

CANAEAN MILITARY RULE

Mexican Governor Relieves the Civil Authorities of Responsibility.

ORDER IS FULLY RESTORED

Riot Due to Wage Demands of Native Laborers—Several Americans and Eleven "Greasers" Are Killed—Troops on Border.

CHICAGO, June 2.—(Special.)—William C. Greene, "Colonel" Greene in New York and plain "Bill" Greene in Arizona, is the owner of the Cananea mines, where the race war between Americans and Mexicans has broken out. Colonel Greene is an Easterner by birth, a Westerner by inclination and temperament, and an all-around good fellow anywhere he happens to be. Few men in the United States are better known or more generally liked and admired than Colonel "Bill" Greene. He has been married twice. He is the largest landowner in the Southwest and probably there are few greater landowners in the world. He is worth $10,000,000. He is an easy loser and a splendid winner, but he seldom loses. He is charitable, frank, never forgets a friend, and has a habit of making it warm for his enemies. His possessions include 1,700,000 acres of land, 100,000 head of cattle and some of the most productive mines in the world.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., June 2.—Martial law was proclaimed this afternoon at Cananea, Mexico, and every street tonight is being patrolled by Mexican soldiers, rurales and the volunteers who left Naco at 8 o'clock this morning. Colonel Kotteritsky arrived in Cananea today with 25 rurales, and as many more regular Mexican soldiers are being sent from the country from Magdalena, the military headquarters. Colonel W. C. Greene has taken command of the volunteer soldiers from Bisbee, while Colonel Kotteritsky commands the Mexican cavalry. Governor Yaebel proclaimed martial law late this afternoon, relieving the civil authorities from any responsibility for the present. While there is feverish excitement yet observable, it is believed there will be no more attempts on the part of the striking Mexicans to make any further demonstration. The last telephone message received at Naco this afternoon was to the effect that the streets of Cananea were empty except for the guards who are on duty. Governor Yaebel has turned his first attention to the work of apprehending the leaders who are responsible for stirring up the fighting blood of the Mexicans.

Mexicans Want More Wages. There has been no attempt during the day to reach any solution of the wage scale at Cananea. The Mexicans have been receiving $1.50 a day. The wage scale was the cause for trouble in the camp. Those reaching here say that the Mexicans declared they would not return to work for less than $5, Mexican, per day. Captain Tom Rynning, of the Arizona Rangers, who took command of the volunteers going with Governor Yaebel to Cananea, left the scene of the trouble for this side at 7 o'clock to-night, accompanied by members of his company. This is taken to indicate the absence of serious apprehension. The towns along the border on both the American and Mexican side have been unusually quiet and orderly today, aside from the arrival of the United States troops at Naco early this afternoon there has been no incident of extraordinary moment. It is now believed that the forces on duty at Cananea will be able to keep order until the arrival of regular troops from Mexico.

No Race Hatred Felt. Americans here and at other points on the border regard the incident at Cananea only as a labor trouble which might have occurred in any large mining camp where a large number of foreigners, not over-intelligent, are employed. Every effort is being made to discourage race feeling. It is felt that the strike at Cananea will not influence the friendly relations between the citizens of the two nations along the border. Business continued between Americans and Mexicans as usual today. The following dispatch was received here tonight from Naco, Ariz.: "A representative of the Associated Press was in communication with Colonel Greene over the telephone this afternoon and was advised that Governor Yaebel and the armed posse which accompanied him from Bisbee had arrived at Cananea and that their appearance at the town had a quieting effect on the strikers. Greene added that there was, however, still considerable anxiety and uneasiness apparent and indicated that the trouble was not entirely at an end."

Situation Well in Hand. Vice-Consul Antonio Maza, who represents the Mexican government at Naco, has received a message from Cananea stating that the authorities there had the situation well in hand. Four troops of United States Cavalry arrived in Naco this afternoon from Fort Huachuca and have camped on the American side of the line. It is said that the troops are under strict orders not to cross the line until permission has been received from both President Roosevelt and President Diaz. It is now learned that in the encounter between Americans and the Mexican officials at Naco last night two Mexicans were killed besides the one previously reported as wounded.

