the usual weekly informal dance, Mrs. W. Northrup acted as hostess, the affair as unusually successful, and was large-

Twenty handsome cups are on display Twenty handsome cups are on display at the pretty clubhouse today and tomorrow, and are to be presented on Monday, when the finals are to be played, first and second prizes being effected for every event. J. W. Ladd has presented a most artistic cup for the championship of the women's singles, as has C. H. Fisher for the men's singles in the handicap. An artistic learning the men's language in the particle of the men's singles in the handicap. unusually beautiful cun has been given by Charles Francis Adams, of Boston, owner of Irvington property, which is called the Prescott cup, in memory of the late C. H. Prescott, and is to be won three conscutive times to sntitle the owner to keep it. On Monday several of owner to keep it. On Monday several of the prominent matrons of Irvington will receive, and are to be assisted by a bevy of pretty girls.

Arno Dosch, who has assumed the editorship of a San Francisco magazine which is to appear this coming week, has offered a prize of $100 for the best title for its new weekly, which treats of the Pacific Coast states and the Orient. His cific Coast states and the Orient. His many friends in this city are interested in the outcome of the new venture, and predict a brilliant future for this progressive young journalist.

Herbert Sichel, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Sichel, leaves this week for the East to enter his freshman term at Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. Dittenhoffer, of St. Paul, are receiving felicitations galore over the arrival of a little daughter. Mrs. Dittenhoffer will be remembered as Miss Madeline Lang, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Lang, of this city.

The many friends of Miss Jocelyn Foulkes, a former pupil of St. Helen's Hall, will be delighted to learn that she is to return again to this city, after traveling and studying abroad.

Captain Orton, U. S. A., of the Second Cavalry, is to be on duty in Portland for several months. He has engaged apartments at the Nortonia

Mrs. A. Ditchburn, with son and daughter, Anne, has returned from a three weeks' stay at the Breakers Hotel, North

Mrs. Sydney Z. Mitchell, of New York City, who is well known in Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Maxwell, of Seattle. Mrs. John C. Bell, mother of Mrs. Mitchell, is also being entertained. Mrs. Mitchell will return to this city during Sentember, where the lass enduring September, where she has en-

Gordan Craig, Robert Kinney and Arthur Honeyman were hosts on Sunday at a dinner aboard their houseboat. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bell, Mrs. Walter Eakin, Miss Barbara Eakin. of Salem; Miss Helen Brigham and Mr.

An interesting wedding was celebrated in California yesterday, when Miss Ruth Morse, a former Portland girl, was married to Mr. John, a prominent bachelor of Cakland. Miss Morse, who has resided in California for some time, was extremely popular here. A brother of the bride, from this city, attended the wedding.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, little Miss Heien Ladd and Mrs. John Kolloch will return on Tuesday from Long Beach. NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A wooden-wedding party, one of the most pleasant events of the week, was as surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sherlock, to celebrate their Mrs. T. J. Sherlock, to celebrate their wooden-wedding anniversary, at their beautiful home, 555 East Fourieenth street, on August 23, 1905. Many valuable presents of appropriate design were presented by their hosts of friends. Games, music and recitations, and later refreshments appropriate for a warm evening, filled the time with good cheer. The following friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sherlock, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mariam, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. De Temple, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Applegate, Mrs. E. De Temple, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Applegate, Mrs. E. Demsey, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. H. Thompson, Mrs. L. Rasmussen, Miss Anna Sherlock, Miss Agnes Sherlock, Miss Fuchs, Miss Myrtle Brown, Miss Anna De Temple, Miss Lizzie Bilinco, Miss Eva Bilinco, Miss Marte Kellar, Miss Florence Appleagate, Miss E. Doyle, Miss Grace Doyle, Frances Johnson, Svivia De Temple. Frances Johnson, Sylvia De Temple, Helen Applegate, Joseph Sherlock, Mr. Lenhard, Ernest Lacavish, Jack Hitch-cock, Henry De Temple, Claud Brown,

