RICHARD SCOTT IS CHALLENGED .- Rich and Scott, of Milwaukie, who is a candi-date for the Republican nomination for County Judge of Clackamas County, yesterday received a letter from Grant Dim-uick, his opponent for that nomination, challenging him to discuss local affairs from the stump in that county. Farmer Scott said that he was not afraid to meet Mr. Dimmick on the stump as far as his record as County Commissioner was con-cerned, but he considered that three months in advance of the election was altogether too long a time. He was amused over the challenge he had re-ceived from Mr. Dimmick, and intimated that "fur" would fly when he cut loose on his antagonist, as he has stored up any quantity of oratorical thunder and lightning, and that when he got through with Mr. Dimmick he would look like a sheep that had been shorn.

BRANCH Y. M. C. A. AT SELLWOOD .- A ranch of the Portland Y. M. C. A. has cen organized at Sellwood, and steps are being taken to secure a room for its per-manent quarters. Eventually, the Sellwood branch may own ground and per-manent quarters. This branch Y. M. C. A. is the outgrowth of the mass meeting recently held in the Sellwood Presbyterian Church, and addressed by representatives from the Portiand Y. M. C. A. Dr. A. Webster is chairman of the executive committee, which has the details of the organization in hand. It has seven mem-bers. Dr. Webster also is at the head of the physical work. The boys have or-ganized themselves with Fred Bauer as president and William Rickson, secretary. The work to be undertaken will be religious, physical, educational and social. Thirty boys have already joined.

ARRANGES FOR INSTITUTES .- J. H. Reid, fruit inspector, has made arrangements for holding an all-day institute in Fair-view February 5, at which time there will be an evening session. At this in-stitute the speakers from the Oregon Ag-ricultural College will take part. Addresses will be delivered on practical farm topics. The following day Mr. Reid and the party of professors from the college will hold an institute along the same lines at the hall of Columbia Grange, which is cast of the Sandy River. Large attendances are expected, as these two appointments are the first ones made h se sections. Other appointments wf probably be made in other sections of county in February.

WILL SAIL FOR THE HAWAHAN ISLANDS -E F. Cannon, president of the E. F. Cannon Co., has sufficiently recovered from his late illness so that he will be able to depart for the Hawalian Islauds. Mr. Cannon will sail from San Francisco February 6, on the steamer Mongolia, for Honolulu, to be absent three and for Honolulu. three or four months. The after effects of the severe attack of pyenia blood polson, which Mr. Cannon passed through in 1900, left his constitution in a shattered condition, from which he has never fully recovered. Mr. Cannon has decided to epend the Winter months in search of health.

WHERE IS JONAS BUROPFER ?- JONAS Bukopfer, who is supposed to have come to Portland about two years ago, has not been heard of since. His sunt, Mrs. J. Brand, of Rexburg, Idaho, is anxious to ascertain his whereabouts and to communicate same to his parents, who live abroad. COTTAGE IS BURNED .- The cottage of W. H. Scott, of Laurelwood, on the Mount Scott Railway, was destroyed by fire Thurslay night. The fire spread so rapidly that Mr. Scott and family barely escaped. It was a total loss. The falling rain prevented other dwellings from HOLLAND EXHIBIT of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. We must move from our store, 275 Stark street, corner West Park, January 26. Every article in the entire, stock must be sold below cost price, beginning Tuesday, Jan. 21.

JEWELRY REPAIRED DIAMONDS RESET OLD GOLD BOUGHT

Do you know that we have a repair shop where we keep three men onstantly at work manufacturing and repairing jewelry of every kind? In nearly every household there are always a number of gold or silver articles that have become useless, for the reason that a pin, catch or some other little part is missing. -10 to 15 cents will often put a brooch in as good shape as when new. Are you wearing a ring that is either too large or small? If so, we can make it fit you, with only slight expense

HOW ABOUT YOUR DIAMONDS? Are the settings secure? It won't cost you a cent to find out, if you bring them to us. We have an expert diamond setter who knows just how to do this kind of work, in case you should need new mountings or your old ones repaired

Broken lenses replaced and spectacles soldered when broken. Optical prescriptions accurately filled. Moderate prices and first-class work only FOUND DYNAMITE CAPS .- Boys attending the Albina Central School Thursday found some dynamite caps near the build-ing, and, not knowing their dangerous character handled them somewhat rough-ly, and several were broken, but none exploded. The boys carried some of the caps into the classrooms, where the prin-cipal found one in the hands of a boy, which he took away. He them told them that even dynamite caps were dangerous. However, the principal, not knowing that other boys had caps, did not pursue his investigations further, and the other lads carried off the deadly explosives in their pockets. When the bank was removed for the new portion of the Albina Central Schoolhouse explosives were used, and it is supposed that these caps were left by workmen.

At the matince yesterday afternoon in the Marquam, Louis James gave a remarkable performance of "Ingomar" before an audience of stanch admirers of his art.

Once again we followed this startling picture of elemental passions and noted the facile strength and finish that characterized this actor's compelling analysis of ingomar's battle within himself. The barbarian supreme, compounded of all brute instincts-ferocity, love of fighting. lust of physical power-the great domi-nant figure of a crowd of savage soldiers, and how the divine spark of love first kindles something in him that swiftly comes to rule his whole magnificent self, were depicted with rare skill and force. The intellectual development of the character is finely drawn by the actor, He was adequately supported by Miss appearance here.

ice" was the bill. Mr. James playing Shy-lock. His interpretation of the part dif-fers in many respects from the traditional rendering established by the more famous Shylocks who have been long known to the public. It follows Henry Irving's in-terpretation, the fundamental disc binterpretation-the fundamental idea being the consuming hatred of Jew for Gentile. You can feel sorry for the Shylock James

Revenge is seen towering over all other considerations, and the lesson to what this all-absorbing passion leads is sent

But the pity of it all, the inevitable pathos of the predicament in which the poor old man finds himself-bereft of child and money and baffled in his revengeand money and haffled in his revenge-is allowed to penetrate and make itself felt around your heart. The Shylock of James is openly, manifestly, glaringly, pltifully human, and the rising tears for the doomed and defeated member of the human race well up within us, while in-deed we feel also the sound justice that orders things as they turn out in this wonderful play.
