ATTACKS BREWERS' TRUST

Ohio Moves to Oust Hoster's Combination at Columbus. GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, Oct. 20.—A suit in quo warrantu was filed in the Circuit Court tonight against the Hoster-Columbus Association Breweries Company by the State of Ohio. The petition charges that the Hoster-Columbus Association Breweries Company, the C. Born & Son Company, the N. Schlee & Son Company and the Columbus Brewing Company were all engaged in a competitive trade until they were organized into one company to prevent competition in making and selling brewery products.

It is claimed that all the powers and franchises exercised by the Hoster-Columbus Association Breweries Company are unlawful. The petition prays that the company be ousted from Ohio.

DREYFUS' FRIEND SLATED

General Picquart Believed Chosen for New Cabinet. PARIS, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—General Picquart, loyal friend of Major Dreyfus during his long fight for restoration to the army and the removal of the stain cast upon his honor by the charges of treason heaped upon him, is slated to be Minister of the Interior of the next cabinet.

General Picquart arrived in Paris last Sunday, having been summoned from Geneva, and had a conference with M. Clemenceau, who is regarded as certain to succeed M. Sarrien as Premier. On the strength of his interview, it is believed Picquart is slated to become a minister and this view has been generally accepted.

SEATTLE MEN DRILL WELL

Pythians at New Orleans Compete for Prizes. CORVALLIS, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Three touchdowns and a score 17 for the Oregon Agrics and a goose-egg for the veterans, was the outcome of the annual alumni game of football played here this afternoon at Madison Park. The alumni who participated in the game as members of the alumni team were: Nash, Emily, Handley and Thorp. Bruce Burnett was in town but did not play. For Edwards, of the college faculty, played center. Other positions were filled by Henkle and Long, formerly of Williams, and by members of the alumni team. The regular team was able to make ground easily against the alumni men.

SCORE AGAINST HIGH SCHOOL

University of Washington Team Makes a Poor Showing. UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—In a close and exciting game today at Madison Park, the Varsity defeated Seattle High School by a score of 4 to 0. The collegians had expected to run up a score of 30 or 40, but a bare four points earned in the first four minutes of play by a place kick from the 30-yard line was all they could make against the "preps."

Raising Funds for Auto Course.
