

SPORTS OF AMATEUR AND PROFESSIONAL

Athletes Who Are in Line for a Trip to Athens.
McCredie's Plans for Baseball Season.

TO SPARE A SEASON

Local Delegates to League Meeting So Declare.

GO TO SAN FRANCISCO

Intention of the Portland and Seattle Baseball Men Also to Demand Better Division of the Gate Receipts.

President W. W. McCredie and Manager Walter H. McCreedy of the Portland Baseball Club, will leave tonight for San Francisco to participate in the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast League, which convenes at the Bay City on Tuesday. Accompanying the McCredies will be J. P. Agnew and Russ Hall, of the Seattle club, who are expected to reach this city this afternoon.

Judge McCredie has several important items to present. The delegates of the league at the meeting, and it is stated that the Seattle delegates have even stronger measures to put before the convention than the local men.

Position of Local Men.

The local delegate intends to introduce resolutions calling for a shorter season, a better division of the gate receipts and the re-election of Eugene F. Bert to the presidency. In the latter contingency, it is not likely that there will be any opposition, as the present season has not given every satisfaction during his incumbency, and is rated as one of the most capable officials in baseball. As to the other two resolutions, Portland will unite with Seattle in demanding a shorter season and the rearrangement of the division of the gate receipts. This latter question has been agitated more or less ever since the inception of the league, and owing to the 30 per cent division extended to the visiting clubs. It is this rule on which the fight of the Northern clubs will be centered, for in the case of Seattle, that club has lost considerable money in the past two years, and is anxious for a better break on the receipts than has been the custom in the past.

Favor Shorter Season.

The demand for a shorter season seems to meet favor with all the clubs, and on that account it seems quite likely that the season will be shortened from one month to six weeks at least.

When asked as to his opinion as to the circuit for the coming season, Manager McCredie said: "It is a question that cannot be answered at present, for I do not believe that anyone can authoritatively name the clubs to compose the league. I do not think that there will be any material change in the circuit, although it is certain that a successor to Tacoma will be chosen. Just where this franchise will be placed I could not say, but I hope to see Spokane favored in some manner. That town is capable of supporting a good team, and I think that the league can figure advantageously enough to transfer the Tacoma franchise to that place."

Successor to Tacoma.

This question will also be a burning one at the league meeting, for with Portland and Seattle united on adding Spokane to the league, and representatives of Fresno, Sacramento and San Jose on the ground seeking to secure admission for their respective towns, the placing of the franchise will be a many-sided contest.

Mike Fisher, manager of the defunct Tacoma club, is the principal advocate of the Fresno people, and according to advice from San Francisco, Mike has interested several influential business men of the rabbin belt in the backing of a team at that place.

Just how much influence the former "King of Tacoma" possesses, now that his mainstay and relative, Henry Harris, has retired, and the principal advocate will be shown at the coming meeting. The fans are eagerly awaiting the outcome of the meeting, which has so many vital questions to decide to the satisfaction of the various clubs.

May Be Mike Fisher.

The question of a successor to Henry Harris is now agitating the Bay City sports, and in connection with the managerial berth of the Seals many prominent baseball and sporting men are mentioned. The latest to be mentioned as possibilities are James F. Morley, manager of the Los Angeles team; Jack Gleason, the well-known San Francisco referee; Mike Fisher, manager of the Bengals of homeless fame, and Charles Graham, captain of the Tiger aggregation for several years.

HOW THE BOWLERS' STAND

Scores for the Leaders in the Commercial League.

Commercial Bowling League standing:

Wm. Leet, P. C.	Wm. Leet, P. C.
Gold Leaf..... 19	7 702
Jose Vilas..... 19	7 702
Golden West..... 21	9 709
Ullman, Wolf & Co..... 21	9 741
Woodlark..... 22	14 841
Portland..... 23	17 433
Montevilla..... 23	9 400
Gold Bond..... 23	18 232
American Guild..... 23	18 232
Strawbridge..... 23	21 286
Honeyman Hardware Co..... 6	15 286

The past week was a busy one around the bowling alleys. In addition to the regular league matches, there were special matches most every afternoon. There were two individual matches yesterday afternoon, one between Kruse and Fickens ten games total pins. Fickens won by 23 pins. They both bowled a good, steady game. Their scores were:

Fickens—23, 20, 178, 196, 192, 202, 204, 202, 222, 192-1588.

Fickens' average, 194 8-10.

Kruse—15, 171, 166, 211, 188, 212, 211, 224, 173-1579.

Kruse's average, 187 8-10.

