

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morey, Mrs. Julia Freeman, Mrs. A. Ogden, Edith J. Ogden, George Rasmussen and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Rehnstrom, M. P. Murphy, Miss K. Reynolds, Mrs. E. B. Schmitt, Portland, Mrs. A. F. Quillan, Miss Quillan, Miss Mary Quillan, Walsenburg, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tabor, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Rehnstrom, City; Mrs. Jeanie Bussey, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Truitt, and daughter, Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chandler, La Grande; Mrs. C. U. Little, Coquille; Mrs. H. H. Blackburn, P. Coon, Heppner; Thomas McIlwain, Mrs. T. McIlwain, Miss M. McIlwain, Miss O. Johnson, Miss E. Johnson, Conrad, Id.; Walter S. Foley, Spokane.

AT NORTH BEACH RESORTS

Gaiety of the Season Shows No Signs of Abatement. LONG BEACH, Wash., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The season at the resorts here shows little signs as yet of marked abatement. The beach seems as populous as ever, in spite of the fact that a number of young people have returned conspicuously each year in the summer's merry-making have returned home. As yet the influx of new arrivals is holding its own with the outgoing migration of the returning ones. The weather conditions for the most part have been ideal. The early part of the week brought a deluge of mist and fog, that was somewhat discouraging, but this was of short duration, and since the departure of this unwelcome element the clear sky, bracing sea air and balmy sunshine have once more been holding the ascendancy and numerous out-of-door picnics have been the result. The hours are still staying in the game the scene stood 87 degrees against them. The feature of this contest was the batting of Stanley Werschulz, who made three home runs and five singles out of seven times at bat. Tuesday the rubber was played, and this, though a rather one-sided contest, was not devoid of interesting features. This time Werschulz led the slab for the "Muts" against Miller for the opponents, and won his game by a score of 12 to 2.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Prince and the Messrs. Prince, of Portland, are now at Ocean Park. Mrs. J. K. Gill returned to the Park Tuesday, after a short trip to Portland, her grandson, Master Richard Montgomery, accompanied her. Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Butterfield are at their cottage for the remainder of the season. J. W. Street, of Portland, made a short trip to the Park last week, to visit his daughter, who is spending the Summer with friends. Among those who will occupy cottages for the remainder of the Summer are: Mrs. Julia J. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Griddle, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weston and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McMaster and son, Mrs. Lloyd Dubois and son, Mrs. Homer W. W. D. Smith, William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bessler and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. French, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Kain and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. Durfee, Miss Hinkle and child, Miss Dora Fort, Miss Nellie Higgins, Miss Anita Norrell, Miss Ann West, Miss Anna M. West, Miss Homan, Miss Elizabeth Duffin, Miss Bertha Page, Charles Butterfield, Frank L. Porter, Leroy French, Herbert Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Deppening, J. C. Deppening, O. J. Holmes, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. English, Edwin Thomas.

At Camp Princeton, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Orth are entertaining their friends, Mrs. Bouette and son, Mrs. M. W. Mathiesen, Miss A. Klesling, Miss E. Mathiesen, W. Medler, J. Lingus, Emma Mathiesen, Miss M. Bockman and Miss E. Metler, who will soon return to her home in Knoxville, Tenn.

Long Beach and Tioga. An exceedingly clever musical programme was rendered at the Breakers Hotel last Sunday evening by a number of very accommodating guests, by whom some unusually clever music was developed. Perhaps the most notable numbers on the programme were those given by Clyde E. Rogers, one of Seattle's foremost pianists, who captivated his audience with well-nigh perfect technique, brought forth by his rendition of several difficult classics. Another highly pleasing feature of the evening was the clever story-telling of William Scott, who did some extremely laudible impersonating, which convulsed his hearers with laughter. In addition to his own original vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. William Scott, Miss Geraldine Courson, Miss Jeanette Scott, Miss Helen Lytle, and A. Green, with Miss Emily Rothchild as piano accompanist.

Walter Rosenfeld, of Portland, returned home Tuesday after a pleasant fortnight's stay with his sister, Mrs. E. N. Loman. John Peters, of Portland, who spent the week's end at the Breakers, returned to the city Monday, his wife and mother-in-law accompanying him.

Mr. R. L. Adams and family have come to South Bend, where they will visit Miss M. Grady. Mr. and Mrs. George Piper, who have been spending a very pleasant fortnight at the Breakers, returned to their home in Seattle last Sunday.

