We also received package of papers which you advised have been forwarded to us, and the writer has taken great pleasure in looking them over and wishes to congratulate you upon your Sunday edition, which, in his judgment, overtops any paper published in the East here for quality. It is a matter of satisfaction to us that our advertisement appeared with you. Yours very truly, No. 65 This is an unusually hand-some parlor table. Has round top, 24 inches in diameter, rounded edges and full boxed rim. The fancy French shaped legs are firmly fastened to the top. The nearly shaped lower shelf adds strength and convenience to this beautiful table. The wood is quarter-sawed golden oak and birch mahog-any, aighly polished. Price, $5.00. Pay $2.00 ctash, $1.25 monthly. No. 771. This is one of our best No. 280 T. A very graceful par-lor table in mahogany finish, with shaped top, exactly like the illus-tration, 20x24 inches. It has a perfect polish or piano finish. Note the large shaped shelf, which also acts as a brace to the French legs. The cut was made from a photograph. Price, 83.00. Pay $2.00 cash, $1.00 monthly. No. 280 T. A very graceful par-No. 771. This is one of our best values in a good, cheap table made of goiden quartered oak, polished. Has a pretty 15-inch shaped top, and quartered plain rim, lower shelf and French legs. A good, solid well-made table at a low price. $7.50. Pay $1.50 eash, downright facts. There are many dealers in this country, even the "tackiest" little fake branch affairs, that will

-and perhaps in good faith, too-claim to sell you cheaper than anyone else can' possibly hope to do. It is a well-known fact that even under ordinary conditions and circumstances Eilers Piano House has always sold the same style, grade and quality of piano for one-third less money than any other dealer. For this reason the advent of retailing fine, brandnew pianos at wholesale cost and less is of unusual importance and significance, and don't forget that they can be purchased at the easiest terms of $5 down and $5 a month.
