VOL. XXV-NO. 47.

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 25, 1906.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

HAMILTON PREY TO LAWLESSNESS

Mobs Storm Cars and Rumored That Lawyer Patrick's Troops Charge.

POPULACE REMAINS DEFIANT

Police Attack Met With Showers of Missiles.

THEN COME THE CAVALRY

Car Torn to Pieces by Angry Sympathizers With Strikers-Nearly a Hundred Injured-Call for More Troops.

THE CITY OF HAMILTON.

Hamilton is the capital of Wentworth County, Ontario, and is on Burlington Bay, at the western extremity of Lake 70 miles northwest of Buffalo t is on the Canadian Grand Trunk and Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo raliponds, It was founded in 1813, and has many fine public buildings and educational in-It has many factories for iron castings, machinery, agricultural implements, sewing machines, musical fnstruments, glassware, woodenware, voolen and cotton goods, soap and candles, choca, leather, etc. It is the center 1901 was 52,634.

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 25 .- Never in Hamilton's history were such scenes of disorder and lawlessness seen as were enacted in the principal streets of the city last night. Scores of rioters, sympathizers with the striking streetear men felt the weight of policemen's night sticks and the keen edge of the soldiers' swords in conflicts on James and King streets. At a late hour streetcars were running at intervals under heavy guard, but they did not carry passengers and continue to be the targets for fusiliades of stones and bricks from Bide streets and alley-

Drastic as were the measures taken by the authorities last night, it was plain that the mob spirit had not been broken,

Riot Act Read, Troops Called. The crowds began to gather at dusk The officers at once saw that trouble was brewing and made their preparations accordingly. Fights on the streetcars began as early as 7 o'clock. The police wielded their clubs freely, but the situhandle. Sheriff Middleton was notified and he immediately read the riot act, which makes every able-bodied citizen amenable to police duty. He also notified Captain Ogilvie that the aid of troops had become necessary to keep order. At 8 o'clock a concerted effort was made by the police and soldiers to clear the streets. James street in the vicinity of the City Hall was packed with a dense crowd of yelling boodlums and hundreds of other people who had been attracted to the scene more by curlouity than to take part in the disorders.

Police Charge Furiously.

The police charged this crowd first. They wielded their clubs with telling effect. The absence of stern methods in previous disorders had led many to be lieve that the police would not resort to harsh measures tonight. The officers were met with jeers and insults. Smashing right and left with their heavy night sticks, the police waded into the crowd. Men and women suffered alike, and soon the pavement was marked by many un conscious forms. The mob, realizing that the police meant business this time, began to retaliate with stones and other mis-

Cavalry Disperses the Mob.

At this point, the clatter of horses hoofs on the pavement announced the approach of the cavalry, and the crowd, attacked from both sides, broke and fled down side streets and through hallways into back alleys. The streets in the vicinity of the City Hall were cleared, but it was only temporary relief for the authorities.

The crowd soon began to converge on King street. A streetcar with detectives on board came along and became the target for a fusillade of bricks and stones. The strike-breakers and detectives deserted the car as the mob grew in volume and their lives were endangered by the avalanche of rocks. They were followed by a section of the crowd and given a severe beating. The streetcar was derailed and literally torn to pieces before the militia could reach the spot. The mob melted away as the soldiers charged with fixed bayonets.

This was the last concentrated demonstration made by the rioters during the evening, although disorders on a smaller scale were frequent up to midnight.

Hundred Injured, Many Arrests.

At 1:39 the authorities appeared to the situation well in hand, although it is realized that the trouble is by no means over. It is probable that the local officials will ask for more soldiers The streets are strewn with debris, Many plate-glass windows in stores were broken

Twenty of the rioters were landed at the police stations. The policemen arscores, but the crowd rescued the not serious. They had been hit by clubs. The soldiers, as a rule, used the flat of their swords and the butt-ends of their

Frank Fitzgerald, whose skull was fractured in last night's disorders, is at the

ESCAPES ELECTRIC CHAIR

Sentence Will Be Commuted. NEW YORK, Nov. 24.- The World tonorrow will say: Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, under sen ence of death for the murder of William Marsh Rice, has won his fight for life. His end will not be in the electric chair. Before Governor Higgins gives up his office as chief executive of the state he will sign a commutation of the death sentence. Life imprisonment will be Patrick's fate.

