IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT SMARTLY

DRESSED MEN WILL WEAR THIS SEASON

ASK BEN SELLING

SUPERLATIVE TAILORING

INCOMPARABLE FABRICS

Are reasons enough why you this store. Added to this, our magnificent assortment and a combination rarely equalled

SPRING SUITS $15 to $35

OUTING SUITS $15 to $25

The Best

courteous salesmen make should be a customer of

TOPNOTCH STYLING

MODEST PRICES

The Best

VENT THEIR SPLEEN FORCED OUT BY

Democrats Accuse Roosevelt of Bad Faith.

SAY HE HAS SURRENDERED

Violent Attacks by Balley and Tillman in Senate-Roosevelt Nalls as False Charge He Denounced Senators.

(Continued From Page 1.)

care stated that he thought there should be co-operation on the following basis, namely, an amendment expressly granting a court review but limiting it to two points:

First—An inquiry whether the Commission had acted beyond its authority, and, second, whether it had violated the constitutional rights of the carrier.

Chandler as Go-Between.

Chandler stated that the President Chandler stated that the President repeated that he had reached a final decision and that the right of review should be thus limited; that thus far he would go and no further, and that his decision would be unalterable. Proceeding he said that Chandler had said that the President had assured him that he would be in favor of a restriction against the issuance of expare injunctions to meet the wishes of fillman and Balley.

After informing Balley of the nur-

After informing Bailey of the pur-pert of the Chandler interview, Till-man said that on the next day he had old Chandler that in his and in Sailey's opinion there would be no dif-leuity in coming to an understanding on the basis proposed by the Presi-

"On the evening of Monday Chandler told me he had so assured the Presi-dent and asked him not to be disdent and asked him not to be dis-turbed by the newspaper Items grow-ing out of the talk about Senator Long's amendment, published in the newspapers as one agreed upon at the White House conference on Saturday," he declared. He then said that he and Chandler had continued their confer-ences and on April 5 the ex-Senator had gone to the White House to make favorable report to the President, n April 8 Chandler told him that e had conferred with Allison, asking him to intervene in the con-ference then in progress, and that the lowa Senator had agreed to do so. Later Allison had seen the President.

Quotes Moody's Views.

On April 12 Chandler had advised that he (Tillman) and Balley see the Attorney-General. Consequently they had met that official on the 15th, find-

Attorney-General. Consequently they had met that official on the 15th, finding themselves in perfect accord with him except as to a small difference in the matter of injunction. "There was absolute accord from the first on the proposition that the court review should be limited to the inquiry whether the Commission had exceeded its authority or violated the carrier's constitutional rights." Mr. Moody had then agreed to supply the Senators with a memorandum of his views, and had done so, "and we have the original of it." said Tillman.

The next day Tillman said he had seen Mr. Moody and had assured him that 28 Democratic votes could be secured for the compromise proposed, and told him it would be necessary to get 20 Republican votes. "It was understood that we should work together to get the votes necessary to pass the compromise. The Attorney-General had expressed doubt of getting enough Republican votes to assure the acceptance of the Bailey non-auspension provision, but had said he felt sure of the Said, had assured him that it was the fixed purpose to insist upon the the fixed purpose to insist upon the Long amendment, and he (Tillman) had no suspicion of change of front on May 4, when the President had his iterview with the assembled news-

Senate Laughs at Tillman.

The reading of the statement evoked many smiles and some laughter from Senators. There was especial merri-ment over a slatement of assurance by the South Carolina Senator that by the South Carolina Senator that the President need not be alarmed over newspaper reports. He had, he said, told the Attorney-General that there was no danger of the result as to the bill, as the President should adhere to his plans. He then had the clerk read the Moody memorandum, covering clerk read the Moody memorandum, covering the points agreed upon as the basis of amendments.

Tillmau's time expired before he had-concluded his statement, but he was permitted to proceed by unanimous consent. He said that he and ex-Senator Chandler had been informed at the same time of the President's change of attitude. They had gone together with Sourton Balley and all gether with Senator Bailey, and all had repaired to the residence of Mr. Moody, "the fourth conspirator," and Moody, "the fourth conspirator," and had found him apparently innocent of knowledge of the change.

He admitted that he had hesitated about entering upon the negotiation with the President, because of his "just indignation for a past wrong," but he had concluded to pocket his pride in the interest of a great cause. He also said that Alison had promised him 22 votes on the Republican side, hence he had felt justified in his assurances to the President's his assurances to the President's

In his assurances to the President's representatives.
"It would be useless to pursue the argument," said Tillman. "The Sensitor from Rhode Island (Aldrich) has resumed control of the Republicans," he said.

A slight murmur of mirth ran the same the Sensite.

through the Senate, Tillman remark-

Says Aldrich Again Controls.

