FREE DELIVERY FOR FULTON.—Residents of Fulton and other South Portland districts are congratulating themselves on the fact that free mail delivery from the main office will prevail on all the routes of that locality after July 1. The Fulton Postoffice having been abolished. In order to meet the requirements of the situation, instructions have been sent out requesting the residents to place street numbers on their houses, and in most instances this regulation has been complied with, although some cases of neglect have been reported, and Postmaster Minto is very anxious that all should do so before the new order becomes operative.

CLOSING MEETING.—The closing meeting of the Sunnyside Circle of the Home Training Association was held in the assembly hall of the Sunnyside School, and was well attended. Mrs. E. A. McFherson presided. Judge A. I. Fraser gave an instructive address, and Principal E.
D. Curtis also spoke, referring specially to the graduating class of the school, which contains 22 pupils. The piano solo by Mrs. G. Evert McClure, late of San Francisco, was favorably commented on by J. H. Parkin, who gave a vocal solo.
The circle adjourned to hold its first fall meeting in the early part of September.

ALUMNA GRADUATES.—The Arleta School graduated the following from the grammar grade: Bessie Douglass, Floyd Fesler, Harry Spencer, Milton James, Daisy Bradshaw, Esther Nordberg, George Bradshaw. Exercises were held Thursday evening in Arleta Hall. County School Superintendent R. F. Robinson presented the diploma with appropriate remarks. The graduates will have the privileges of the Portland High School.

THE SAVOY RESTAURANT, under the able management of our old citizen, Max Smith, has certainly made a success, after opening its doors to the public yesterday morning; at noon the merchants' lunch served was delicious, and standing-room was at a premium, which was remarkable considering the short notice the public had received in regard to the opening.
RETURNS RELIEF MONEY.—W. Moxon, of the St. Johns relief committee, which raised the money for San Francisco, has mailed checks for 56 per cent of the money paid in the subscribers. The money was well needed, and this was considered the best way to dispose of it, as there was no authority to use it for any other purpose.

REDEDICATION OF CHURCH.—The rededication of the Montville Methodist Episcopal Church, on Hibbard street, will take place this morning at 11 o'clock. The church has been rebuilt and enlarged.
Rev. J. P. Farmer is the pastor. Several Portland Methodist ministers are expected to assist in the services.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM EDWARDS.—The funeral of William Edris took place yesterday, under the auspices of Wilamette Lodge, No. 2, A. F. & A. M. The funeral was held at the home of W. G. Espey, 431 Margaret street, at 10 o'clock. Edris was 73 years old and was a member of Euclid Lodge, Prosser, Wash.

ROUND-TRIP EXCURSION RATES EAST.— Special round-trip excursion rates have been named by the Northern Pacific points East. Full information can be had at the ticket office, No. 33 Morrison street, corner of Third, or by letter to A.
D. Charlton, assistant general agent, Portland, Or.

THE GRANDEST THING IN PORTLAND is the magnificent view of great snow-capped mountains, rivers and valleys, forming the panorama surrounding this city. To see this go to the Observatory, Portland heights. Monitor searchlight. Powerful telescopes.

LONG BRACK.—Straubel & Co., the popular grocerymen at Long Beach and Seaview, will be agents for The Oregonian this year. Their grocery store is now open for the Summer and The Oregonian may be ordered at either store.

of the late Dr. George Wigg, Burkhard Bldg., corner Union avenue and K. Burnside, for consultation from 10 to 11:30 A. M. daily, until the business of the office is closed.

OREGON CITY BOATS.—Sunday trips from Taylor-street dock. Bring your families for a boat ride. Leave 8:30, 11:30 A. M., 2:30 P. M. Leave Oregon City 10 A. M., 1:30, 5:30 P. M. Round trip 25 cents.

THIS WILL REMIND YOU that now is the time to have your hair mattresses renovated and returned the same day. Phone Main 474. The Portland Curled Hair Factory, H. Metzger, proprietor.

SER. IONES leaves foot of Washington st. at 2:30 P. M. daily except Sunday for Corbett, Cape Horn, Moffett Springs and away landings; returning leaves Moffett's at 6 A. M.

THE MURICALE, benefit of St. Andrew's Chapel, Rev. W. R. Powell, chaplain, which was postponed on account of the San Francisco calamity, will be given at Trinity parish-house, 19th and Everett streets, Thursday evening, June 28, at 8 o'clock. A very attractive programme has been arranged. Madame Giendoming-Mitchell, a gifted Australian singer, will appear for the first time before a Portland audience. Among others are the popular Mazanilla Male Quartet, F. T. Crowther, already a favorite, and Miss Helen Brigham, Miss Annie O'Brien and Miss Grace Jennings, high among the coming.

Mr. J. M. Harris, a vocalist from San Francisco, has kindly consented to render Raymond Hitchcock's famous character song, "Ain't It Funny What a Difference a Few Hours Make"; Carl Denton will be at the piano. Tickets 50c, at Woodard, Clarke & Co.'s and Martin & Rowe's pharmacy.

THEY WANT ELECTRIC LINES

—Residents of Clackamas County between Barton, on the Estacada branch of the O. W. P. line, are asking the company to build a branch from its Oregon City line to Barton.
There is a large and rich district in that section, which such a line would develop rapidly.

JEWELS TO MATCH THE EYE

ACCORDING to a new fad, a hazel-eyed girl is wise to choose yellow, green or brown stones. Blondes with dark blue eyes are recommended to wear sapphires, topaz, cameos and amber of the deepest tints. The possessor of black eyes may be happy with black pearls and diamonds. Most women are satisfied without the jewels, if they only have good eyes. If the haven't the latter, the next best thing is to come to a good optician.
