AMUSEMENTS.
THE HELLIO THEATER (14th and Washington streets)—Lieber & Co's production, "In the Hish-op's Carriage." BAKER THEATER (Third bet Yamhill and Taylor)—Baker Theater Company in "The Sorcerer," matinee 2 P. M., tonight at 8 o'clock.

OLD-TIME STEVEDORES DEAD.—James Taylor, 88 years old, one of the oldest stevedores on the Portland water front, died at his home at 454 Hoyt street yesterday after an illness of but one day.
Taylor, who had been a stevedore for 27 years, met with an accident several years ago, receiving internal injuries. He was able to go to work again, but was cautioned not to overexert himself. While assisting in loading the Nicomedia at the Portland Flour Mill docks Friday Taylor was struck by a sack of grain. He was taken to his home in an ambulance and grew worse steadily until he died. He leaves a wife and two daughters. The funeral will be held from the family residence Tuesday morning.

JOHN P. KEENE DIES.—John F. Keene, a hunchback who was a well-known character in Portland, died suddenly last night in a saloon at 209 Salmon street. Keene was a bartender, but had not been working for some time. He was 35 years old and lived at the Belmont Lodging-House.
Coroner Finley took charge of the body and will hold an inquest on the death. He thinks it was heart disease. So far as known the only relative Keene had is a brother at Seattle. The coroner communicated with his last night and he will probably come to Portland to take charge of the funeral of his brother.

FALLS SIXTY FEET INJURY.—R.
Wooley, a union grapplehandler, fell on the foot of Larabee street early yesterday morning, but outside of severe bruises escaped injury. He lay unconscious for over three hours and was then discovered by N. Poulsen, who communicated with police headquarters. The police ambulance took the injured man to the Good Samaritan Hospital. It was at first thought that Wooley's back was broken, but examination showed that such was not the case.

WILL FIELD COMMUNION.—The First Spiritual Society, which meets in Aristides' hall, Abington Bldg., will present a spiritualists' communion service tonight. It will be a rare one, out of the ordinary, in view of the fact that neither bread nor wine will be used. The use of flowers will be just one phase of the service, there being many others which will be included in the presentation. It will be a new interpretation of what has usually been considered the Holy Communion by other denominations.

NOT WANTED IN PORTLAND.—Frank Nolan and Jack Gorman, alias "Bruce Kid," two notorious characters, who were arrested by Acting Detectives Hill and Burke last night on charges of vagrancy.
The two are said by the officers to be operating between Portland and Seattle.
The police are determined to run them out of town.

PROBABLE ASSOCIATION MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Probable Association will meet Friday, November 2, at St. Helen's Hall, 3 P. M.
Those interested in education are cordially invited. Mrs. H. H. Matteson will be chairman for the afternoon. "Kindergarten Work in November" will be the subject discussed.

PATIENTS WANTED AT THE NORTH PACIFIC COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY, CORNER PINE AND COMMERCE STS.—A dentist desiring dental work or oral surgery can now receive prompt attention. The infirmary staff is: Drs. L. J. Fitzpatrick, J. M. Meyer, J. P. Drake, E. M. Hurd, G. H. Martin and H. C. Miller. Telephone Main 123.

CONTRASTS OLD AND NEW.—The subject of this evening's sermon at the Cathedral will be "The Catholic Church and Social Questions Eighteen Hundred Years Ago." This will be the last of a series of sermons preached by Father O'Hara, in which the contrasts between the primitive church and the modern church are shown.

PEOPLE'S FORUM MEETS TONIGHT.—The People's Forum tonight will discuss Government ownership of railroads. H. D.
Wagon will lead the discussion favoring state ownership and opposing Federal ownership of railroads. The forum meets in the Selling-Hirsch building, Tenth and Washington streets, at 7:30 o'clock.

CONSUMERS' LEAGUE TO MEET.—The Consumers' League will hold its annual meeting and election of officers at the Portland Hotel, November 7, at 4 o'clock.
Bishop Scadding and Dr. C. H. Chapman will make addresses on the work of the league and the general public is cordially invited to attend.

THIS WILL REMIND YOU that now is the time to have your hair mattresses renovated and returned the same day. Phone Main 64. The Portland Curled Hair Factory, H. Metzger, proprietor.

EXHIBIT AT LIBRARY.—An exhibit of hand-made papers and the process of paper-making is now installed on the first-handling at the library. The public is cordially invited to inspect it.