The Ullman-Capen match was close and exciting, Capen winning by 23 pins. The scores were:

Capen—15, 36, 164, 189, 169, 202, 156, 178, 129-1291.

Capen's average, 176 4-10.

Ullman—152, 189, 175, 182, 192, 174, 144, 122, 176, 173-1273.

Capen's average, 172 5-10.

Ullman's average, 174 4-10.

Ullman and Fickens will bowl a 10-game match some time this week. The Kruse-Morse match was postponed. Ullman and McManney will roll. Keating and Hamilton a five-game match this afternoon. Play will begin at 3 o'clock.

Japanese Study Athletics.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Nagai Michikira, an accredited representative of the Japanese government, witnessed a special exhibition by the athletes of the girls' branch of the Public Schools Athletic League. The Japanese has come to this country to study the methods of physical culture in the public schools, and also the workings of the athletic club, with the idea of adopting its best features.

GROUP OF ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL PLAYERS, PHOTOGRAPHED AT HAWTHORNE PARK YESTERDAY.

PICK ATHENS TEAM

Committee on Selection Soon to Meet in New York.

WESTERN MEN AVAILABLE

Question Not Yet Settled Whether Tryouts Are to Be Held—Spokane Boxers' Amateurism Is Questioned.

Many of the athletic fraternity are wondering whether or not the Western athletes will have a chance to make the track team that will be sent from America to participate in the Olympic contests in old Athens. From the judgment passed on the ability of the Western athletes by Mr. J. E. Sullivan, secretary of the American committee of the Olympian games, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, and author of the new book entitled "Athletics in the West and Far West," the Westerners will, or should be, in the first rank. But whether they are or not remains to be seen, and nothing can be done until after the committee appointed to select the team meets tomorrow or Tuesday in New York.

As had been said before, the selection of the team should be determined by tryouts at some place convenient to the West or East, and then Western athletes would have equal chances with their Eastern brothers in arms of the athletic arena. If the men trying for the team had a covered dirt floor to train on and the same to tryout on, it would be difficult to satisfy all. But this is very near impossible chances on the team? What Western men are available for the events?

Athletes Who Are Available.

In the 100 yards there is Parsons, of Wisconsin; Blair of Chicago; Hahn, of the Milwaukee Athletic Club; Abadie, of Olympic Club, California; Pearson, of the University of Washington, and Smithson, of Multnomah. All of these men are good for 10 seconds in the 100 yards. The 400 yards would secure Hogenson, of Chicago; Dunn, of Stanford, and Waller, of Multnomah. Those who could go for the half-mile are, first indeed, the late Lightbody, of Chicago; Miller, of Stanford; Greenhaw, of Multnomah, and Glarner, of the Olympic Club, California. In the mile run there is Lightbody, Glarner, Mill Greenhaw and Matthews.

In the two-mile, Verner, of Chicago, and Yates, of Multnomah, and Corey, of Chicago. The Mexican, Garcia, would also enter. Corey, Hick and Glarner would make good in the 25-mile race.

After the runs and sprints come the hurdles. In the 120 hurdles and 220 there are Catlin, of Chicago; Garrelle, of the same, and Friend; Coates, of Multnomah, and Freeman, of Stanford, and then the field events would bring out in the javelin, Rose, of California; Plaw, of California; Parry and Tobin, of Chicago; Hyde, of California, and McDonald, of the University of Washington, and Hartner, of British Columbia. Following this are the jumps, pole-vault, high jump and broad jump, with Patterson, of Chicago, and Barker, too; Dole, Hall, Moullen, Kelly, Frissell, Sneidergar, Bell, Coates and Heater, of California, and Oregon, and Friend, of Chicago. In the field events the West would perhaps be stronger than the East, taken it all in all.

Those Who Can Go If Chosen.

The men who would actually go if a team were chosen to go are: Hahn, Blair, and Smithson in the 100 and 200 yards, every one good for the 30 and one yard; 400 yards, Gromon, of Chicago; half mile, Glarner, of Olympic, Edmondson and Matthews of Idaho; one mile, Edmondson, Glarner and Greenhaw; the half mile, half as well; two mile, Gates of Multnomah, Corey of Chicago and Verner; five mile, Verner and Corey of Chicago; 10 mile, Heater, of Multnomah; Coates of the same and Friend and Catlin, of Chicago; 20 hurdle, Coates and Catlin; 160-pound shot, Rose and Plaw of Olympic Club, California; 16-pound hammer, Parry of Chicago and Plaw of California; 26-pound weight, Plaw, Rose, Garrelle of Chicago and Rose of Olympic; high jump, Hall of Olympic and Kerrigan of Multnomah; pole vault, Dole of Stanford; Glover of Chicago and Heater, of Multnomah; broad jump, Friend of Chicago and Frissell and Kelly of Multnomah.