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rae, of 787 Northrup street, celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage last Sunday. Mr. Rae, who has resided in Portland for the past six years, is well known in connection with his successful efforts in the Boys' Brigade. a noieworthy branch of the Brigade, a noteworthy branch of the People's Institute. Mrs. Rae, since her arrival here a year ago, has made an extremely favorable impression in social circles from the frank, kindly, "couthy" manner which she shows to everyone she meets. Previous to her marriage she was Miss Minnie Crystall, eldest daughter of the Rev. Andrew Crystall, minister of the United Free Church, of Buxburn, close to the City of Aberdeen, Scotland, Having made a position for himself in the Having made a position for himself in this City, Mr. Rae returned to Scotland last Summer for his bride. The first year of their married life finds Mr. Rae in business for himself as a public accountant and the young couple comfortably estab-lished in a cosy home of their own. The anniversary was commemorated by a se-lect tea, at which the guests partook of some of the original bridecake, and heart-tily wished their host and hostess a long, happy life amidst their pleasant surround-

On Thursday, August 30, at the home of Edwin Hicks, of Ivanine, was celebrated the first ennual reunion of the Hicks-Hoyt families of Oregon. Forty-three members of the joint families gathered in honor of the occasion and spent the afternoon and evening in pleasant reminiscences. A most delicated programme was rendered party was given "Grandma" Shaw, grand-mother of Edwin Hicks. The reunion has been celebrated in the Hicks family has been celebrated in the Hicks family each succeeding year in Ashtabula County Ohio. About 25 years ago W. R. Hoyt accompanied by his wife and children, came to Oregon, they being the first of the family to settle in the West. He was soon followed by others of the Hicks family, first of whom was L. J. Hicks, now with the Hicks-Chatten Engraving Company, of this city, and son of Edwin Hicka. Two years ago the Hicks and Hoyts related by marriage, became so numerous in Oregon it was decided to hold a Hicks-Hoyt reunion in conjunction and coincident with the Hicks reunion of Ashtabula County, Ohio.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. 8. C'Brien entertained a few of her friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Blazier, 620 East Ankeny street. The af-Elazier, 620 East Ankeny street. The af-ternoon was spent in conversation and music, later dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. T. J. Cilites, Mrs. M. E. Foley, Mrs. H. J. McInnis, Mrs. Charles Sawyer, Mrs. J. Behrems, Mrs. T. J. McNamee, Mrs. M. G. Dooley, Mrs. J. Costello, Miss, Moille Farrell, Miss May Behrems, Miss Velma Sawyer, Miss Katherine O'Brien, Miss Katherine Nolan. Katherine Nolan.

evening. The lawn and porch were preitily decorated with Japanese lanterns, and with rugs and cushions here and there, made a most picturesque appearance. Music and dancing were indulged in until a late hour, after which refreshments were served. The maid of honor, bridesmalds, groom attendant and ushers were presented with their gifts. Delute nearling the properties of the first M. E. Church.

Payne, Miss May Priester, accompanied by Miss Flora Whiting, descended the cast staircase, followed by Mr. Frank Myers, attended by his best man, Mr. Adrian Miles. Meeting, they formed a semi-circle under a massive arch of evergreen, where the beautiful and impressive marriage service was performed by Rev. W. H. Selieck, of the First M. E. Church. ed with their gifts. Dainty pearl set rings were given to the young ladies, and scarf pins for the men. Those present were Misses Myrtle E. Long, Nettle Hog-sett, Sarah Jenson, Ethel Graves, Sadle Goodman, Messrs. Harry E. Williams, Charles Wintermute, Earl Collins, Louis Nedro, Charles Woodman. Nedro Charles Woodman.

On Friday evening, August 10, the George Wright Post gave a mid-Summer social, which was well attended by mem-hers of both posts and corps of the city. social, which was well attended by members of both posts and corps of the city, a short but interesting programme being rendered: Reading, Carrie Couster; recitation, Mrs. May Beautikofer; song, "We Were Comrades Together in Time of War," by Comrade Morse; recitation, Winnie McCreary; recitation (comic), "Miranda," Mrs. Downey. Churchill's orchestra of eight pleces rendered several popular selections during the evening.

