

order to interest as many persons as possible in the league. Mrs. C. S. Jackson has recently been appointed chairman of the finance committee, and, Mrs. George Russell chairman of the publicity com-mittee. The next parlor meeting will be beld in South Portland at the residence of Mrs. Elmer Colwell.

moved from the Good Samaritan Hospital early last week and was taken to her home, where she has been able to see some of her friends. Mrs. M. C. Banfield, of Portland

Heights, entertained a five hundred party of eight tables on Wednesday last. Pink and white carnations were used effectively and white carnations were used effectively for decorations throughout the house, mingled with asparagus fern. Prizes were captured by Mrs. C. H. Fox and Mrs. H. T. Clarke, the former winning cut-glass salt and pepper shakers and the latter a Bohemian glass bowl. Mrs. W. K. Scott and Miss Banfield sang solos and Miss Lottle Banfield gave a recitation which was much enjoyed. The list of guests follows: Mrs. J. Annand, Mrs. William Grenfell Mrs. Robert Latke Mrs. William Grenfell Mrs. Robert Latke Mrs. guests follows: Mrs. J. Annand, Mrs. William Grenfell, Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mrs. F. Drake, Mrs. C. H. Fox, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Habighorst, Mrs. H. T. Clarke, Mrs. Mark Colby, Mrs. Gus Pfunder, Mrs. Edgar Stevens, Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr. Mrs. J. Prideaux, Mrs. Charles Coopey, Mrs. J. Hamilton, Miss Trehn, Mrs. Henry Goddard, Mrs. W. K. Scott, Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. McCiellan, Mrs. Tarvell, Mrs. Robensele. Ciellan, Mrs. Tarcell, Mrs. Rabeneick, Mrs. Dahm, Mrs. Tol Thompson, Mrs. Sorenson, Mrs. Ben Davis, Mrs. H. D. Ramsdell, Mrs. W. C. Puffer, Mrs. O. Hepworth, Mrs. A. Lincoln, Mrs. Yerex, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. W. Reedy.

The Tuesday Evening Five Hundred Club will meet with Mrs. W. O. Fouch on Tuesday of the coming week instead of on the 16th, as was stated in last Sun-

Mrs. L. Allen Lewis gave a luncheon of Mrs. L. Alien Lewis gave a luncheon of 12 covers on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. W. S. Ladd. This was followed by card-playing. Mesdames Ladd, Glisan, Robert Hewitt, Henry Hewitt, McClintock. Henry Jones and Miss Couch formed tables for duplicate whist, and Mrs. Wes-ley Ladd, Mrs. Walter Burns, Mrs. W. B. Ayer and the hostess played bridge B. Ayer and the hostess played bridge whist. Pots of flowers were given as

Mr. and Mrs. J. Couch Flanders re-turned home late last Sunday, from their short trip in California.

The first annual banquet of the Portland Women's Club, which was held on Thursday evening at the rooms of the Commercial Club, with an attendance of nearly 189, was an event of much significance in the history of the club and one which is likely to prove a stimulation. prove a stimulating influence in the det elopment of women's clubs in this det elopment of women's clubs in this city. It was gentiemen's night, and the men present heard addresses from their hostesses, which must have gone far toward convincing any skeptical ones that the club women of Portland, while en-deavoring to develop along intellectual lines, are as carnest as possible to still keep their hearth fires brightly burning. Mrs. A. H. Breyman, president of the club, acted as toustmistress. In her in-Mrs. A. H. Breyman, president of the club, acted as toasimistress. In her introductory address she declared that the free distribution of books from the public library was due to the efforts of the Women's Club, and that the club had already placed one candidate on the School Board. Mrs. Robert Lutke responded to the toast, "Our Distinguished Guest"; Mrs. M. A. Ogden, to "The Twentieth Century Woman," and Mrs. Duniway to "The Twentieth Century Man," while Mrs. Morwin Pugh toasted "The Club Baby." Then Mrs. Breyman called on Judge Frazer, who made some very interesting remarks about "Other Veople's Children," which were warmly applauded. Dr. Esther Pohl, of the City | banquet given by the Women's Club is as Board of Health, stated that Portland follows: stands second in the smallness of its | Mrs. Rose Hoyt, Mrs. H. H. Northup, death-rate percentage, and said she be-lieved that if statistics were properly compiled, it would stand first. Mrs. Sarah A. Evans toasted "The Press," and told of the first banquet ever given by an organization of women in this country. Councilman Shepard made a very humor-ouwspeech, in which he complimented the women of Portland as the most beautiful in the world. Miss Gail Laughlin made an extemporaneous address, urging her belief that women should be given a larg-er share in political affairs Mayor Lane was expected to be present at the banquet but was detained. He came in for a few nents just as the party was breaking