LEROY M. GARRETT DROWNS

Captain of Steamer Albatross Is Washed Overboard.

HONOLULU, Nov. 24.-Lieutenant Com mander Leroy M. Garrett, commanding the United States steamer Albatross, as washed overboard and drowned last Wednesday when the vessel was 500 miles northwest of Honolulu. The Albatross stood by all night, using her searchlight in an unavailing search for him. The Albatross has completed an important scientific expedition in Alcutian and Japanese waters.

INSURGENT BAND IN CUBA

Discharged Police Chief Takes the Field, Rural Guard Pursuing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 34 - Secretary Taft late today received the following cablegram from Governor Magoo, dated Havana:

"Information received that Rius, Modrate, lately removed as Chief of Police at Clenfuegos, has left town with a band of from 10 to 15, pursued by Rural Guards of sufficient force. Guzman and other leaders tendered their services to capture the band. Tender declined. No special importance attached to incident.

CONTENTS TODAY'S PAPER

The Weather

TODAY'S—Fall: westerly winds.
YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 40 degrees, minimum, 30. Foreign.

Norway securing guarantee of powers against Russian aggression, Page 4. Kings of Italy and Greece go hunting, Page Witte aims to again dominate Russia though assassins threaten, Page 3. Russia and Japan disagree about fisheries and talk of war. Page 3. Gossip of European capitals. Page 33.

Politics. Senate will punish La Follette for his roasts. Page 1. Judge Gaynor advocates imprisonment for rebating. Page 3.

Domestic. Herman Ocirich's will contest will soon be Eight persons injured by runaway automo-bile. Page 38. Caruso notorious i us in Europe for insults to Streetcar strike at Hamilton causes serious riots and troops charge mobs. Page 1. Gillette murder trial is being bitterly con-tested by opposing counsel. Page 2. Policy-holders' committee asks Governors to recall agents' licenses for working for administration ticket. Page 2.

Tillman will speak in Chicago in spite of negroes. Page 5. Pacific Coast. Recent great gale off the Northwest Coast kept vessels from entering or leaving the Straits of Fuca, Page 1. William Dwyer is found guilty on five of six counts at Moscow. Page 11.

Washington Supreme Court decides that agreement to marry made by consump-tive is not binding. Page 11.

Corvalils commercial body begins movement for free locks at Oregon City. Page 14. Evidence introduced in Sloane murder case to prove that boy was insune. Page 11. Sports.

College football-Yale 6, Harvard 0, Page 36. Brown 23, Dartmouth 0, Page 36. Minnesota 8, Indiana 6, Page 36. Caritale 18, Cincinnati 0, Page 36.

Chicago 35, Notraska 5, Page 36.

Northwest football scores—University of Oregon 0, Oregon Agricultural College 6; Washington State College 6; Whitman College 0, Page 36.

Battle royal will be game on M. A. A. C. gridfron Thursday between clubmen and Oregon, Page 37. Los Angeles story of outlaw league hot air; San Francisco sporting letter, Page 38. Hill Military Academy defeats Portland High School 21 to 0 and wins inter-scholastic championship, Page 37.

Result of game between University of Ore-gon and Oregon Agricultural College no-true indication of relative strength, says Referee, in weakly review. Page 36.

Portland and Vicinity. ev, Andrew Morrissey, provincial of the Holy Cross, here to inspect Columbia University, Page 10. office raid Paris House again, Page 16.

Outside capital seeks investment in Port-land real estate. Page 16. Portland's fire louses this year much be-low average. Page 33. Commercial and Marine. Thanksgiving turkey market opens strong.

market rests on good foundation New York bank statement shows increase in reserve. Page 38. Chicago grain markets are dult and weak, Page 39.

Flood plays havec with boats on Upper Co-lumbia, Page & Features and Departments, Editorial, Page 6.

