HONOLULU CONCERN SUES

Asks Damages for One Hundred Fifty-Thousand Dollars and Legal Points Are Now Being Argued.

In the suit of the Pacific Mill Company, of Honolulu, against Inman, Poulsen & Co. for $150,000 damages, the attorneys engaged, Ralph Dunway for the plaintiff and H. M. Calk for the defense, have occupied the past two days in legal arguments. The suit is for breach of contract. The Pacific Mill Company was to increase its capital stock from $12,000 to $500,000 and Inman, Poulsen & Co. was to own three-tenths of the stock and were to ship 400,000 feet of Oregon pine lumber to Honolulu. Mr. Dunway argued that by reason of failure to keep the agreement the Pacific Mill Company lost enormous profits which it would have realized on the sale of the lumber.

BONDSMEN SEEK DISCHARGES.

Sureties for Pater Desire to Be Relieved of Obligation.

A petition was filed in the United States District Court yesterday morning by J. P. Booth, attorney for Finley Morrison and Fred Fritz, asking to be exonerated as sureties on the bond of S. A. D. Pater, under the indictment returned against him on October 27, 1905, of the revised statutes, so that he might be recommitted to the custody of the United States Marshal, and obtain relief from such recognizance, but on account of his continued absence from this state, they claim to have been unable to produce the defendant.

Petitioners also allege that by virtue of the apprehension of Pater in the State of California and surrender to the United States Marshal of the District of Oregon, to the County Jail of Multnomah County for safekeeping, that they are unable to arrest Pater and deliver him to the Marshal or his deputy, or to cause him to appear before any Judge or other officer having power to commit for the offense charged against the defendant, but in under the control of the United States Marshal for this district.

Owing to pending civil suits, Judge Wolverton announced that he would not hear argument on the petition until some time this week, and declined also to set any pending motions in Government cases until later.

WEINHARD HEIRS ANSWER

Declare That Bridge Complained of Will Do No Damage.

Weinhardt's brewery, owned by the heirs of the late Henry Weinhardt, has filed an answer to the suit of L. Williams, owner of the bottling works, to be used to convey beer from the former place to the latter. Mr. Williams owns adjoining property, which he says will be damaged by the bridge and pipes. This is denied by the brewing company in its answer. It is recited that city blocks are so small in Portland that several of them are necessary for a large manufacturing enterprise. Further, that the bridge complained of will be 25 feet above the pavement, and will not be an obstruction, and the pipes will not be dangerous.

Filo Incorporation Articles.

Articles of incorporation of the Erickson Undertaking Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Eric Erickson, W. J. Dunn and R. R. Stalder; capital stock $600.

Incorporation articles of Lapine Township Company were filed in the office of the County Clerk yesterday by H. A. Keeley, D. L. McLeod and Alfred A. Aya; capital stock $50,000. The objects announced are to dispose of lands, operate street railways, etc. in the northern portion of the city and suburbs.

Articles of Incorporation have been filed of the Pacific Mercantile Agency, by R. B. Stalder, F. Robert Buttschill and John P. Lockwood; capital stock $200. The objects are to do a commission business, etc.

Say He Was Paid Sufficient.

The Portland Brewing Company filed an answer in the State Circuit Court denying that the company owes J. L. Taucher $543 attorney's fees. It is alleged that Mr. Taucher was employed in August, 1905, by Jacob Meyer and George Wilhelm, former stockholders in the company, who sold out to Ben B. Staude Meyer. The answer admits that there were some personal differences and dissensions among the stockholders, and that Mr. Staude Meyer did not approve of the resolution employing Mr. Taucher for $50 a month, and further, that the counsel was paid $50, which was ample, and that he has nothing further coming.

Sues for Professional Services.

Dr. John Madden yesterday filed an attachment suit in the State Circuit Court against J. C. Shofner to recover $173 for professional services rendered May Shofner.

Deny Owing So Much Money.

