

self to the new order of things, perhaps we may fall into a grand opera "modus vivendl" more in accord with grand opera customs the world over. We may not, to be sure, see the gorgeous display of jewels which New York sees at the opera; mile blocked with carriages; we are not likely to have suppers afterwards costing a hundred dollars the plate, with decorations of orchids for which a small fortune is spent; our womankind, even, may not find it necessary to wear a new gown and a new wrap for each performance of the week or two weeks; and we can scarcely expect to have an all-star est of singers who will not sing for less than a thousand dollars a night eachbut it is just possible that we may have a few more swallowtalls and tuxedos and dark skirt and white lace waist worn a few women in full evening dress. It with white hat violet trimmed; Mrs. will take courage for our matrons and Grace Watt Ross, in black grenadine with will take courage for our matrons and our maids to make this innovation, but broad satin stripe made over purple and it is sure to come. Portland is young yet worn with black and purple hat: Mrs. is sure to come. Portland is young yet in opera-going ways, and, like a girl in her first party gown-self-conscious and shy. It will take less fortitude, perhaps, J. M. Berry, in Portland ladies to assume full-dress regalia than it did for Judge Hogue and F. M. Gilmore—the latter new in San Francisco—to don the first evening coats ever worn in Portland. This was about S years ago. When they came out on the sidewalk after the theater, the crowd were a part of the show.

Portland society women are slow to appear in public in full evening dress, only because their good taste and fine modesty make them dislike to become conspicuous in any way or the object of remarks or

Among social affairs of note during the past week, the reception and luncheon given on Wednesday by the New England Conservatory Club of Portland to Miss Gertrude Rennyson, leading soptano of the Savage Grand Opera Company, cas-lly takes precedence. Miss Rennyson is a graduate of the New England Conservatory in the class of '86 and because of this she was made honorary member of the Portland club. The pleasantest fea-ture of the reception on Wednesday was discovery by the guest of honor and her hostemes of many mutual friends the delightful reminiscences this so forth. The 14 ladies who comprised the luncheon party gathered at the Portland Hotel. Mrs. Max M. Shellock, president of the club, made a short address of welcome, which was respond-ed to by Miss Rennyson and then adour form of the most artistic tables seen this teason was spread. The service was china decorated with violets. A large crystal jar of violets and maidenhair. fern formed the center decoration. From this ropes of violets strung on gold threads were stretched to smaller vases threads were stretched to smaller vases of the fragrant flowers. Violets also were scattered over the cloth. Miss Rennyson declared that she had never sat down to a prettier table. The place cards bore tiny parrots brilliantly colored in the iridescent blues. These were received direct from Paris on the preceding day. Miss Rennyson quite won the hearts of the Portland ladies by her sweet and unaffected manner. She was gowned in black lace net made with transparent yoke and wore a long string of pearis and a comb set with green jade. Her brooch, a "Lohengrin swan," made in diamonds was much admired. Mrs. Shillock wore a brocaded gown of white and gold with trimmings of white lace. Her gold with trimmings of white lace. Her hat was black velvet with crown of mink and white plumes. Mrs. John H. Hall, vice-president of were a gown of cream-colored crepe de Paris, with hat in the same shade. Mrs. Fletcher Linn, the secretary, was in green crepe with lace trimmings and black hat. Mrs. E. C. Goddard was dressed in black with white lace yoke and gray hat. Miss Agnes Walt were pink liberty silk with pink hat in the same shade. Mrs. P. T. Davis was in black silk with black velvet hat; Mrs. In bright blue foulard with white yoke and blue hat trimmed with blue roses; Mrs. D. B. Mackie, in cream slik with white beaver hat and white and the New England Conservatory Club, wore a gown of cream-colored crepe de

Edgar B. Piper, in gray cloth suit, the jacket worn over a white waist, with white hat done with white plumes; Mrs. J. M. Berry, in white with hat having pink stik crown and trimmings of mink; Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, in gray, with lace yoke and touches of pink, and a black hat trimmed with pink roses.