And those who would possibly get a place in the tryouts of these eligibles are: Smithson in the 100; Hahn; Hahn and Blair in the 200; half mile, Lightbody; 1 mile, Edmondson and Lightbody; 1 1/2 mile, Corey; of Chicago, also in the five mile and 2 1/2 mile, 25 mile,

CAREER OF TWIRLER

Hugh Fullerton Tells of Clarke Griffith.

SOME NOVEL ANECDOTES

Little Pitcher, Who Has Earned a National Reputation With New York Team, Once Played for Tacoma.

about way. One night Dad Clarke and I were sitting in front of the Old Louisville Hotel, when Griffith came sauntering down the street.

"Hello, Dad," greeted Grif, "when are you going to pay me that $5?"

"Right now," said Dad, and he did. Then I got the story.

It was a game between Seattle and Tacoma, with Griffith and Clarke pitching down the street. The batter was preparing to swing, and the runner was taking a big lead, and then whirling like a flash in the box, he tore back to second, actually outrunning the base runner and tagging him out before he could reach the base. The play is declared by veteran managers and players to be the only one ever made in that way.

Plan to Meet Idaho at Home and Stanford on Multnomah Field in Portland.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Jan. 20.

(Special).—At a special meeting of the athletic council held this morning, Guy Mount was elected football manager for the season of 1906. Mount is a member of the Junior class and a resident of Silverton. He served as assistant football manager during the season just closed and is at present managing the varsity basketball team. His election was unanimous.

The athletic council adopted a resolution prohibiting managers of the various teams from arranging games, or contests, that require an absence of more than three days from recitation work. Heretofore the annual football trip to California has occupied about ten days but no such prohibition was established and maintained in the future. The athletic council is opposed to the prolonged trip to California and it is quite possible that the trip will not be taken, or even for a single game with Berkeley or Stanford.

There is a general feeling among the students that athletic relations should be established and maintained with the University of Idaho and it is quite likely that Oregon will meet Coach Griffith's eleven at Moscow next season. There is also a possibility of a game on Multnomah Field between Oregon and Stanford.

The matter of the recommendation of a football coach was left to a committee consisting of President F. L. Campbell, Manager Guy Mount and Captain William G. Chandler.

The election of William G. Chandler as football captain, G. W. Hug as track captain, and Director C. H. Burdick as baseball manager, was confirmed by the council.

BOXING MAY BE ALLOWED

NEW YORK SPORTS TAKE HOPE FROM STEINERT'S DECISION.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(Special).—Magistrate Henry Steinert, in the West Side Police Court today, in discharging the principals in a boxing bout in Tom Sharkey's athletic club, rendered a decision that leads to the belief that sparring may again become general here. Commenting upon the arrest of the prizefighters and members of the athletic club, the magistrate said:

"It seems to me that the law in this case has been strictly complied with. It was thought the death of Nathan Rosenberg, an 18-year-old boy, caused by a knockout blow in the McFadden Club track arena, was a sufficient warning to club bouts, but in view of magistrates Steinert's decision it is probable such contests will be more frequent hereafter."

Austin Is New Town.

CANYON CITY, Or., Jan. 20.—The Whitney Townsite Company has filed with the County Clerk of Grant County the plat of the new townsite of Austin. The site was originally donated to the Sumpter Valley Railway Company as a terminal for the line by Walter Flak. The railroad company has now sold to the Whitney Company, which will from now on promote the interests of the present terminal. While the postal authorities at Washington have ordered that the name of the postoffice be Flak Station, the townsite will continue, according to the plat on file here, to bear the name of Austin. This is not the only instance of the kind in the county, as the town of Quartzburg has come for its postoffice.

Harvard Graduates to Combine.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 20.—(Special).—President Elliott and the alumni directors are working out a plan for a vast federation of Harvard graduates clubs honeycombing the entire United States, and embracing every city and town where there are a few graduates. The central offices will be in Boston, and the branches will reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Oregon City Y. M. C. A. Will Woodburn.

WOODBURN, Or., Jan. 20.—(Special).—The Y. M. C. A. of Oregon City is in a hotly-contested game of basketball against Woodburn tonight. The score was 19 to 10.

PICK ATHENS TEAM

Committee on Selection Soon to Meet in New York.

WESTERN MEN AVAILABLE

Question Not Yet Settled Whether Tryouts Are to Be Held—Spokane Boxers' Amateurism Is Questioned.