Asks for Federal Troops. A dispatch to the International American News from Naco, Ariz., this morning conveys the information that United States Consul Galbraith at Cananea has addressed a message to President Roosevelt asking the great necessity for Federal troops at Cananea. Consul Galbraith, it is said, informed the President that all the Americans in Cananea are in great danger and suggested that it was "time for quick action."

PREPARES TO HELP GALBRAITH

Government Asks Mexico to Protect American Citizens.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The State Department has received a most urgent telegraphic appeal for help from American Consul Galbraith, at Cananea, Mexico, in which he says: "Aid from United States absolutely essential." The State Department also has received direct application from the Governor of the State of Sonora, Mexico, for help from the American side, a most extraordinary occurrence. The direct appeal was the subject of hasty consultations today among the Secretary of State, Chief of Staff, Brigadier-General Bell and the law officers of the War Department, inasmuch as the right of the United States to send troops into a friendly state is in doubt. Meanwhile the officers of the General Staff are making ready to execute any order that may be issued as the result of Secretary Root's decision. Four troops of cavalry are at Fort Huachuca, just across the international boundary in Arizona, and the staff officers assume that by hard riding this force could reach Cananea within a half day after they received orders. The official dispatches upon which the State and War Departments are expected to act are as follows: "Naco, Arizona, June 1.—Secretary of State, Washington: Send assistance immediately to Cananea, Sonora, Mexico. American citizens are being murdered and property dynamited, and we must have help. Send answer to Naco."

Secretary Root, upon receipt of these dispatches, sent the following message to Ambassador Thompson, in the City of Mexico: "Galbraith, Consul Agent at Cananea, telegraphs that American citizens are being murdered and property dynamited at that point, and asks immediate assistance. Press dispatches this morning report strike riots have resulted in race conflict between Mexicans and Americans. Bring to attention of Mexican government and ask prompt and effective control to protect American citizens. Say to the Mexican government that, if the matter appears to be of a serious character, the United States will be glad to see any suggestion from the government of Mexico as to the course which we should take to fulfill our international obligation on the part of our citizens or to help promote peace and safety."

There is no treaty in force between the United States and Mexico allowing troops of one country to operate in the country of the other. Short-lived treaties have previously existed, but the Mexican government has always been decidedly opposed to an agreement which would allow American soldiers on Mexican soil.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT'S SIDE Believes That Native Laborers Were Not Fairly Treated. MEXICO CITY, June 2.—The government has advice from Cananea, State of Sonora, to the effect that the strike of Mexican employees against the mining companies was at first perfectly pacific. The protest was that the Mexican employees were unfairly treated and that preference in pay and employment was given to Americans. The Mexican miners, it is claimed, were roughly repulsed, and this action gave rise to anger and the strikers set fire to the lumber yards. The reports of armed conflict between Americans and Mexicans in which 14 men were killed and wounded were unfounded. The government has given orders to General Luis Flores, commander of that military zone, and Governor Yaebel, who is now probably on the scene of the conflict, to concentrate the forces, stamp out rioting and prevent arrest and duly punish the guilty parties, and the government will proceed with the utmost vigor.

The statement published that Arizona Rangers were to cross into Mexican territory is regarded here as preposterous. Arizona is a territory of the United States, and no order, it is believed, would be given for any invasion of Mexican territory. Acting under instructions from the State Department in Washington, the American Ambassador today was in consultation with the Foreign Relations Department here. No official statement as to the nature of the questions under discussion could be obtained, but it is stated that the United States Government is giving every evidence of good disposition toward Mexico in its effort to reach a basis of cooperation at Cananea.

WARNING TO ALL AMERICANS Arizona Governor Notifies Them Not to Cross Line. PHOENIX, Ariz., June 2.—Early this morning Governor Kibbey wired Captain Rynning, commanding the Arizona Rangers, at Naco, to use every precaution to preserve order on this side of the line and insisting that his authority cease at the line. He also warned Rynning that any American who crossed on account of the Cananea trouble will do so at serious risk and that all Americans should be so advised. Before the Governor's message had time to reach Rynning, the following was received from the office: "By request of Governor Yaebel, of Sonora, one Senator will go to protect American interests in Cananea. Congressmen To this message Governor Kibbey replied: "Volunteers going into Mexico do so at the risk of diverting themselves of their American citizenship and protection as such while there. I cannot permit an officer of the United States to go into Mexico at this time. Use every precaution to preserve order on our side of the line."