"The Senator need not shake his ad. But I simply want to say that he has come nearer being unhorsed and thrown in the ditch than at any time since I have been here."

This produced an emphasized smile

In the Senate.

Turning his attention again to the President, he said that if the President had stood fast to his original declaration "we would have won out."

"As for his treatment of me, I shall say nothing."

He closed by asking whether or not the President should be entitled to the

EXORBITANT RENTS

FAMOUS "QUARTER BLOCK OF FINE PIANOS" TO BE DISCONTINUED.

Eilers Piano House Forced to Abandon Its Retail Piano and Organ Business Owing to Astonishing Demands Made by a Frenzied Landlord-Entire Stock of Pianos and Organs to be Sold in Two Weeks-Office and Store Furniture, Desks, Typewriters, Carpets, Rugs, Etc., Etc., All for Sale at What It Will

The news of the decision reluctantly reached by Eilers Plano House during the past week to retire altogether from the retail plano and organ business, rather than to submit to outrageous demands made by a frenzied landlord, will be received on all sides with a great deal of astonishment and much genuine regret. Within the next two weeks, "Portland's Quarter Block of Fine Planos," which has so long held the proud distinction of being the largest and finest display in the United States, will be a matter of mere history.

has so long held the proud distinction of being the largest and finest display in the United States, will be a matter of mere history.

A statement of our many attempts during the past eight or nine months to effect a renewal of the old lease on an increased but a reasonable basis, and the adroit evasion of definite conclusions on account of alleged insbility to decide beforehand, and the oily promises, on part of the landlord, of fair and proper treatment "when the time comes" (at the termination of the oid lease) is not essential here. Suffice it to say that matters have finally culminated in our receiving the following formal notice:

"Eliers Plano House, city: You are hereby notified to quit and deliver up possession on the Sist day of May, 1965, of the premises now occupied by you under lease from Thomas Scott Broeke, Trustee, and owned by the estate of Lloyd Brooke, deceased, said lease terminating May 31, 1865, said premises being known as Ellers Plano House, and occupying the ground floor and the basement of the building situated on lots 5 and 6, block 314, City of Portland, Oregon.

"(Signed) THOS, SCOTT BROOKE, "Trustee."

It would seem safe to assume that Eilers Plano House, ranking as it does with the three largest and foremost concerns of its kind in the United States, is surely in position to pay a rental for store and showrooms equal to any other mercantile establishment, but when an avaricious landlord greedily demands an annual rental exceeding practically the entire annual net earnings on the Portland retail business of the concern, the maintenance of such an establishment is simply out of question.

Much as we regret to take this step, there is left for Ellers Plano House no the proper in the part of the proper in the ness of the concern, the maintenance of such an establishment is simply out of question.

Much as we regret to take this step, there is left for Ellers Plano House no ather alternative than to retire from the retail business, and this must be done within the next two weeks.

The famous establishment on Upper Washington street, which has done more to bring a retail clientele to the westward, and has during the past seven years done more in the fostering and cause of music than any other Western concern, will have to give way before the rapacious demands of a landlord who must have surely lost his head. Nor is this the only case where the demands for rentals out of all reason have caused the retirement of a more or less important concern.

With our wholesale facilities at Thirteenth and Northrup streets (which property we own), and with recently-acquired facilities in both Tacoma and Seattle, we shall be able to maintain a volume of business in excess of the preceding years, but until such time as we can secure facilities in keeping with our requirements, on a basis that will enable us to make ends meet. Eilers Piano House will remain out of the retail plano and organ business of Portland.

In the meantime, commencing Tuesday morning, the greatest sacrifice of fine main out of the retail plano and organ busiless of Portland.

In the meantime, commencing Tuesday morning, the greatest sacrifice of fine planos, new ones and used ones, of practically every make will take place. Tomorrow the retail department will be kept closed. Look for closing-out announcement in tomorrow (Monday) morning's paper. Everything must be sold, planos, organs, pipe organs, planolas, planola planos, music rolls, carpets, furnishings, fixtures, a safe, typewriters, etc., etc. It's a sad breaking up, for which, however, others than the owners and officers of Ellers Plano House are responsible.

I read the sentence to the President, and is said in reply that the statement which had read to him -stributed to him by Mr. handler-was a deliberate and unqualified falsehood; that Senator Foraker's name was never mentioned at all in the conversation; that Senator Spooner was only mentioned by him to express a cordial approval of Senator Spooner's amendment. As to Senator Knox, he said that he did not agree with a portion of his proposed amendment, but thought that he made a very strong argument for granting affirmatively the jurisdiction or the authority of the court.

I think, Mr. President, that it is a mere act of justice to allow this attement to go out with that which was read and attributed to the late Senator from New Hampshire. falsehood; that Senator Foraker's name was

Did He Talk With Chandler?