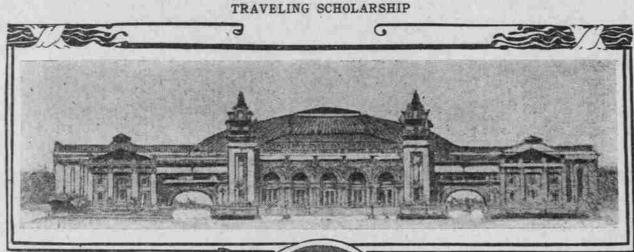

Miss Marguerite V. Stochr was given a hosiery shower at the home of Mrs. C. C. Going, Irvington, Thursday evening. The young ladies were entertained in a delightful manner by Mrs. Going music and other amusements being indulged in. About 11 o'clock dainty refreshments were semi-circle under a massive arch of ever-green, where the beautiful and impressive marriage service was performed by Rev. W. H. Selleck, of the First M. E. Church. The winsome bride was prettily gowned in white chiffon over white silk, and car-ried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Miss Flora Whiting, bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink chiffon over pink silk carrying nipk sweet peas. Throughla.; Miss Ilda Jones, of Labish Meadows. Mr. and Mrs. Myers left for a short trip south. They will then return and make Salem their home.

One of the social events of the week will be the troiley ride and dance given under the auspices of the local camps of the Woodmen of the World, on Friday wore a gown of pink chiffon over pink silk, carrying pink sweet peas. Throughout the evening punch was served by dainty Miss Beulah Myers, sister of the groom. The dining-room presented a fairy-like appearance in the artistic manner of its arrangement, the color scheme being red. Here light refreshments were man, south to Twenty-fourth, return to Twenty-third south to Washington east to Third, south to Morrison, to Nine-teenth, return on Morrison to Third, north to Steel bridge, to St. Johns, where the dance will take place. All the cars will be decorated in the colors of the order, and the outing will be free to the membership and invited guests.

The reception of Miss Gertrude Harris will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Abrams, 501 Jefferson street, Sunday, September 2 from 2 to 5 P. M. Mr. and Mrs. I. Gevurtz announce the

MORRIS WHITEHOUSE AND THE ARCHITECTURAL PLAN WHICH WON HIM A

Morris H. Whitehouse, a former Portland boy and a popular member of society, recently won the traveling scholurship at the Boston School of Technology. A portrait of lim is shown above, also the design for the State Automobile Citit which won him the prise. Mr. Whitehouse has been the recipient of many congratulations on his plans, which are said to be exceptionally clever. In company with Mr. Goldstein, of the Boston "Tech," he sailed yesterday on the "Princess Irene" of the Norta German Lloyd lines, and is to arrive in Genoa, Italy, on September 14. Much of the time is to be spent in that country, where the study of Italian architecture will be combined with pleasure. Later the two travelers will he folined by two Boston men and together they will wend their way to France, where considerable time will be spent in Paris. Besides the credentials received from the Boston Technology School. Mr. Whitehouse has been exceedingly fortunate in receiving excellent letters from Governor Chamberlain of Oregon and the State Department of Massachusetts to American Consuls and Ministers of Europe served at a table decorated with La France rosebuds. Those present were:

Misses Marguerite V. Stoehr, Myrtle E.
Long, Abbie Roe, Lolita Grange, Myste
Sharp, Kate Woodman, Miss Shaw, Mrs.
George Hill and Mrs. C. C. Going.

Therefore of the more than a table decorated with La So'clock P. M., the ceremony being performed by Dr. Black. Only relatives were present. The bride was gowned in pearl chiffon silk, and carried a bouquet of cream rosebuds. The dining-room was decorated with pink sweet peas and Autumn leaves. Among those from out ficer, accompanied by over 30 members of George Wright and Sumner Post, Women's Relief Corps, went to St. Johns. Wednesday evening, and organized a new corps auxiliary to the Compson Post, re-cently organized there. Sixty-five name-were secured and signed the charter. which will make a very strong corps when in working order, which in all probability will be in a couple of weeks'

were present

Myers-Harris.

College street, Mr. Thomas Jenning Myers and Miss Onda Helen Harris, con

Green-Byam.

Spalding-Buckner.

The wedding of Miss Sue Buckner, of on account of the recent Illness of the Massay-Scoffeld.

at 1993 Hawthorne avenue last Wednes-

PORTLAND MUSICIAN RETURNS

FROM ABROAD.

Miss Jocelyn Foulkes.

Portland Thursday from Europe, hav ing been away from Oregon a year and a half. Miss Foulkes is a graduate of of music there for several years under the Misses Rodney. After studying with a pupil of Leschetizki for several years she went to Vienna, where, during the past year, she has been study-ing the Leschetiski method. Miss Johnson street.