Mr. Ray Eaton returned to his home in Portland last Monday after an exceedingly pleasant vacation at the Breakers.

Miss Lulu King visited friends at Tioga during the early part of the week. A pleasant dancing party was given at the Hotel Wickham last Tuesday evening. Music was furnished by Miss Mary McKinnon, and the affair was attended by the guests of the house and their friends in the neighborhood.

A merry party was given at Long Beach at North Head one morning last week. The party was given by Mrs. A. Praell in honor of Captain William Long and daughter, Miss Alice, of Orono. A delightful picnic luncheon was spread under the trees. The members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Praell, Captain Long, Miss Long, A. M. Legrand, Miss Legrand and Miss Margaret Heraberg.

One of the prettiest of the season was given at Centerdale Wednesday evening, August 15, by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, of Portland. The evening was enjoyed by toasting marshmallows. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. E. L. Shaffer, Misses Mary Watson, "Nessie" Watson, Margaret DuBois, Duella Segur and Earl DuBois.

A merry party from Hotel Salt Air spent Tuesday at North Head lighthouse and Fort Canby. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn, Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Abe Labovitch, A. Edward Labovitch, Jr., Miss M. Towar, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Trower, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Peery, Miss House, of Ellensburg; Mrs. Porter, of New York City, and Professor House, of St. Louis. Seaview. Mrs. Philip Schuyler entertained a very select party at her Summer home last Tuesday. Bridge whist furnished the principal amusement for the afternoon, and at the conclusion of the cards delat refreshments were served in the dining-room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The guests were: Mrs. Henry Corbett, Mrs. A. Mason, Mrs. Theodore H. Wilcox, Misses Holman, Mrs. Fred Maitler, Mrs. James Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Carrie Pratt, Mrs. William Ladd and Mrs. William Alvord.

Thursday afternoon Messrs. Ralph and Leo Hahn, Guy Bennett and Charles Goulding gave a very delightful sailing party on their yacht Glomonda, in which they had made the trip from Portland earlier in the week. Leaving Ilwaco with the coming of the morning sea breeze, the party reached Fort Canby in safety after a delightful sail across Baker's Bay. From there they visited the numerous points of interest, including the lighthouse, lifeguard station and cove, and then returned to their ship, where a luncheon was made with wine and music. Those making the trip were Miss gan, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, the Messrs. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

The largest musical event witnessed at Seaview occurred at the Hackney cottage last Friday evening, when a complimentary concert was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harawa, a rising young singer of Portland. Owing to the length of the programme, no encores were permitted, but notwithstanding this fact the enthusiasm of the appreciative audience broke its bonds several times during the evening and forced the performers to wait until the applause had ceased. Otherwise the programme went through from beginning to end without interruption. Miss Harawa herself delighted the audience several times with the vocal waltz, "Carmina," the aria from "Roberto" and a group of three songs, "Just a Wearying for You," "Four-Leaf Clover" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," the last of which was rendered in the open air from the porch of the house. Other numbers deserving of special mention were the readings of Miss Jennie Hagedorn, who has just returned from education work in the East, and the duet by Misses Frances Bingham and Nancy Beale, "Slumber Song," by Vincent. In addition to this the programme consisted of vocal selections by Miss Theresia Smith, Miss Madeline Stone, Mrs. Shinnott, Miss have been visiting Mrs. H. R. Robertson, returned to their home in Seattle last week. Misses Lillian and Madeline Stone returned to the Hackney cottage. J. A. Burton, of Portland, will spend the remainder of the month with friends near Holman's Station. Chief Sanford Rosenfeld, of the famous "Wigwam Tribe," returned to his home in Portland last Tuesday, after a pleasant week at the Hackney cottage. N. J. Levinson, of Portland, spent a few days with his family at Seaview last week. Mrs. William Ladd had a family reunion last Saturday, at which 12 members of the family were present. A party headed by George Kendell left Sunset cottage Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to go crab fishing. After making a good catch, a fire was built on the beach and the trabs cooked for breakfast. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Kendell, Miss Winnie Kendell, Miss Edna Regan, Agnes Torgler, Miss Alison, Arthur Torgler and Fred Kaston. The Hackney Cottage. Bertha Hanson, Myrtle Hanson, Mrs. Harry J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harris, Carrie Harris, Mrs. T. W. Whitney, S. C. Pler, Jr., Elizabeth Harawa, J. H.

Two Talented Young Actresses Go East. Miss Edith Angus and Miss Virginia Brisacc are two young actresses who have played in stock in Portland and who are exceedingly popular and possess each a host of friends and admirers. Miss Angus played second leading woman in the Columbia Stock Company, and Miss Brisacc played ingenue parts in the Ralph Stuart Company. Both played in the Belasco Company. It will please their many well-wishers to know that they have most auspicious plans marked out in the East just now. They start for New York in a few days from San Francisco, (where they are now resting at the home of Miss Brisacc's father), Miss Angus to join the Frohman forces, and Miss Brisacc to enter Florence Roberts' Company.

Rose Schacht, Miss E. Gerspach, Miss Judy Schacht, Miss Jessie Hurley, Miss Vivian Holmes, Wild Honeyman and Roy Fields.

Friday afternoon the Glomonda left for Portland, carrying with her the good wishes of a host of friends of those on board. Misses Jessie and Evelyn Hurley and Miss Vivian Holmes, after considerable persuasion and more or less misgivings finally consented to sail on the yacht as far as Astoria, and they are emphatic in declaring it one of the notable incidents of their lives. After rounding the upper end of Sand Island the boat was headed for the open sea, which course was maintained until she was opposite the end of the jetty. Here she made a bit of maneuvering, owing to the heavy swell, she was turned around and headed for Astoria, which place was reached without incident after a very pleasant sail of over 30 miles.

Miss Louise Conant, a well-known artist from Portland, entertained a delightful lawn party at 500 on the afternoon of Thursday, August 9. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. L. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Perkins, and was held at the new Summer home of the hostess, which has been christened "The Alders."

The dress upon the grounds where the tables were set were artistically decorated with little baskets made of flannel floats which were painted red and suspended from the branches, and which were filled with nasturtiums and sweet peas. At one side of the yard a pretty little arbor was arranged, in which less and punch were served throughout the afternoon. About 40 guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess, whose entertaining ability made the afternoon one of unusual pleasure for those invited.

The Messrs. Mastick gave a very charming little card party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of the Misses Edwina and Ramona, daughters of San Rafael, Cal. The tables were to have been set out of doors, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, the entertainment was given in the house, which was daintily decorated with flowers for the occasion. Six tables of progressive 500 were arranged and after a close contest, the prizes were awarded to Miss Margaret O'Connor and Mrs. Howard Russell. At the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments were served as a final act of hospitality, and the guests dispersed after a most enjoyable afternoon.

A merry party of six enjoyed a pleasant drive on the beach last Tuesday, leaving Seaview in the morning, the lifeguard station at Ocean Park was reached in ample time for a vigorous attack on the basket lunch which had been provided, before the weekly surf drill took place. After watching the performance of this well-trained crew of seamen with great interest, the party returned home by the road, and unanimously declared that the trip had been a decided success. In spite of the heavy mist which prevailed during the return trip. In the party were Roy Pease, Miss Jessie Anderson, Mrs. F. A. McKinnon, Mrs. Jeanie McKinnon, and the affair was attended by the guests of the house and their friends in the neighborhood.

A merry party was given at Long Beach at North Head one morning last week. The party was given by Mrs. A. Praell in honor of Captain William Long and daughter, Miss Alice, of Orono. A delightful picnic luncheon was spread under the trees. The members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Praell, Captain Long, Miss Long, A. M. Legrand, Miss Legrand and Miss Margaret Heraberg.

One of the prettiest of the season was given at Centerdale Wednesday evening, August 15, by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, of Portland. The evening was enjoyed by toasting marshmallows. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. E. L. Shaffer, Misses Mary Watson, "Nessie" Watson, Margaret DuBois, Duella Segur and Earl DuBois.

A merry party from Hotel Salt Air spent Tuesday at North Head lighthouse and Fort Canby. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn, Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Abe Labovitch, A. Edward Labovitch, Jr., Miss M. Towar, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Trower, of Detroit,

Mich.; Mrs. Peery, Miss House, of Ellensburg; Mrs. Porter, of New York City, and Professor House, of St. Louis. Seaview. Mrs. Philip Schuyler entertained a very select party at her Summer home last Tuesday. Bridge whist furnished the principal amusement for the afternoon, and at the conclusion of the cards delat refreshments were served in the dining-room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The guests were: Mrs. Henry Corbett, Mrs. A. Mason, Mrs. Theodore H. Wilcox, Misses Holman, Mrs. Fred Maitler, Mrs. James Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Carrie Pratt, Mrs. William Ladd and Mrs. William Alvord.