William Castleman had the pleasure of doing considerable entertaining for mem-bers of the Savage Opera Company. On Monday evening, Mossra Sheehan, Goff and Schenck were his guests. A. H. Ellers, of Portland, was also of the party. On Tuesday evening he enter-tained Messrs. Sheehan, Goff and Emanuel, Mr. Schenck being in W. D. Wheel-wright's party. On Wednesday evening, Mr. Castleman and Mr. Sheehan had supper together after the opera was over. Mr. Castleman is a long-time friend of these artists and has song with Mr. Goff

The benefit card party to be given on Tuesday evening next by the ladies of Concordia Club members promises to be an event of much interest. Invitations will be sent only to members and their wives, but a large attendance is expect-ed. Five hundred will be the game played and dancing will follow. Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, wife of the president of the club, is chairman of the committee hav-ing the arrangements in charge. Her assistants are as follows: Mrs. A. Moler, assistants are as follows: Mrs. A. Meser,
Mrs. Sam White, Mrs. Soi Rosenfeld,
Mrs. B. Neustadter, Mrs. Oto Binswanger,
Mrs. Fred Rothschild, Mrs. Mark Levy,
Mrs. M. Baruh, Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mrs.
J. Rosenthal, Mrs. J. D. Meyer, Mrs. R.
Goldsmith, Mrs. Soi Baum, Mrs. Henry
Haussman, Mrs. Bissinger, Mrs. L. Rosenblatt, Mrs. Mose Sichel.

Mrs. Arthur H. Breyman and the Misses

Mrs. Arthur H. Breyman and the Mismes Breyman have cards out for a five hun-dred party to be given at their home on Wednesday evening next at half after $

Mrs. John Kollock gave an informal juncheon on Thursday, followed by bridge playing. Her guests were Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Harry Nunn, Mrs. Estelle Houghton, Miss Susie Stott, Mrs. Walter Burrell and Mrs. Morton Insley.

Mrs. William Worthington Harder and Mrs. Frank E. Watkins have sent out in-vitations for a heart party to be given vitations for a heart party to be given next Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Harder's residence, 453 Hall street. These invitations are most unique and in heart shape. It is understood that decorations for the party will be all in heart effects and that the color scheme will be pink. There will be a frieze of hearts around the rooms and crowns of different-sized hearts for the chandellets. Refreshments hearts for the chandellers. Refreshments will be heart-shaped and cakes, ices and confections will be pink. About to invi-black plumes; Miss Louise Forsyth, in his last year's entertainments. Two evendark skirt and white lace waist worn ings and an afternoon will be devoted to with white hat violet trimmed; Mrs. these readings, the dates being February Grace Watt Boss, in black grenndine with broad satin stripe made over purple and White Femple. The ladies of the committhe having charge of the arrangments are Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Charles Ladd, Mrs. Finteher Linn and Mrs. Charles E. Curry. Among the younger women who will work actively for the success of Mr. Darrach's recitals are Miss New Wood Miss Systematics. recitals are Miss Nan Wood, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Carolyn Burns, the Misses Sitton, Miss Emma Failing and Miss Lucy > over the songbirds who have stayed for a few days in the city, en voyage, it is pleasant to hear news of the brilliant success out own Norelli is meeting across the water. She recently sang at the great Cumberland festival in England, and the audience rose to its feet en masse and cheered her again and again. The conductor declared subsequently that not in is years had he seen such a welcome accorded to any singer at these annual mu-sical festivals.

The weekly informal social at the Irvington Tennis Club last Friday evening was unanimously voted the most successful and enjoyable of these parties so far given. Mrs. C. H. Leadbetter was the hostess in charge, and to her able management and her tact is due much of the success of the evening. Many people from the West Side of the city were present, and all were gind to greet Governor and Mrs. Chamberlain, who were present, with Dr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Chair. Young Mrs. Chamberlain has quite recovered her bealth. Mr. Chaire Monteith gave a short song recital before the dancing began, assisted at the plane by Miss Reynolds. He was warmiy applauded. Refreshments were served by the young girls of the club, and much praise for Mrs. Leadbetter was heard because of the daintiness characterizing everything. Mrs. Leadbetter wore a most becoming gown of pongee silk, with yoke of lace The weekly informal social at the Irvmost becoming gown of pongee silk, with

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook were expected home yesterday from Southern California. Mrs. Cook went down several months ago for her health, and her husband went recently to come home with her.

Mr. Walter Goss, who has been absent from town for several weeks, has re-

Eight young people, chaperoned by Mrs. Ernest Laidiaw, walked out to Hilladale to the residence of Colonel and Mrs. Henry Dosch on Thursday evening to watch the eclipse of the moon. Late in the evening a few impromptu dances were arranged by the Misses Dosch.