More than 120 hurdles, Catlin of Chicago; 220, Garrelle of Michigan; Rose in the shot and Plaw in the hammer; Plaw in the 56-pound; Garrelle in the discus; High Jump, Hall and Kerrigan; broad jump, Friend and Sneidergar; pole vault, Heater and Dole.

But thinking of the inconveniences attached to the tryouts at this time of the year, it is barely possible that there will be tryouts at all. So the selection of the team will have to be left to the results of the conference and National championship meets.

Spokane Boxers in Trouble.

Will Douglas and Hammond, of the Spokane Athletic Club, who participated in a boxing match with Multnomah last November, be found guilty of professionalism? For the sake of amateur athletics in the Northwest, and the Spokane Athletic Club, we hope not. If the boys are found guilty they should be disqualified, as they will be if found out. But for their sakes we hope not.

It just goes to show that if the management of amateur athletics is left entirely to professional men who are instructors and trainers in athletic institutions, which has been done in many cases in the Northwest, demoralization of the student body is inevitable. Not because a professional intentionally teaches professionalism, but mostly an account of his little knowledge of the rules of amateur athletics. Nor is this ignorance of rules confined to professionals only, but to men who are in charge of athletics throughout the country. The fact is, there are really very few men who are thoroughly up in the rules of clean sport. But when we do find some who have a thorough knowledge of athletic ethics and intentionally perpetrates a breach of athletic principles, they should be disqualified from further management of athletic affairs, as well as the active participant who breaks a rule. There are a few exceptions in the case when it comes to professional instructors. A very good suggestion comes from President J. B. Macabee in his address at the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union last November, in relation to competent officials, and touches closely on this subject. It reads as follows:

Incompetent Officials.

"Properly conducted athletic meets are a misnomer unless the officials are competent. In other words, an official should be intelligent, courageous and absolutely impartial. The A. A. U. unifies the methods and rules of competition throughout the country, creates and maintains the standards of conducting each event, makes the comparisons of records of different sections possible, registers all records made according to the rules and rejects those unfairly made, protects its members and punishes the tricksters, promoters and gamblers. It is the duty of the official to enforce the rules between the amateur and the professional."

"Now, why not go farther, and give added protection to the coming athlete by requiring that officials shall be competent? I was greatly impressed with an article by Mr. V. V. Roseboro, the physical director of the Syracuse Y. M. C. A., who in a very commendatory article of the A. A. U., among other good things, said: 'We have a normal class in which young men are known as veteran bowlers of the city and are rated as one of the best teams on the Coast. Part of the receipts of the dance will go toward defraying a portion of the team's expenses in making the trip to Salt Lake. The affair will take place at the East Side Woodman-Hall on February 1.'

Police Raid Sharkey's Club.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The Sharkey Athletic Club, in which a British sailor knocked out an American sailor at the visit of Prince Louis, was raided by the police last night. Six men were arrested on the charge of aiding or abetting boxing exhibitions with a charge of admission. Tom Sharkey, the sailor pugilist, was not present.

New Zealand Football Team Coming.

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Jan. 20.—The American live steamers New York sailed from here today, having on board the New Zealand football team. It is reported that it will probably play an exhibition game at New York against an all-Canadian team and another at San Francisco against the Vancouver players.

Monmouth Has the Margin.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 20.—(Special).—In a hotly-contested basketball game tonight, Monmouth Normal defeated the Salem Y. M. C. A. by a score of 24 to 21.

Business Items.

If Babr Is Cutting Teeth.
Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. W. B. Babr's Baking Soda for the cure. It cures the child's teething pain, always all pain, cures wind colic and diarrhea.

SAILORS LOSE SOCKER GAME

PORTLAND TEAM PROVES TOO STRONG FOR THEM.

Landlubbers Win From British Tars by a Score of Eight to Zero.

A game of association, or as it is commonly called, socker football, was played between a team representing the British-ships in the harbor and one of local players at the East Side grounds yesterday. The jack tars were outclassed by their livelier opponents, the landlubbers, who easily defeated them by the score of 8 to 0.

Association is interesting at this time owing to the agitation now prevalent against the American college game, which is being repudiated by many of the large educational institutions in the country and while there is hardly any possibility of it supplanting the American game, it is, or rather should be an interesting game if played by teams thoroughly understanding the fine points of the game. Yesterday's contest could not be used as a criterion for the reason that fully half the players competing had hardly any knowledge of the scientific part of the game, and therefore were not capable of demonstrating the finesse expected from well-executed plays.

OREGON MAY NOT MAKE CALIFORNIA TRIP HEREAFTER.