Thursday afternoon Messrs. Ralph and Leo Hahn, Guy Bennett and Charles Goulding gave a very delightful sailing party on their yacht Glomonda, in which they had made the trip from Portland earlier in the week. Leaving Ilwaco with the coming of the morning sea breeze, the party reached Fort Canby in safety after a delightful sail across Baker's Bay. From there they visited the numerous points of interest, including the lighthouse, lifeguard station and cove, and then returned to their ship, where a luncheon was made with wine and music. Those making the trip were Miss gan, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, the Messrs. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

The largest musical event witnessed at Seaview occurred at the Hackney cottage last Friday evening, when a complimentary concert was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harawa, a rising young singer of Portland. Owing to the length of the programme, no encores were permitted, but notwithstanding this fact the enthusiasm of the appreciative audience broke its bonds several times during the evening and forced the performers to wait until the applause had ceased. Otherwise the programme went through from beginning to end without interruption. Miss Harawa herself delighted the audience several times with the vocal waltz, "Carmina," the aria from "Roberto" and a group of three songs, "Just a Wearying for You," "Four-Leaf Clover" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," the last of which was rendered in the open air from the porch of the house. Other numbers deserving of special mention were the readings of Miss Jennie Hagedorn, who has just returned from education work in the East, and the duet by Misses Frances Bingham and Nancy Beale, "Slumber Song," by Vincent. In addition to this the programme consisted of vocal selections by Miss Theresia Smith, Miss Madeline Stone, Mrs. Shinnott, Miss have been visiting Mrs. H. R. Robertson, returned to their home in Seattle last week. Misses Lillian and Madeline Stone returned to the Hackney cottage. J. A. Burton, of Portland, will spend the remainder of the month with friends near Holman's Station. Chief Sanford Rosenfeld, of the famous "Wigwam Tribe," returned to his home in Portland last Tuesday, after a pleasant week at the Hackney cottage. N. J. Levinson, of Portland, spent a few days with his family at Seaview last week. Mrs. William Ladd had a family reunion last Saturday, at which 12 members of the family were present. A party headed by George Kendell left Sunset cottage Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to go crab fishing. After making a good catch, a fire was built on the beach and the trabs cooked for breakfast. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Kendell, Miss Winnie Kendell, Miss Edna Regan, Agnes Torgler, Miss Alison, Arthur Torgler and Fred Kaston. The Hackney Cottage. Bertha Hanson, Myrtle Hanson, Mrs. Harry J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harris, Carrie Harris, Mrs. T. W. Whitney, S. C. Pler, Jr., Elizabeth Harawa, J. H.

Two Talented Young Actresses Go East. Miss Edith Angus and Miss Virginia Brisacc are two young actresses who have played in stock in Portland and who are exceedingly popular and possess each a host of friends and admirers. Miss Angus played second leading woman in the Columbia Stock Company, and Miss Brisacc played ingenue parts in the Ralph Stuart Company. Both played in the Belasco Company. It will please their many well-wishers to know that they have most auspicious plans marked out in the East just now. They start for New York in a few days from San Francisco, (where they are now resting at the home of Miss Brisacc's father), Miss Angus to join the Frohman forces, and Miss Brisacc to enter Florence Roberts' Company.

Rose Schacht, Miss E. Gerspach, Miss Judy Schacht, Miss Jessie Hurley, Miss Vivian Holmes, Wild Honeyman and Roy Fields.

Friday afternoon the Glomonda left for Portland, carrying with her the good wishes of a host of friends of those on board. Misses Jessie and Evelyn Hurley and Miss Vivian Holmes, after considerable persuasion and more or less misgivings finally consented to sail on the yacht as far as Astoria, and they are emphatic in declaring it one of the notable incidents of their lives. After rounding the upper end of Sand Island the boat was headed for the open sea, which course was maintained until she was opposite the end of the jetty. Here she made a bit of maneuvering, owing to the heavy swell, she was turned around and headed for Astoria, which place was reached without incident after a very pleasant sail of over 30 miles.

Miss Louise Conant, a well-known artist from Portland, entertained a delightful lawn party at 500 on the afternoon of Thursday, August 9. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. L. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Perkins, and was held at the new Summer home of the hostess, which has been christened "The Alders."