As Lodge seemed to have concluded, Balley asked if the Senator would tell the Senate whether it was admitted by the Executive whether the alleged conference the statment made by the Senator from South Carolina, for I did not hear the statement myself, and the President has Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, singgish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleturious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose.

It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enterbled, discovered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the fastulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the score-tory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands.

When combined, in just the right proportions with Golden Seal root, Stone root.

"As for his treatment of me, I shall say nothing."

He closed by asking whether or not the President should be entitled to the glory of the legislation which was conceived in a Democratic convention. Senator Dolliver defended the President and Senator Allison.

Roosevelt Says "It's False,"

During the adoption of the final Allison amendment, some time after Tillman had completed his statement, Lodge came into the Senate chamber. He said he had not heard Tillman, but that he had road portions of his statement. He said he ould hardly believe that part in which ex-Senator Chandler was quoted by Tillman as saring that the President said he had gone to the official stanographer and obtained the exact sensence used by Tillman and had called up the White House on the telephone, that being the most from Texas.

Democrats Disgusted Because Republicans Got Together. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-

fit of the truth.

authority not granted to him."

Roosevelt Preparing Reply.

Lodge made the remark in closing that it must be obvious to the Senator from Texas, from what he (Lodge) had read,

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU. Washington, May 12.—The Senate Democrats are singing the praises of Aldrich, May 12.—The Senate Democrats are singing the praises of Aldrich, declaring that he has routed Aldrich, declaring that he has routed have united on the Hepburn rate bill and are studiously endeavoring to spread the impression that the rate bill, in its amended form, is not effective, but, on the contrary, is exactly what the railroads have been striving for Bailey and Tillman are particularly sore because credit for the passage of the rate bill will now go to the Republican party, and they again have charged that President Roosevelt, and all that, not be cause they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they are sore in the President that he outgenerated them and has made the rate victory a party victory, not even permitting the form the president that he outgenerated them and has made the rate victory a party victory, not even permitting the peakers are singing the praises of Aldrich, declaring that he has routed with Aldrich, but because they are sore in the President that he outgenerated them and has made the rate victory a party victory, not even permitting the peakers are dinging the praises of Aldrich, declaring that he has routed with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they are sore they are sore in the President that he outgenerated them and has made the rate victory a party victory, not even permitting the peakers are dinging the praised and all that, not be cause they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Aldrich, but because they admire or even sympathize with Ald not read one word of it. I imagine that shown by Tillman's statement, which he read in the Senate today.

tomorrow, when he has read the state-ment in full, he will make reply which will satisfy the curiosity of the Senator Bailey and Tiliman, through ex-Senator Chandler as intermediary, were doing their utmost to make it impossible to pass a rate bill, except by Democratic votes. from Texas.
"It was not a matter of curiosity." responded Bailey. He explained that, if it were true that the President had not called the conferences, that also ought sponded Bailey. He explained that, if it were true that the President had not called the conferences, that also ought to go in the records, because he took it that the Senator from South Carolina was just as willing as the Senator from Massachusetts that the President of the Massachusetts that the President of the Allson amendment was brought forward, it appealed to a large majority of the Republican Senator if the Republican Sena Allson amendment was brought forward, it appealed to a large majority of the Republican Senators, it met with the approval of the President, it in no manner enlarged the scope of the Hepburn bill but did meet the objection which many Republicans had to the bill in its original form, in that all doubt as to its constitutionality was removed. fit of the truth.

"I think it also important," he continued, "for those of us on this side who had no communication, to know whether an ex-member of this body assumed an tionality was removed.

So effective was this amendment and so So effective was this amendment and so generally approved that Aldrich found his supporters had abandoned his standard, expressing their approval of the Allison amendment. Aldrich, old fighter as he is, knew when he was defeated; he knew that after the stampede to the amendment to the Hopburn bill he could not rally his force, of even gather together enough men to combine with the Democrats to form a majority, so he adroitly amounced that he, too, favored the Allison amendment and would vote for it. He put on a bold front and let it be known, without directly so stating, that he regarded the Allison amendment as a provision for broad court review, Texas, from what he (Lodge) had read, that the President admits fully that he had a conversation with ex-Senator Chandler on the subject, "as he has had with dozens and scores of Senators of both parties in this chamber."

President Roosevelt and the White House stenographers were at work until a late hour tonight, and it is believed that the President prepared a statement to answer Tillman. The statement may be made public. as a provision for broad court review, and, standing that bluff, he is today claiming to have won a signal victory, when in point of fact he has been defeated, for the first time since he became actual manager of the Un. States Sen-FOILED IN STEALING THUNDER

Democrata are singing the praises of votes to pass an effective rate bill, but the President has so maneuvered as to not slone drive Aldrich from als position but has been able to line up his own party solidly and in the end array the Demo-crats against legislation which their peo-ple so vigorously demand.