A very pretty home wedding took place

Sunday, August 26, at 4:30 P. M., at 271

The last of the series of lice-cream so-cials that have been given during the Summer for the "Ladles' Aid" of Mizpah Church was given on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ma-thiot, on Brooklyn Heights, last Friday evening. The socials given at the different homes have been very successful, and a neat sum has been added to the treasury.

Mrs. David S. Stearns and her niece, Miss Louise Sterns, of Scattle, Wash., entertained a number of friends, Saturday evening at Mrs. Stearns' home, 655 Belmont street, with a lawn party. Chinese lanterns illuminated the spacious grounds.

On Friday last Mrs. P. L. Thompson presided as hostess at an informal luncheon at her home. The guests were: Mrs. I. Aronson, Mrs. F. Joplin, Mrs. A. Giebisch and Mrs. R. P. Joplin.

WEDDINGS.

Jones-Neuhausen.

A beautiful wedding took place on the list annual reunion of the Hicks-Hoyt families of Oregon. Forty-three members of the joint families gathered in honor of the occasion and spent the afternoon and evening in pleasant reminiscences. A most delightful programme was rendered by different members of the family.

The annual reunion of the Hicks family originated 21 years ago, when a birthday party was given "Grandma" Shaw grand, so colored to Horace Jones, special agent of the interior Department, of Washington, D. C. Lohengrin's wedding march was played before the ceremony by Melvin Pool Ogden, the talented young organist, who also played, with excellent expressions. who also played, with excellent expres-sion, Schuman's "Traumerei," and Men-delssohn's wedding march.

The Bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white slik, embroidered Point de Paris, over white satin, combined with rare point lace, which was presented by her grandmother. Quaint white shees, which were worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day, completed the attractive costume.

tive costume.

Mrs. T. B. Neuhausen, the matron of honor, wore a beautiful costume of pale green Louisine silk, combined with white antique lace, green chiffon and green velvet. The decoration of a white and green color scheme was most elaborate and effective. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Williams, assistant rector of Trinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home at Wellington Court after the 10th lnst.

Wellington Court after the 10th inst.

Myers-Priester.

The wedding of Miss May Ellen Priest-er, of Mapleton, Ia., to Mr. Frank Gaily Myers, of Salem, Or., was solemnized on Wednesday evening, August 29, at the spaclous home of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Gliddings, on Highland avenue, in Salem. The parlors were decorated with Testout roses, lacy ferns and vines. The large reception hall, where the ceremony was performed, was profusely decorated with Miss Marguerite V. Stoehr and Roy L. Heaman, whose wedding is to take place September 5, entertained the bridal party in a most enjoyable manner at Miss 8 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Stochr's home on Overton street, Friday wedding march, played by Miss Mary

E. O. Spitzner will resume violin teaching September 2. Studio, Marquam building. Reception liour, forenoon. Phone, Pacific 1724. Mrs. S. A. Mulford's friends are pleased to learn that she has purchased the business of Elton Court, and she has their best wishes for every success. Miss Frances A. Sheehy, who has just completed the normal course in the Dun-ning system of music study for beginning system of music study for beginners, under the originator of the system, Mrs. Carrie L. Dunning, of Buffalo, will receive pupils for classes in this system, and for private lessons in plano and theory, after Monday, September 4.

The Dunning system is a most origif al and successful method of presenting the first principles of music, and the recognition and indorsements it has received from the most eminent musicians of Enrope and America place it on a plane above any other system. During the week

Mr. John Gilbert. At home Sunday, September 2, from 2 to 5, at 409 First street Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Reynolds announce the engagement of their daughter Mollie to J. B. C. Lockwood. The welding will be Wednesday, September 5, No

Miss Call, lessons in grammar or high school branches. Phone East 2769.

Long, Abbie Roe, Lolita Grange, Mysle
Sharp, Kate Woodman, Miss Shaw, Mrs.
George Hill and Mrs. C. C. Golng.

Thursday afternoon, August 20, at her home, 602 East Eighth street, south, a delightful surprise was given Mrs. G. M.
Adams, in the form of a "plate shower."
The guests: Mrs. J. E. Simmons of Long Beach, Cal.: Mrs. R. K. McPherson Mrs.
Q. J. C. Heckman, Mrs. Anna Baker, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Stall, Mrs. Cady Mrs.
Lawson, of Portland, arrived with a plate. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in a social way. Light refreehments were served.