The dress upon the grounds where the tables were set were artistically decorated with little baskets made of flannel floats which were painted red and suspended from the branches, and which were filled with nasturtiums and sweet peas. At one side of the yard a pretty little arbor was arranged, in which less and punch were served throughout the afternoon. About 40 guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess, whose entertaining ability made the afternoon one of unusual pleasure for those invited.

The Messrs. Mastick gave a very charming little card party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of the Misses Edwina and Ramona, daughters of San Rafael, Cal. The tables were to have been set out of doors, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, the entertainment was given in the house, which was daintily decorated with flowers for the occasion. Six tables of progressive 500 were arranged and after a close contest, the prizes were awarded to Miss Margaret O'Connor and Mrs. Howard Russell. At the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments were served as a final act of hospitality, and the guests dispersed after a most enjoyable afternoon.

A merry party of six enjoyed a pleasant drive on the beach last Tuesday, leaving Seaview in the morning, the lifeguard station at Ocean Park was reached in ample time for a vigorous attack on the basket lunch which had been provided, before the weekly surf drill took place. After watching the performance of this well-trained crew of seamen with great interest, the party returned home by the road, and unanimously declared that the trip had been a decided success. In spite of the heavy mist which prevailed during the return trip. In the party were Roy Pease, Miss Jessie Anderson, Mrs. F. A. McKinnon, Mrs. Jeanie McKinnon, and the affair was attended by the guests of the house and their friends in the neighborhood.

A merry party was given at Long Beach at North Head one morning last week. The party was given by Mrs. A. Praell in honor of Captain William Long and daughter, Miss Alice, of Orono. A delightful picnic luncheon was spread under the trees. The members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Praell, Captain Long, Miss Long, A. M. Legrand, Miss Legrand and Miss Margaret Heraberg.

One of the prettiest of the season was given at Centerdale Wednesday evening, August 15, by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, of Portland. The evening was enjoyed by toasting marshmallows. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. E. L. Shaffer, Misses Mary Watson, "Nessie" Watson, Margaret DuBois, Duella Segur and Earl DuBois.

A merry party from Hotel Salt Air spent Tuesday at North Head lighthouse and Fort Canby. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn, Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Abe Labovitch, A. Edward Labovitch, Jr., Miss M. Towar, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Trower, of Detroit,

Mich.; Mrs. Peery, Miss House, of Ellensburg; Mrs. Porter, of New York City, and Professor House, of St. Louis. Seaview. Mrs. Philip Schuyler entertained a very select party at her Summer home last Tuesday. Bridge whist furnished the principal amusement for the afternoon, and at the conclusion of the cards delat refreshments were served in the dining-room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The guests were: Mrs. Henry Corbett, Mrs. A. Mason, Mrs. Theodore H. Wilcox, Misses Holman, Mrs. Fred Maitler, Mrs. James Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Carrie Pratt, Mrs. William Ladd and Mrs. William Alvord.

gan, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, the Messrs. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

The largest musical event witnessed at Seaview occurred at the Hackney cottage last Friday evening, when a complimentary concert was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harawa, a rising young singer of Portland. Owing to the length of the programme, no encores were permitted, but notwithstanding this fact the enthusiasm of the appreciative audience broke its bonds several times during the evening and forced the performers to wait until the applause had ceased. Otherwise the programme went through from beginning to end without interruption. Miss Harawa herself delighted the audience several times with the vocal waltz, "Carmina," the aria from "Roberto" and a group of three songs, "Just a Wearying for You," "Four-Leaf Clover" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," the last of which was rendered in the open air from the porch of the house. Other numbers deserving of special mention were the readings of Miss Jennie Hagedorn, who has just returned from education work in the East, and the duet by Misses Frances Bingham and Nancy Beale, "Slumber Song," by Vincent. In addition to this the programme consisted of vocal selections by Miss Theresia Smith, Miss Madeline Stone, Mrs. Shinnott, Miss have been visiting Mrs. H. R. Robertson, returned to their home in Seattle last week. Misses Lillian and Madeline Stone returned to the Hackney cottage. J. A. Burton, of Portland, will spend the remainder of the month with friends near Holman's Station. Chief Sanford Rosenfeld, of the famous "Wigwam Tribe," returned to his home in Portland last Tuesday, after a pleasant week at the Hackney cottage. N. J. Levinson, of Portland, spent a few days with his family at Seaview last week. Mrs. William Ladd had a family reunion last Saturday, at which 12 members of the family were present. A party headed by George Kendell left Sunset cottage Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to go crab fishing. After making a good catch, a fire was built on the beach and the trabs cooked for breakfast. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Kendell, Miss Winnie Kendell, Miss Edna Regan, Agnes Torgler, Miss Alison, Arthur Torgler and Fred Kaston. The Hackney Cottage. Bertha Hanson, Myrtle Hanson, Mrs. Harry J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harris, Carrie Harris, Mrs. T. W. Whitney, S. C. Pler, Jr., Elizabeth Harawa, J. H.