MUS. C. H. LEAD BETTER

Many handsome gowns were seen at the Women's Club banquet on Thursday evening. Mrs. Breyman wore pearl gray volle with cream lace applique yoke and delicate touches of pink chiffon. Mrs. Lutke was in cream veiling trimmed with lace and embroidery in pastel shades; Mrs. Ogden wore cream white with lace trimming in the same shade. Mrs. Dela-hunt was in pastel colored silk with trim-mings of green velvet on cream lace. She wore an exceedingly handsome lace wrap. Her sister, Miss Hayes, was in pink flow-ered dimity, and Mrs. P. J. Mann was in cream white valle with rich lace trim-Her sister, Miss Hayes, was in pink flowered dinaity, and Mrs. P. J. Mann was in cream white volle with rich lace trimmings and applique. Mrs. F. M. Branch wore a New York gown of champagne peau de sole with lace trimmings to match. Mrs. Edgar-Lewell, who came with her, was in pink liberty satin; Mrs. Ira Builedge in white. Mrs. Livesley in silk with rose-colored bertha elaborately embroidered. Mrs. Charles Runyon wore a handsome robe of ecru lace with diamond pendant. Mrs. Rose Hoyt was in pearl gray striped brocade with white yoke and applique trimmings. Mrs. Horace Fisher wore a very handsome gown. Mrs. Byron E. Miller was in blue silk with rich applique trimmings. Mrs. Edwards was in cream white with lace garniture; Mrs. Glines in green silk, Mrs. Pugh in Alice blue India silk with velvet trimmings in a darker shade. Miss Lauchlin wore black velvet with duchesse lace at the throat, and on the sleeves. Miss Clay was in black with heavy lace garniture. Miss Greeg was in pearl white liberty satin. Dr. Esther Pohl wore a dainty gown of cream white veiling with trimmings of silk lace. Miss Helen Spalding's gown was black spangied net over deep red silk. Dr. Lucma Johnson was in cream white with a necklace of blue.

Mrs. Rose Hoyt, Mrs. H. H. Northup, Mrs. S. S. Dunning, V. L. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Boss, Miss Rosine Crisler, Mrs. A. S. Duniway, Mrs. Otto Kleemann, Miss Clara Kleemann, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman, Mrs. Sarah Evans. Mrs. C. C. Chapman, Mrs. Sarah Svans, Mrs. Ida Porter Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mann, Miss Laura Gregg, Mrs. Elia Steel, Ray Steel, Dr. Mary Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abendroth, Dr. Luema Johnson, Miss Laura Clay, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. Warren White, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Glines, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. B. Malarkey, Mrs. H. Mundt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John McRoberts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. and Mrs. Horace Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John McRoberts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stalger, Mrs. F. M. Branch, Mr. and Ms. Ira Rutledge, Mrs. Edgar Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin, Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Edwards, Mrs. C. N. Rankin, Mrs. F. W. Brooke, Major and Mrs. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Delahunt, Miss Hay, Mrs. F. Livesley, Dr. Emil Pohl, Dr. Esther Pohl, Mrs. Clayson, Dr. and Mrs. Byron E. Miller, Judge A. L. Frazer, Mrs. W. W. Spaulding, Miss Helen Spalding, Mrs. Etta Adams, George G. Shepard, Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Mrs. Hurlburt. Mrs. Hurlburt.

The Patton Home benefit, which is to be given on the evening of February 1, bids fair to be the largest card party ever hids fair to be the largest card party ever given in Portland. Arrangements are being made for 125 tables, and there will be provisions for bridge, five hundred and whist. The ladies who constitute the committee on arrangements are Mrs. Theodore Nicolal, Mrs. John Burgard, Mrs. A. H. Willett, Mrs. A. L. Rumsey, Mrs. D. M. McLauchian, Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. D. H. Rand, Mrs. A. Shannon and Mrs. August Lang. Among those who are to receive are the following-named ladies: Miss Falling, Mrs. W. B. Ayes, Mrs. A. H. Willett, Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. Anthony Neppach, Mrs. D. H. Rand and Mrs. Theodore Nicolai. The full list of the receiving party will be given later. Invitations will be out early this week Music and refreshments will be furnished.

Mrs. Wesley Ladd gave an "early bridge" on Friday, followed by a 1 o'clock luncheon. There were five tables for card playing, and prizes were won by Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mrs. Florence Minott, Mrs. Samuel Mears and Mrs. E. H. Brooke. The trophics were daintily embroidered French band-lilies of the valley and other flowers. This was one of the prettiest affairs of the The Misses Wilson have issued invitaday, January M.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Miss M. Hahn, Mr. M. R. Smith and Mr. Frank Ransome are a party of people who have been spending, in a very pleasant manner, a few days at Sea-side. The weather was good, and Mr. Ransome enjoyed exceedingly the surf bathing, of which he is always fond.