Mrs. Mary Chamberiain, Instituting of-ficer, accompanied by over 30 members Tormed by Dr. Back. Cally was gowned in pearl chiffon silk, and carried a bouquet of cream roscoudes. The dining-room of a made decorated with plak sweet peas and Autumn leaves. Among those from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Besse, of town were: Mr. and Mrs. R. B.

Kearns, of Monnouth. Mr. and Mrs.
Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Stall, Mrs. Cady Mrs.
Lawson, of Portland, arrived with a plate. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in a social way. Light refreehments were served.

Mrs. Mary Chamberiain, Instituting of-ficer, accompanied by over 30 members

Bettinger Piano School.

carried white carnations, "O Promise Me" was beautifully rendered by Miss Lena Harwas and the wedding march played by little Veroca Julian. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Alice Davenport. Only a few intimate friends Open to beginners and advanced pinyers. Nearly 20 years' experience in Portland. Hundreds of pupils have received their musical education at this school.

Josef Meredith Rosencrantz

do violinist, late of music faculty of tracting parties of Portland, were united in marriage by Rev. Henry A. Barden. Miss Helen Carbline Ordemann and Miss University of California, announces open-ing of violin studio at 741 Glisan street near 23d. Tone, character and violin in-Gertrude Forney, of Portland, were in-vited guests of the ciergyman's family and witnessed the ceremony. terpretation. Classes now forming Phone Main 1776.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson united in mat-rimony ar. Joseph G. Green and Ruth Mrs. Nina Larowe is ready to agrange time for classes, private lessons, and to rent hall for parties. By request will or-Byam in a beautiful home wedding at 101 Tenth street, Wednesday evening, August 29. A number of friends had gathered to ganize one beginners' class for married people only. Main 2329. At home 10 to 3 and 7 to 8 P. M. wish the happy couple a bon voyage and a delightful evening was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside at 110 East Four-

Edgar E. Coursen

Teacher of piano, violin and pipe organ, has resumed work. Address 658 Lovejoy street. Telephone Main 3108.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Chicago, and Mr. Harry F. Spalding, of San Francisco, Cal., occurred Wednesday evening last at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. A. Druhot, 633 Overton street. The wedding was celebrated in the presence of the immediate family, on account of the recent liliness of the Dr. Swain and family have returned from Elk Creek. The Misses Blesen, of Salem, spent few days at Seaside last week. Dr. W. C. Shearer has returned from a ten days' deer hunt in Southern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schmeer returned last week from a ten days' trip at Long

> Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Duffy and children are sojourning for ten days at Yaquina

Miss Ella Dewart will spend the month of September in Minneapolis, visiting Mrs. F. J. Poliyka and son Harold have returned after a five weeks' outing at weeks' vacation at her Summer home in Ocean Park.

Mrs. G. H. Reeves is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Young, at Huckleberry Dell, Seaside. Mrs. P. D. Tull will be in Portland for the next six weeks and will stop at the Oregon Hotel. Mrs. E. M. Pelgram and daughter, of New York City are visiting Dr. George

O. Pelgram. Miss Ambrose and Miss Virlena Am-brose have returned from a month's vacation at Seaside. Mrs. H. W. Holden and family have returned, after a three months' vacation at Gearhart,

Rev. John Dawson and family returned Master Alfred Edgerton Shearer and Tracy J. Stiver are spending their vacation at Ocean Park.

Mrs. Ida Erdmann has returned from her residence in Seaside, where she spent her vacation. Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick have returned after a pleasant visit to Victoria and other British Columbia cities.

Mrs. Theo Barker, Miss Cornelia Bar ker and Master Worthington Archer have returned from Hot Lake, Or. E. L. Harmon and family have re

ADVANCE SALE OF FURS

White Siberian Fox Set, Muff and Stoleregular $15.00

This is an example not only of the rare value-giving in our Advance Sale of Furs, but also of the exquisite taste in selecting the furs most wanted this season to sell at unprecedented early-season prices. You need not pay for your furs now; select them, as hundreds did last week, and for a small deposit we will store them till you're ready. Early selections are always the best in this case, and by far the cheapest.

