eted with applause. that nation. The Hardscratch twins showed an unusually interesting com-bination of outward submissiveness and an amazing capacity for mischief. The four Summer boarders were all natural and "breezy." Miss Hazel Robb, without losing any of her sweetness and naturalness, showed the dignity and responsibility of her position as an helress. Miss Hazel Tichnor was excellent as Laura Leigh. Miss Polly Hewett supplied enthusiasm and high spirits, and made an excellent foil to the decidedly difficult role of the adopted niece of Aunt Deby with con-siderable appreciation and skill, while Aunt Deby herself was always dignified and stately as the mistress of "Breezy Point." Last but not least, all credit is due to Miss Carter, the instructor in elocution, who in this case was the power behind the throne.

Mrs. George Stovall entertained the Oregon Chapter, U. D. C. at their last regular meeting at her home at 1907 East Sixteenth street, on Friday afternoon, November 3. The house was beautifully vember 23. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with quantities of the late Autumn roses, chrysanthe-mums and Oregon grape and bore every evidence of the holiday season, as well as suggesting the far-famed Southern hospitality. An interesting business ses-sion of the chapter preceded the pro-gramme. Those furnishing the afternoon's entertainment were Miss Meacham, a young Southern girl whose finished violin numbers were much appreciated. Miss Meacham was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. M. B. Meacham, a bride of a few months; Mrs. Taylor, who gave an excellent historical paper; Mrs. Mamie Duff Silva, who gave a charming vocal number; Miss Minnizell George, who read a selection from Paul Lawrence. read a selection from Paul Lawrence Dunbar, and Mrs. Thornbill, whose dram-atic readings are of a high order. At the close of the programme delicious refresh-ments were served. The afternoon was a perfect one, and about 45 representative women were present to enjoy the hospital-ities of the occasion. Mrs. Stovali was assisted in receiving and caring for her guests by Mesdames Silva and Thornhill, Mrs. Sylvia McGuire will entertain the chapter at its next meeting at 2:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, the 14th, at her home, 735 Clackamas street.

The parents' meeting held under the auspices of the Home Training Association was well attended and much interest was shown in the open dis-cussion of the question, "Resolved, That punishment is not necessary in the proper development of children." Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, leader og the affirmative, gave a spirited talk on the symmetrical development under the Froebol methods, which she had used in her wide experiences with gratifying results. She dealt with the tender age of infancy and spoke with the assurance of experience crowned by success. Her plea for patience rather than punishment was eloquent. Rev. George B. Van Waters, leader of the negative, dealt ably with youth when it had reached the age of self-assertion, that trying age when activity far exceeds the judgment. He claimed that the latter must be supplied by parent or guardian in the shape of discipling and enforced obedieurs. His discipline and enforced obedience. His his points were well sustained. great was the interest shown in the discussion that followed that it was decided to continue it at the next meeting, which will be held on Tuesday evening, January 29, in the same place.

"Breezy Point," a comedy in three acts, was presented at St. Helen's Hall by the members of the senior class on Tuesday evening, under the direction of Miss Ruth Carter, the elecution teacher of that institution. Acts I and Il took place in the cosy sitting-room at "Breezy Point." The background for act II was a camp in the woods nearby. In both cases the stage set-ting represented a triumph over diffi-culties, for the platform in the Hall was not built with a view to theat-ricals. The cast was as follows:

the Eastern Outfitting Company of this city, was the host at a delightful party Thanksgiving eve. It has been Mr. Shemanski's custom for several years past to give a banquet each Thanksgiving eve for his employes. On this evening, the occasion of the firm's twelfth annual reunion, was the most delightful one of the many in which delightful one of the many in which the employes have participated. The lower floor of the company's magnificent new home, northwest corner of Washington and Tenth streets, was beautifully lighted and artistically decorated for the occasion. Oriental divans, palms and soft-colored lights made the scene most effective. Delightful music was rendered through-out the entire evening. The banquet-ing table was loaded with good things to eat, and here the guests lingered long to do justice to the spread. Toasts were responded to, and Mr. Shemanski, in a few words, expressed his appreciation of the faithful work of his em-ployes, many of whom have been with him several years. Toasts were responded to by a good number of the 59 guests who were present. After the banquet dancing was enjoyed.