There is no reliable news here today of the trouble at Cananea, except that gotten through the Associated Press.

FOR NEW RESERVE

Forestry Officials to Withdraw Land on John Day.

SEEK FULTON'S ADVICE

Will Embrace Thirteen Townships Near Heppner—Senate Filibuster Against Confirmation of Judge Wickersham.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 2.—The forestry service has notified Senator Fulton of its intention to create the Heppner forest reserve, along the north fork of the John Day River, near Heppner, to embrace about 13 townships. A map of the proposed reserve has been submitted to the Senator, and he has been asked to make any suggestions of desirable changes in the boundaries. He will take up the matter with the living in the immediate vicinity of the proposed reserve and transmit their views to the department.

The Senator has been assured that no grazing charge will be imposed this season for use of the range in the Heppner, Goose Lake or Fremont reserves, nor in any other reserves that may be created this season. He has the intention of the department, however, to impose a charge next season on all reserves created this summer.

FIGHT FOR OREGON SHEEPMEN Senator Fulton Pleads for Justice on Wenaha Reserve.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 2.—Senator Fulton is still fighting to secure better treatment for Oregon sheepmen in the allotment of ranges on the Wenaha forest reserve that crosses into Washington. On the original allotment the Washington men were given a large part of the Oregon range in addition to that in their own state, where upon the Oregon men protested. Senator Fulton filed an elaborate argument today in which he insists that the department should admit sheep to Oregon ranges only where the application of Oregon owners does not cover all the reserve open to stock. This principle is one for which Western States will contend because of many troubles experienced in the past with predatory and non-taxpaying grazers. The Senator argues that the exclusive privilege of using Oregon range by Oregon taxpaying stock should be conceded by the department as a matter of broad justice to the community at large. Immediate expense the reserve is created. The rejection of Oregon sheep on the Oregon side of the line was such heavier than the rejection of Washington sheep for either the Washington or Oregon side. Washington owners asked for range for 60,500 sheep on their side of the reserve and only 8,000 were rejected. They asked range for 76,750 sheep on the Oregon side, of which but 11,750 were rejected. Oregon owners asked range for but 62,852 sheep, only on Oregon side of line, and the rejections were 19,066. The department explains this by saying the Oregon men asked for many more sheep than they had been ranging on reserve land. This statement is controverted by Oregon stockmen. In affidavit they say they were accustomed to run on this reserve land more sheep than they asked to return there under Government regime.

WILL EXONERATE EAGLESON Idaho Surveyor-General Convicted Department of His Innocence. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 2.—Surveyor-General Eagleston, of Idaho, against whom serious charges were preferred by Special Agent Pollard, of the General Land Office, has filed extensive denials of each and every charge with affidavits and documentary evidence in his innocence. He was charged among other things, with having entered into a pool with certain Idaho men to corner the cream of the public timber lands in the Snake River open to entry, with having aided relatives in securing choice pieces of public timber land, with collusion with a Boise man to monopolize Government surveying contracts in Idaho, and numerous other minor offenses. Eagleston's reply convinces the department that he is innocent, and he will be officially exonerated.

Pollard, who made the investigation, appears to be unreliable, for investigations made by him of other offices have also fallen flat on review. Oppose Wickersham's Confirmation. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 2.—Senators Nelson and McCumber are preparing to make a long filibuster in executive session to defeat the confirmation of Judge Wickersham, of Alaska. They are compiling pamphlets and documents bearing on the case in any manner whatsoever, and propose having them read at length to consume time. One Senator said today that if this filibuster keeps up Wickersham will get every vote in the Senate save those of Nelson and McCumber. Their play for time is decidedly unpopular.

Mrs. Fulton Coming Home. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 2.—Mrs. Fulton and her son, Fred will leave for Astoria next Saturday. Representative Jones' wife left for home today. She will stop in Indiana.