Two Talented Young Actresses Go East. Miss Edith Angus and Miss Virginia Brisacc are two young actresses who have played in stock in Portland and who are exceedingly popular and possess each a host of friends and admirers. Miss Angus played second leading woman in the Columbia Stock Company, and Miss Brisacc played ingenue parts in the Ralph Stuart Company. Both played in the Belasco Company. It will please their many well-wishers to know that they have most auspicious plans marked out in the East just now. They start for New York in a few days from San Francisco, (where they are now resting at the home of Miss Brisacc's father), Miss Angus to join the Frohman forces, and Miss Brisacc to enter Florence Roberts' Company.

Rose Schacht, Miss E. Gerspach, Miss Judy Schacht, Miss Jessie Hurley, Miss Vivian Holmes, Wild Honeyman and Roy Fields.

Friday afternoon the Glomonda left for Portland, carrying with her the good wishes of a host of friends of those on board. Misses Jessie and Evelyn Hurley and Miss Vivian Holmes, after considerable persuasion and more or less misgivings finally consented to sail on the yacht as far as Astoria, and they are emphatic in declaring it one of the notable incidents of their lives. After rounding the upper end of Sand Island the boat was headed for the open sea, which course was maintained until she was opposite the end of the jetty. Here she made a bit of maneuvering, owing to the heavy swell, she was turned around and headed for Astoria, which place was reached without incident after a very pleasant sail of over 30 miles.

Miss Louise Conant, a well-known artist from Portland, entertained a delightful lawn party at 500 on the afternoon of Thursday, August 9. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. L. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Perkins, and was held at the new Summer home of the hostess, which has been christened "The Alders."

The dress upon the grounds where the tables were set were artistically decorated with little baskets made of flannel floats which were painted red and suspended from the branches, and which were filled with nasturtiums and sweet peas. At one side of the yard a pretty little arbor was arranged, in which less and punch were served throughout the afternoon. About 40 guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess, whose entertaining ability made the afternoon one of unusual pleasure for those invited.

The Messrs. Mastick gave a very charming little card party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of the Misses Edwina and Ramona, daughters of San Rafael, Cal. The tables were to have been set out of doors, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, the entertainment was given in the house, which was daintily decorated with flowers for the occasion. Six tables of progressive 500 were arranged and after a close contest, the prizes were awarded to Miss Margaret O'Connor and Mrs. Howard Russell. At the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments were served as a final act of hospitality, and the guests dispersed after a most enjoyable afternoon.

A merry party of six enjoyed a pleasant drive on the beach last Tuesday, leaving Seaview in the morning, the lifeguard station at Ocean Park was reached in ample time for a vigorous attack on the basket lunch which had been provided, before the weekly surf drill took place. After watching the performance of this well-trained crew of seamen with great interest, the party returned home by the road, and unanimously declared that the trip had been a decided success. In spite of the heavy mist which prevailed during the return trip. In the party were Roy Pease, Miss Jessie Anderson, Mrs. F. A. McKinnon, Mrs. Jeanie McKinnon, and the affair was attended by the guests of the house and their friends in the neighborhood.

A merry party was given at Long Beach at North Head one morning last week. The party was given by Mrs. A. Praell in honor of Captain William Long and daughter, Miss Alice, of Orono. A delightful picnic luncheon was spread under the trees. The members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Praell, Captain Long, Miss Long, A. M. Legrand, Miss Legrand and Miss Margaret Heraberg.

One of the prettiest of the season was given at Centerdale Wednesday evening, August 15, by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, of Portland. The evening was enjoyed by toasting marshmallows. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. E. L. Shaffer, Misses Mary Watson, "Nessie" Watson, Margaret DuBois, Duella Segur and Earl DuBois.

