ST. JOHNS SCHOOL ADDITION.-Con-ractor W. C. Adams is pushing work on the addition to the St. Johns Schoolhouse By changing the plans, the district gets another classroom at small expense. By this change, the assembly hall, which will accommodate about 500, will be in the center of the building, and accessible the center of the building, and accessible from all the rooms. The schoolhouse will have II classroom and the assembly hall, and by the former plan there would have been 12 classrooms and an assembly hall. The extra cost is $800, but as a single class room usually costs $2000, there is considerable gain by the change. The total cost of the improvements will be $6150. New blackboards will take the place of the old ones in all the rooms. Sanitary tolletrooms will be placed in the basement. The schoolhouse will be modern throughout.

CAREER OF WILLIAM J. STREIBIG.—Willlam J. Streibig, who died in this city on Sunday last, was a native Oregonian. He was born in this city on September 17, 1844, in the house which was standing on the site of the present building of the Portland General Electric Company, on 7th and Alder streets. His mother was Mrs. Mary Streibig, an old pioneer, and his surviving brothers are Oscar, Frank J. and Leonard Streibig. Mr. Streibig married Annie Wise, a Portland gift, 16 years ago, and his widow survives him.

OF LARGE STORE IN BROOKE BUILDING.

Will Carry the Largest Stock of Fe male Wearing Apparel West of New York.

The large storeroom formerly occupied The large storeroom formerly occupied by Ellers Piano House, on Washington street, has been secured by H. B. Litt, whose lease will soon expire at Fourth and Washington streets. This will have a tendency to move the shopping center still further west, as this store always draws hundreds of women daily, who are in search of fashionable ready-to-wear garments. The increased facilities which Mr. Litt will enjoy in such immense floor space will enable him to carry a larger and more comprehensive stock of feminine attire than any other store with the exattire than any other store with the ex-ception of a few establishments in New York.

Three of the strongest and best lines of women's and children's ready-made gar women's and children's ready-made gar-ments will be fully represented. Mr. Litt will also carry the full lines of the cele-brated John C. Stratton's goods. It is conceded by such well-known houses as Lord & Taylor, Sterns, Hollanders, Manfirst-class that Stratton's goods have a style and finish superior to the product of any other house in New York, not even excepting Paris. In addition to purchasing for his own house, Mr. Litt is also buyer for three of the largest suit houses in the United States, and secures a large trade discount from the fact that his purchases aggregate about $1,000,000 a year.

The new store will be handsomely fitted up and made as attractive as possible. Separate departments will be maintained for the different ages, namely: Intermediate, young ladies, ladies, middle-aged and old. Possibly other lines will be added later.

CONCERT AT CITY PARK

Band to Play Wedding March From "Ratcharmer of Hamelin."

If it were not for its name, so it is said, the wedding murch from the opera "The Ratcharmer of Hamelin." by Nessler, would be more popular with American brides than either Mendelssohn's or the "Swedish Wedding delssohn's or the "Swedish Wedding March" by Soedermann. The "Ratcharmer" march is full of pretty changes and although a short composition is greatly admired wherever heard, it will be the first number on the programme of the city band at the City Park this afternoon. Another feature will be Ben F. Driscoll's cornet solo, "The Rosary," by Nevin. The concert will start promptly at 2:30. The programme in full:
