

FORTUNE SMILES
HORSE RACER

Electioneer Wins Futurity in Furious Drive Against 15 Good Ones.

CAME LATE INTO FAVOR

Starting Ninth From Web, Year's Wonder Overtakes Big Field Dextrously Piloted by Game Little Shaw.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Down a lane of gray-brown earth, which had all the softness of velvet beneath the tread of the flying thoroughbred hoofs, 15 feet 2-year-olds raced madly today to a goal three-quarters of a mile away, where lay a purse of close to $50,000. It was the 19th running of the Futurity at Sheepshead Bay, and as a roar from nearly 40,000 throats rent the air Electioneer, a well-named colt by Viceroy and Gashard, under the wire, a winner by three-quarters of a length, another champion had been proclaimed, and William Lakeland, a horseman by profession, who trains his bread-winners himself and sleeps in the barn when necessary, had snatched the richest prize of the year from half a score of millionaires.

At the winner's quarters was Pope Joan, the fastest filly of the year, and the best of the trio which James R.
Keene sent to the post. In the days of his youth he had been a favorite of the short price of 8 to 5. Demand, the Goldfinch colt for which Paul J. Rainey paid $45,000 early in the season, was third, beaten by the most widely honored by the shortest of heads. He ran a creditable race. Next came Yankee Gun, an added starter; Peter Pan, to which the frantic players of the Keene stable had pinned their faith; Yankee Girl, owned by C. R. Ellison; Ballot, added by Mr. Keene to take the place of Zam-bezi; Conville, one of the most widely tipped horses in the race; Horace E., the famous Western colt bought by Roy Rainey for $25,000, and the Futurity in view; Don Enrique, the Belmont representative; Kentucky Beau, backed from 20 to 1 down to 12 to 1; Old Honesty, the only 100-to-1 shot in the stake; Altuda Cran, played by a few because of his mount, and last of all Purslane, which opened at 50 to 1 and stayed there.

Race Won Without Fault.
It was one of the best and most truly run Futurities ever seen. So well bunched was the field that a furlong from home any one of the 15 had a chance. But Electioneer was best. He never faltered under a grueling drive, which began at the head of the stretch and lasted until the finish. Jockey Willie Shaw was in the saddle and never did a boy give a more skillful exhibition of horsemanship.
He judged his pace and timed his winning rush to the fraction of a second.
He placed his whip without mercy through the last furlong, and won a race which called forth a thunder of cheers for both horse and rider.

Electioneer was second choice in the betting at four to one. In the days of rush Electioneer was overlooked and his price lengthened to eighths. Then there followed a scene in the ring such as has been seldom witnessed at Sheepshead Bay. Electioneer money seemed to pour in from every side, and the layers were stamped under the cloudburst of gold, silver and notes which were thrust upon them. Peter Pan, Pope Joan and Ballot, of the Keene entry were neglected.

Bettors Wake Up.
The glamor faded from the $45,000 Demand and the $25,000 Horace E. The millionaire owners were passed by in the mad hurry to back the horse of a practical horseman. From 1 to 5 the bookmakers cut until just half that figure was the prevailing odds at post-time. Even then the Electioneer followers kept hammering away until 1 to 2 was hard to find in the last few seconds.
There was a delay of nearly eight minutes at the post. Then the webbing was sprung, and away jumped Pope Joan. Peter Pan followed her for a few hundred yards but the race was good swift for him. Yankee Gun got away third and Horace E. was fourth to show.
Electioneer had been the favorite at the break, though the start was good for all. He was ninth as the timer's flag went down. Shaw took in the situation and acted with swift decision. He pulled Electioneer well to the outside and began a race which will live long in the memory of those who saw it. Clear of interference, Electioneer set to work to overhaul his field. At the turn into the stretch of the main track he was still lengths away from Pope Joan, who was already being hailed as the winner.
Demand was second, fighting the Keene filly at every step. Peter Pan was third and Yankee Gun fourth.

Mows Down His Field.
Shaw pulled his whip, and at the first lash Electioneer jumped into a quicker stride. Heart-breaking rush, until just a few yards from the wire his mane showed front of Pope Joan. The record-breaking crowd roared its encouragement. Shaw plied the whip more and the race was over. As Shaw returned with the winner to weigh in he was greeted by a remarkable demonstration.

It was unquestionably one of the most popular victories of the year and the blow the racegoers dealt the bookmakers was stinging. The time, 1:13 3-5, was not fast.

The Futurity purse this year contained exactly $46,750. Of this amount $37,250 went to Mr. Lakeland, the owner of the winner. Mr. Keene received $250 as the share for the second horse and Paul Rainey drew $300 for Demand's third honors.

Division of Purse.
Electioneer was bred and nominated by the late Major G. H. Thomas of Kentucky. Two thousand dollars of the Futurity purse goes to the nominator of the winner but Major Thomas being dead, the $200 will be paid to his estate.
Mr. Keene received an additional $250 for nominating the second horse and $500 goes to J. B. Haggin, the nominator of Demand. Residue, the nominator of Yankee Gun.

By day and by night the crowds have swarmed into this wonderful playground.
Its shaded nooks and cooling breezes are a grateful relief to the heat-oppressed city dweller. That such attractions as the Maze, Hump, Chutes, Laughing Gal-lers, Whirl, Rink, Dancing Pavilion, Hales' Tour Cars, the Old Mill, Figure Eight and Carousel have lost none of their fascination is evidenced by the fact that from 500 to 10,000 women and children alone enjoy these sports daily since the admission is free to them all but Saturday, Sunday and holidays. No expense is being spared to make the free affairs; but we believe the recital to be given next Tuesday evening at the First Methodist Church, corner of Third and Taylor streets, by Mr. C.

Arthur Longwell, of New York, will be unusually interesting. Mr. Longwell will use the A. B. Chase player piano, and will render the following programme. A unique feature of the evening will be the accompaniment played by Mr. Longwell on this play-known vocalist, appears.

SALEM CHIEF IS SNUBBED

RESENTS BY SUSPENDING HIS OF-FENDING SUBORDINATE.
Members of the City Council Are Said to Be Involved in Disclosures That Are Promised.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)— Chief Cornelius today suspended Officer Longcor. No reasons were given for this summary action, but it is said that when the matter comes up for hearing before the City Council next Monday night there will be some sensational charges presented.
The trouble between Chief Cornelius and Longcor began last winter when the dominant faction, antagonistic to the chief, elected Longcor against the chief's wishes. The relations of the two officers have never been harmonious but open hostilities did not begin until this summer, when Longcor continued the policy of driving all traps out of the city, while Chief Cornelius wanted them left in town long enough for the farmers to offer them jobs.
The chief has complained that his subordinate would not show proper respect for his authority. For several weeks it has been known that the police committee had charges under consideration and it has been rumored that Officer Longcor had an affidavit out two in his possession that made some of the members of the City Council rather reluctant to force an issue with him. Now that Longcor has been suspended it is expected that there will be a complete exposition of all the wrongs that are alleged to exist.

Chief Cornelius says the police department is now the rottenest it has ever been in the history of the city and he will try to prove it next Monday night. In the meantime he declines to go into details. Mr. Longcor says he is not afraid of an investigation.