A merry party from Hotel Salt Air spent Tuesday at North Head lighthouse and Fort Canby. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn, Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Abe Labovitch, A. Edward Labovitch, Jr., Miss M. Towar, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Trower, of Detroit,

Mich.; Mrs. Peery, Miss House, of Ellensburg; Mrs. Porter, of New York City, and Professor House, of St. Louis. Seaview. Mrs. Philip Schuyler entertained a very select party at her Summer home last Tuesday. Bridge whist furnished the principal amusement for the afternoon, and at the conclusion of the cards delat refreshments were served in the dining-room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The guests were: Mrs. Henry Corbett, Mrs. A. Mason, Mrs. Theodore H. Wilcox, Misses Holman, Mrs. Fred Maitler, Mrs. James Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Carrie Pratt, Mrs. William Ladd and Mrs. William Alvord.

Thursday afternoon Messrs. Ralph and Leo Hahn, Guy Bennett and Charles Goulding gave a very delightful sailing party on their yacht Glomonda, in which they had made the trip from Portland earlier in the week. Leaving Ilwaco with the coming of the morning sea breeze, the party reached Fort Canby in safety after a delightful sail across Baker's Bay. From there they visited the numerous points of interest, including the lighthouse, lifeguard station and cove, and then returned to their ship, where a luncheon was made with wine and music. Those making the trip were Miss gan, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, the Messrs. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

The largest musical event witnessed at Seaview occurred at the Hackney cottage last Friday evening, when a complimentary concert was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harawa, a rising young singer of Portland. Owing to the length of the programme, no encores were permitted, but notwithstanding this fact the enthusiasm of the appreciative audience broke its bonds several times during the evening and forced the performers to wait until the applause had ceased. Otherwise the programme went through from beginning to end without interruption. Miss Harawa herself delighted the audience several times with the vocal waltz, "Carmina," the aria from "Roberto" and a group of three songs, "Just a Wearying for You," "Four-Leaf Clover" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," the last of which was rendered in the open air from the porch of the house. Other numbers deserving of special mention were the readings of Miss Jennie Hagedorn, who has just returned from education work in the East, and the duet by Misses Frances Bingham and Nancy Beale, "Slumber Song," by Vincent. In addition to this the programme consisted of vocal selections by Miss Theresia Smith, Miss Madeline Stone, Mrs. Shinnott, Miss have been visiting Mrs. H. R. Robertson, returned to their home in Seattle last week. Misses Lillian and Madeline Stone returned to the Hackney cottage. J. A. Burton, of Portland, will spend the remainder of the month with friends near Holman's Station. Chief Sanford Rosenfeld, of the famous "Wigwam Tribe," returned to his home in Portland last Tuesday, after a pleasant week at the Hackney cottage. N. J. Levinson, of Portland, spent a few days with his family at Seaview last week. Mrs. William Ladd had a family reunion last Saturday, at which 12 members of the family were present. A party headed by George Kendell left Sunset cottage Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to go crab fishing. After making a good catch, a fire was built on the beach and the trabs cooked for breakfast. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Kendell, Miss Winnie Kendell, Miss Edna Regan, Agnes Torgler, Miss Alison, Arthur Torgler and Fred Kaston. The Hackney Cottage. Bertha Hanson, Myrtle Hanson, Mrs. Harry J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harris, Carrie Harris, Mrs. T. W. Whitney, S. C. Pler, Jr., Elizabeth Harawa, J. H.

Two Talented Young Actresses Go East. Miss Edith Angus and Miss Virginia Brisacc are two young actresses who have played in stock in Portland and who are exceedingly popular and possess each a host of friends and admirers. Miss Angus played second leading woman in the Columbia Stock Company, and Miss Brisacc played ingenue parts in the Ralph Stuart Company. Both played in the Belasco Company. It will please their many well-wishers to know that they have most auspicious plans marked out in the East just now. They start for New York in a few days from San Francisco, (where they are now resting at the home of Miss Brisacc's father), Miss Angus to join the Frohman forces, and Miss Brisacc to enter Florence Roberts' Company.

Rose Schacht, Miss E. Gerspach, Miss Judy Schacht, Miss Jessie Hurley, Miss Vivian Holmes, Wild Honeyman and Roy Fields.

Friday afternoon the Glomonda left for Portland, carrying with her the good wishes of a host of friends of those on board. Misses Jessie and Evelyn Hurley and Miss Vivian Holmes, after considerable persuasion and more or less misgivings finally consented to sail on the yacht as far as Astoria, and they are emphatic in declaring it one of the notable incidents of their lives. After rounding the upper end of Sand Island the boat was headed for the open sea, which course was maintained until she was opposite the end of the jetty. Here she made a bit of maneuvering, owing to the heavy swell, she was turned around and headed for Astoria, which place was reached without incident after a very pleasant sail of over 30 miles.

