The marriage of Miss Evelyn Esther Fairbrother and Mr. Harry Turner Humphrey is to take place at 3:30 P. M. in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. N. J. Levinson gave a luncheon on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Evelyn Fairbrother. Pink flowers were used in decorating, set in the soft foliage of ferns. The place cards were dainty sketches done in water colors. The guests were girl friends of Miss Fairbrother.

The meeting of the Woman's Club Friday afternoon was of special interest, being devoted to reminiscences of early Oregon history. Mr. George H. Himes gave a talk on the early schools, and Mrs. Dunway gave some personal recollections of her own teaching days. The musical programme was unique, following the Oregon thought. A group of Oregonians, including Miss Evelyn Hurley, Miss Zipporah Harris, Miss Flynn and Miss Eula Bennett gave selections, while a group of Oregon compositions, including numbers by Father Dominic, Emile Frances Bauer, Miss Z. Harris and Marion Bauer, were given by Mrs. Schwab, the Lakme Quartet, Mrs. Ewing, Miss Hurley and Miss Greer. The quartet sang for the first time "The West Wind," composed for and dedicated to them by Father Dominic, who was present. Delicious ices were served by the social committee after the programme. EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Miss Myrtle E. Long and Anna G. Long were hostesses at a very enjoyable long-waist dancing party Thursday evening at the Artisans new hall, South Portland. The merry party consisted of 30 couples, that being the limited number of invitations sent out. The young ladies looked very pretty in their dainty white shirt-waist suits. The young men also appeared in white shirtwaists and duck trousers, and amid the attractive decorations of palms, red crepe streamers and shaded lights presented a very picturesque appearance. Ices and fruit punch were served in the reception-room, which was decorated with pink streamers and palms. There were 18 numbers on the programme, many being furnished by Everett's orchestra, and by special request some of the old favorite pieces were played, every number being thoroughly enjoyed. Patrons were Mrs. A. Newby and Mrs. E. Long. Those present were: The Misses Anna V. Newby, Virginia D. Newby, Amy Churchley, Tot Taggart, Margaret McNeill, Nettie Hognett, Edith Stahl, Myrtle Sharp, Muriel Bonneau, Mary Sharkey, Minnie Hand, L. Gates, Mrs. Dora Bonneau, Jean Dunbar, Mary Scott, Helen Byrne, Molly E. Burn, Fitzgerald, Helen Bradley, Vera Howard, Nina Thomas, Helen Bradbury, Vernon Gordon, E. Mankertz, Miss Meyer, Rosa Schroeder and Olla Shannon. Messrs. H. Williams, Fred Downing, Herman Jacke, Henry Hingley, W. J. Johnson, Jack Adams, George Hargis, Ed McCabe, Victor Balentine, Ray Mead, Oscar Olsen, Wm. Scott, J. W. Johnson, George Keller, Ed Bonneau, George Sharkey, R. F. Wicklund, M. Howard, Mr. Allen, Lloyd Finch, Mr. Henry, Mr. H. H. Hingley, Willis Vinton, Rudolph Virguts, Chester Peterson, H. E. Burroughs and George M. Allen.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Letter- carriers' Association of this city gave a very successful and pleasing entertainment in Foresters Hall on Saturday evening, May 5. "The Old Maid's Association" was given, and the ladies have received many compliments for the manner in which they carried out their party. The cast of characters was as follows: Jerusha Eliza Bangs, president, Mrs. F. Kelly; Rebecca Ratnach, secretary, Miss Alice Taylor; Miss Clover, Mrs. G. W. Feathers; Ann Ellen Patterson, Mrs. F. Tobias; Helinda Bliss, Mrs. H. Woodworth; Serena Hasbun, Mrs. W. C. Wheeler; Marjorie Melrose Plank, Mrs. H. Edwell; Rachel Ketchum, Mrs. C. Jackson; Charley Hopgood, Mrs. L. C. Knight; Hephzibah Odesia Olds, Miss Ada Taylor; May Haverman, Miss Grace Peterson; Petunia Pickles, Mrs. W. H. Churchill; Desire A. Mann, Mrs. A. Peterson; Professor Makonnen, C. A. Edwell; Rambo, Tom Osborn, of the Elwell, and were much admired by the audience. The Scotch Laidlaw, by Mrs. Robertson, and "Pocahontas," by Mrs. Phillips, were especially good. A short programme as follows completed the evening's entertainment: Selection, orchestra; character song, Miss Letty Humphrey; tableaux, "Sunflowers"; recitation, Miss Georgia Newberry; tableau, "Army and Navy."