WANTED.—For manufacturing purposes, 1500 to 2000 feet of river frontage; give location and price per front foot, depth of property.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD Tea.—Members of the Needlework Guild are requested by the officers to send their contributions of clothing to their directors without further delay so as to facilitate the distribution of the articles among the charities of the city. November 7 has been decided upon as the date of the annual tea, which will be held in the Unitarian Chapel from 3 to 4 o'clock on that day. All collections are to be sent to the chair by the directors November 6, and the distributions will be made the day after the public tea.
Merchants who are charitably inclined will find that they can give to more organizations and distribute their charity more evenly through the medium of the guild than in any other way, and they will also be saved the annoyance of numerous individual solicitors. Members should send their pieces to their section presidents. Any information may be obtained from Mrs. James S. Reed at 23 North Twenty-fourth street, who will also receive contributions from new members or outsiders wishing to add to the general collection of clothing for poor people.
Evens Night School Work.—The night school at the High School building is growing. Sessions open at 7 P. M. The work of the evening is divided into three departments. The first hour offers an opportunity for study in advanced arithmetic, reading, beginners' arithmetic, two classes in reading for beginners in English, and history of the United States. The second hour studies are arithmetic, bookkeeping, spelling and beginners' spelling.
The third hour studies are writing, grammar, reading and spelling. All are invited to enroll without charge.

SHARKEY'S POSITION.
Brings the Lemcke Company Again in the Limelight.
The H. W. Lemcke Company has again broken into the limelight of publicity. Not, however, by breaking any of the city ordinances, nor yet by working the newspapers for free advertising; but, to quote their words as to their position, a "pro-bono publico" institution, in as much as through their efforts one of the finest additions ever placed at the disposal of man, to erect for himself his home, has just been placed on the market. Every lot in this tract will be supplied with Bull Run water, and every home-builder will have all the luxuries of the downtown dweller, while being relieved of many of the disagreeable incidents, such as being overcrowded, shut off from view, fog, smoke and such other nuisances that people who live in an exclusive residence section do not have to suffer.

And then the scenery, the climate, the ever-changing panoramic view of the sky and mountains, just the place for the busy business man, where refreshing scenes of the mountains have that soothing effect to the brain that is filled with office work, or the place where the artist and poetically inclined can commune with Nature, or the invalid regain lost strength, the place to place to furnish the baby, or to train the athlete—in fact, the Utopian country, the mecca of all, whether weak or strong.

It is the proud boast of the Lemcke Company that there will not be an unsold lot in this entire addition in six months from date, and all those who have been waiting to buy at Council Crest Park Addition should make their selections early.
Mr. Lemcke said yesterday that their sales agents would be at the additional of today to assist would-be purchasers to make their selections, with a view to having the reservation made at once. It is not our desire, however, to keep shop open on Sunday, but merely make this arrangement for the convenience of those who cannot leave their business during week days.

Councilman Sharkey's position with the Lemcke Company is that of "add. censor."

A SATISFIED MAN.
The man who trades here is perfectly satisfied with himself. He always looks well; his clothes always wear well, and they are not costly; his coat fits, his trousers fit; they are carefully made and carefully finished; each little detail has attention.

Let us talk to you about the new suit or overcoat. Armstrong, the Tailor, Raleigh building, 223 Washington street.

POLO ON SKATES.
The first polo game of the season will occur at the Exposition Rink next Wednesday evening. An exciting match is promised.

RAIN OR SHINE.

STATEMENT FROM MRS. HAWLEY.
Mrs. Hawley of Stevenson, Wash., wishes to brand article appearing in a sheet called the Mercury as an infamous lie out of the whole cloth. Anyone interested is referred to the pole living in Stevenson, Mrs. Hawley's home town.

CARD OF THANKS.
Mr. William Viggers thanks his many friends for their kindness and sympathy tendered him during his recent bereavement.

Helps to the Choice of Appropriate Gifts At one time or another between now and Christmas there are a number of occasions in general as well as several in particular, when more than likely it will be your wish to remember this old friend or that relative with a token of your esteem and regard.
Our jewelry cases are filled with such solid pieces and beautiful trinkets of every sort; our display of silver articles is exceptionally fine, and our showing of cut glass, clocks, etc., leaves nothing to be desired.

By the Light of Comparison We Expect to Gain Your Patronage We are never content merely to satisfy—we must excel and therefore create the best—this applies to every detail in the formation of our apparel—the clothes that are so vastly superior in Style, Fit and Quality to the ordinary ready-to-wear garments.
Then consider that great advantage of quantity—an enormous selection. Our patron's choice is not confined to a few models and a meager array of patterns. We invite your inspection of our Suits, Overcoats and Cravenettes—by the light of comparison we expect to gain your patronage.