Miss Louise Conant, a well-known artist from Portland, entertained a delightful lawn party at 500 on the afternoon of Thursday, August 9. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. L. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Perkins, and was held at the new Summer home of the hostess, which has been christened "The Alders."

The dress upon the grounds where the tables were set were artistically decorated with little baskets made of flannel floats which were painted red and suspended from the branches, and which were filled with nasturtiums and sweet peas. At one side of the yard a pretty little arbor was arranged, in which less and punch were served throughout the afternoon. About 40 guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess, whose entertaining ability made the afternoon one of unusual pleasure for those invited.

The Messrs. Mastick gave a very charming little card party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of the Misses Edwina and Ramona, daughters of San Rafael, Cal. The tables were to have been set out of doors, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, the entertainment was given in the house, which was daintily decorated with flowers for the occasion. Six tables of progressive 500 were arranged and after a close contest, the prizes were awarded to Miss Margaret O'Connor and Mrs. Howard Russell. At the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments were served as a final act of hospitality, and the guests dispersed after a most enjoyable afternoon.

A merry party of six enjoyed a pleasant drive on the beach last Tuesday, leaving Seaview in the morning, the lifeguard station at Ocean Park was reached in ample time for a vigorous attack on the basket lunch which had been provided, before the weekly surf drill took place. After watching the performance of this well-trained crew of seamen with great interest, the party returned home by the road, and unanimously declared that the trip had been a decided success. In spite of the heavy mist which prevailed during the return trip. In the party were Roy Pease, Miss Jessie Anderson, Mrs. F. A. McKinnon, Mrs. Jeanie McKinnon, and the affair was attended by the guests of the house and their friends in the neighborhood.

A merry party was given at Long Beach at North Head one morning last week. The party was given by Mrs. A. Praell in honor of Captain William Long and daughter, Miss Alice, of Orono. A delightful picnic luncheon was spread under the trees. The members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Praell, Captain Long, Miss Long, A. M. Legrand, Miss Legrand and Miss Margaret Heraberg.

One of the prettiest of the season was given at Centerdale Wednesday evening, August 15, by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, of Portland. The evening was enjoyed by toasting marshmallows. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. DeBols, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. E. L. Shaffer, Misses Mary Watson, "Nessie" Watson, Margaret DuBois, Duella Segur and Earl DuBois.

A merry party from Hotel Salt Air spent Tuesday at North Head lighthouse and Fort Canby. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn, Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Abe Labovitch, A. Edward Labovitch, Jr., Miss M. Towar, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Trower, of Detroit,

Mich.; Mrs. Peery, Miss House, of Ellensburg; Mrs. Porter, of New York City, and Professor House, of St. Louis. Seaview. Mrs. Philip Schuyler entertained a very select party at her Summer home last Tuesday. Bridge whist furnished the principal amusement for the afternoon, and at the conclusion of the cards delat refreshments were served in the dining-room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The guests were: Mrs. Henry Corbett, Mrs. A. Mason, Mrs. Theodore H. Wilcox, Misses Holman, Mrs. Fred Maitler, Mrs. James Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Carrie Pratt, Mrs. William Ladd and Mrs. William Alvord.

Thursday afternoon Messrs. Ralph and Leo Hahn, Guy Bennett and Charles Goulding gave a very delightful sailing party on their yacht Glomonda, in which they had made the trip from Portland earlier in the week. Leaving Ilwaco with the coming of the morning sea breeze, the party reached Fort Canby in safety after a delightful sail across Baker's Bay. From there they visited the numerous points of interest, including the lighthouse, lifeguard station and cove, and then returned to their ship, where a luncheon was made with wine and music. Those making the trip were Miss

gan, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, the Messrs. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

gan, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, the Messrs. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Campbell.

The largest musical event witnessed at Seaview occurred at the Hackney cottage last Friday evening, when a complimentary concert was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harawa, a rising young singer of Portland. Owing to the length of the programme, no encores were permitted, but notwithstanding this fact the enthusiasm of the appreciative audience broke its bonds several times during the evening and forced the performers to wait until the applause had ceased. Otherwise the programme went through from beginning to end without interruption. Miss Harawa herself delighted the audience several times with the vocal waltz, "Carmina," the aria from "Roberto" and a group of three songs,