Mrs. Anna Seikirk Norton's recital, which was set for next Tuesday evening, has been postponed on account of the Concordia Club party, since a number of the ladies who are to assist at that function wished to be present at the recital. It is now set for Tuesday evening, February 20, and will be given in Trinity Parish House.

Mrs. J. E. Cronan has issued invitations for a musicale to be given next Thursday evening. Mrs. Walter Reed will give the readings add, Mrs. Bits Morris was among the week's hostesses at card parties. She gave a five bundred party of five tables on Friday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Charles etition of Bernard Williams, a young bride from San her heart's every wish be gratified. It is announced that a detailed statement about her bridal robes and the gifts she receive will be given out officially from the White House, but the social chronicler has been able to glean some little information in able to glean some little information in advance. From this, it appears that a feature of the future Mrs. Longworth's trousseau will be the gowns made from heautiful foreign silks and stuffs given to her or purchased on her recent tour in the Orient. Several handsome pieces of Japanese and Chinese silk, of exclusive patterns, are being made up into pretty mattree and lounging gowns. Two other matinee and lounging gowns. Two other handsome gowns will be made from the delicate just cloth presented to the President's daughter by the native women of the Philippines. This cloth is as sheer as a cobweb in texture. The background

MRS JOHN H. HALL

VICE PRESIDENT

N.E. CONSERVATOR

as a cobwed in texture. The background is white. One pattern has invisible stripes of old gold, the other design is of pale pink roses, with the faintest sugestion of green leaves. Both of these will be built over white silk foundations Just now, when Portland is enthusing quite like our taffeta or peau de sole, but which partakes of the qualities of all; there are pieces of obi, costing from $40 to the piece, and these average four varies to the piece, and a lot of other Oriental stuffs in embroideries from Indian mulis, stuffs in embroideries from Indian mulls, silks and the like. The obla were among the presents of the Empress of Japan.

Among the afternoon gown materials in the trousseau are crepes embroidered in hawthorn, wistaria, morning glory and chrysanthemum designs, and satins repeating the first three patterns in Japanese workmanship, with silk showing Chinnese embroideries—the gift of Tsi An, Empress of China—exhibiting the mingled cotorings of roses, chrysanthemums, iris and lilles, blended to form a harmony of color. It is believed that the wedding veil will be the one worn by Miss Roosevelt's mother when she married young Theedore Roosevelt. This is an helricom in the Lee family. Roosevelt. Lee family.

Mrs. Morton Insley entertained informally last evening with a small bridge

The second of the three subscription dances being given at the Irvington Clubbonse will take place next Friday evening. February 16. The ladies who will receive on that occasion are: Mrs. F. S. Doernbecker, Mrs. John M. Fox. Mrs. Frank J. Raley Mrs. R. L. Sabin, Mrs. W. J. Becker, Mrs. John M. Fox. Mrs. Frank J. Raley, Mrs. R. L. Sabin, Mrs. W. I. Northup, Mrs. W. K. Scott. Arrangements have been made with the Street Railway Company to run a car from Irvington at 1 o'clock to Third and Yamhill streets, and with the Auto-Director. streets, and with the Auto-Dispatch Com-pany for one of their large 23-passenger pany for one of their large M-passenger coaches to leave the clubhouse at 2 o'clock, making delivery of passengers on the East Side as far as Twelfth and Morrison, and on the West Side as far as Twenty-third and Northrup streets. The first of these dances was so thoroughly enjoyable that there is little chance of

Mrs. Nellie Hanthorn, of Weiser, Idaho, s visiting Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, of El

West Park street. She will remain for two or three weeks.

