OUST STANDARD OIL FROM STATE
Ohio Has Begun Proceedings Against Monopoly and Its Many Allies.

ILLEGAL PACT ALLEGED

Accused of Reducing Production, Doubling Price, Combining to Maintain Price and Taking Rebates From Roads.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ohio, April 29—Aiding the Standard Oil Company and its manipulative methods of production, distribution and transportation of oil and gas, President G. M. Goodyear of the Standard Oil Company today accused the National Association of Oil Producers of attempting to maintain the price of gasoline at $1 a barrel and take rebates from the railroads.

In addition to the Standard Oil Company, the following companies are named in the suit:

The suit is based on the following charges:

1. Reduction of production.
2. Doubling of price.
3. Combination to maintain price.
4. Taking rebates from railroads.

The suit is filed in the District Court of Ohio, and is expected to be heard in the next few months.

QUARANTINE LAW WAIVED

Kristiansand Dodge inspection after many complaints hailed.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28—The quarantine law has been waived in the port of New Orleans, according to Governor John W. Ryman, who has issued a proclamation to that effect.

The proclamation was issued in response to a petition from the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, which requested the waiver of the quarantine law.

Governor Ryman said that the quarantine law has been waived in many cities and that it is unnecessary to have it in effect in New Orleans.

A new law, which takes effect next month, will allow the importation of live animals from other states.

RAILROAD CASE IN DOUBT

Bristol case in doubt.

BELFAST, Maine, April 29—The Bristol case is in doubt, according to a report from the Maine Attorney General's office.

It is reported that the Maine Attorney General has received the case and that it is under investigation.

The Bristol case involves a dispute between two railroad companies.

The Bristol railroad company has filed a lawsuit against the Maine Central railroad company, alleging that the latter company has been operating on the former company's land without permission.

The Maine Central railroad company has denied the allegations and has claimed that it has the right to operate on the land.

THE DAY'S DEATH RECORD

General Von Buelow, Germani

BERLIN, April 29—The death record for today in Berlin is as follows:

3. Paul Girardot, the French representative of the Paris newspaper, died yesterday.
5. J. E. Smith, a British newspaper correspondent, died yesterday.
6. W. H. Smith, a British newspaper correspondent, died yesterday.

Pure Blood

In several cases if you take Houdi's Japaprop, this good medicine draws them expelling.

...