PLAN TO MEET IDAHO AT HOME AND STANFORD ON MULTNOMAH FIELD IN PORTLAND.

(Special).—At a special meeting of the athletic council held this morning, Guy Mount was elected football manager for the season of 1906. Mount is a member of the Junior class and a resident of Silverton. He served as assistant football manager during the season just closed and is at present managing the varsity basketball team. His election was unanimous.

The athletic council adopted a resolution prohibiting managers of the various teams from arranging games, or contests, that require an absence of more than three days from recitation work. Heretofore the annual football trip to California has occupied about ten days but no such prohibition was established and maintained in the future. The athletic council is opposed to the prolonged trip to California and it is quite possible that the trip will not be taken, or even for a single game with Berkeley or Stanford.

There is a general feeling among the students that athletic relations should be established and maintained with the University of Idaho and it is quite likely that Oregon will meet Coach Griffith's eleven at Moscow next season. There is also a possibility of a game on Multnomah Field between Oregon and Stanford.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Jan. 20.

(Special).—At a special meeting of the athletic council held this morning, Guy Mount was elected football manager for the season of 1906. Mount is a member of the Junior class and a resident of Silverton. He served as assistant football manager during the season just closed and is at present managing the varsity basketball team. His election was unanimous.

The athletic council adopted a resolution prohibiting managers of the various teams from arranging games, or contests, that require an absence of more than three days from recitation work. Heretofore the annual football trip to California has occupied about ten days but no such prohibition was established and maintained in the future. The athletic council is opposed to the prolonged trip to California and it is quite possible that the trip will not be taken, or even for a single game with Berkeley or Stanford.

There is a general feeling among the students that athletic relations should be established and maintained with the University of Idaho and it is quite likely that Oregon will meet Coach Griffith's eleven at Moscow next season. There is also a possibility of a game on Multnomah Field between Oregon and Stanford.

BOXING MAY BE ALLOWED

NEW YORK SPORTS TAKE HOPE FROM STEINERT'S DECISION.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(Special).—Magistrate Henry Steinert, in the West Side Police Court today, in discharging the principals in a boxing bout in Tom Sharkey's athletic club, rendered a decision that leads to the belief that sparring may again become general here. Commenting upon the arrest of the prizefighters and members of the athletic club, the magistrate said:

"It seems to me that the law in this case has been strictly complied with. It was thought the death of Nathan Rosenberg, an 18-year-old boy, caused by a knockout blow in the McFadden Club track arena, was a sufficient warning to club bouts, but in view of magistrates Steinert's decision it is probable such contests will be more frequent hereafter."

Austin Is New Town.

CANYON CITY, Or., Jan. 20.—The Whitney Townsite Company has filed with the County Clerk of Grant County the plat of the new townsite of Austin. The site was originally donated to the Sumpter Valley Railway Company as a terminal for the line by Walter Flak. The railroad company has now sold to the Whitney Company, which will from now on promote the interests of the present terminal. While the postal authorities at Washington have ordered that the name of the postoffice be Flak Station, the townsite will continue, according to the plat on file here, to bear the name of Austin. This is not the only instance of the kind in the county, as the town of Quartzburg has come for its postoffice.

Harvard Graduates to Combine.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 20.—(Special).—President Elliott and the alumni directors are working out a plan for a vast federation of Harvard graduates clubs honeycombing the entire United States, and embracing every city and town where there are a few graduates. The central offices will be in Boston, and the branches will reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Oregon City Y. M. C. A. Will Woodburn.

WOODBURN, Or., Jan. 20.—(Special).—The Y. M. C. A. of Oregon City is in a hotly-contested game of basketball against Woodburn tonight. The score was 19 to 10.

HIS SUPER BE

It Went Uncalled For During Three Years.

BULLHEAD LUCK AND BOO

Bookie Tells the Story of Fifty Hundred Dollars Waiting to Be Called For as Result of Track Winning.

"I had a sleeper bet of three years standing turn up on me at the A track in Los Angeles last Winter, and hurt some to have to unshuck what I called for," remarked a man who usually at Benning's, who books on the S during the Winter meetings.

"I was putting up a slate around Chicago tracks three years ago, and picked up there a clientele of hard bettors who didn't know much about the horse business, but I probably because I weren't so dead wise, and I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so I kept right on taking kale, feeling confident that I'd kept and his hardware store if he kept playing the book with his own money, and I don't believe that I had more than half a dozen of his bets due that racing season in Chicago. I've an idea—it may be a fool one, at that, but the only way to beat a hoodlum bookie, and so