Report has reached Portland of the brilliant colonial ball given in Seattle by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution. Powdered hair and patches Revolution. Powdered hair and patches were in order, and many beautiful old wedding gowns of satin, creamy with age, or of striped and flowered silks of yeolden tyme, were seen. Old laces, miniatures and pieces of antique jewelry were worn by the belies of Seattle. A notable gown was a flowered silk worn by Mrs. Reid, that belonged to ex-President Cleveland's grandmother. This reminds us land's grandmother. This reminds us that Portland has not had a fine costume ball this season.

Mrs. Roger Sinnett gave a bridge party yesterday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Cari Harbaugh, who is visiting her father, Judge Williams. The prizes were beautiful clusters of Illies of the valley. The guests, besides Mrs. Harbaugh, were: Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. William Skene, Mrs. W. L. Brewster, Mrs. Herbert Nichols. Miss. Glisan, Mrs. Frederick Sykes. Mrs. H. P. McNarey, Miss. Alice Sansbury, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. Robert Catlan, Mrs. J. F. Batchelder and Mrs. W. A. Mac Rue.

Among the very pretty girls at the Irvington Tennis Club dance on Friday evening were Miss Daisy Bradford and Mrs. Lucie Blair, Miss Fording and Miss

For Rugs, Fur Robes,

Fur Muffs, Fur Gloves,

W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Building. FOURTH AND WASHINGTON.

G.P. Rummelin & Sons

-MANUFACTURERS OF-

FINE FUR GARMENTS

FUR COATS

In Alaska Sealskin, Persian Lamb, Otter, Beaver, Near Seal, Astrachan, etc.

Fur Stoles and Neckwear In Sable, Mink, Chinchilla, Black Marten, Ermine, Squirrel, etc.

Leading and Reliable Furriers

crepe de chine. The Misses Lamberson and the two beautiful daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hill, daintily Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hill, daintily gowned, as they always are, were much admired, Many persons were disappointed that Mrs. Charles Chamberlain was unable to be present. It was expected that all of the patronesses would receive, but a number were unable to be present. Mrs. Raley, Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Cook are out of town. Mrs. Sabin, Mrs. Northrup and Mrs. Doernbecher were also absent. The affair, however, was an altogether enjoyable one, and subscribers are already talking with keen anticipation about the next in the series.

Guests at the new Hill Hotel will here-after have Thursday of each week as their receiving day.

Miss Alice Page, who has been the guest of Miss Carlotta Parker for several weeks, has returned to her home at Hyde Much regret is expressed that Miss Eleanor Haber, the clever young imper-sonator, who was with the Belasco com-pany, did not give a recital before going away, as she for a while talked of doing. Miss Haber left for her home in San Francisco on Saturday morning.

Mrs. C. E. Smith and her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Schnabel, received their friends last Thursday afternoon from 2:20 until 5 o'clock at one of the most enjoyable "at o'clock at one of the most enjoyable "at homes" of the season. About 150 guests called. All of the handsome Smith residence was thrown open, including the library and the conservatory. The partor decorations were of bridesmaid roses and pink carnations, with smitax. In the dining-room were narcissus blossoms and wild blackberry vines, while in the hall hamboo and Oregon grape made effective screening. Wilder's orchestra furnished music. Ladles who poured tea were Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Rose Hoyt and Mrs. P. J. Mann. Others who A. E. Rockey, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Rose Hoyt and Mrs. P. J. Mann. Others who assisted the hostesses were: Mrs. Walter Holt. Mrs. A. M. Ellsworth, Mrs. R. J. Marsh, Mrs. Ellot Habersham, Mrs. S. M. Luders, Mrs. W. H. Chapin and Miss von Bolton. A pretty feature of the after-noon was the bevy of young girls, in their early 'teens, who assisted in the dining-room.

Among those present on Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the Conatternoon at the meeting of the Con-sumers' League, at the residence of Mrs. W. B. Ayer, were the following-named ladies: Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. H. W. Mason, Miss Trevitt, Mrs. Linthicum, the Misses Wilson, Mrs. Einer Colwell, Mrs. S. M. Mears, Mrs. Cobert Workburn, Miss Marth, Hoyt. Robert Washburn, Miss Martha Hoyt, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. George Good,
Mrs. Harris, Miss Hobbs, Mrs. Stephen
S. Wise, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs.
George Russell, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood,
Mrs. John Cran, Miss Myrick, Mrs. W.
M. Ladd, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. Clarence Sewall, Mrs. Russell Sewall, Miss
Failing, Mrs. William Brewster, Mrs.
T. B. Trevitt, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Glisan,
Miss Glisan and Mrs. I. M. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Chambers, of the Hobart-Curtis, has returned from

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond C. Giltner, who were married on Friday last, will be at home after February 4 at 656 Everett

