DIVERSION IN GRANDSTAND

Enthusiastic Woman and Rooter Who Personally Knows Every Man on Team Help Enliven the Tedious Moments.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Table with columns for team names (Portland, San Francisco, Seattle, etc.) and statistics (W, L, P.C.).

Between the man who was loquacious and worked so hard pulling for Portland to win that he ran bases in the grandstand and the young woman who divided her attention between tossing her escort's headgear into the air and shrieking until her pipes pleaded for a plumber, and that eighth can't, there was lots of good stuff thrown into yesterday's 6-to-3 matinee.

It was the finish of the eighth canto that made the loquacious one happy and caused the lady to forget the shrieking lady in white. Roy Hitt and Ernest Callif were the mid-diamond attraction and as the Oregon City youth had yet to be trimmed by the redoubtable, he figured on the dope as the winner.

Then came Portland's half of the eighth. McHale's floating rib stopped one of Hitt's shots and Sweeney advanced him a base. Hitt lost his life. Mitchell came through with a biffet and Jud Smith got away with a squeeze play. Mohler tried the plate for an out and trip. Wheeler's overcast so messed up over the neatly-placed dump, that no one thought of covering first, so Smith was safe.

Reddy's delivery. Fresno played an errorless game. The score: R.H.E. Fresno 5, Oakland 1.

Vickers' Drive Wins the Game. SEATTLE, Sept. 1.—Vickers' long drive to right field in the last of the tenth, with no one out and two on bases, gave Seattle a 5-4 victory over the Athletics.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE. Spokane 13, Gray's Harbor 7. SPOKANE, Sept. 1.—Spokane took a lopsided slugger match from Gray's Harbor today, easily winning the score of two days ago.

At Butte. BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 1.—Finney's work this afternoon prevented Tacoma from bunting his way into the lead, but he was out for a moment it looked as if the visitors might pull out in the ninth.

COAST PLAYERS GO EAST Major League Recruits Men From Ranks of Pacific Clubs. CINCINNATI, Sept. 1.—Following is the list of the purchased and drafted minor league players secured by major league clubs since the close of the season in 1935, as announced by the National League Commission today.
