Sellwood Lecture Course.—Rev. D. A. Thompson, Rev. C. A. Lewis and Mrs. Helen Kerr, lecture committee for the Sellwood Library Association, have completed the course of lectures as follows: October 23, J. D. Stephen, at Presbyterian Church, on "Character of Hamlet, With Readings From the Play;" November 26, Rev. J. A. P. McGraw, D. D., at Methodist Church, subject, "Traps;" December 15, Rev. F. Burgette Short, D. D., in Baptist Church, subject, "Traps;" December 15, Rev. F. Burgette Short, D. D., in Presbyterian Church, subject, "The World's Masterpieces;" February 19, Rev. E. Nelson Ailen, M. A., at Methodist Church, subject, "Jean Valjean;" March 19, Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery, at Baptist Church, subject, "Jean Valjean;" March 19, Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery, at Baptist Church, subject, "Mount Hood;" April 29, Rev. Ben-Exra Stiles Ely, Jr., D. D., at Presbyterian Church, subject, "Is Life Worth Living?" April 23, Rev. A. A. Morrison, D. D., at Methodist Church, subject to be announced.

Will, Hunt Derra.—Dr. E. Dewitt Con-SELLWOOD LECTURE COURSE.-Rev. D. A.

Will Hunt Denn.—Dr. E. Dewitt Con-nell, Thomas D. Honeyman, James Honeyman, Arthur Emmons, A. Deforest, Honeyman, Arthur Emmons, A. Deforest, Coast agent for the American Steel and Wire Company, and E. R. Eldridge, the campany's local agent, will leave on Saturday next, for a two weeks' deer hunting trip in Southern Oregon. The hunters will go to Roseburg and from there pack into what is known as the Rogue River divide country. The same trip has been made for several years past by Jim and Tom Honeyman and Mr. Winters and they have always killed plenty of deer and bear, and caught fish until they were tired of hauling them out.

WILL BUILD CLUBHOUSE.-The men of St. Mary's Parish, Albina, have organized a club, whose object is to erect a club-liquise costing $10,000. A club composed of Catholic young men was recently started to boom the building movement. There were present at the organization several prominent men interested in the success of the project. Among these was Rev. Father O'Hara, of the Cathedral. It has been decided to erect a clubhouse to cost not to exceed $10,000. Committees were appointed. It is possible that a joint stock company will be formed, which will direct the building movement under the supervision of the church.

the supervision of the church.

Mork Warrants Issued.—Upon complaint of Mounted Policeman Keller, warrants for the arrest of 11 more young men, alleged to be members of the notorious Lower Albina gang, were issued out of the Municipal Court yesterday afternoon and were served last night. They were for Clyde and Mark Farmer, James McKenna, Carl Williams, Lee Deise, Floyd McDuilen, Nick Nenze, Sylvester Dominsky, Arthur Seir, Peter Criger and Tom May. They are said to have been implicated in an assault on officers Thursday evening.

DEATH OF H. W. Nichols.—Hambley William Nichols, an old resident of Oregon, died at his home near Rockwood, on the Base Line road, last Friday. He was born in England in 1849 and came to Portland in 1884. He is survived by his wife, his son Horace, and his daughter, Mrs. George Fitzsimmons, of Salinas. Funeral services will be held at the Nichols home comorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at which David's Church, will officiate. The burial will be in the Multnomah cemetery.

CLAIMS PORTLAND BRIDE.—Sigmund Son-nenberg, of San Francisco, and Miss Sylvia A. Salomon, youngest daughter of Louis Salomon, of 570 Hoyt street, will be married at the residence of her parents at 7:50 next Thursday evening, a Heense for that purpose having been secured yesterday afternoon. The ceremony, which will be a home affair, will be performed by Rev. Stephen S. Wise in the presence of the family only. The prospective groom is a well-known business man of the California metropolia.

Will Investigate Gravet Pit.—Councilman Kellaher and Bennett investigated the gravel pit in North Mount Tabor yesterday afternoon. Manager George Simon, of the Pacific Bridge Company, which owns the pit and is excavating for street fills, accompanied them. Residents and property owners interested were also present. These latter represent that their homes are in danger of being ruined if $30. the excavating continues.

Success Funeral Todat.—Deputy Coroner Arthur L Finley returned to Portland from Corbett Station yesterday morning, after making an investigation of the suicide of Frederick Emily, a wealthy and prominent rancher of Eastern Multinomah County. As published yesterday, Emily shot himself while his family was absent. Ill health was the cause. The funeral will occur at the residence at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

PBAST OF THE HOLT ROSART.—The feast of the Holy Rosary will be cele-brated this morning at 30:30 o'clock Roses will be blessed and distributed at this hour, just before the high mass. The choir will sing Eduardo Marzo's "Messe Sciennelle." Rev. Father Lamb, O. P., will deliver the discourse on the Rosary. There will be evening devotions, beginning at 7:30, with sermon by Rev. Father Law ler, O. P.

No Successon to Biglin.-Mayor Lane No Successor to Biglia.—Mayor Lane has named nobody as yet for temporary Harbormasier while the charges against Captain Ben Biglia are investigated. The Mayor had so much routine work to attend to this afternoon that he did not get around to the appointment, and concluded to put it off till Monday. He will not say that he has any one under consideration for the place.

SAN JOSE MAN LIKES PORTLAND .- GUStave Nelson, a retired tanner and ex-Councilman of San Jose, Cal., is registered at the Perkins. Mr. Nelson has been in at the Perkins, Mr. Nelson has been in the East with Mrs. Nelson, visiting friends of his boyhood in Newark, New Jersey and other cities. They returned over the Canadian Pacific and Mr. Nelson has just had his first glimpse of the Northwest. He expresses himself as surprised at the growth being made by cities from British Columbia to Portland, and prophesies a vast commerce for this city. Conditions are more favorable, he believes, for a commercial and industrial center at Port-land than at any other point in the Northland than at any other point in the North-
