"The MALLEABLE" RANGE

Needs no introduction to the people of Portland and vicinity, for all will no doubt recall the meritorious display of "The Malleable Steel Range Mfg. Co." at the Lewis and Clark Fair, where this Range received the highest award. It is conceded by the stove trade to be the leading range—produced by the world's most skilled stove-builders—made of malleable iron and Bessemer steel in combination—riveted to air-tightness—will last a lifetime. Its splendid construction and superior quality of material insure against cracking, warping and open seams. Our terms of payment on "The Malleable" are the most liberal ever offered to intending purchasers of a modern—a satisfactory—an economical range, and is convincing evidence of our faith in its sterling qualities. Our offer is to install "The Malleable" in your home on the terms of

ONE DOLLAR ONE DOLLAR

And, if desired, will take in exchange your old stove or range and allow you its full worth.

The annual commemorative exercises conducted by the Ancient Order of Hibernians of this city, in honor of the Manchester martyrs, Allen Larkin and O'Brien, will be held this evening at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Eleventh and Alder streets, at 8 o'clock. On November 23, 33 years ago, the men whose memory is to be observed were executed at Manchester, England, for having participated in a rebellion against the crown. #### DISCUSS MISSION WORK

Portland Christian and Missionary Alliance in Session.

The Portland branch of the Christian and Missionary Alliance is in session at the Grace Methodist Church, having begun its annual convention yesterday afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. G. N. Eldridge, of Indianapolis, and Miss Eldridge, are present and will participate in all the meetings. Other speakers from out of town are Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Worship, missionaries from South China; Rev. A. B. Eddy, of Seattle, and Mr. C. E. Perry, of Dallas, are expected this week. The session was opened yesterday afternoon and an evangelistic meeting was held last night, these gatherings serving to get the business into shape before the Sunday services. C. D. Sawtelle presided at the meetings, Rev. Mr. Eldridge speaking both afternoon and evening, and Rev. Mr. Worship in the evening. This morning the alliance will hold a meeting at 9:30 in the church parlors and join in the regular church service at 10:30 o'clock. There will be an afternoon meeting at 2 o'clock and a young people's meeting at 6:30. Miss Eldridge will speak at the latter.

These meetings of the Christian and Missionary Alliance are not exactly in the nature of a convention, for instead of delegates coming from all districts to one meeting, the workers and speakers visit each district and hold meetings there. During the series of such meetings, just ending, which have extended throughout Washington and the northern part of Oregon, nearly 45000 have been raised for work in foreign missions.

The alliance has about 300 missionaries in the foreign field, many of them being stationed in various parts of China.