RISK LIFE FOR ROYAL FAVOR Caballeros Fight Bulls With Horses Not Blinded.

MADRID, June 2.—The programme for the royal bullfight was unusually elaborate, for besides four ordinary contests there were four more by "caballeros en plaza." This last is the most dangerous of all classes of bullfighting, for the caballeros fight on horseback, and, besides dealing with the infuriated bull, they must manage a frightened horse. Unlike the picadors, whose horses are blinded, those of the caballeros have their eyes open to the combat. The caballeros for the present fight had as patrons four of the titled grandees of Spain, in order to augment the pomp of the occasion. The four matadors taking part in the fights were Albano, Machaquito, Bombita and Rekrato, the foremost bullfighters of Spain. The bulls used on this occasion were from the famous establishment of the Duke of Veragua, a descendant of Columbus, who for years has made a specialty of raising fine Andalusian bulls for royal tournaments. The names of the caballeros are not announced in advance, as they are chiefly known for their distinguished patrons.

It was at the marriage of Alfonso's father, that a young Spanish Lieutenant, Romero, distinguished himself as a caballero. He had lost the favor of the court and in desperation decided to risk his life fighting on horseback against a bull. He killed the bull, and was rewarded on the spot by being restored to royal favor, the King taking off his own sword and presenting it to him. The Plaza de Toros is one of the most splendid amphitheatres in Europe, easily seating 15,000 to 20,000 people, while the crowd packed within has at times reached 100,000. It is in the Moorish style, with an enormous entrance gate which looks in the distance like the Arc de Triomphe in Paris. The arena has a diameter of 315 feet, and all about this floor tier on tier of galleries and boxes, many of them bearing the arms of noble families, with the royal box occupying a commanding position.

WHERE MORALES LEARNED IT Imbued Anarchy in Germany and Quarreled With Family.

BARCELONA, June 2.—Inquiries at Sabdel show that Morales, the chief suspect in the attempt to assassinate King Alfonso, is the son of a manufacturer there. He was educated in Germany, where he became imbued with anarchistic ideas. His disposition rendered him insufferable to his family and last January, having inherited $20,000, he left his father's house.

APOLOGIZES TO HAMILTON. Queen Acknowledges Wrong Done in His Arrest.

WILL CUT OUT DIAMOND WOMAN THIEF WHO SWALLOWED GEM GIVES CONSENT.

Agrees to Go Under Knife in Return for Liberty and Immunity From Prosecution.

OMAHA, June 2.—"Yes, I will undergo an operation so that Combs can have his diamond; anything to be released from the miserable place I am in." Such was the statement by Miss Mae Thomas, the woman who swallowed a $250 diamond in a jewelry store three days ago. Dr. O. W. Henry, one of the most eminent surgeons in Omaha, consented to perform the operation on Thomas, the fact being told that she had no money that her 2-year-old child at Houston, Tex., was at death's door, and that she would be given her freedom just as soon as the jewel was returned to its rightful owner. "I will be glad to perform the operation," said Dr. Henry. "I do not consider the operation a dangerous one and Miss Thomas will be none the worse off for her experience."

Miss Thomas will be taken to the Omaha General Hospital tomorrow morning, where the diamond will be removed. It lays, according to the X-ray plate, about one and a half inches above the appendix tightly clinging to the intestines. In the removal of the jewel it will be necessary to slit Miss Thomas' stomach from a point under the breast to the hip. Then Dr. Henry will remove the intestines, make a tiny slit near its location of the diamond and force it out.

By the use of the Murphy button the opening can be closed and will, in the opinion of surgeons, heal within a few days, the button being absorbed by the acids of the stomach.

MANAGERS SUE DR. FORCE Say Insurance President May Have Stolen About $200,000.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 2.—Suit was begun by the present management of the Northwestern Life Insurance Company against Dr. F. F. Force, ex-president, asking for an accounting and the return of any of the company funds found to have been misappropriated. It is alleged that the complaint that the sum may be as high as $200,000, including not only the amount for the stealing of which Force was lately convicted, but the $50,000 that he is charged with paying to Dr. D. V. Edwards, his predecessor in office, for getting out of the company's treasury and should be returned.

