EAST SIDE CLUB INCORPORATES.—Articles of incorporation of the East Side Club were filed with the County Clerk yesterday. The object of the new corporation, whose existence is declared to be perpetual, is to encourage social intercourse among its members and to promote the development of East Side interests. The estimated value of money and property possessed by the society, is $3000. The list of officers for the first year follows: Whitney L. Bolse, president; Edward Newbegin, vice-president; W. S. Halvor, secretary; H. H. Newhall, treasurer; and R. D. Ingram, Jesse Stearns, George W. Holcomb, J. M. Healy and Walter F. Burrell, directors. All of the foregoing officers are ex-officio members of the board of directors.

HEARST TO BE INVITED.—W. R. Hearst may soon visit Portland, as an invitation will be forwarded to him, asking that he be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given by Oregon Democrats, January 8, in celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Andrew Jackson. Mr. Hearst is expected on the Coast almost any time and if he comes, the Oregon Democrats believe that they may be able to induce him to extend his visit to Portland. The celebration of Jackson's birth will likely be held under the auspices of the Bryan Democratic Club, of which George L. Hutchin is president.

ELKS' LODGE OF SORROW.—The Elks of Portland this year will hold their annual memorial services in their own magnificent lodgerooms. The date is Sunday, December 2. Before the Elks have engaged theaters, but now they have a spacious hall more comfortable and more elegantly appointed than any playhouse they could obtain. In all parts of the United States, December 24th will meet in honor of departed brothers. The memorial committee, consisting of Ralph W. Hoyt, John P. Cordray, George Otten, G. C. Moser and A. H. Eilers, is preparing an exceptionally fine program, which several new features will be introduced. The best musical talent has been engaged and high-class music will be made a strong feature of this year's program.

OSTEOPATHS ORGANIZE.—The Portland Osteopathic Association has been organized, and it is expected that all osteopaths of the city will become members. The purpose of the organization is, as expressed in the constitution, the advancement of osteopathy and osteopathic principles and practice, and the promotion of a professional and social spirit among its members. The meeting for organization was held in the offices of Drs. Adix and Northrup, on Monday, the 13th inst., at 7:30 P. M. Matters of great importance to property owners will be considered at said meeting, and all interested are cordially invited to be present. Henry, president; Frank Dayton secretary.

TO START HYDRAULIC GIANTS.—A remainder of "49" mining days may be observed on the hills adjacent to Wilamette Heights this afternoon, when the Pence Company will start up three of its powerful hydraulic giants washing the earth into Baich's Gulch. The debris from the hillsides is to be carried into Guild's Lake for the purpose of filling it up, the Pence Company having a contract of that character. To those who have never witnessed the methods of placer mining in vogue throughout the West, the spectacle of three giants at work simultaneously will be quite an object lesson.

WILL GIVE SOCIAL.—The Catholic Young Men's Club, of St. Mary's Church parish, will give a social Tuesday evening in the Hill Hall on Williams avenue and Russell street. There will be what and a short programme. The club quartet will sing. Miss Collins will give a solo, and Miss Bertha Wagner will recite. On this occasion members of the Catholic Young Men's Club will prepare and serve the refreshments.

BISHOP CARROLL HERE.—Bishop John Carroll, of Helena, Mont., one of the most eloquent clergymen in the Northwest, is now in Portland and will speak today in local Catholic churches. This morning he will preach in St. Patrick's Church, and this evening he will deliver a sermon at the Cathedral on the subject, "Church and Country."
