Ex-Director Says Mutual Life's Chief Delinquent Should Have No Chance to Escape - Peabody Reassures Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.-The recommen dation that a suit be instituted against Richard A. McCurdy, ex-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, is made in a letter written by United States Supreme Court Justice Rufus W. Peckham to the special investigating committee of the Mutual and made sub-States Supreme Court Justice Rutus W-Peckham to the special investigating committee of the Mutual and made pub-lic today. The letter states that the suit should be begun before Mr. McCurdy leaves this country for Europe, as is his reported intention, and its object should be to recover money which McCurdy may come the commany.

In making this letter public, Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual, gives out a letter of his own, in which he said that he did not think Justice Peckham would have any reason to find fault with the action of the company relative to the matter to which he refers. The Peckham letter was given to Mr. Peabody by William H. Truesdale, the chairman of the Mutual's special investigating committee, to whom it was originally written. Justice Peckham was formerly a trustee of the Mutual Life. formerly a trustee of the Mutual Lafe Insurance Company. His letter, dated at Vashington, Feb. 12, is as follows:

I take the greatest interest in the matter, and I feel as though an action ought to be menced before the departure of Mr. McCurdy for Europe. Does it not so ap-pear to you?

The board at the meeting, as I understand, gave authority to the president to commence any action which the counsel of the company advised and such counsel advised as to Mr. McCurdy that an action could be maintained against him. Surely no further delay ought to be had which might result in Mr. McCurdy's departure without action against him.

"I write your committee because your action carries great weight. I hope it may be in the line of urging the immecommencement of a suit against Terms Them Appalling Efforts to Reduce Wit to Terms of the Meanest Intelligence.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 17 .- Jerome K. Jerome, who is here, made some comparisons today. "It seems to me," he said, "that the American people have been surfeited with humor. So many brilliant men have written and joked for so long that they have become jaded. I thought at first that the American sense of humor was radically less subtile than ours in England, but now I know better. It is simply over-

Mark Twain is, I believe, the only living humorist of the old American school, and he like Faistaff, is growing old. But the subtile touch that England likes still, and America liked once, is still his. You laugh with him now, I think, more from a sense of duty than a sense of the ridiculous. You have grown tired and need coarser fare to stimulate your appelite. And I've discovered the cause of it, too is the comic supplement of the Sunday papers.

"The Sunday comic is appalling, isn't it—the effort to reduce humor to the terms of the meanest intelligence? Is that one result of demogracy, I

Some other man owns some other thing that is indispensable to all the people. You seem to have started all over again from the beginning. Our barons forced the Magna Charta from King John, and it seems to me that here the people must force their Magna Charta from the barons."
