

were enjoyed during the evening, and dainty refreshments were served at a late hour by her mother and Mrs. F. J. Smith. The prizes were won by Miss Jessie Borland and Mr. Walter Moffet. Those present were: Misses Hazel Blackney, Jessie Borland, Verne Bergen, Besse Robinson, Helen McCusker, Lottie Heartsof, Lillian and Marian Morgan, Grace Thompson, Messrs. Kenneth Kinney, Charles Craig, Clement Morris, Teddie Holden, Kenneth Honeyman, Walter Moffet, Harold Bergen, Edward Ludlum, Ralph Garke, Highland Kustner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary Saturday evening, August 11, at their residence, 532 East Grant street. The parlors were very tastefully decorated. Two tables arranged with 20 candles in beautiful candelsticks to represent the china wedding, and an abundance of flowers. The favors were little gauze fans. The guests were: Mrs. D. F. Duncomb, Miss Beulah Duncomb, Miss Emma Duncomb, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meeks, Mr. Frank Sylvester, Mr. Jack Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Miss Frances Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lange, Miss Elga Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Kelly, Master Webster Lange.

The Lindell Hotel, 208 Market street, was the scene of a joyful gathering Saturday evening, Aug. 11. The spacious halls and parlors were elaborately decorated, potted plants, ferns and Oregon grape were greatly in evidence. The affable hostess and proprietor of the hotel, Mrs. James Muldoon, acted as hostess. Lunch was served in an artistically arranged parlor to 50 guests. After refreshments, Miss E. Lucas, of Palo Alto, Cal., awoke many sweet echoes of Old Erin on the piano. A dance concluded the party.

Miss Grace Wilton, who has been spending the Summer in Southern California, was delightfully entertained by a musicale in Los Angeles by Mrs. George C. Marr. Beside the piano solos rendered by Miss Wilton, vocal selections were given by Miss Wilton, and a solo by Mrs. J. Fredricks, a popular soprano of Los Angeles, and Mr. William West, tenor. Miss Wilton was the accompanist of the evening. Miss Wilton was also entertained at the Catalina Hotel, Broadway, Los Angeles.

A party was given last Sunday evening at 247 East Sixth street, at the home of Mrs. W. P. Trainor. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Daniel Trainor, of Winona, Minn. The music was furnished by Miss Florence Jones. A luncheon was served at midnight. There were twenty guests present.

Mrs. Frank A. Oehme entertained in her rooms at "The Bushmark" in honor of Miss Mamie Tuckey, who will leave for Oakland, Cal., Friday evening. Those present were: Miss Rudell, Lily Wilton, Bert Serr, Miss Belfay, B. Waite, Miss Tuckey and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Oehme.

Messrs. Will McKinnon and Martin Tuckey gave a party to a few of their friends last Sunday night at the McKinnon residence. The menu was prepared entirely by the boys, and would have done credit to a French chef.

WEDDINGS

Hiney-Wakefield.

ELMA, Wash., Aug. 17.—(Special).—The society event of the past week was the marriage of Miss Maybelle Wakefield to William Hiney, which took place in the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday evening last. Rev. John Lewis performed the ceremony. This bride is one of Elma's most promising young ladies, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Wakefield, and was one of the Oregonian girls who visited the Yellowstones this Summer. The groom is a well-known business man of this place, and respected by all who know him. The bride was attired in white lace de soie, with veil and orange blossoms. She carried white carnations. Miss Frances Leybold, who acted as maid of honor, wore a gown of white silk mull, figured with pink roses. The Misses Lena Costello, Fajole Foreman, Anna von Borgen, Lilla Flemming, Mouna Herriman, all daintily dressed in white organdie, were bridesmaids. The Mendelssohn wedding march was played on the violin, with organ obligato, by Professor and Mrs. Stetson Howell.

After the marriage service the bridal party and intimate friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where an informal reception was held and refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. Hiney will be at home to their friends after September 1 at Elma, where they have rented a cosy cottage.

Benson-Hellwell.

On Tuesday evening of this week, at 8 o'clock, Miss Louise Hellwell was united in marriage to Edwin Benson. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents at 6 Prescott street. The house was neatly decorated with Christmas ferns and sweet peas and wedding bells hung over the arch where the pair took the sacred vows. The bride was daintily dressed in cream tulle, Valenciennes lace and embroidered muslin de soie. Miss Elizabeth Metcalf sang a selection from the "Lohengrin" wedding march. The groom was accompanied by his brother, Raymond Benson, who was best man. Miss Marian Hellwell was bridesmaid. Rev. A. Lawrence Black, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, was the officiating clergyman. Following the ceremony, supper was served. Many presents of silver and cut glass articles bore witness to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Benson left Wednesday evening for Etna Mills, Cal., where the groom is engaged in the banking business and where they will make their future home.

Coveney-Corrigan.

At St. Mary's Cathedral, Fifteenth and Davis, Tuesday morning, August 14, Thomas Coveney and Catherine Corrigan were united in marriage by the Rev. Father McLevitt. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Helen Noonan, of California. Charles A. Bird was best man. The bride was attired in cream silk, with hat to match. Miss Helen Noonan wore pink and carried bridesmaid roses. Mr. and Mrs. Coveney left for a short trip and will be at home to their friends after August 20 at 208 Sherman street.

Hughes-Murton.

A very pretty wedding took place on Monday last, the 13th inst., at the residence of H. L. Murton, 461 East Twentieth street, North, when Robert T. Hughes and Miss Ethel R. Murton were united in marriage, the Rev. Frederick C. Williams, of Trinity Church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes expect to leave this city early in September and will make their home on their farm near Corvallis, Or.

Workman-Potter.

G. S. Workman and Miss Helen Potter, of Portland, were united in marriage August 12, at the home of the bride's mother, by Rev. John Bayley Welch. Only immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Workman will be at home to their friends at Eleventh and Grover streets after September 1.

Buchan-Rice.

Married, on Tuesday of this week, by Rev. Samuel J. Lindsay, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rice, Mr. James Buchan, of Portland, and Miss Daisy E. Rice, of Hillsboro township. Mr. and Mrs. Buchan will make their home in Portland for the present.

Brennan-Godard.

William J. Brennan and Miss Maud Godard were married last Tuesday, only the immediate friends of both families

MRS. WEIR OF OCEAN PARK AND HER LITTLE GRANDDAUGHTER VISITING.

MRS. C. E. WEIR, WHO ENTERTAINED AT A SCOTCH TEA RECENTLY AT OCEAN PARK.

One of the many semi-formal but altogether delightful gatherings took place on Thursday last week at Ocean Park, on the North Beach, at the inviting little home of Mrs. C. E. Weir, which has been named by its owner "Berrydale." Mrs. Weir is a pillar of Scotch society who formerly resided in Portland, and the entertainment took the form of a Scotch tea, at which such dainties as "scones" and "shortbread" were in hospitable evidence, the tea itself being served in the wedding china of the hostess. A number of favorite old Scotch and Jacobite pieces were rendered on the piano by Mrs. Weir, who, by the way, is rather distinguished as a musician, and which were highly enjoyed by the company. Among those present were: Mrs. N. G. Spofford, of Boise, Idaho; Mrs. C. W. Henderson, of Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. A. H. Hood, Ocean Park; Miss A. Algier, Olympia, Wash.; Miss D. M. Hard, Boise; Miss Inez Spofford, Boise; Miss M. E. Clark, Portland, and Misses Katharine and Kennie Ross, Boise.