Mr. Richard Gregory celebrated the anniversary of his 40th birthday at his residence, 595 Powell street, Wednesday evening. November 28th, by a reception to a large gathering of friends. All sat down to a sumptious repast at 8 o'clock to which ample justice was done. The table was prettilly decorated with strings of smiles red and white roses and maidprettilly decorated with strings of smilax, red and white roses and maidenhair fern. The evening was spent in music, singing, games of whist and dancing. One of the guests, Mr. Stewart, had been one of President Roosevelt's Rough Riders and toid amusing incidents of the Cuban War. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wettland, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gregory, Mrs. Gregory, senior, Mrs. H. Dyer, Mrs. C. Woodhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gregory and Miss Evelyn Gregory, Mr. Gregory and Miss Evelyn Gregory, Mr. Gregory made a most genial host, and the guests departed after spending a most delightful evening.

Miss Anna Dillinger assisted by her aunt, Mrs. Clara E. Dillinger and Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Russell, gave a progressive heart party Thursday evening.

gressive heart party Thursday evening, November 22, at her home 190 North Twenty-second.

Twenty-second.

The rooms were tastefully decorated in carnations and chrysanthemums and vines. The first prizes were won by Miss Lens Turnbow and Mr. Jack Matteson and the consolation prizes by Miss Elsie Snyder and Mr. Lou Woodford.

A luncheon was served at II o'clock.
Those present were: Misses Lena Turnbow, Elsle Synder, Sophie Lentz, Leverne
Will, Ruth Burkhart, Lillian Powers,
Miss Haggerty, Edith Elkington, Grace Stanton, Cora Doty, Fay Huges, Messre Building

Jack Matteson, Chester Peterson, Amos Meiniger, Bert Mitchell, Jack Douglass, French maid showed in all character-istic lightness and coquetry a maid of Jack Stevenson, Hollie Shaw, Will Dress-er, Lou Woodford, Lou Thompson, John Callahan, Frank Callahan, Harold Bochmer, Robert Fryer,

One of the most successful dances of the season was given Thanksgiving eve in Ringler's Hall by the Kykaba Club, a new dancing organization com-posed of the following young ladies Grace Naylor, Emma Fordyce, Haz Bradley, Mary Howard. The hall w beautifully decorated with chains ivy and here and there among the the rather lovelorn part taken by Miss greens were perched illuminated owls Helen Doble. Miss Hazel Ferris played (Kykaba being the Indian word for owl.) The effect during the twilight waltzes was very attractive. The pa-tronesses were Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, bandsome in a black net gown, Mrs. Bradley in a gray silk, Mrs. Ringler in green foulard, Mrs. Fordyce in black silk, Mrs. Howard in gray just. The hostesses, Misses Bradley and Fordyce, were daintily gowned in white organdy and lace, Miss Naylor in pink and lavender mousselline and Miss Howard in corn-colored just and black velvet.

The dramatic troupe of the Sacred Heart Church presented on Thursday night a drama entitled "Among the Breakers." The spaclous hall was we filled with an appreciative audience The spacious hall was well The actors each and every one did their best. The characters were as follows: Messrs. J. Urquhart, J. Schomus, E. Blanchard, Ed Langenberg, W. Field and W. Heitkemper. The young ladies were Miss A. Mann, Miss N. Mann, Miss Mary Wasker, Miss Tillie Schomus. Mr. C. E. Sims directed the play. Excellent music was furnished by M. B. Zottman & Co. The Scotch Highlanders, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and two pretty little girls delighted the audience with a beautiful artistic dance. Mr. McDonald, the distinguished piper, furnished the charming music. Miss Kathleen Lawler delighted the audi-ence with her splendid voice.

