Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, A. F. Millier master, yesterday voted to give prizes aggregating $10 to the boys and girls of school districts $12 and $5. These prizes are offered to atimulate an interest in the agriculture contest started by County School Superintendent F. R. Robinson, in the raising of potatoes and asters and sweet peas. The $10 will be divided according to the decision of a special committee comprising the principals of these two districts, H. A. Darnall, of No. 12, and Miss Hogue, of $5, among the boys and sirls who make the best record in the contest at the end of the season. Boys will raise potatoes and girls asters and sweet peas, and make notes of the results of fertilizers. On the outcome will depend of fertilizers. On the outcome will depend who will receive the prizes.

Vannals at Milwaukie.—Friday night, after Miss Mildred Ruegg, principal, with the teichers and pupils of the school, had spent the day in decorating the Milwaukie Band Hall, preparatory to the graduating exercises for Saturday night, vandals entered the building and maliciously tore dows and destroyed the beautiful decorations that had cost so much time and laber. When Miss Ruegg and the members of the class arrived yesterday morning to complete the work they were spocked beyond measure at the desecration. On the walls of the stage was posted this notice: "If any more decorations are put in this hall the electric lights will be turned off tonight." There was no signature to the notice, and it purported to come from the band. Miss Ruegg, the principal, and the children cried over the desecration. H. H. Mullan, president of the Milwaukie Band, and other members repudiated the work, and denounced the act, declaring that the desiruction of the decorations was not by order of the band. On the contrary, Mr. Mullen and the band had seen the decorations Friday night and admired them. There was general indignation in Milwaukie over the outrage. ndignation in Milwaukie over the out-

Postpone Action Regarding Fourth.—Only a bare handful of people responded to the invitation sent out by Mayor Lane calling a mass meeting to consider the advisability of holding a celebration in Portland July 4, and the matter was indefinitely postponed. The meeting was to have been held in the Council room, and all of the local organizations of a public character were invited to participate. When 2 o'clock, the hour set, arrived, E. C. Giltner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and J. B. Laber, secretary of the Board of Trade, made up the delegations, and adjournment was taken without any formal consideration of the subject. ### Many June Weddings This Year

If you are buying a wedding gift don't make the mistake of getting something just because it "looks nice and is cheap." Remember that it will have to stand on its own merits with other well-selected articles that will remain in the home for years to come. Is yours the present that is going to look shoddy in a few months-one that will be a constant reminder of your desire to buy only something wheap? We cannot sell you such an article, but if you will let us help you, we can make your selection of an appropriate gift so easy, and give you so much for the money, that you will surely be delighted. Here are a few suggestions:
