RESULTS OF CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING IN THE OREGONIAN

On September 9, Register, Denison & Company, real estate dealers, 107½ Third Street, inserted the following advertisement in the classified columns of The Oregonian:

> 14 ACRES, 12 ACRES IN CULTIVATION, near car line, 2 springs, 200 bearing fruit trees, 3-room house, 20 tons hay, good team, 2 cows, wagon, buggy, harness, mower, rake, plows, etc., all for $2000. Call 107½ 3d.

Among the letters received asking information about this property was one from S. F. Axtell, proprietor Bulah Vista Fruit Ranch, Cohasset, Butte County, California. By the time Mr. Axtell's inquiry reached Register, Denison & Company, property advertised had been sold. Portland advertisers who use the classified columns of The Oregonian are often surprised to receive inquiry for property advertised from California, as well as from the Middle Western and Eastern States.

There is perhaps no paper published in the country today that is so carefully read as The Oregonian is. The Sunday Oregonian is recognized by advertisers generally as one of the most valuable metropolitan papers published in the United States.
