AUTUMN FOOTWEAR

Shoes
Rubbers

The gently-falling rains remind us that Oregon's health-bringing wet season has arrived. Perhaps thin soles that bottom your shoes have nudged your mind that feet need better protection now? One might say the easiest way to walk these days is to ride, but as walking is well known to be the healthiest exercise, the question of "the easiest way to walk" becomes interesting in helping you to walk easy, in shoes that make the feet "hold their head up"—proud of themselves. Modern shoemakers have accomplished much for the walking public. Shoes are constructed more carefully. Leathers that are soft, plump and handsome are used. Styles are adopted that are full of smartness, yet shapes conform to the feet. Our shoes are specially built, of leathers which approach nearest the absolute waterproof standard of any known process. And they're built to display to advantage the graceful lines of the foot and give that neat, trim appearance demanded by stylish folk. No other shoes so completely combine style, comfort and service. We mention a few leaders, among others:

Women's Gloria Shoes—Made of gunmetal calf; seven buttons, heavy soles, custom finished. They're beauties. Price, the pair, $3.50.

Women's Heavyweight Winter Shoes—Made with a new patented sole that's very flexible and will wear twice as long as those of regular tannage. Price, the pair, $4.00.

Women's Kid Shoes—Made on the foot-form last, wide, broad toe, good heavy soles, and kid uppers. These shoes combine extreme comfort and individuality of style. Price, the pair, $4.00.

We show this same make of shoe in patent kid. Price, the pair, $4.50.

A Marvel in Rubbers:

Ever see a rubber that wouldn't tear down at the heel? Ever wear a rubber that wouldn't tear anywhere? We've got 'em—do you wonder we term 'em "marvels"? They are marvels, indeed, these untearable rubber shoe protectors. Not heavy, clumsy affairs, either, but smart, light and dainty—and they won't tear. No, you can't buy 'em at any other Portland store, for they don't sell 'em; we control their sale for the city. No—they cost no more than the ordinary kind. Interested? Try a pair.

Profitable Paragraphs for Men:

Quality and style is what you men should stand for—not statements, or price alone. Stores get enthusiastic about their goods—which is natural—but the careful store makes comparison by what others get for same or similar goods. We've compared values on a quartet of lines in the Haberdasherie this week and are going to ask you to do the same. We'll be satisfied with results.

Autumn Millinery Hints

Annex—Second Floor.
The magnificent exposition of exquisite conceptions in model and dress hats, with the superior showings of smart tailored suits, that came trooping in last week and go on exhibition tomorrow might suggest the real Autumn opening—that most important style function which transpires on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and to which all Portland's fashionably dressed women look forward with so much pleasure. No one need delay even a day now in selecting the hat for Fall and Winter wearing. Assortments are extensive and styles incomparable. Many are exclusive with this house in our city. Modes are dainty and becoming, and will be eagerly sought for by Portland's carefully dressed women. It matters little what price you'd pay, be it modest at $1.50, or that popular price of $5, up to those at $10, and reaching high as the $50 patrician beauties; be assured that the best value at any price your inclination names is at the Olds, Wortman & King Millinery Salons.

TAKE ELEVATOR TO THE THIRD FLOOR

Tomorrow Starts the Store's Great Annual September Sale of Kitchen Utensils:

The importance to you of the "O. W. & K." September sale of Kitchen Furnishings is based on the fact that it's a prepared-for event. It's a week wide in its scope. Great lots of every article in the sale, in fact, were bought months ago—painstakingly gathered from best sources—and of the sorts that meet the needs of Portland's practical housekeepers and large users in general of the goods the sale supplies. Conservatively stated, the sale brings the greatest economies of all the year to housekeepers within shopping distance of the store. The event gains greater importance when you consider that the goods are not a hodge-podge stock, but were gathered by a trained good taste. There's every good reason why you should turn to your advantage the opportunities of this sale if you've need of anything in the lines covered by "Kitchen Furnishings." We print a number of the most prominent sales.

The Event of the Week:

We beg to announce to the ladies of Portland, and all others interested in the changes of fashion and the first general gathering of Autumn styles, that the Store will hold its annual

Informal Opening Display of FALL MERCHANDISE

Particularly Gowns, Wraps and Millinery on Tuesday and Wednesday of This Week, September 18th and 19th

Two days of information. At this time, as usual, Olds, Wortman & King will show the authoritative modes for Autumn and all of the changes in dress and styles that are correctly new for the Fall and Winter of 1906-7. Apparel found at Olds, Wortman & King's is neither the unsanctioned extreme in newness which soon passes out, nor the commonplace—but always the MODE. In the charmingly and tastefully arranged salons on the second floor we shall show, amid most beautiful and impressive settings, what will prove to be the most comprehensive gathering of fashionable apparel for women of critical taste in dress ever shown in Portland, or the Northwest, unquestionably demonstrating again the indisputable leadership of this great Style House as arbiter of fashions and DICTATOR OF MODES AMONG WESTERN STORES.

In the Annex--Second Floor--The Millinery Opening will add brilliancy to the event. We offer no apologies for omitting the formal openings this Fall. The reasons are obvious—and logical. An army does not stop in the midst of battle for a dress parade, neither can this store pause in the midst of unprecedented September business to give way to mere "show days." If you were promised a view of a great and powerful engine, wouldn't you prefer to see the gleaming, glistening giant in motion? Of course you would. Just so you'll enjoy the Fall's informal openings all the better because you'll find us all "on the move"—full of life and business. TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY AT OLDS, WORTMAN & KING'S WILL BE DAYS FOR SEEING—FOR SHOPPING—AND FOR ECONOMIES WORTH WHILE. Plan to come both days. No music, but pretty decorative effects will be used as settings for Fashion's gems in the surpassing style exhibit.

Lace Curtains and Rugs: Take Elevators to the Fourth Floor

Curtains and Rugs have always been treated as sort of first cousins at this store—they're so nearly related among the family of home-fitting needs. When we arrange a special sale of one we make strenuous effort to reinforce it with the other, tho' 'tis not always an easy thing to do. You see, lace-makers over in Europe are busy as bees, weaving pretty things for personal wear of our American women; things on which they are able to earn two or three times as much each day as on articles like lace curtains. It has thus been increasingly difficult to get lace curtains, except at stiff prices. But we looked well ahead, ordered very early, and succeeded in getting the work at usual cost and even less. To make room for a lot of new arrivals we start a special sale of lace curtains tomorrow—and reinforce its importance by adding Rugs. Read the detail.

Salespeople Wanted:

The store is getting busier every day now—and needs more salesfolk, particularly those experienced in selling women's apparel, suits, shoes, millinery, etc. Permanent positions, with good pay and splendid associations, await applicants. We make our helpers comfortable and happy in their surroundings and remuneration, in exchange for their sincere earnestness in our interests and that of our patrons. If you're interested—or know of some friend who may be—come and see Mr. Bell, the superintendent, on Monday about it.