A beautiful luncheon of eighteen A beautiful luncheon of eighteen covers was given by Mrs. Deady on Wednesday at the Hobart-Curtis, in honor of Mrs. Charles Wolverton. The guests of Mrs. Deady, beside the guest of honor, were Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph. Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mrs. W. Gilbert Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mrs. W. Gilbert Mrs. Bichard Kochler Mrs. B. Gilbert, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. L. L. McArthur, Mrs. E. M. Brooke, Mrs. Joseph N. Dolph, Mrs. S. B. Lin-thieum, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. W. D. Fenton, Mrs. James Laidiaw, Mrs. C. E. 8. Wood, Mrs. Edward Falling, Mrs. John Catlin, Miss Henrietta E. Falling and Mrs. Park, of Vancouver. Taree oval sets placed lengthwise at the cen-ter of the table and made of cream fourth white and green. Luncheon souve-nirs were Dutch vases corresponding in color to the tables. These were filled with lilles of the valley and other described with reception in her honor, given by Mrs. Edmund Bowden, who was Seattle's charming hostess at the Exposition last Summer, was planned for last even-ing. Mrs. Mears attended the annual colonial bail recently given by the colonial societies of Seattle.

> The Friday Whist Club met last week with Mrz. Leon Hirsch, at the Portland Hotel. Prizes were won by Mrs. Max Fleischner, Mrs. I. N. Lip-

BEST ENGRAVED WEDDING and Calling Cards

Maco and fancy hose; values up to 75c; SUITS REDUCED Reasons are plentiful why you should take advantage of the grand reductions offered in

Librerfields

TYCSTYLEGECONOR

Fourth and Morrison Streets

Our Great Clearance Sale

Of ladies' and misses' wearing apparel and furnishings; the year's greatest opportunity for economy has completed its third week and only a few days remain, but each day will offer unlimited opportunities for selecting the newest styles

EXTRA SPECIAL

FOR MONDAY ONLY Ladies' and Misses' Hose

At the very time you most need fine, warm hosiery we are prepared to offer you in this special sale, ladies' and misses' cashmere, tan and black cotton; also the real

LEADING FURRIERS

LADIES' OUTFITTERS

at wonderfully low prices.

our suit department during the clearance sale. Ours is a most comprehensive line, embracing every new idea and fabric that has lately met with favor, and in price reductions are of that unsparing character which must effect a speedy clearance. We mention a special lot of 50 SUITS finely tailored and beautifully trimmed in all the new effects, materials and colors; regular $25.00 suits....$14.35

Fur Jackets Reduced FOR MONDAY ONLY

Regular $65 Fur $47.75

The finest quality of the genuine Nearseal Jackets with revere collar and cuffs of serviceable brook mink, cut in the very best styles with Silverfield's superior workmanship. Cannot be duplicated under $65.00; Monday only$47.75

EVERY FUR GARMENT AT CLEARANCE SALE PRICES

man, Mrs. A. Meier and Mrs. L. N. corner was decorated a la Miss Muffet, man, Mrs. A. Meier and Mrs. I. N. corner was decorated a la Miss Munot, another had "Pussie in the Well," a third had a huge pumpkin, which gave reminder of "Peter, the Pumpkin-Goose" party on Wednesday evening, which, though a small affair, was decorated a la Miss Munot, another had "Pussie in the Well," a third had a huge pumpkin, which gave reminder of "Peter, the Pumpkin-Goose" the house was filled impersonated the "girl who had a litwith "Mother Goose" reminders. One the curi that hung right over her fore-

ARE YOU BECOMING LIGHT-WISE?

............

The question of artificial light in your home is worthy of serious consideration.

To you realize, fully, what electric service means in the household-all that it bestows in the direction of health, comfort, convenience, conservation of eyesight, and the added "TONE" to your

 Do you care to have your home as convenient and comfortable for you and yours as you can Telectric service is available to the smallest as well as the largest user. So cheap is the service at our REDUCED RATES that it can be afforded in the smallest homes. In fact, it is in the smaller home that the utility and economies of electricity are most readily appreciated-that such blessings to the housewife as Electric Flat-irons, Electric gooking utensils, Electric hair curlers, the Electric heating pad (taking the place of the obsolete hot-water bag), an Electrically operated sewing machine, or any other of a hundred other devices, become recognized as indispensable adjuncts, and TIME, HEALTH and MONEY savers in the household.

Electricity for Everyday Needs

In view of the increasing demand for installation of our service AT THE REDUCED RATES. patrons are requested to make application AT ONCE.

W Fill out COUPON and mail to us TODAY. Our representative will call promptly.

RETURN COUPON -

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, Seventh and Alder Streets.

Please have your representative call and see me with reference to electric lighting.

Name Address

Convenient time to call.....

Portland General Electric Co.

Telephone Exchange 13