CHANDLER WILL STRIKE BACK

Late in Life to Be Accused of Falsehood, Says He.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(Special.)—
There is to be another chapter to the exciting Senate incident today, when the President denounced as an "unqualified falsehood" the statement attributed to ex-Senator Chandler that the President had harshly criticized Senators Spooner, Knox and Foraker in connection with the rallway rate contest. Mr. Chandler tonight merely replied to an inquiry that it was late in life for him to be accused of a falsehood by a President and that he would have something to say at forther complicating his disease and rendering his condition serious. His prolonged illness, following two previous attacks, has taxed his vitality to the utmost leaving him little strength to fight off disease.

Heyburn, of Idaho, is very ill of catarrhal appendicitis which compelled him to re-linquish his Senatorial duties almost a month ago. This morning his condition was serious, but later in the day showed some imprivement.

C. BOTH

VICTIM'S BODY IN TRUNK Brutal Murder of Old Woman Discovered Long After.

FRANKFORT-ON-THE-MAIN, Germany, May 12.—Details of a myster-lone and revolting tragedy which will cause the arrest of Wilhelm Meyer and a woman named Christianis on the arrival of the Hamburg-American Line steamer Graf Waldersee at New York were revealed this afternoon. Meyer came to Frankfort April 24, and left a trunk and other baggage Meyer came to Frankfort April 24, and left a trunk and other baggage with an express company, saying that the would have something to say at length within 48 hours.

It is said that he will issue a statement tomorrow giving his version of the President's remarks.

HEYBURN NOT IMPROVING

Kidney Disease Aggravates Illness of Idaho Senator.

HEYBURN NOT IMPROVING

Kidney Disease Aggravates Illness of Idaho Senator.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., May II.—Senator Heyburn's wife and friends were much concerned over his condition today. A week ago he was believed to be out of danger and well on the road to recovery, but for three days he has shown no improvement, and the most encouragement the doctors give is the assurance that he is holding his own.

However kidney trouble has developed further complicating his disease and rendering his condition serious. His prolonged illness, following two previous attacks, has taxed his vitality to the utmost, leaving him little strength to fight of disease.

Meyer came to Frankfort April 24, and left a trunk and other haggage with and left a trunk and circum that he wanted the kept of the matter in a twenk contained clothing and that he wanted it kept for three months, as he was going abroad. The trunk was finally opened by the police and found to contain the half-decayed body of an aged woman covered with chlor-lide of lime.

The body turned out to be that of a Mrs. Vogel, was reputed to have been rich. Latterly she quarreled with Meyer and asked for police protection.

Meyer came to Frankfort April 24, and left a trunk and othe with an express company, saying that the trunk contained clothing and that he wanted it kept for three months, as he was going abroad. The trunk contained clothing and that he wanted it kept for three months, as he was going abroad. The trunk contained clothing and that he wanted it kept for three months.

Meyer discount and that he wanted it kept for three dound that he wanted it kept for three months, as he was going abroad. The trunk was f

Both Arrested on Arrival.

WASHINGTON, May 12.-Senator NEW YORK, May 12.-Meyer and the Sing Sing for seven years.

woman were arrested by Federal officers when the Graf Waldersee docked today. They were committed to jall without bail until Monday, when the German Consul in this city will appear against them.

The Graf Waldersee was met at the dock by Deputy United States Marshal Bernard and another deputy, who at once put Meyer under arrest. He made no resistance. The woman who accompanied him was registered on board the ship as his wife, but confessed to the authorities that her real name was Christiania. As soon as she realized what had been done, she began asking the Marshal the reason for the arrest, and from her questions it seemed as if she was entirely ignorant of the crime of which Meyer was accused. During the drive from Hoboken to Commissioner Shield's office in New York, she made several attempts to comfort Meyer, but her advances were rebuffed.

Meyer is of medium size, dark-haired and with irregular features. When asked if he had lived in the United States before, he replied in German that it was no one's business. The woman speaks some English, but Meyer apparently does not understand a word of it. They were both one's business. The woman speaks some English, but Meyer apparently does not understand a word of it. They were both searched, but the authorities found noth-ing of a suspicious character. Meyer had with him in German money a sum equiva-

WHITE SUITS AND SKIRTS

We are showing an enormous variety and most complete stock of the intest popular-priced high-grade ladies' suits and skirts. Le Palais Royal, 375 Wash-

Brutal Murder of Old Couple.

NEW YORK, May 12-A powerfully NEW YORK, May 12—A powerfully built man early today entered the home of August Hupfer. 76 years of age, choked him into insensibility and assaulted Mrs. Hupfer, 50 years old, causing her death. The police have arrested on suspicion James McPurtland, a night watchman employed in the building. Hupfer's condition is critical. The police charge that nine years ago McPartland was convicted of a similar offense, causing the death of an old beggar woman, and was sent to Sing Sing for seven years.

BEN SELLING Leading Clothier