Courch announcements. Page 31. Classified advertisements. Pages 17-23. Old stories refold by George Ade. Page 42. Bureau of fashion information. Page 47. President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving turkey. Page 3.

How nestlings are fed. Page 44. Thanksgiving miscellany, Page 45.

Annie Laura Miller's letter from Japan

W. W. Jacob's sea story. Page 48. Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst speaks of self. Page 48. Ham Burr's new play. Page 52. Book reviews. Page 40.

Comment on today's Sunday school lesson.

Page 44.

Social, Pages 26-27-29. The John Dough mystery. Page 50. 100 persons were treated at the Youth's department, Page 51

Bark Bedart Lost One Man From Crew

IVERNA HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Alsterberg Buffeted About in Gale for a Week.

OLIVEBANK BLOWN ASHORE

Such a Long Period of Rough Weather Has Seldom Been Experienced on the Northwest Pacific Coast.

BY E. W. WRIGHT. ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 24 .- (Staff Correspondence).-The testimony of incoming captains, as well as bar pilots and tugboatmen is all to the effect that seldom if ever has there been a longer period of severe weather than that which extended through the greater part of the months of October and November. With gale succeeding gale in such alarming frequency it has been impossible for vessels to make any headway against them.

That the vessels of the Portland-bound fleet were not the only ones to meet with exasperating delays is shown by reports Puget Sound. In the story of the remarkable voyage of the British bark Iverna, mention .was made of her un successful attempt to enter the Straits of Fuca and her narrow escape from destruction on the west coast of Vancouver Island. That Captain Collingswood exercised good judgment in returning to the latitude of the Columbia River is shown by the experience of the storm-bound fleet that is now arriving on Puget Sound.

Bark Bidart Loses One Man.

Telegraphic advices which announced the arrival at Port Townsend of the French bark Bidart on the same day that the Iverna reached Astoria have Senator Dolliver denies he attacked Root of the rough experience of the vesbeen supplemented by fuller details The vessel lost nearly all of her salls, one man was washed overboard, and for 12 days neither master or crew were able to secure any rest. The been in port had she been able to speak a tug. However, the weather was so severa that it was impossible to get in close. It was November 8 when she first made Cape Flattery. But the master reports that there

The Ledger of November 22 has the ollowing regarding the experience of another grain ship:

For seven days the hig German bark Alsterberg, Captain J. Saelzer, was buffeted about like a toy vessel during the seyere storms which prevailed off this Coast last week. The four-master beat about the en-trance to the straits for a full week. OFF THE STRAITS Narrow Escape of a Coaster.

Not only did the severe storm make it impossible for foreign ships to enter the straits but some of the coastwise fleet in command of men perfectly famillar with local conditions, fared no better. A Seattle dispatch in the Tacome Ledger, November 16, tells of the narrow escape of the American bark General Fairchild, which was off Cape Flattery two weeks, as follows: While attempting to make the entrance ence, during the ten days she tried in vain to enter Juan de Fuca, the vessel drifted north toward the Vancouver Island Coast for a distance of 30 miles in 14 hours. Arriving here, the members of the crew were almost exhausted from their arduous efforts. Por 30 days the mate did not remove his rubber boots and slept only at long inter-

An Olympia disputch in the Seattle

King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, Who Is Entertaining King George,

Post-Intelligencer of November 16, noting the arrival of the schooners Salem and Ariel, says:

The Salem has been beating off the cape since November 6 until Wednesday night, November 13, when Captain Anderson brought the schooner up teh straits under her own sail as far as Port Townsend.

The schooner Ariel, Captain E. J. Spicer, also arrived last night in tow of the tug Tadoma, after having spent ten days off the entrance to the straits waiting for a Storm-Bound at Clallam Bay.

Not all of the trouble was experienced by the in-bound fleet, for the Tacoma Ledger of November 19 has marine Item which reads as follows: After spending nearly a week stormbound in Clallam Bay, two vessels which loaded in Tacoma put to sea yesterday, the weather having moderated.

