New York Aug. 4—The crowd overran the field at the Polo grounds today, when the New York and Chicago teams met for the first game of the most interesting and perhaps critical series of the susson. Police reserves had to be twice called for, and then ground rules limiting any hit to the value of two bases were enforced. Although the visitors were behind at the close of the sixth inning, Mathewson was relieved by Wiltse in the seventh, and during the remainder of the game Chicago made only one safe hit off the newcomer. Seymour, who refused to play yesterday, got back into

AMATEUR SAILORS FLUTTER AROUND ROYALTY.

Races King's Cup and Kalser's Trophy. Kniser's Yacht Will Contest for Honors.

COWES, Aug. 4.—There is every rospect that Cowes week, which will begin Monday, will prove even more brilliant than any similar event of recent years. The attendance of roy-alty, the great attraction of those who go to Cowes for the social side of the regatta, will be rendered more interesting by the presence this year of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, Beside the Spanish royal couple, however, King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family will be present. For vachtamen too the rebe present. For yachtsmen, too, the regatta holds out great promise, there being a great gathering of every size and description here preparing for the races for prizes offered by King Ed-ward, Emperor William and others. The King's prize will be sailed for next Tuesday by yachts owned by members of the Royal Yacht Squadron, while the Emperor William trophy for yachts exceeding 40 tons will be com-peted for the following day. Emperor William has a further interest in the regatta than the race for his prize, his cteor being one of the entrants for yacht to Cowes, but has not as yet de-cided whether he will race it. King Edward's Britannia is anchored off Cowes, but His Majesty will not be in active participation in the competition

Fans Say They Are Fulfilling Fondest Hopes.

NEWS ABOUT OLDTIMERS

Higginbotham and Ike Butler Doing Well-Ed Quick and Jack Drennan Are on the Little Rock, Ark., Team.

The Beavers are fulfilling the fondest expectations on their present Southern To date they have succeeded in taking three out of five from Parke Wilson's hired crew and with Bill Essick in the bex, smarting from his recent string of losses, the big fellows ought to succeed in annexing another this afternoon. Even though Los Angeles is hitting a good clip at present, it is recognized that the Seals are the rivals to be feared most by McCrecke in the pennant chase. Los Angeles has shown a disposition to perform to an examine manner, while in a form in an erratic manner, while in a pinch Parke Wilson succeeds nearly al ways in holding his bunch together—wit ness, for example, the hard time the Beavers have had in opening any dic-tance in the percentage column between thenmelyes and San Francisco. If the home team can but hold its own in Call-fornia this time, it will be well over the rocky places on the rond to Pennantville. Six weeks at home, beginning August 14, will put McCredle and his crew of stickers so far in the lead that they will be out of halling distance.

Higginbotham, the Tacoma pitcher who has just been sold to the St. Louis Nationals, is well known in Portland; in fact, this is his native city. Higginbotham pitched amateur ball here for several years and was a familiar figure on local diamonds last Summer. He has made a good record in the Northwest League and McCloskey has engaged him for a trial. Ike Butler is another Webfoot favorite on the Tacoma staff of twirlers. Many will remember ike as the warm-weather pitcher, who was at his best when the thermometer registered 200 in the shade. Ike is not pitching skyrocket ball, but he is classy enough to hold his own in the Lucas league and there he will probably stay so long as he wishes. he wlahes.

Ed Quick, who was a familiar figure in Northwest baseball several years ago, is buried with the Little Rock club, in the Southern League. Quick has given up the pitching business, like Williams, of the Seals, and is now holding down the first bag. Jack Drennan, the ex-Portland outer fielder, is on the same team. Jack was just beginning to souse the ball when he sprained his teg badly. He will be out of the game for some time, so dispatches say.

A queer thing happened down Alabama way at a ball game recently. The hot-headed southern fans of Montgomery did headed southern fans of Montgomery did not like the treatment the umpire was giving their team, so went on the field to wreak summary vengeance by means of razors, guns and other weapons, known only in the Southern League. But there was a power present with whom the fans had not reckoned. Governor Jelks happened to be a witness of the game, and when he saw that trouble was in the air, he immediately hurried to the rescue of the umpire. Getting before the mob, the Governor delivered an eloquent harangue on personal privilege, clean sport and the like and persuaded the crowd to resume their seats. At this writing it is not known whether Governor Jelks got a season pass or a Victoria Jelks got a season pass or a Victoria cross. He deserves both for risking the wrath of a baseball crazy mob.

McCloskey is making good in the cast as a manager. President Pulliam, of the National League, speaks of his man-agerial ability in the highest terms and the benefit of the non-sectarian San expresses the opinion that Mac will not only pull out among the leaders in the pennant race, but that, with another year in big league baseball, he will take rank Ewey jumped 11 feet 6 inches. Champion Wrestler Training to Fight for Honors.

(Special Cable to Central News and The LONDON, Aug. 4.—Hackenschmidt, the champion wrestler of the world, is out af-ter the world's championship in boxing. He finds no one whom he cannot beat at wrestling, and can no longer make as much money as he did when he had big matches, and gate money as well as purses to win. So he is going to try the oxing game as a change, and hopes to win the title of champion, and then start shead and make money enough to retire into private life. Hackenschmidt has been working at the gloves for a long time under competent instructors, and he is turned out by them as a clever and shifty boxer, as quick as lightning, despite his size, and a regular bear for giving hard whacks and taking

He will go to the United States in the Fall and try to get a match on with Jim Jeffries for the champlonship of the world and the best purse offered. If Jeffries will not fight, he will go after the champion-ship by publicly challenging any claimant and offering to meet all comers. He means business, and is out after the money. He may fight a couple of matches in England before he starts for the United States, but at present his manager, Charles Cock-ran, of the eccentric Club, has made no definite arrangements.

CANCER RESULT OF LUXURY

Dr. Senna Advocates "Simple Life"

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—That cancer can be warded off by the "simple life" is the lesson learned by Dr. Nicholas Senn, who returned to Chicago today from an extended tour through the Interfor of Africa.