The Tuesday Afternoon Club was entertained last week at the home of the president, Mrs. Warren S. White, at 244 Hall street. An elaborate noon luncheon was served by Mrs. White. This being the annual election day, no programme was provided. The election resulted in the following officers: President, Mrs. F. M. Miles; Vice-president, Mrs. A. J. Stiller; Secretary, Mrs. G. C. Eshelman; Treasurer, Mrs. George H. Dunham; and the calendar committee consists of Mrs. Florence E. Stallings and Mrs. A. A. Bailey. On Wednesday Mrs. White landed with a train of guests with an automobile ride in the large electric touring car, and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all. Two more social occasions are in store for the club members before they separate for summer—an evening for the gentlemen next week and a club picnic the week following. The club's course, begun two years ago, will be continued next year, which will be the eighth year of the club's existence. Those who are coming to the club from the first feel that the years have been profitably spent.

INDEPENDENCE. On May 11—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Isaac M. Butler and Mrs. Sarah Butler was celebrated at their home in Independence today. Isaac M. Butler is 74 years old and Mrs. Butler is 65. Mr. Butler is a native of Illinois and came to the Coast in 1855 with the "Davison train" of ox teams. In September, 1859, he landed with a train of 200 head of cattle at Astoria, Oregon. In the same party were Squire Whitman, William Mason and Elijah Davidson, Sr. Mr. Butler has been a farmer, merchant and warehouseman, and served the county two terms as Sheriff. He enjoys good health and with Mrs. Butler took pleasure in the respect shown by the children and large number of friends who called at the home to pay their respects today. A brother, Ira F. M. Butler, of Monmouth, will celebrate his 55th birthday on the 20th of this month.

The members of the Illinois Study Club enjoyed a delightful programme prepared by Dr. Luena G. Johnson, on Wednesday, May 8, at the home of Mrs. Florence Sullivan, 547 Third street. Dr. Johnson read a short sketch of the life of Frances Willard, followed by personal reminiscences. A synopsis of the acceptance of the Frances Willard statue by the United States Senate and House of Representatives was read by Dr. Johnson and Mrs. Himes. Marie C. Ehn's tribute to Frances Willard was read by Mrs. Nina Larowe. Miss Irene Flynn delighted the guests with three songs, "My Ain Folk," "Little Irish Girl" and "Japanese Love Song." Miss S. Harris was heard to advantage in two violin solos, the first a Mozart Sonata, the second a selection from "Mignon" (Ambrose Thomas). Mrs. Oliver Thornton played a piano solo, "Second Mazurka," and also responded to an encore. Mrs. Thornton was accompanied for the afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Sullivan and her daughter during the social hour at the close of the programme. Owing to the regrettable absence of the president, Mrs. Worrell, Dr. Luena Johnson presided.

Mrs. Charles H. Farrington's musical entertainers at a very enjoyable evening at their mothers and friends at 558 Broadway, May 7, at 8 o'clock. The Mrs. George C. Flanders, song, "When the Heart is Young" (Dudley Buck), Mrs. J. A. Hamilton.

Mrs. William Gadsby entertained the Current Topics Department of the Women's Club Monday, May 7, at her home, 770 Marshall street. Mrs. D. M. Watson read an able paper by Dr. Cassidy, of Chicago, the advance sheets having been sent her before publication. It was a most timely article on "The Advantages of a Literary Club." Mrs. Mattie Steeth gave a paper on foods. The afternoon closed with refreshments. Mrs. Arthur C. Merrill will entertain the department Monday, May 12, at 525 1/2 Broadway.

A five hundred club was most charmingly entertained Tuesday, May 1, by Mrs. S. E. Kennell, on Grand avenue. Mrs. Campbell received the prize. After the games dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. C. Gowdy, assisted by her cousin, Mrs. Shannon, of Los Angeles, entertained a Tuesday afternoon club in a charming manner at her new home, Blandina street, Tuesday, May 8. The rooms train the same day for their home in Walla Walla, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Logan-Abrams.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Charles Harold Logan, U. S. N., and Miss Alice Lavina Abrams, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Abrams, formerly of this city, now of Concord, Mass., on Tuesday evening, April 17, 1906, at Concord, Mass. Orders received by Mr. Logan to report at San Francisco necessitated a hurried marriage, and made formal announcement impossible. The ceremony was solemnized at the Colonial, which the bride's parents have taken for the summer. A wedding supper was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Logan left for Boston.

Jenning-Van Hoy.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning, May 2, at Golden- dale, Wash., the contracting parties being Charles Jennings and Miss Ida Van Hoy, both popular young people of this city. The ceremony occurred at 9:30 o'clock, and at 10 a reception and dinner were tendered Halls' and "Killarney," Miss Kathleen Lawler.

"The King's Highway," "Song of the Bow" and "Row, Brothers, Row," W. T. Crowther.

"Star-Spangled Banner," audience, standing. "God Save the King," audience, standing.

The annual May assembly of the Y. W. C. A. is to take place today and tomorrow. The object of this is to set before the 10,000 young business women of this city the privileges of the association. Today there will be a special "at home" programme. Tomorrow there will be a grand membership rally, and a reception for the new membership secretary, Miss Ada Starkweather, whom the Kappa Gamma girls will be glad to welcome as a sorority comrade. There will be a musical programme, in charge of Mrs. Fletcher Linn and Frau Margaret Bopper.

The final programme of the assembly is to be on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The Spanish Students Quartet will furnish most of the music. Miss L. E. Jones, a pupil of both Madame Marchesi, of Paris, and Madame Caplan, of New York, will sing "Berceuse," by Gounod, being accompanied on the violin by Miss Cornelia Barker. Miss MacOrdie will make a short talk on the returns of the year. Dr. H. E. S. Ely will make the address. Dr. Ely comes to our city from Illinois, being one of the leading clergymen in the Presbyterian Church. Invitations to their programmes have been issued to members giving them the privilege of bringing a friend with them. Those wishing to join will also be welcomed at this time.

The engagement is announced of Miss Hattie Percer and Mark Goodman, of San Francisco. The recent calamity has caused this announcement, which might not have been made until later in the year. The wedding will probably take place early in July at the home of the bride, Mr. Goodman is a son of Mrs. Sarah Goodman and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Schwabacher.

The Forestry Association will meet tomorrow at 11 o'clock. Members are requested to assemble at the Park avenue entrance to City Park, in case the weather is pleasant, which is reached via the Portland Heights car. This will be a picnic affair, and each member is expected to be provided with a basket lunch and a cup. If the weather is unpleasant, the club will meet with Mrs. Breyman, the president.

Oregon Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, are to meet next Thursday evening, May 17, in the committee-room at the City Hall for a celebration of Tennessee day. This will be an open meeting, and all Southerners, especially Tennesseans, will be welcome. An interesting programme is in preparation. The hostesses will be Tennessee women. The entrance is on Fifth street.

Mount Taber Circle, Home Training Association, will meet in the West Avenue Schoolhouse on Friday next at 8 o'clock. All parents of children in this school and of those in the North Mount Taber and Glencoe schools are earnestly urged to be present and to join the association.

The ladies of St. Matthew's Guild will give a musical and literary entertainment Tuesday evening, May 15, in the hall, 229 Carruthers street, at 8 o'clock. A programme of unusual interest has been arranged. Light refreshments will be served.

The Young Ladies of St. Lawrence cordially invite their friends to be present at a basket social to be given Thursday evening, May 17, at 8 o'clock, at the assembly hall, Third and Sherman streets.

Mrs. Carrie Courter will entertain the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Oregon Wright Relief Corps, No. 2, at her home, 405 Manhattan street, next Tuesday, May 16, all day. Take Woodlawn car.

Mrs. J. G. Garretson announces the engagement of their daughter, Louise, to Louis P. Thornton, the wedding to take place June 20.

Mrs. Nina Larowe's next dancing party is to take place on Wednesday evening of this week.