The British ship Olivebank was blown ashore in Scattle harbor November 15 while lying at anchor, and there ther Federation re-elects efficers and trouble off the entrance to the Straits they occurred in Portland or on the Tacoma Ledger in an account of the of an unusual nature, but which, had Two weeks ago the vessel would have end of unfavorable comment on the

For reasons that have been set forth in detail, the blame for the loss of the British Barks Peter Iredale and Gawas nothing but fog and very dirty weather. lena must rest on the reckiess navi-Consequently he had to keep far off shore and at one time was forced to put 100 miles ordinary precautions in approaching gators, whose failure to take the most ordinary precautions in approaching (Concluded on Page 3.)

THE SHADOW OF COMING EVENTS

THE TURKEY: "I'M NOT SUPERSTITIOUS, BUT I FEEL AS THOUGH SOMETHING AWFUL WAS ABOUT TO HAPPEN."

HARVARD 6 TO 0

Crimson Colors Drop in Brilliant Game

SINGLE TOUGHDOWN MADE

New Haven Men Now Champions of the Country.

WIN BY SCIENCE AND SKILL

Cambridge Warriors Prove Worthy Foes, Fighting Every Inch of the Way-Are Given Rousing Ovation by the Conquerors.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 24.-Yale's bright blue banners wave triumphantly over the city tonight, the signal of another victory over Harvard, the final score being 6 to 0. The crimeon went down to defeat in a desperate battle which in football strategy and spectacular plays has had few equals since the two universities have met. To Yale passed the almost undisputed title of the college championship of the country, clouded only by the drawn no-score contest with Princeton a week ago.

A victory for the crimson would have meant first honors beyond question, for she had beaten the Carlisle Indians, who last week won from Minnesota and who also had defeated the University of Pennsylvania, the conquerors of the University of Michigan. For this reason, if for no other, the game on Yale field was of unprecedented importance, and to Yale once more has come a victory which will live forever in her athletic history. was a victory won through football knowledge, superior play, almost unerring accuracy in developing the possibil-Ities of the new rules and the magnificent work of players. The score of a single touchdown and goal repeats that of last year on Soldiers' Field, and it adds to Yale's string of victories, only twice broken since 1897.

Harvard Fights Gamely. Harvard proved a worthy foeman. Her men repeatedly shone conspicuously and ward. Harvard was a trifle slow in explays hard and taking advantage of every Interference, forward passes and onside kicks were well developed. Not once did a Yale man have to run down the field without assistance. As the game was nearing the crimson line into a heap time and again. It was only Harvard's stubborn contest of every luch that kept the score at the single figures.

15 99

ALL WALLS

MACBETH-

Scores on Sensational Play.

The touchdown followed a sensational play. Yale had the ball on Harvard's 25-yard line. Jones called for a kicking formation. Veeder dropped back to the 24-yard with his hands outspread. I perfect pass from Hockenberger sent the ball into his hands and Veeder, like a flash, started at right angles and hurled the ball over the heads of the Harvard men for a 30-yard pass to where se eral Yale men, as though drawn by a magnet, had jumped into one little knot. Up from their midst leaped Forbes, who caught the ball and in an instant placed it down on the four-yard line. Up rose the Yale hosts, with cries for a to down, while the crimson side was hushed. Roome, who had replaced Knox was sent to smash the crimson line. Hi first try gave two yards and the next time he was shot over, with the whole team dragging and pushing him. Thu four yards showed what Yafe, could do when she was hungry for the score which was so close at hand. The kicking of a goal was an easy thing for Veeder.

Monster Crowd Present.

The gridiron was framed with a mass of humanity, in which three sides were blue and the other crimson. The cheer ing and singing while good, fell far able only by the fact that the spectators did not have much time to pay much attention to the cheer leaders. seat was vacant and at the gate a few stray tickets brought phenomenal prices, one pair changing hands at $50.

