

CURRY IS LEFT OUT

Rogue River Reserve Will Not Include Land in This County.

PINCHOT INFORMS FULTON

Withdrawals Will Stand as Made, and Determination Will Be Reached on Probable Additions From Area in Future.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 30.—Senator Fulton had a conference with Forester Pinchot today regarding the proposed creation of four reserves in Oregon in the immediate future.

Pinchot agreed to abide by their wishes, and when the Rogue River reserve is created, it will not include any part of Curry County, though withdrawals in that county will stand.

There being no objection to the Goose Lake, Fremont and Hesperus reserves, they will be created along the lines of withdrawals now in effect.

BRISTOL TO BE REAPPOINTED

Is Slated to Try Land-Fraud Cases This Summer.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 30.—By Monday or Tuesday the President will probably reappoint W. C. Bristol as District Attorney of Oregon and James Wickersham as Judge of Alaska.

Later, when Secretary Hitchcock brought pressure to bear on the Senators to force confirmation of Bristol, the subcommittee took a determined stand and flatly refused to take any action whatever.

With Judge Wickersham the circumstances were different. It has been demonstrated that practically the entire Senate favors his confirmation.

ALL OREGON BILLS PASSED

Pacific Northwest Representatives Leave for Their Homes.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 30.—Oregon's quota of legislation was cleared up today when the President signed the omnibus public buildings bill, providing for Baker City, Eugene and Salem.

The united efforts of Senator Heyburn and Representative Freligh finally induced the conference committee to consent to the appropriation of $100,000 for a public building at Moscow, Idaho.

hour for the past two years. A Robin Hood party was planned for the entertainment of the 34 little ones who go each week to hear these young ladies tell stories at the kindergarten rooms, the original plan being to have the party on the spacious lawn of the Burns home. The rains of last week spoiled this plan, however, and the celebration was held in the gymnasium and kindergarten of the Institute Club, Fourth and Burnside streets. First there were stories about bold Robin Hood and his band, and then games of archery and other sports appropriate to the occasion. The refreshment tables were a source of delight to the happy guests, who devoured ice cream and cake with the appetite which goes only with extreme youth. The profuse decorations of roses were exquisite, and at the close of the party the children were allowed to carry the flowers home with them. Assisting Miss Lombardi and Miss Burns were: Misses Frances and Evelyn Wilson, Miss Margaret Walters and others.

TANNER RETURNS TO EAST

G. A. R. Commander Postpones Trip to the Pacific Northwest.

HELENA, Mont., June 30.—(Special.)—Impressive funeral services were held over the body of Mrs. James Tanner, who was killed in an automobile accident yesterday.