D. B. English and Alice L. English deny owing E. S. Patton $500 for medical services to their daughter, Lydia, and son, Henry English. Mr. and Mrs. English figure out the bill only $129 and state this in an answer filed yesterday in the State Circuit Court to Dr. Patton's suit.

Wife Applies for Divorce.

Suit for a divorce was begun yesterday by Fanny Pullen against William Pullen. They were married in Oklahoma in 1884 and have no children. Mrs. Pullen says her husband deserted her in St. Louis in 1884.

FAKE EYE SPECIALIST.

He Is Working the Citizens of Southern Oregon.

An individual giving the name of Dr. M. Locke, and claiming to be an eye specialist, with an office at 135 Sixth street, Portland, Or., is operating throughout Southern Oregon, and is pronounced a faker by those who have had dealings with him. At last accounts, "Dr." Locke was doing a large business throughout Cole's Valley, Douglas County, situated about 15 miles northwest of Roseburg, Or. His scheme is to visit some farmhouse and make a free test of the eyes of his intended victims. It is alleged that in furtherance of his deceptive tactics he places a pair of glasses on the latter, one side of which is smoked in such a way as to convey the idea that the person upon whom the test is made has a defective vision. The so-called "specialist," who is described as being a smooth worker, with an aggressive and cunning nature, is to convince his victim that he or she will soon lose the sight of one eye unless a purchase of two pairs of his glasses is made forthwith, and the glasses are to be used and the other to meet conditions incident to gradual recovery of eyesight. In this way he secures $20 from each customer, the price of his glasses, which are described as being of the cheapest quality—being $10 a pair, and he usually succeeds in effecting the maximum sale to every person foolish enough to be tempted with his only tongue. The alleged swindler is supposed to be one of the gang that achieved considerable notoriety during the Lewis and Clark Fair by similar swindling methods. The address given by "Dr." Locke on the cards with which he is flooding the rural districts of Southern Oregon, is the entrance to the business office of "The Oregonian," with which he has no connection.

WILL CALL GRAND JURY

More Land-Fraud Cases Are to Be Considered.

It is the intention to convene the United States grand jury as soon as possible, and more sensational developments are expected as a result of the deliberations of the inquisitorial body. Judge Wolverton is now awaiting the convenience of Judge Hunt before calling the grand jury, while the Montana Federal Judge is hard at work arranging his calendar so as to come here and try all the land-fraud cases. As soon as it is known definitely when he can get away, the grand jury will be summoned for the purpose of taking action on a mass of evidence that has been accumulating for some time, in consequence of the vigorous efforts of the Government force in the United States District Attorney's office. It is all a matter of conjecture as to what turn the approaching investigation of the grand jury may take, but there are rumors of big fish being involved, and the fact that steps have been taken to summon the body at all is recognized as evidence that some unexpected turn of events has made such a course necessary. It is thought that S. A. D. Pater will be an important witness before the next grand jury, and around the Federal building it is taken for granted that his recent capture and consequent confinement in the direction of convening the grand jury again.

Judge Wolverton is likely to be apprised any day this week that Judge Hunt can see his way clear to get here on a definite date, and that the event the grand jury probably be summoned without further delay.

CHOOSE WESTERN WOMAN

Federation Elects Mrs. Decker, of Colorado, Its President.

In electing Mrs. Sarah S. Platt Decker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, that organization has paid a compliment to the women of the West which the latter are not slow in recognizing or appreciating. Probably no other woman could have been chosen to this post of honor would have given more general satisfaction, for Mrs. Decker is not only popular in her own state of Colorado but in every state in the Union where women's clubs and other organizations thrive. She has had broad experience in all lines of public and philanthropic work in Colorado and has come into personal relation with club workers all over the country. At the last biennial meeting of the General Federation, which was held in St. Louis, Mrs. Decker's name was mentioned for the presidency, but it was not until the meeting just ended that she was elected. Mrs. Decker does not believe that the women's club is for the man-hater or for the reformer. She believes that the women's club is for the woman, who is interested in philanthropy, mothers who wish to learn how to make better homes, but more of all for the woman who needs to get out of themselves. "There comes a time," she says, "when a woman's children have grown—grown out of her arms—into the world. She has tired of society and other amusements, and it is at such a time the clubs save her."

INSPECTION IS HELD

Police Make a Fine Showing for Occasion.

MAYOR PLEASUED WITH MEN

Mounted Squad Awaits the Visit of the Officials, but Is Overlooked, and Proceeds to Station, Where It Is Reviewed.

Dressed up in their finest and sitting their steeds as daintily as English dragoons, the mounted squad of the Police Department awaited semi-annual inspection yesterday morning. Lined up at the west side of the National Guard Armory, they sat in strained expectancy. Any moment the Mayor, the Chief and the Police Commissioners might emerge from the Armory and look along the ranks for hours.

Inside the inspecting party was parading up and down the solid ranks of patrolmen—an inspiring military spectacle, which brought out many compliments. When they got through they looked about for the mounted squad and not seeing it, passed out the Broadway entrance, and on down to the Police Station to inspect the quarters there.

While the inspecting party, composed of Mayor Lane, Chief Gritzmacher and Commissioners Greene and Sabin, wondered what had become of the "cavalry," the mounted organization kept patiently at its post at the Twelfth-street side of the Armory. Half an hour of this severe suspense went by before a cautious patrolman, wearied by the endless wait, slipped from his mount and peered into the Armory, to see if he could locate the inspecting party. The Armory was empty—and then it was that the mounted squad, realizing it had been lost in the shuffle, rode post haste to the Police Station and again lined up. This time it was discovered and duly inspected.

Otherwise the inspection passed off without a break. The foot patrol, 75 strong, maneuvered in fine style, and showed up to the very best advantage. Captain Moore, drillmaster, directed the maneuvers of his force, which executed every movement with the precision of regular soldiers.

Mayor Lane Compliments Men.

Mayor Lane took occasion to compliment the men highly on their showing. He made mention of the conduct of the department during the recent political campaign, saying it was a matter of felicitation that the members of the force were non-partisan and took no active part in the campaign. He told them to continue upholding the laws and to fulfil every duty without regard to the identity of the offenders. Commissioners Greene and Sabin also made brief talks, complimenting the policemen on their fine showing at inspection, and their good record during the past six months.

Deadliest of Snakes.

The deadliest of snakes is said to be the mamba, an African cobra. It flies at everybody and everything; it goes out of its way to quarrel; it will even come down from a tree to solicit an interview. Over in India there is the great king cobra, or Hamadryad, a size larger, quite as ferocious and as deadly as the cobra, but on horseback; he had to ride for his life—but his poison is a degree less virulent. The difference, however, may be negligible and the same year after year. Among the Australian cobras, the pit vipers of America and the great West African vipers, there are species with evil reputations, and the most alarming feature is that the aggressive snakes are all desperately poisonous.

Jews Shower Money on Gorky.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Amid scenes of wild enthusiasm, a Jewish audience of 200 persons, many of them women and girls, showered gold and silver coins or paper money on the platform of the West Side Auditorium, Center avenue and Taylor street last night, in response to the appeal of the Russian refugee, Maxim Gorky, for funds in aid of the Russian revolution.

For more than 20 minutes the shower of money descended and rolled at the feet of the visiting Russian. It took a force of 20 collectors to gather up the coins. The count of the money was not completed until after midnight, and it was said to have footed up a handsome amount, adding considerably to the fund of $800 that Gorky has collected during the two months of his speechmaking in this country.

TWENTY-FOUR ARRESTED

POLICE SERVE WARRANTS ON SECOND-HAND DEALERS.

Charged With Failing to Obey Law in Keeping Registration of Purchases and Sales.

Warrants for the arrest of 24 keepers of second-hand stores were issued yesterday forenoon from the Municipal Court at the instance of Acting Detective Mears, who charges them with having failed to keep a proper register of goods purchased and sold. That the charges were made to chastise the defendants for failing to vote as they had been told on election day was anonymously reported to the police yesterday an hour before the warrants were issued. At that time some one told Clerk Hennessy that a bunch of warrants would shortly be asked for and that they had been prompted by Sheriff Word against Democratic second-hand dealers who had fought him although supporting the rest of the Democratic ticket. By a peculiar coincidence, Mears came into the office later and asked for the warrants. The defendants were brought in during the day and required to put up $30 apiece for their appearance in Police Court Monday morning. While none of the defendants when taken to the station repeated the charge that they were victims of public opinion, that he had been working on their registers were in good condition and that they were arrested unnecessarily. Detective Mears accused the suggestion that there was anything back of the charges other than a desire to enforce the city ordinances. He stated that the arrests were made entirely at his suggestion and that he had been working on the cases for some time. "These pawnbrokers and second-hand dealers have a practice of neglecting their books," said the officer, "and the police are hunting for stolen property that may have been pawned or disposed of to second-hand dealers they are greatly handicapped."

Those who were arrested are: H. Margarousky, 109 1/2 North Third street; M. Wax, 271 Front street; J. Sugarman, 264 Front street; M. Neutrosky, 255 Front street; Savransky & Sons, 113 Front street; M. Levin, 231 Front street; Cohn Bros., 183 Front street; B. Abowitz, 181 Front street; L. Dordoff, 189 Front; M. Abrams, 217 1/2 Front; Ed Rosenthal, 808 North Third; P. Tolstounoff, 215 Front; M. Klegman, 86 North Third; Mrs. M. Dray, 225 Front; Kern & Feldman, 243 Front; A. Wise, 205 Front.

SAME OLD COFFEE
SAME OLD FIRM

With a frontage of over 1700 feet on the River, half way between the great Bridges which join New York and Brooklyn, the Arbuckle establishment is one of the show sights of New York. In millions of homes in every section of this country Arbuckle's ARIOSA Coffee is the only coffee used, almost the only drink except water; consequently the name of "Arbuckle" has been most familiar to the people during the last 37 years, there being no other trade-marked article so widely distributed or in such universal demand. From a small beginning the sales have grown to exceed the combined sales of every other packaged coffee in the United States—and why? Because Arbuckle has given the people the greatest coffee value for their money all of the time, and has sold their ARIOSA Coffee in sealed packages for the consumer's protection, to insure their actually receiving what they paid for, both in quality and in weight. The sales of ARIOSA demonstrate the common sense and appreciation of the American people, and ARIOSA has contributed to their development and prosperity by giving them their money's worth of coffee that increased their power and ambition to work and placed them foremost among the world's greatest nations. This is the same old ARIOSA and the same old firm that introduced in 37 years ago.

The test of superiority has taught the careful mother that buying ARIOSA Coffee not only means money saved but that she is actually supplying the best coffee for the coffee drinkers of her family.

By the firm's "Mother's" process patented by this firm, the pores of the coffee are hermetically sealed after roasting with a coating of fresh eggs and granulated sugar which holds the "goodness in," and preserves for you intact wherever you may be, the delightful aroma and flavor due to our skilled blending and roasting which are not to be compared with crude and primitive methods on a smaller scale.

Buy a package, take it home and grind it as you want to use it. That is the way to get the best results. Coffee deteriorates after being ground or exposed to the air, two reasons why you should refuse to take loose "scoop" coffee—and there are others of importance. Warming ARIOSA lightly makes the grinding easy.

If you grocer tells you he has no Arbuckle's ARIOSA, send to us direct. For $1.80 we will send 10 lbs. in a wood box, transportation paid to your freight station. Price of coffee fluctuates and cannot be guaranteed for any period. The coffee will be sent in the original wrappers bearing the signature of Arbuckle Bros., which entitles you to presents. New Book with colored pictures of 97 presents will be sent free if you write for it. 4,000,000 presents given away in 12 months.