The game opened under gray skies but was concluded in radiant sunshine and under a canopy of blue. The Harvard stands at the opening cheered Yale and Captain Morse, and the opposite side returned this compliment. At the close of the game the jubilant Yale host stood bareheaded for 15 minutes in front of the Harvard stand, cheering and singing to the crimson, the latter responding. Yale has always cheered Harvard, but

The second secon
ovation:
Following is
Yale.	Position. Harvard.
Forbes	L E Macdonald
96-1	Kennard
Paige	L. T Osborne
Hockenberger	Parker France
Erwin	C. Parker-Frazer
Biglow	R. T Pierce
H. Jones-Alcout
Morse	R. E Starr-Orr
	Q.B Newhall
Knox-Roome-	T. Tr. II
Veeder	P H P Lincoln
Morse-Wetnecke	. L. H. B Foster Lincoln wendel
	: Harvard, 0.
Touchdown-I
Goal from to	uchdown-Veeder.
Referes-W.	J. Hackett, West Point,

Umpires-K. Hall, Dartmouth; W. H. Ed-Time of palves-30 minutes.

Yale Wins the Toss.

Yale won the toss and chose to defend the north goal, being thus aided a trifle by the wind. Burr sent the oval spinning to Tad Jones on the blue's five-yard line, and the game was on.

Yale felt out the crimson line, but falled to find an opening, and Veeder kicked. the flashes of brilliancy in overplays, as The punt was partially blocked, but time and again her backs broke through rolled to the middle of the field before a the line and her stalwart guard, Burr, Harvard man nailed it. The crimson sent the ball twisting through the air on made a brilliant get-away on the first long punts, seemed to be entitled to a re- chance, Newhall and Lincoln executing a double pass for 25 yards, and took the ball Follette's bill regulating the hours of ecuting her plays which, as last year, to Yale's 22-yard line. Here the buildog seemed to hinge on her great strength on showed his teeth, and the crimson dash defense. Yale's success lay in playing was checked. Burr attempted to dropoffensively at the opening, driving her kick goal, but the ball was blocked and a Yale man captured it in midfield. Each opening when her opponents had the ball. tried a little line-smashing here, and Har- Congress adjourned, he threatened to vard succeeded in making one first down by plowing through Yale's center, but in his enmity. His conduct through the retoo much and on the last down a kick or a forward pass was in order. Both Sides Hold.

After each side had been penalized for lding, Veeder booted the ball across Harvard's goal line. The ball was brought to the 20-yard line, where Burr punted to ing that Hemenway was present. Then Knox, who returned it to Harvard's 20- he went to New Jersey and handed anyard line, after the most spectacular run other roast to Senator Dryden. Out in of the game, a 40-yard dash through the Kansas he assailed Senator Long, who entire Harvard team.

With a goal in sight, Yale began pounding the Harvard tackles for steady gains, quickly booted it out of danger. Followon Harvard's 22-yard line. Here the crimson braced and Veeder at-

The attempt went five yards wide and and Piles, of Washington. Harvard kicked out from the 30-yard line, Irvine running it back to the Harvard 40-yard line before being downed. Veeder and Morse then worked an on-side kick good for 25 yards. On the next play the Yale's ball on Harvard's 25-yard line.

Sons of Eli Score.

he made a beautiful forward pass to men without the gain of an inch, but on dragged along by beautiful interference, a moment later kicked an easy goal.

Score: Yale 6, Harvard 0. Burr kicked behind Yale's goal line and the ball was brought out and punt-An exchange of kicks followed and the fight ended with the ball in Yale's possession on her 45-yard line.

Yale kicked off to Harvard in the second half and a punting duel fol- before him, expected to cut as much figlowed, in which Burr more than held ure in Washington as he had cut in Wishis own against Vesder. The ball was consin. That is not a privilege accorded finally forced into Harvard's territory any new Senator. The biggest man, no and the crimson put on the defensive. matter what his previous record, must Being unable to gain, Burr was fre- serve out a probationary period when he quently called on and his punting enabled Harvard to keep the ball in bow to the unwritten rule of that body, Yale's territory much of the first part he is made to suffer. That is as sure as of the half. Getting the ball on her fate. own 35-yard line, Harvard attempted a

(Concluded on Page 3.)

Senate Will Resent La Follette's Roast

HE VIOLATED ALL PRECEDENT

Revenge for Killing Pet Measures Last Session.