About 50 friends responded to invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eivers to attend the 30th anniversary of their wedding, Saturday evening, November 17, at 3831/2 Fourth street. Music, games and cards were amusements until 10:30, when the company were escorted to the supper room and a delicious repast was served. The decorations in every room were in green and white. Pearl, silver, handpaint-ed china and crystal presents were presented with congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Elvers were assisted in receiving by their daughter, Mrs. Henry Gorden and her husband. The bride was attractive in white over pink silk, while her daugh-ter was charming in pure white. Each of the company were presented with dainty souvenirs as they departed.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. Florence E. Stallings, be-ginning the study of Milton. At roll call comments upon Milton were given. Mrs. C. Crogster told of the "seventeenth century ideas"; Mrs. A. A. Bar-ley, "character study of Milton"; Mrs. George Boynton, "Matthew Arnold's essay on Milton"; Mrs. George M. Gilnes, "Milton's work in relation to political and social conditions"; and Mrs. J. M. Hayes, "Prose works." A general discussion followed, led by Mrs. Merwin Pugh. Refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by her guest, Mrs. O. J. Hirsch. The club will meet next with Mrs. G. C. Eshelman, 321 Pearl street.

The New Woodman Hall was the scene of the Orranco Club's Thanks-giving party last Monday evening. There were about 150 couples present, who enjoyed themselves dancing to the strains of the latest music, rendered by Parsons' orchestra. The next party by Parsons or nestra. The next party will be given New Year's eve, December 31, 19)6. Special features are being planned for that evening. The patronesses were: Mrs. J. M. Taggart, Mrs. E. J. King, Mrs. Frank Scamidt, Mrs. J. C. Adams and Mrs. R. W. Jamleson. Club members: J. F. Adams, H. E. Williams, H. J. Hucke, H. W. Hingley and R. W. Jamleson.

Miss Jennie Boehmer was pleasantly surprised at her home, 505 Market street, Tuesday evening by a number ricals. The cast was as follows:
Aunt Deby Dexter ... June Sterling (Mistress of Breezy Point.)
Elinor Pearl ... Hazel Ferris (Of Unknown Parentage.)
Ashrael Grant ... Evelyn Wilson (With Business Propensities.)
Mrs. Hardscraich ... Marguerite Crosby (Hith Business Propensities.)
Hardacratch Twins ... Louise Emmons, Marguerite Miles (Who "Never Tell Nuthin")
Menitible Doclittie ... Marguerite Crosby (Manufacturer of Catarris Rouf.)
Bernice Vernon ... Hazel Robb Laura Leigh ... Hazel Tichnor Edith Norton ... Polly Hewett Clarice Fenleigh ... Helen Doble (Fresh from Boarding School.)
Fantine ... Jessie Hale ... Jessie Hale ... Jessie Hale ... Miss Vernon's French Maid.)

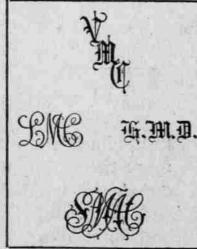

The Current Topics Department of the Woman's Club was entertained on the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the Woman's Club was entertained on the company of the woman's Club was entertained on the company of the compa

Mr. J. Shemanski, local manager of the afternoon was given by Mrs. R. the Eastern Outflitting Company of this F. Weaver. This was a very able effect. fort. Mrs. Nina Larowe recited "When Father Carves the Duck." Mrs. B. S. Pague, 739 Overion street, will be the hostess December 3d, Mrs. Edward Jaeger's paper on "Property Laws Pertaining to Women" will be discovered. discussed. Mrs. Kleeman served very dainty refreshments at the close of the meeting.

