GOOD ROADS AND ARBOR DAY.—At the meeting of the Evening Star Grange, patrons of Husbandry, yesterday the topic in the afternoon was "Good Roads" and "Arbor Day." Warren S. White first spoke along the lines of good roads and the difficulties that had been encountered in their construction. He then spoke in New York $500,000 had been appropriated by the state for roadbuilding. In speaking of the Tuttle road bill, pending before the Oregon Legislature, Mr. White said that its chief weakness was in the equitable handling of the funds. He also called attention to the proposition to build a state road with the labor of prisoners from the Multnomah County with the work of prisoners. He commended both measures from a humanitarian and economic standpoint. The history of "Arbor Day" and what it means was set forth. It was shown that the forests in the Pacific Northwest were being rapidly depleted by the tremendous draft on this supply. It was pointed out that in Germany the treeless sections were being replenished with seeds from Oregon timber. J. M. Brock, Mrs. E. Dunning, Mrs. Ewing and others spoke on the topic. It was decided at the next meeting to discuss all the legislative measures that the Grange has in hand, and other pending legislative measures that Grangers are interested in.

SAYS STRAWBERRIES SUPPLIED MOST.—H. J. Hickle, says that it is yet not possible to estimate fully what proportion of the strawberry crop has been killed. He says: "Strawberries suffered more than other fruits in this neighborhood. I judge that fully 50 per cent of the crop has been killed, although I cannot say positively. Some cherries also have been injured, but the cherry crop is usually so heavy that many cherries can be spared and still there will be plenty left."

Auction! Auction!! MONDAY, APRIL 9, 1906. At the Canton Bazaar Co., No. 90 Sixth Street, Between Stark and Oak. Must raise $15,000 on short notice to satisfy our creditors in Japan. The Canton Bazaar stock is, without a doubt, the cleanest, most up-to-date in the city. No seconds, no trash, no job lots, the broken or patched-up goods. Our line of goods speaks for themselves. We have been doing business in Portland for the past two years, and the people of Portland who have been doing business with us will testify to the quality of the goods we carry. A few words to the wise: Portland, for its size, has more beautiful homes than any other city in the Union. Now, this is your chance to take advantage of this sale while it lasts to fill every nook and corner of your beautiful home. In past years there have been quite a few sales in the Eric-a-Brae line. No doubt your homes are well supplied; but, nevertheless, it will more than pay you to attend this auction sale. Every piece of goods in this collection is just as new and clean as a new twenty-dollar gold piece just from the mint. Twenty-six years in the auction business, I can speak without fear of contradiction that this is one of the cleanest and most up-to-date collections that has ever been sold under the hammer. To be convinced, come and see for yourself.

CANTON BAZAAR CO. W. A. FAVIER, Auctioneer. Not "Almost" a Fit. But a Perfect Fit is what we guarantee your eyes with every pair of glasses prescribed by our house.