WELL-KNOWN DANCING TEACHER MARRIES

Arion Hall was the scene of a pretty May-day wedding when Rev. J. Whitcomb officiated. The bride, Miss Eaton, was accompanied by her father, Mr. Eaton and Miss Lucy Coolidge. The hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock. The bride and groom were then seated at a table. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, bridesmaids, and best man. The wedding was a most successful one.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Members of five British, Scotch and Canadian societies in Portland are planning to observe the anniversary of Queen Victoria's birthday in fitting style by holding a monster celebration at the Armory on the evening of May 24.

For three years since the death of their late Queen, her one-time subjects in Portland have never failed to show their respect and admiration for her life and character. They plan to make the fourth occasion more memorable than any before. At last year's celebration every seat in the Armory was occupied and a hundred had to stand. Fourteen hundred people crowded into the building, anxious to participate. This year even more are expected.

The committee in charge, K. K. Baxter, Frank P. Beale, D. C. Dunlop and A. T. Smith, have prepared a musical programme, and British Consul Laidlaw will deliver an address. Wives of members of the societies will serve luncheon and coffee at the end of the concert.

The five societies and their presidents are: The British Benevolent Society, R. W. Blackwood; St. Andrew's Society, A. H. Birrell; Clan Macleay, John Patterson; Caledonians, A. T. Smith; Canadian Society, Dr. K. A. Macdonald. R. W. Blackwood will preside.

The programme, which will be under direction of Mrs. Walter Reed, for fancy dances, Misses Forbes and Potage and Master King.

"Annie Laurie" and "The Lost Chord," Mrs. Walter Reed. "The Soldiers of the Queen" and "The Maple Leaf," Mrs. Beatrice Sheldon.

WEDDINGS.

Lamb-Wood.

One of the prettiest weddings that has recently occurred on the East Side was solemnized on Thursday evening, May 10, 1906, at the home of Mr. H. J. Faust, 1205 1/2 Broadway, when Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Faust, of Portland, were united in marriage by Rev. J. Whitcomb. The bride, Miss Edith Lamb, sister of the groom, was accompanied by her father, Mr. H. J. Faust, and her mother, Mrs. H. J. Faust. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock. The bride and groom were then seated at a table. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, bridesmaids, and best man. The wedding was a most successful one.

The ladies of George Wright Relief Corps, No. 2, at their last meeting, Friday eve, May 4, held a reception in honor of Junior Vice-Commander A. W. Mills and wife, who are soon to leave for their old home in Cleveland, O., after an absence of 25 years. A pleasant programme was rendered as follows: Addresses by G. E. Calkin, S. J. Miekley, T. M. Anderson, and others; recitation by Mrs. Downey; song by M. J. Morse; piano solo, by Miss Grace Gilman; comic recitation by Mrs. May Beutkofer; vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Mills. In behalf of the corps, Mrs. Ellen Packard presented Mr. and Mrs. Mills each with a gold badge symbolic of the order, with instructions to keep a warm spot in their hearts for their comrades and sisters in the Rose City.

The Pink Carnation Whist Club was entertained by Mrs. M. A. Penney, of 28 East Third street, last Monday evening, this being the fourth whist party given by the club, and after the usual hands of whist, refreshments were served. The first prizes were won by Mrs. George Spears and Will Chapman, the booby by Joe Yates. The following members were present: Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Frischkorn, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yates, Mrs. George Spears, Mrs. Anna Penney, Mrs. M. A. Penney, Mrs. J. S. Wheeler, Mrs. Ella Chas. Messers, William Chapman, Al Jones and Tom Brisseau.

Mrs. Freda Luscher entertained the Lincoln-Gardfield Sewing Club on Tuesday, May 8, at her home in South Portland. The attendance was good. During the afternoon President Mrs. Amanda Larson called for the annual meeting of the members to submit a call by Department President Mrs. Jennie R. Harding, of Oregon City, to help destitute members of the W. P. C. and G. A. R. in San Francisco. The Corps promptly voted $20, most of which was the proceeds of the Sewing Club. There was music, both instrumental and vocal. Mrs. Luscher served a substantial lunch at 1 P. M.

The musical department of the Portland Women's Club met last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Nina Larowe at her home, 720 Twenty-third street. A very enjoyable session was held and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. After the usual chorus work, the following programme was rendered: Song, Mrs. Carl Abendroth; song, "Mine Alone," Miss Irene Flynn; reading, "Grandma's Bombazine" (Eugene Fields), Mrs. Nina Larowe; "Cradle Song" (Kate Vannab),