VOTES WITH DEMOCRATS

Might Be Excluded From Caucus, but That Would Make Him s Martyr-Will Be Snubbed on Every Occasion.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 24.-Senator La Follette of Wisconsin may have strengthened himself before the people at large by his series of attacks upon his fellow-Senators, but he has not helped himself in the Senate. On the contrary he is very apt to prove a "dead one" when he returns to Washington to face the men be attacked during the Summer. La Follette by his course not only aroused the enmity of the various Senators he assalled, but he has incurred the ill-will of many others who do not approve of any Senator's going about the country criticising his colleagues in their own states. Such practice is frowned upon by the Senate, and it is not considered good form for any Senator to make an assault upon another, unless it be in the heat of debate, and even then personalities are supposed to be eliminated. The truth is the Republicans of the Senate don't like La Follette and never When he landed in the Senate Im Follette assumed a high and mighty air as Senator; took the position that he was right and his colleagues wrong, and immediately proceeded to quarrel with everybody who did not agree with him. He assalled some of the best men in the Senate, men who had the respect of the country and the confidence of the President. With them he attacked Senators of less favorable repute. But his attacks were bitter, and the Senato was quick to show its resentment. Naturally, after La Pollette had assumed this attitude towards Republican Senators, they in turn were not disposed to support Legislation in which La Foliette was primarily interested, and because of this fact they prevented a vote on La employment of railroad employes. Roasts Opponents in Revenge.

The sidetracking of this bill only aroused La Fellette the more, and, when "roast" those Senators who had incurred nearly every instance the 10-yard proved cess has justified bis words; he certainly came forward with a choice selection of "roasts." He began in Indiana before a gathering of Indiana voters to whom he had been introduced by Senator Hemenway. The very first thing he did was to put Hemenway on the gridiron and roast him to the queen's taste. He cared nothwas close to the President during the perfection of the rate bill, and then crossed into Iowa and attacked Senator and had reached the eight-yard line, when Dolliver, who was regarded through that a double pass was attempted. H. Jones long fight as the President's spokesman, received the pass, and with no one near In each case he based his attacks on the him he muffed the ball on Harvard's two- attitude of the various Senators towards yard line. MacDonaid fell on it and Burr the rate bill. Up in Minnesota he turned on both Senator Nelson and Senator ing an exchange of kicks. T. Jones and Clapp, and only a short time ago, after Veeder executed a successful double pass being introduced by Senator Smoot, good for 40 yards that gave Yale the ball turned his heaviest artillery on the already much accused Mormon Senator. Hewound up with his attack on Senator. tempted a drop-kick from the W-yard line. Futton, of Oregon, and Senators Ankeny,

Always Votes With Democrats.

Every one of these Senators had voted: against La Follette's proposed amendments to the railroad rate bill, but they bine was penalized 10 yards, and it was | did no more to defeat them than any one of a dozen other Republican Senators. In fact, the only votes that were cast for most of the La Follette amendments were Yale tried straight football, but could cast by the Democrats, the Republicans not get in, and Veeder dropped back for as a body voting against him. The record an apparent try at a field goal. Instead shows that during the one session he has been in the Senate, La Foliette has voted Forbes, which gained if yards. A straight almost every time with the Democrats buck was stopped by the Harvard line and against the Republicans. This is a remarkable record for a man who aspires the next attempt Veeder, aided and to leadership in his party, for La Foliette was elected as a Republican, and came went through Pierce for a touchdown and to Washington with hopes of taking front rank among Republican Senators.

The trouble with La Follette is diagtosed by his Republican colleagues as a severe case of enlarged cranlum. In Wisconsin La Follette was a power; he was a big toad in a little puddle. He came to Washington flushed by victories in Wisconsin and, like many another statesman first enters the Senate. If he does not

La Follette is coming in for a thorough double pass and lost the ball. Yale squeiching at the hands of the majority started rushing tactics, but the crim- in the Senate, but how it will be worked son line stiffened and Harvard got the out is still a matter of surmise. The Re-

(Concluded on Page 3.)