ALLIS CRAMER ACQUITTED.—After having been out for more than two hours, the jury that listened to the testimony in the case of the state against Alie Cramer vesterday afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty. Cramer was charged with having set fire to his home for the purpose of defrauding the Oregon Fire Relief Association out of $500 insurance. The Cramer home at 1257 Albina avenue was burned last June, and the defendant was arrested soon afterward and has was arrested soon afterward and has been in jail since that time. The case was tried in Judge Cleland's department of the Circuit Court, Deputy District Attorney Gus C. Moser and T. J. Clecton appearing for the state, while Cramer was defended by John H. Ditchburn.

AUDIENCE KEPT IN IGNORANCE.—That there was not a panic in the Star Theater at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon when fire broke out in the Columbia building, adjoining, is regarded by the police as strange, but still stranger is the fact that, although thousands of peo-ple gathered and sill the downtown fire companies responded, those within the playhouse never knew that an alarm had been sent in. Thinking the fire was a serious one, Captain of Police Slover dis-patched from beadquarters a wagonload of patrolmen but their services were not required, as by the time they arrived the fire was out. The fire was caused by a defective flue, and was extinguished with

OFFERS A BIG REWARD.-James A Moore a wealthy real estate dealer of Seattle, has appealed to the Portland police to assist in unraveling the mystery surrounding the theft of diamonds valued at $2000 from his home, 81 Fourteenth avenue North, Seattle, recently. For the arrest of the guilty person or persons, he will pay a reward of $1000, he writes. Among the stolen articles are a large crescent brooch, 4 inches long, mounted with 24 diamonds, valued at $1300; a gold braceliet, mounted with a $1290; a gold bracelet, mounted with a large qual in the center, surrounded by diamonds, valued at $400, and one double-string pearl necklace, valued at $1000.

SULT OVER 5-FOOT STRIP OF LAND.—A 5-foot strip of land on an Albina fot is causing a world of trouble between John Anderson and Joseph Plywacki. The last Anderson and Joseph Plywacki. The last named purchased the property at a sher-tif's sale several years ago for $105, but Anderson sued for the bit of earth and secured a title to it by a decree of court. Maintaining that his title is also good, Plywacki refuses to allow Anderson to build on the tract. Anderson yesterday began a suit in the Circuit Court to force Plywacki to give up all claim to the property.

OUR SILVER HAS BECOME POPULAR among purchasers of nice wedding gifts.
YOU WILL ALWAYS FIND both our solid silver and silver-plated ware well represented at all the weddings. As a RESULT we usually sell more to the bride later ou.
THE SOLID SILVER patterns we handle are exclusive and the very prettiest the market can produce, such as the Bridal Rose and Orange Blossom. Beautiful pieces from $1.50 up.

A Few Words About Our Popular Plated Ware:

DO YOU KNOW that all of our plated ware in knives, forks and spoons is made especially for us by one of the largest factories in the East, and each plece is stamped with our name (Jaeger Bros.) and carries with it the very highest guarantee, as it contains more silver than the regular plated ware. OUR PATTERNS are new and dainty, not the regular plated ware kind that is handled by most svery store in the city. IT RESEMBLES THE SOLID SILVER so closely that it is almost impossible to tell the difference.

TEA SETS, FOUR PIECES, from $10.00 up; Bread Trays, $2.50; Cake Baskets, $2.00; Cream and Sugar, $5.00.

IMPORTANT MEETING

The fate of one of Portland's gree The fate of one of Portland's great wholesale establishments is to be determined tomorrow. There are in this city at present A. E. Nathan, L. J. Nathan, Samuel Wertbelmer and several other members of the firm of Nathan, Werthelmer & Co., wholesale manufacturers of fine clothing, 630 Broadway and 154 Crosby street, New York, with a large wholesale beaus in Portland located at 72 wholesale house in Portland, located at 73 Front and 297 Oak street. In fact the only wholesale clothing house outside of San Francisco on the entire Coast. It is est positively settled that the firm will dissolve and retire from the whole-sale business. What disposition to make of the big Fall and Winter stock will be determined at the meeting tomorrow. The less of this big house would be keenly felt, both to Portland clothing stores and merchants on the entire Coast, as the character of goods sold by this firm was specially manufactured for the better class of Pacific Coast trade.
