpreted, and shall be enforced only against those classes whom it is meant to affect."

REUMATISM AN INSIDIOUS DISEASE

THAT BREAKS DOWN THE STRONGEST

IN A WEEK

Rheumatism does not come on in a day; the system for years. This insidious disease becomes entrenched in the blood, and some exposure to cold or damp weather, or slight indiscretion brings on an attack. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general sluggish condition of the system are responsible for Rheumatism. Food souring in the stomach poisons the blood, the failure of the kidneys and liver to act properly leaves waste matter and impurities in the system, which, coming in contact with the natural acids of the body, form uric acid. This is absorbed by the blood, and as it penetrates to the muscles, nerves and bones produces the terrible pains and aches and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism. Life is made a torture by its excruciating pains, nerves are shattered, the health undermined, and if the disease is not checked it breaks down the strongest constitution. It will not do to depend on plasters, liniments, etc.; such treatment is helpful in easing the pain and reducing the inflammation, but does not reach the blood where the real trouble is located. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by purifying and invigorating the thin, acid blood, driving out all impurities and poisons and sending a stream of strong, rich blood to wash out all irritating particles that are causing the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. stimulates sluggish organs to better action, tones up the stomach and digestion, restores nervous energy and builds up the entire health. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, and the cure is thorough and lasting. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.