On Tuesday afternoon, November 27, the Sunshine Club was royally entertained at the home of Mrs. Schad, 247 East Seventeenth street. The after-

MONOGRAMS For Xmas Presents

EMBOSSED IN ANY COLOR On the Best Paper in the City

ORDER NOW

W. G. SMITH & CO.

Visiting and Wedding CARD ENGRAVERS

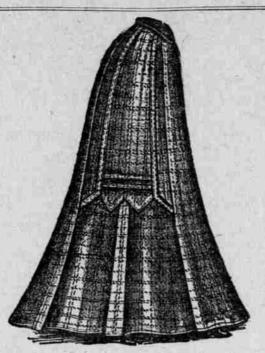

We will mail you our Illustrated Catalogue if you'll but write.

SILVERFIELD'S

CORNER FOURTH AND MORRISON STS.

Only 20 more shopping days in which to select presents for Christmas.

It's None Too Soon to Make Selections for Xmas Giving-Leisure in Making Selections Makes Holiday Shopping a Real Pleasure-We Are Well Prepared-Come One, Come All

Walking Skirts

A special lot of Separate Walking Skirts in plain materials and plaid mixtures. The values of these skirts run up to $12.50. Special for Monday only......$5.85

GIRLS-WE JUST RECEIVED

A snappy line of Norfolk Sweaters, artistically knitted, in black, red, blue, white and other desirable effects.

We would also like to tell you of the new arrival of beautiful Plaid Silk Waists, perfectly made, in plain and fancy cuts. We will be pleased to show them at your request.

Why This Rush?

We put February prices on our Furs now, when the assortment is large and the season is just commencing. Here are two specials for Monday:

FRENCH BROWN LYNX

Jacket lined with best quality Skinner Satin; $40.00 value; for one day only; special$28.50

FOX BOAS

In Sable and Isabella shades, so becoming to you all; $18.00 value; special ... $11.65

Belts or Belt Buckles

Make useful Christmas Gifts. We are well stocked with handsome Belts of all shapes and styles, making it easy for you to select.

Belt Buckles priced from 50c to$10.00

Xmas Bags

Prices very low. Values up to $3 including carriage, vanity, auto and chatelaine bags in pretty new effects; fine quality of leather in great variety. Special Monday$1.05

Handkerchiefs

More beautiful this year than ever. Dainty, fine handkerchiefs useful and ornamental, all prices from 7c to$5.00

sive whist, the winners of which were rewarded with tastily selected prizes, after which luncheon was served. The first prize was won by Miss Doicey, the second by Mrs. Conway, the con-solation prize was captured by Mrs. Carpenter. The club will be enter-Carpenter. tained at the home of Mrs. F. W. Funk, 230 Halsey street, on Wednesday, De cember 12,

The Mizpan Bridge Whist Club was delightfully entertained Friday after-noon by Mrs. J. F. Boone. The prize, a beautiful hand-painted plate, was wen by Mrs. Carl Brandes. Those present were: Mrs. F. M. Graham, Mrs. F. M. Branch, Mrs. Charles Boss, Mrs. J. F. Boone, Mrs. John Fergerson, Mrs. Tru-man, Mrs. C. Gordon, Mrs. Henry Westermire, Mrs. Carl Brandes, Mrs. T. W. Nordby, Mrs. W. F. Hubbard and Mrs. E. Watson. Mrs. C. Brandes will entertain the club in the near future.

The G. W. Y. Girls consisting of Gen-evieve Kelly, Louise Gleason, Laura Korell, Mildred Fuller, Florence Clary, Margrette Boshkie. Florence Hallister and Louise Williams gave a delightful card party, hearts being the game, at the residence of Genevieve Kelly, Corbett street. The prizes being the club pennants the residence of Genevieve Kelly, Corbett street. The prizes being the club pennants were won by Max Mears and Margrette Weber. Dainty refreshments were served towards the end of the evening. The club girls were made conspicuous by their club bands worn on their left arm.

