EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The outing party to Rose Farm, given by Miss Mary Hamilton, Miss Hortense Greffoz and Miss Anna Gray to the teachdred guests attended the wedding.

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the Farrington home, 588 Broadway. Wednesday, June 6, the occasion being their first wedding anniversary. Ferns, fancy maple, marguerites and roses were used in decorating. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Farrington received the guests, Margaret Scott, in a filmy light blue dress, meeting them at the door. Adine Swart and Evelyn Hitchcock, in white gowns, assisted during the evening. One feature was a lively affilterative game in which a brief description of each one present called for the ingenuity of the guests to correctly piace the description. Mr. El F. Hitchcock, being most successful, was presented with a bouquet of roses. At a series of progressive games, each table having a different game, Mrs. ira P. E. Reynolds received a dozen carnations as a favor. Paper lunch cloths and paper napkins carried out the idea of the "paper anniversary" and music was furnished continuously during the refreshthe "paper anniversary" and music was furnished continuously during the refresh-ment hour. The place cards were deco-rated with marguerites, and each one rated with marguerites, and each one called for a story, toast, plano number, reading and for the married ladies to give an account of their wedding days. The response to these gave a happy terminus to the evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ira P. E. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Swart, Mr. and Mrs. E. F.