Any good judge of furs would pronounce this Fox Set a good value for double its price.

Neckwear and Ties. Season price Sale price $3.25 Sale price $5.25

Novelties in Brook Mink in Gray and Brown Squirrel Ties, Season price $7.50

Our Fall Fashion Catalogue in Furs is ready and will be gladly mailed to any address free for the asking.

Another Showing in Fall Wear

We have centered our strength upon a specialty-Garments and personal requisites for women and children. They have material benefits, first, in the diversity and extent of our stock, the largest in the state, and high in character-that is true not only of certain specific things, but of everything for women and children; then in prices, this specialization and concentration establishes certain advantages which make possible prices that are exceptionally modest. We would count it an honor to have you satisfy yourself relative to all this. See style and prices elsewhere. then come to us.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY-LABOR DAY

THE WOMAN'S STORE

FOURTH AND MORRISON

turned from Spirit Lake, and have New York City the latter part of Septaken rooms at the Nortonia. Miss Ethei M. Lytle returned this week from a delightful and much needed vaca-tion in the mountains of Bohemia.

week end with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. M. Briggs, of White Salmon, Wash. Miss Jessie Marcus has just returned after a most enjoyable three weeks spent in visiting friends at Victoria and Seattle. Julius Goldsmith and family will leave which place they will make their future

Tucker in Senttle. She will also visit Mrs. McKle, of Vancouver, B. C., before she

Mrs. W. F. Boise is visiting with Mrs. R

Miss Ethel Tooze, of Woodburn, Or., has been spending the week with Miss Katherine Kern, of Willamette Heights. Mrs. Will O. Meara and daughter Marcella and niece. Miss Gertrude Dinneer are guests of Mrs. Mary A. Sullivan, of Cedar Mill. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barker and baby Virginia, who have been visiting Grandma Boom at Roseburg, returned to the city on Tuesday Miss Ella Mae Mattingly, who for the extended trip East. She will reach

Mrs. Emma B. Carroll

announces the opening of her

Musical Studio October 1st

At 697 Flanders Street.

The modern Leschetizky method employed.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL

CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Freckles, Moth Patches, Rash, and Skin Diseases, and every blemdab on beauty, and dedec detection. It has stood the test of 27 years, and is so harmies aw taste it to be sure it. A properly made. Acceptino counterfelt of similar name. Dr. L. A. layre add to a lady of the hastical to (a patient): "As you laddes will use them. I recommend the least harmful of all the by all druggiets and Pancy-States. Canada and Europe.

FERO. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.
FOR SALE BY WOODARD, CLARKE & CO-

BEST ENGRAVED WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS

W.G.SMITH & CO.

WASHINGTON BUILDING.

FOURTH AND WASHINGTON

making the trip in 11 hours. The family are living on the boat, although taking their meals at a hotel, and will return to Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe and Portland on Tuesday. Masters Earl and Wayne Coe, with W. H. Mr. Charles Pelgram and Mr. Rob-ert Thompson, two prominent attor-Corbett as skipper, made the cruise on Dr. Coe's launch, the Anna Belle, from Portland to Astoria to take in the regatta,

THE ELECTRIC FLATIRONS FREE TO ANY CUSTOMER OF THIS COMPANY

¶ You can do IRONING in any room where there is Electric Light, at any hour of the day or night. No waiting for a hot Iron-Electric Flatirons are always ready.

Q SELECT THE STYLE YOU DESIRE.

STYLE NO. 1-Regular Household 6-pound

Flatiron, $4.00. ¶ STYLE NO. 2-Nickel-plated 3-lb. Smoothing Iron for shirtwaists, etc., $4.00.

Fill in coupon below, specifying style of IRON you prefer, and mail to us AT ONCE. The IRON, with complete equipment, will be delivered promptly upon receipt of coupon, WITHOUT EXPENSE TO YOU.

CUT OUT COUPON PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY,

Seventh and Alder Sts., Portland, Or. Gentlemen: You may deliver to me one Electric Flat Iron No., which I agree to try, and if unsatisfactory, to return to you within 30 days from date of delivery. If I do not return it at that time you may charge same to my account at $4.00. It is understood that no charge will be made for the Iron if I return it within 30 days.

NAME ADDRESS

Portland General Electric Co.

TELEPHONE PRIVATE EXCHANGE 13