The statute of limitations would have run out against the Edwards payment, while the National law provides that the statute shall begin operation from the time the alleged offense was discovered.

TO NEWSPAPERS

Hill Lines Will Improve Passenger Service to Coast.

RUN OUT OF CHICAGO

Attempt to Divert Traffic From San Francisco to Pacific Northwest Inaugurated—This Section Growing in Popularity.

CHICAGO, June 2.—(Special.)—The Burlington, Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads will try to capture some of the passenger business for the Northwest Coast, which has hitherto been going to San Francisco. With this end in view it is the avowed purpose of these companies to improve the service between Chicago, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane and Vancouver so that it will be as simple and as attractive as the service now given between Chicago and the Mid-Pacific Coast.

The first step in this direction will be taken tomorrow when the Burlington and the Great Northern will start a new Chicago-Coast service by inaugurating two new trains, which represent an expenditure for equipment of over $200,000. The northbound train will be called the Minnesota day limited and the southbound the Chicago day limited. The first train will leave for St. Paul and Minneapolis at 8:20 a. m. and will arrive in St. Paul at 10 p. m. and at Minneapolis at 10:35. A similar schedule will be maintained southward. The two trains which will be made through Chicago-Pacific Coast trains are the Oriental limited train of the Great Northern and the North Coast limited train of the Northern Pacific.

These trains would have been made through trains beginning tomorrow provided the details of the service could have been worked out. When the new service is inaugurated it will be so arranged that the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern will have an equal chance to carry traffic which the Burlington will bring to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

WILL SUCCEED A. P. McDONALD C. H. Hunter, of Rock Island, to Represent Road in Portland.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 2.—(Special.)—C. H. Hunter, commercial agent of the Rock Island in St. Paul, was this afternoon notified of his appointment as general agent of the Rock Island-Frisco line at Portland, Or. He succeeds A. P. McDonald, who resigned three months ago. This is a distinctive promotion for Mr. Hunter and is in recognition of the valuable services he has performed since he came to St. Paul, in July, 1901, when the Rock Island opened an office here. It was a hard fight to enter, because competition for business is keen at this point than in any other part of the country. Mr. Hunter, however, has been eminently successful, and, after looking around for three months for a successor to Mr. McDonald, the officials have chosen a St. Paul man. Besides attending strictly to his business, Mr. Hunter has been able to make a number of friends here, and his departure will be regretted. Mr. Hunter has been in the service of the Rock Island for the past 17 years. He came direct to St. Paul from Rock Island, Ill., where he was located a year. His first railroad experience was with the Milwaukee in 1888 at Coon Rapids, Ia. From there he went to Council Bluffs, Ia., with the Union Pacific, which he represented in both passenger and freight departments.

It has not yet been decided as to when Mr. Hunter will leave for Portland, but it will probably be soon.

Detectives are in search of volunteers have been beating the brush near Riverview Cemetery in an effort to find her. No trace of the girl can be found. QUEEN OF ACTRESSES PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE. Heartily Approves of Peruna for the Nerves.

In a letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., Miss Julia Marlowe, of New York City, writes the following: "I am glad to write my indorsement of the great remedy, Peruna, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Nervousness is very common among women. This condition is due to anemic nerve centers. The nerve centers are the reservoirs of nervous vitality. From these centers bloodless for want of proper nutrition. This is especially true in the Spring season. Every Spring a host of invalids are produced as the direct result of weak nerves. This can frequently be obviated by using Peruna. Peruna aims at the root of the difficulty by helping the digestion. Digestion furnishes nutrition for the nerve centers. A well-regulated food furnishes these reservoirs of life with vitality, which leads to strong, steady nerves, and thus nourishes life. Peruna is a great favor among women, especially those who have vocations that are trying to the nerves. Expressions of Gratitude. Dr. Hartman has received numerous letters containing expressions of gratitude for relief experienced through the use of Peruna in cases of nervousness. Probably no other physician has a larger number of grateful patients scattered all over the civilized world than Dr. Hartman. Not a day passes that he does not receive some token of appreciation from the patients whom he has relieved of some chronic malady.