take place during the coming week will be, of course, the wedding of Miss Roose-veit and Mr. Nicholas Longworth on Sat-urday, February II. All manner of good wishes from Portland attend the daughter of the Chief Executive on her wedding day. May the sun shine fair on her and and trimmed with lace. The one with a touch of green will be finished with a broad green silk girdle, shirred and held in place by two gold buckles. There are pongess, plain and embroidered; crepes of the finest Eastern silk and make, hand embroidered, with shawls and pieces for slippers to match; rolls of that peculial Oriental silk that is not pongee nor ye social event of first importance to friend, Mrs. G. Burk, who is leaving soon to take up her residence in Dawson City, Alaska. Mrs. Burk was Miss Annie Munk, of Portland. She and her husband have recently returned from their wedding journey in the South. Mrs. Hoben and Mrs. Burk received the guests, the former sowned in black silk, the latter in lavender crepe de chine, trimmed with lace. A short musical programme was rendered. Mrs. Millie Perkins sang several selections and gave dramatic recitations. Miss Mamie O'Neil played solos on the mandolin and on the plano. Mrs. Hoben was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Elizabeth and Josephine Hoben, the former in pink, the latter in green, by Miss Mamie Hageman, gowned in blue, and by Miss Mamie O'Neil, in pale blue. The decorations were red carnations, mingled with greens. During the afternoon Mrs. June McMillen Ordway presented Baby Hoben, aged 7 years, with a lullaby she had composed and set to she had composed and set to The little maid of 7, who already music. The little maid of 7, who airendy has a sweet voice, will learn to sing this fullaby of her very own. Mrs. Hoben's guests, other than her guest of honor, were: Mrs. H. Porter. Mrs. June McMillen Ordway, Mrs. F. Hageman, Mrs. Eleanor O'Neil, Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. Summers Brown, Mrs. J. H. Munk, Mrs. Sinnott, Mrs. P. J. Gorman, Mrs. Francis Clarno.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Flanders entertained the Eight, Ten-Thirty Club on Thursday evening at their residence, The Cliffs, on Portland Heights. The game of "500" was played. Mrs. R. Lutke won the ladies' prize, a cut-glass dish, and Dr. C. B. Brown, the gentlemen's prize, a stein. After refreshments were served, Mr. Hoey gratified the company by singing "The Holy City" and other selections most

Mrs. C. A. Johns, wife of Mayor Johns, of Baker City, came down to attend the grand opera. She is visiting her sister-in law, Mrs. L. O. Raiston.

The Monday Bridge Club meets tomorrow with Mrs. John Shepard. The Tuesday Bridge Club, which was postponed last week because of the opera, meets this week with Mrs. L. Allen Lewis.

Dr. and Mrs. George Whiteside gave little dinner on Thursday evening for Henry Fairbanks, of New York. Guests invited to meet him were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett. Wednesday noon there were many guests at the Portland grille, there being the dual cause of the Wood-Calef wedding and the operahouse matinee to bring them. Among those who went there from them. Among those who went there from the wedding were W. D. Wheelwright, who made a luncheon party with Mrs. Robert Lewis; Miss Hoyt and Miss Nan Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr. Mrs. Smith, with her handsome daughters, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Mrs. Fred Page, Miss Smith and Miss Laura Smith; Mrs. Fletcher Linn, with a party of friends, was pres-ent as was also Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, with ent, as was also Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, with a small party.

At Mrs. Samuel Kerr's bridge party on Thursday afternoon Miss Nan Wood was the prize-winner, bearing away a beautiful basket of violets. Mrs. Kerr's guests were: Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. John Kol-lock, Mrs. Raleigh Stott, Miss Nan Wood, Mrs. Wills, Miss Agnes McKell, Mrs. Mrs. Wills, Henry McCraken.

Messrs. Chester Murphy and Dave Honeyman have sent out about 200 invitations for a skating party to be held at the rink on Tuesday next after 10 o'clock in the evening.

The sudden illness of Mr. S. M. Mears brought in its train a large number of inquiries and messages of condolence from interested friends. Mr. Mears is convalescing to the satisfaction of his family and his physicians.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson has issued invi-Arh C. S. Jackson has issued invi-tations for a small dance to be given on Monday, the 19th inst, at the club-house of the golf links. It will be in bonor of the girls who took part in the "Old Maids" Convention," recently given in Trinity parish house. 50 guests are invited, each girl being privileged to invite a partner. Invita-tions to the men read: "To meet the old Maids." Mrs. F. W. Vincent, of Pendleton, Or., who is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. Jackson, will assist in receiving on the night of the

The Misses Failing entertained their loge on Monday evening Mr. and W. J. Burns and Mr. and Mrs Richard Koehler. On Tuesday evening their guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer and Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, For the Wednesday evening perform-ance their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Mr. and Mrs. Will-

