Fashion's "Boardwalk" Parade of the New in Smart Summer Gowning:

Salons of Stylish Apparel—Second Floor.

Like a refreshing breeze from the sea, or an exhilarating whiff of ozone from green, country fields comes the news today of the NEWER fashions in Summer models for garb of discriminating femininity. Simultaneously with the appearance in leading New York and Washington apparel shops of the ADVANCE styles in Summer costuming, this great and authoritative Style Store introduces the same modish conceptions to Portland's critical feminine circles. Without wading through a verbiage of useless introduction we call your attention today to a matchless showing of the NEW, possible only with this house in the city, from the fact that this store was alone in sending its buyer a Second Time this season to the great Eastern fashion centers, at a time when the styles for advanced Summer wearing had been fixed. These garments are exclusive with the Olds, Wortman & King Store, no other local house can or will show them until samples have been obtained here and copied or orders sent East for similar styles. Controlling, as we do, the output for Portland of New York's foremost fashion creators, it will, at best, be but the imitation or copy of the original that minor local stores will show, and that after the real brightness has been rubbed from the New on the models. Our showings tomorrow will be complete and exhaustive embracing:

New Silk Auto Coats:

In swaggy pongees, blue or tan, black and white checks, white linen and black taffeta, full or three-quarter lengths, all trimmed with contrasting colors in materials and fancy braids.

New Lingerie Waists:

Handsomely and elaborately trimmed in laces, insertions and hand-made embroideries.

New "Princess" Gowns:

An elaborate showing of lingerie effects exquisitely trimmed in beautiful laces—up from.....$18.50

Special Monday: A Great Half-Price Sale of Suits for Coast Wear:

Many times the past week we've had the inquiry: "Haven't you some cheap tailored suits for coast wear?" Suits of good, fair weight, colors that are attractive yet slow to show wear and soil. Well—we don't carry "cheap" suits—as most stores interpret the word—but we'll make the price so low on a lot of GOOD suits Monday that it'll put "cheap stores" to the blush. We've selected about 200 suits—jacket and Eton models, materials of cheviot, broadcloth and fancy tweedish mixtures in browns, blacks, blues, garnets, purples, wines, greens, grays and mixtures. Some severely tailored styles, others trimmed in strappings, velvets, braids and buttons. Splendid values ranging up from $20 to $45 in a regular way, but all at a choice on Monday for ONE-HALF PRICE—$10.00 to $22.50

New "Tub Suits":

These in sturdy linens, dainty ducks and reps—choose either plain white or pretty helios, pinks or blues, in Eton or jacket styles, tight or loose box fitting models, attractively trimmed in braids, embroideries, laces and buttons.

New Silk Etons:

The largest line by far in Portland; includes black moires, taffetas, etamines and smart cloths, all exquisitely trimmed with laces, taffetas and fancy braids.

New Silk Skirts:

Swell "Princess" styles in black silk, etamines, white serges and fetching black and white mixtures, stylishly trimmed with velvet ribbons and buttons.

New Silk Suits:

Full "Rainbow" plaited suits, both waist and skirt in plaited effect. These in handsome plaids, neat stripes or chic dotted patterns. Fancy shirtwaists made with yokes of imported linen; these in pretty pin-stripes, dainty checks, etc., in light blues, delicate pinks and modish grays.

New Riding Habits:

This house is headquarters for garments for fair equestriennes. Here is shown two of every riding garment shown by minor local houses. Riding habits in black serges and chevots—jacket and skirt. Bloomers of heavy satine for wear under the skirt. Riding skirts in regular make and divided models of khaki, duck and linen—all at modest price. THE HOME OF THE NEW.

The fashions for the "Summer Girl" are now fixed and decided upon. Set Summer styles are a known quantity. In order that the Olds, Wortman & King Store's public may be fully informed as to their character we make today's announcement a special "Summer Girl" epistle—the appellation being used in its broadest sense, to include within its scope all femininity, from the romping lass and "sweet girl graduate" to the demure and elderly matron of ripened years. We show very clearly the style developments and present a concrete and authoritative idea of the merchandise now in demand, the very newest approved styles as worn and used by ultra dressers and critical folk who insist on the latest and best in costuming and in the homes.
