HUNDRED YEAR CLUB RALLY.-Next Friday night at the First Congregational Church there will be a rally of the Hundred Year Club. The 500 members of Hundred Year Club. The 500 members of the club will have the privilege of invit-ing their friends to this rally, and it is expected that the reunion will be a most enjoyable one. The feature of the evening will be a demonstration by Mr. Flynn and Mrs. McIntyre, who have just returned to Portland from the East. This demonstration next Friday will be This demonstration next Friday will be free. Announcement will be made on this occasion of the classes in health culture now being formed in three of Portland's largest and most popular churches. At a meeting of the board of directors held last Friday, it was decided to offer $10 in each for the most beautiful and appropriate design for a club pin. This offer is open to the public generally. It is quite probable that the Hundred Year Club of Los Angeles, which also numbers some hundred of enthusiastic members some hundred of enthusiastic members will adopt the same design for club zers, will adopt the same design for club sin and stationery.

PENETRATE REMOTE REGION.—Will G. Steel, F. C. Little and F. H. Kiser recently returned from a trip to Mount Steel, in the heart of the Olympics. From the summit of the mountain they were ensabled to see the entire Olympic range and to follow with the eye the course of all the strength of the strength to follow with the eys the course of all the streams originating therein. The distance from Lake Cushman is a little less than if miles on a straight line, whereas by trail it is 25. Application has been made to the Forestry Division to have this trail improved and if the petition is granted it will make the Olympics one of the most easily accessible of any rugged mountain region on the coast. Heretofore it has been considered practically inaccessible. They report, seeing two elk and abundant signs of deer and bear, but made no effort to secure game. Several days were spent at Lake Cushman, where fishing was indulged in.

ASSIGNED TO ROSEBURG.—Rev. Father W. A. Waitt, who has been assistant paster of St. Francis Church, East Elevpastor of St. Francis Church, East Eleventh and Oak streets, to Rev. P. H. Black, the pastor, left yesterday for Romeburg, where he will enter on his work as rector of that parish today. For the two years he had been connected with St. Francis Church he made many warm friends: It was through his encouragement that Gregorian music was introduced at St. Francis and other Catholic Churches. Rev. Mr. Black, the regular pastor, bears testimony to the high standing of Father Waltt while assistant. He came here from Minneapoils. Rose-He came here from Minneapoils. Rose-burg is one of the most important charges in Southern Oregon and his assignment is considered a promotion by the Arch-history

POSTPONES OPENING OF SCHOOL.—Professor D. M. Metzger, dean of the faculty of Dalias College, who is filling the pulpit of the First United Evangelical Church, East Side, is in the city. He says that the faculty has postponed opening of the school until September 25 on account of the absence of so many of the pupils in the hopfields. Professor Metzger