The following well-known people came down from Eugene Monday to attend the opera season here: Mrs. C. S. Williams, Mrs. W. F. Osburn, Mrs. Al Hampton, Mrs. M. C. Lilley, Sue Dorris, Alecia McElroy and Arthur L. France.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Downing had as guests in their box at the opera on Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wren. Mrs. Downing was in pink crepe de chine trimmed with lack, while Mrs. Wren wore white net. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Downing was approximated Mr. John Lette Mr. ing entertained Mr. John Latta, Mr. J. C. Muche and Mr. E. M. Lagarus. On this occasion the hostess were a white

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Charlton were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Charlton were among those giving box parties at the opera on Monday and on Tuesday evenings. On Monday their guests were Mrs. M. J. Comstock, mother of Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. J. M. Berry. Mrs. Thomas B. Howe and Mr. Howard Charlton. Mrs., Comstock were black greading with trimmings of black and white loss Mrs. Regrey, who is a state. white lace; Mrs. Berry, who is a sister of Mrs. Charlton, was in a costume of white henrietta cloth; Mrs. Howe was in black liberty silk, relieved with vio-let chiffon and white lace. On Tues-day evening the six in the Charlton party were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hering. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Charlton. Mrs. Hering was in white with duchess lace trimmings, and Mrs. Chariton were pink flowered organdic over pink silk.

Among the supper parties at the Portland grille on Monday evening after the "Tanhhauser" performance were the following: Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Paxton, who had with them as their guests Judge and Mrs. Charles Wolverton, Mrs. Paxton being gowned in layender and Mrs. Wolverton in gray crepe de chine, with yoke and sleeves of white lace; Mr. William D. Wheelwright, with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis and Mrs. Lewis' sister, Miss Martha Hoyt; Mr. Carl Spuhn, who came down from Alaska for the Wood-Calef wedding, having as his guests Mr. and Mrs. Ned Ayer and Major and Mrs. Davis, from Vancouver Barracks; Mrs. Davis, from Vancouver Barracks; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stanley; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ladd, who were entertaining Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. John Kollock; Mrs. Dolph, with her nephew, Fred W. Mulkey; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nau, the latter is Mrs. Frank Nau, the latter in pale blue silk with white lace trimmings; Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Lipman, with Mr. Adolphe Wolfe and Miss Florence Wolfe. Mrs. Lipman wore'a crepe silk princess gown, with yoke and sleeves of lace. Miss Wolfe was in white enjoyable that there is little chance of any of the fortunate ticket-holders remaining at home for the forthcoming one, and plans have been matured to furnish additional service at the clubhouse for the large number of guests expected.

Mrs. Andrew Hoben gave a delightfut tea on Monday afternoon in honor of her friend, Mrs. G. Burk, who is leaving soon to take up her residence in Dawson City.

Wheelwright, with the C. E. S. Woods, mund Frank, with Mrs. A Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr; Mr. William D.
Wheelwright, with the C. E. S. Woods,
Miss Nan Wood and Eliot Schenck; Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, with the Edward Ehrmans; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar
B. Piper, who had as their guests Ms.
and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner and Mr. and

LEADING FURRIERS LADIES' OUTFITTERS Fourth and Morrison Streets

CLEAN-UP SALE Of Odds and Ends

Our lines of Spring goods are arriving daily and although we are utilizing every available inch of space we find that WE MUST HAVE MORE ROOM, so we have planned to dispose of the numerous articles and garments overlooked during the Clearance Sale. Below we quote a few special items which give you but an inkling of the grand bargains in every department.

In Our Fur Department Splendid Savings in Fashionable

Furs. Stock-taking finds us with larger stock of Fur Jackets, Boas and Ties than we should have in cal reductions on some of our best sellers. Note the excellence of $18.00 AND $20.00 FUR BOAS. Pashionable Isabella Fox Boas lined in squirrel, natural tails; regular $18.00 and $20.00 Boas, clean-up sale price ... $11.65

FUR TIES

We have selected 100 of our best $8.50 and $10.00. We will place them on sale during this clean-

In Our Suit Department

The money-saving opportunities are manifold; never before have we offered such inducements to those having suit and cloak needs stock. We have made some radi- to supply. The explanation is simple-WE NEED THE ROOM. We quote a few of the special prices below.

