INTEREST which has centered this past week in the proposed plan of raising $350,000 for a new Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. building, which was publicly suggested on Monday last, promises to become more spirited as the time advances, although the suggestion was instantly met with the hearty co-operation of both men and women of this city, many representative matrons and young women commencing the next day, making a personal canvass of the business and residence districts and working otherwise untiringly for this cause. A large banquet on Monday, several afternoon and evening meetings and luncheons served each day in the old Turkish room of the Portland Hotel have served to promote the keenest enthusiasm.

Miss Helen Gould, the well-known New York philanthropist, who it will be remembered contributed $1000 toward the Lewis and Clark Exposition, is one of the ardent workers for the Y. W. C. A. She is at present supporting one of the National secretaries and has recently sent abroad a well-known member of the association for a year's travel and rest. Miss Gould has also presented the majority of new buildings with handsome gifts. Mrs. Huff, formerly of Detroit, now a resident of Paris, contributed one-half of the value of the new Detroit Association, valued at $150,000. She has also erected a large Y. W. C. A. home in Paris for the benefit of English and American girls.

The handsome residence of Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, on King's Heights, was hospitably opened yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. A brilliant programme was given by Portland's best musicians, which netted a large sum for the cause. Miss Sara Glance, whose portrait appears today, is a new singer from Australia, whose charming contralto voice was heard for the first time at Mrs. Hoyt's musicale. A smartly gowned and representative audience was in evidence.

A wedding of prominence, celebrated quietly Thursday morning at quarter of 8, was that of Miss Ethel Virginia Walters, daughter of Mrs. S. Walters and the late Mr. Walters, formerly manager of the London & San Francisco Bank, of Tacoma, Wash., to Mr. Benjamin Holman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. L. House, of the First Congregational Church. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Oscar Huber, was attired in a stylish frock of navy blue. Mr. and Mrs. Holman left at 8:30 A. M. for Bain's Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard were hosts last evening at a smart dinner, with two distinguished visitors in honor guests. Mr. Edward Greenway, the acknowledged leader of San Francisco society, and Mr. Douglas Crane, a portrait painter of New York.

Mrs. O. F. Paxton, who for several years has resided at the Portland Hotel, has taken a furnished cottage with her mother, Mrs. A. B. Wade, of Chicago, at 76 North Twenty-first street.

Possibly the finest and rarest game of baseball ever played in this city, took place yesterday afternoon at the Miltoniah field, when the prominent bachelors of the Norton and those of the new apartment house "the Nortonia" endeavored to give pointers to the professionals of the Pacific Coast League. "Bob" McCracken as pitcher for the Nortonia undoubtedly pitched the most and wonderful ball that has been witnessed this season. The uniforms borrowed from A. A. C. and other clubs were unusually striking. The grandstand was crowded with popular members of both the younger and older sets who proved enthusiastic fans. The lineup: Those from the Norton were Drake O'

Reilly, Sidney Loewenberg, A. S. Rothwell, Edward W. Ortman, Howard Holland, Dick O'Reilly, James Lindsey, William Miller, Mr. Fogarty, O. Humphrey, and Captain Reynolds.

The Nortonia were: Harry Hogue, Robert McCracken, Dr. Campbell, Harry Litt, Messers Lowerman, Bolton, Cook, Backus, Holton and Captain Orton, U. S. A.

On today's society page is a picture of Mrs. J. H. McClement, of New York City, formerly Miss Morgan, who has been the recipient of much attention socially since her arrival. Mr. and Mrs. McClement who are traveling in their private car are registered at the Portland Hotel where they will remain until Wednesday. On Monday afternoon Mrs. McClement is to receive informally at the hotel. Mr. McClement is one of the confident advisers of the Gould railway system. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. McClement took a party of 23 guests to Seaside for the day in their car.

Miss Lillie White and Miss Maud Ainsworth, leave soon for Boston, where Miss White will study art, and Miss Ainsworth music.

Mrs. Frederick Page has sent out cards for a tea on Wednesday afternoon at her residence on Portland Heights.

Mrs. William Bradley and children have returned from an outing at American Lake where Captain Bradley is at present stationed.

Mrs. H. C. Cabell, and son Henry have returned from a month's experience in camp life at American Lake, near Tacoma, where Major Cabell has been attending maneuvers.

Mrs. E. McClintock is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, at Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler were hosts last week at a dancing party at the Waverly Golf Club in honor of their daughter, Miss Ise Koehler, who returns shortly to Briar Cliff. About 20 members of the younger set were present.

Miss Anita Burns, one of the most prominent members of the younger set, is to leave on Friday to enter Briar Cliff. Miss Kathleen Burns is to accompany her sister East, where she will visit for several months with her sister, Miss George Burns.

Mrs. Walter Burrell was hostess on Saturday afternoon at bridge in honor of Miss Gardner, a sister of Mrs. Pelgram, of New York City, who has been visiting in Portland. The guests were: Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Charles Cheney, Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. Whitson Boise, Mrs. Cole, of New York, mother of Mrs. Pelgram; Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Mae Montgomery, Miss Margaret Morrison, Miss Effie Houghton, Miss Nan Wood, Miss Mae Hirsch and Mrs. Pelgram.

The Misses Friendly, of Eugene, will be guests at the Hill Hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holman gave a pretty luncheon on Thursday, the 13th, in honor of Miss Lillian De France, whose wedding is to take place in the near future. The guests were Miss Margaret O'Connor, Miss Emily Holbrook and Miss Iris Cooke.