$25.00 clean-up sale price...$12.85 $27.50 clean-up sale price ... $14.65 $30.00 clean-up sale price ... $16.85 $35.00 clean-up sale price...$19.95 $40.00 clean-up sale price...$22.75 selling Fur Ties, sold regular at $47.00 clean-up sale price. . $24.85 $50.00 clean-up sale price ... $26.85

$8.00 WAISTS

A lot of handsome Waists of French Flannel, made in the latest style with handsome hand-embroidered designs; $8.00 Waists, clean-up sale price......$4.65

EXTRA SPECIAL For TOMORROW Only

Ladies' Dressing Sacques and Kimonos

Dressing Sacques made of all-wool eiderdown, with large sailor collar, some crocheted edge and silk frog; some silk binding on collar and cuffs and pockets. Kimonos made of heavy, fleecy flannelette, yoke trimmed with wide Persian bands. Colors are blue and pink; all sizes. On display in our Fourth-street window. Values up to

Highest Prices Paid for Raw Furs

Send for Price List

Kohn, with the Ben Sellings, Sanford | Mrz. George D. Greene on Wednesday, in Hirsch and the Misses Elia and May Hirsch; Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Lipman, with Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Wolfe.

Senator and Mrs. Herbert Holman, wh Senator and Mrs. Percent Polinal, who have been for several weeks traveling in the South, returned on Thursday even-ing. While they were in the City of Mex-ico they had the unusual honor of being presented to President Diaz, of the Reublic of Mexico.

Miss Hazel Dolph gave a dainty luncheon on Tuesday of the week before last in honor of Miss Genevieve Parke and Miss Dodds, of Vancouver Barracks. Her other guests were Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Mar-garet Morrison and Miss Margaret Walter, Mr. Nicholas Longworth has announced the list of friends whom he has chosen to act at his wedding as "best man" and ushers. These are as follows: Best man. Thomas Nelson Perkins, of Boston, Mass., member of the corporation of Har-vard University and a lawyer, a classmate at Harvard and intimate friend, son of Mr. Edward C. Perkins, of Boston, late of Cincinnati, a classmate at Harvard and an intimate friend of Mr Longworth's father; nephew of Charles Perkins, presi-dent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, and donor of the old Perkins homestead to the people of Cincinnati for park purposes.

Ushers-Quincy A. Shaw, Jr., of Boston, a classmate at Harvard and intimate Frederic Winthrop, of New York, class-Frederic Winthrop, of New 107k, class-mate at Harvard and intimate friend.

Francis R. Bangs, of Boston, classmate at Harvard and intimate friend.

Guy Norman, of Boston, a college mate at Harvard and intimate friend. R. A. Wallingford, Jr., of Cincinnati, prother-in-law; married Mr. Longworth's oldest sister.

Larz Anderson, of Washington, D. C., greatgrandson of Nicholas Long-worth, the founder of the family fortune, and son of the late General Nich-olas Longworth Anderson, of Cracin-

Vicomte Charles de Chambrun, broth-er of Comte Adelbert de Chambrun, who married Mr. Longworth's younger Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., son of the President.

With the father of the bride-elect, a Harvard man; the groom, his best man, and nearly all the users from the same institution, the wedding will partake to a large extent of the nature of a Harvard College affair.

A dinner party was given by Mr. and honor of Robert Kent Parker, of the Savage Opera Company, after which the entire party repaired to the Marquam to witness the production of "Faust."

The only Portland guests at the wedding of Lieutenant William Henry Ray-mond and Miss Beatrice Alexander Cottrell, which took place on Wednesday at Vancouver Barracks, were Miss Hazel Dolph and Miss Muriel Williams. was one of the prettiest wedding inable, and was strictly a military affair. Decorations of the room in which the ceremony was performed were all white and green, with several dozen silver canwhite candles. There were no conventionalized floral designs, but masses of bride rosebuds and smflax. The diningroom was in pink. Lieutenant Raymond's best man was Lieutenant Edwin Hartshorn. There were no bridesmalds. Miss Dodds, daughter of Major Dodds, caught the bride's bouquet, which was of lilies of

WEDDING and Calling Cards

W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Building.

FOURTH AND WASHINGTON.

Established 1870.

Fashionable Furriers G. P. Rummelin & Sons

126 Second St., Bet. Washington and Alder Sts.

FURTIES AND MUFFS

In Mink, Sable, Ermine, Chinchilla, Otter, Beaver, Squirrel, Etc.

Fur Stoles . Fur Coats Fur Robes and Rugs

Highest Cash Prices Paid For Raw Furs LEADING AND RELIABLE FURRIERS