A pretty tea was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. B. Coman for her daughter, Miss Martha Coman, who is visiting here for a fortnight. Miss Coman, who is unusually talented in the journalistic field, at present occupies a position on the New York Herald. Miss Wynp Coman, Miss Lois Steers, Mrs. S. T. Lockwood, Mrs. Edgar P. Hill and Mrs. Edward Cookingham assisted in receiving. Mrs. Wilbur Coman presided at the punchbowl. In the dining-room were Mrs. M. H. Steers, Mrs. William Morrison, formerly Miss Kate Bellinger; Mrs. D. D. Warner and Mrs. A. N. Bush, of Salem, assisted by Miss Ethel Reed, Miss Delta Watson and Miss Bess Church. The decorations were quantities of autumnal leaves, with rich tones. A color scheme of yellow was also attractively arranged.

Miss Nellie Holbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Holbrook, who completed her course last May at the Chevy Chase finishing school, near Washington, D. C., returned home last week. During the interim Miss Holbrook has had a most pleasant summer-visiting in New York City, Boston and in Connecticut.

Miss Leslie Knapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Knapp, is to make her formal debut to society on October 5 at a large tea given at their residence on Kearney street from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Among the many affairs given for Miss Stratton last week, whose marriage to Mr. Poston occurred Thursday evening, was a luncheon and plate shower, at which Miss Benson and Miss Carolyn Benson were hostesses, at the home, 320 Eleventh street. The luncheon was a beautifully appointed one, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in both decorations and menu. The table was banked with pink asters, with favors of wire corsage bouquets. Miss Benson took her guests automobiling the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lombardi and Miss Lucy Lombardi, who have made their home in Portland for the last six or seven years, since coming from Texas, are now planning to reside in Berkeley, Cal., leaving here October 1. Miss Lucy Lombardi, who is extremely popular in the younger set, is a graduate of Smith's, and will be remembered for her portrayal of the character of Maid Marlen at the interesting Al Fresco performance of Robin Hood, given in the early summer.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantan have returned from a several weeks' visit in the Eastern cities, and a delightful fishing trip in Boulder Creek, Mont.

Mrs. E. P. Geary entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. Lombardi and Miss Lucy Lombardi.

Mrs. Ralph Walker, formerly Miss Frankie Richet, is to entertain next Thursday with a plate shower at her residence in Irvington, "Klinkerside," in honor of Miss Lucy Gillespie. Mrs. Walker will be at home on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month.

Mrs. W. A. Mears, who was delightfully entertained while in Los Angeles, visited en route her cousin, Miss Brown, a teacher of Mills College, at her artistic home, which is entirely made of redwood, and adjoins the picturesque place of Joaquin Miller's, near Berkeley, and commands a superb view of San Jose and the surrounding country. Mrs. Mears brought home the study picture of Henri Regnauld, entitled "A Fisher Woman," which was presented to her by her cousin, Dr. Terrill, on her silver wedding anniversary. This beautiful picture by the artist whose painting of Salome is well known, is done in rich African coloring, for which his portraits are famous.

A luncheon of 12 covers was given on Wednesday last by Mrs. P. L. Willis and her daughters, Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley and Mrs. G. H. Nottage, in honor of Mrs. J. L. McClement. The affair was given at the residence of Mrs. Ashley, at 889 Savier.

Elmer Moller, a Cornell man, who has been visiting Max Wood during the Summer months, returned to college with Mr. Wood last week on the North Coast Limited. On this same train going to their respective colleges were Elliott Corbett, who left for Harvard, and Miss Alta Smith, who returns to Smith College.

Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., has sent out cards for an afternoon at bridge on October 2.

Judge and Mrs. Morrow and Judge and Mrs. Ross, of the Circuit Court of Appeals, of California, were distinguished visitors who spent several days this past week at the Portland Hotel.

Miss Alta Rankin is to leave shortly for Chicago and other large cities of the East where she will visit relatives and study music. Miss Rankin is the possessor of a remarkably sweet and pleasing soprano.

Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wolverson were hosts on Monday at a dinner at the Hobart-Curtis in honor of the three Judges of the United States Court of Appeals. The invited guests were Judge and Mrs. Morrow, of San Francisco, Judge and Mrs. Ross, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Judge and Mrs. Gilbert, and Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Templeton.

Miss Edna Thompson, of Pendleton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Seth Catlin.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain have been the recipients of felicitations galore over the arrival of a little daughter. The handsome Irvington residence of our present Governor has welcomed two tiny granddaughters within one month, to the day. The first daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Blair (Miss Lucy Chamberlain) has been called Lucy after her mother. The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Chamberlain is to be named Rita, as yet the middle name being undecided.

Miss Mable Jarvis gave a shower last week in honor of Miss Maud Jones, whose wedding to Mr. Raubford Gilliland is to take place on Wednesday. The decorations in the dining-room were autumn leaves and ivy, with a centerpiece of red salvia. Those present were Miss Daisy Belle Freeman, Miss Faye Killingsworth, Miss Edna Matson, Mrs. Clinton Shorn, Miss May Byrne, Miss Nina Killingsworth, Miss Grace Jarvis, Miss Locks and Mrs. Floyd Everest.

Mrs. John Gamble was hostess on Tuesday at a pretty luncheon at the Portland Grill in honor of Mrs. C. Lombardi and Miss Lucy Lombardi, who leave soon for