The third regular meeting of the Present Day Club was held Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Bergen. A paper, "Writers of Revolutionary Times," by Mrs. C. G. Tipton, was instructive and the event of the afternoon. Mrs. Max M. Shillock sang in a rich contrails voice most pleasingly. The Current Topics Department of the Woman's Club was entertained on Monday, November 26, by Mrs. O. Kleeman, 575 Belmont. The leading paper responded to an encore with, "When the Roses Bloom," by Louise Reichardt. The concluding programme was well ren-

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Snyder, 185 Caruthers street was a scene of much merriment last Saturday evening, November 24, when a pleasant surprise, quilting and shower party was given in the hon of Miss Mamie Cheldelin, by many of her of anss manne cheesen, by many of her young lady friends.

The evening was devoted to quilting, games, music several vocal pieces being well rendered by Miss Cheldelin. Deli-cious refreshments were served by the young ladies. A social hop was given at the Ferns on Thanksgiving eve by the hostess to the guests and friends. The dining-room where the dance was held was profusely decorated with ferns, palms and flowers intermingled with Japan-ese hanging lanterns and pennants. Several vocal selections were ren-dered, "Oh, Dry Those Tears," by Miss Paloma Blumenthal being exceptionally beautiful. Punch was served.

Winslow Meade Circle No. 7, L. of G. A. R., had a delightful time at their rooms Tuesday evening. The social and bazaar were a complete success.
The veterans were in exceptionally good trim and rendered several selections. Mrs. Colby, editor of the Womtions. Mrs. Coloy, editor of the wom-an's Tribune, gave a fine address on "Old Louisiana." In the absence of the president, Miss Daisy Abraham, Mrs. J. W. Willets presided.

"Harmony 500 Club" met with Mrs. A. B. Crofton at her home on East Sixteenth street, Tuesday afternoon. Prizewinners were Mrs. Lillian Davis and Mrs. C. C. Coffee. Among the members are: Mesdames Davis, Crofton, Abrey, Harmon, Leveredge, McNicholas, Driver, Drayer, Vorgan, Litherland, Motter, Tan. Draper, Vogan, Litherland, Motter, Tan-ner, Liebe, Caffee, Colter, Fisher and Miss Lillian Boher. Mrs. Draper will be hostess at the next meeting.

A very pleasant evening was spent Friday, November 23, at the initial social given by the guests of the Lindell Hotel. Progressive whist was the or-der of the evening, after which dancing was enjoyed till a late hour. Fox's Orchestra rendering music for the evening.

peare Club met with Mrs. F. W. Graves Sellwood street. The lesson was the first act in "As You Like It." The study was followed by a lively discussion, bringing out interesting points.
Those present were: Mrs. J. C. Hare,
Mrs. A. W. Anthony, Mrs. Z. M. Perrin,
Mrs. H. G. Reed, Mrs. F. N. Graves and Mrs. Le Barre.

The Cigar Makers' annual ball given Thanksgiving evening at the Armory, Ninth and Couch, was a grand success. About 200 couples were present, each gentleman was presented with a beau-tiful match box as a souvenir, and to each lady's programme was attached two tiny cigars tied with ribbons. Re-freshments were served and a general jolly time was had.

Mrs. D. C. Hoyt was pleasantly sur-prised Monday evening by the Crescent Social Club of which she is a member. Whist was the game played. Mrs. Baker, Mrs. L. F. Clark, Mr. Hinkston and Arthur Clark winning the prize After which a dainty luncheon was served. The club presented Mrs. Hoyt with a set of handsome china plates. A number of members of George Wright the home of Mrs. Pferdner Tuesday, and were busily engaged in preparing for their annual bazaar and supper, to be held the second Friday, December 14. At 12:30 lunch was served. Major Sears delivered his illustrated lecture on Peru Friday evening to a large audience at the G. A. R. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Backstrom were very pleasantly surprised at the Albina Fer-ry Hotel, Saturday, November 24. More than 50 of their friends gathered there and presented them with a beau-tiful Morris chair. Luncheon was served at 11 o'clock, after which music, games and dancing were enjoyed.

A delightful afternoon was spent by the pupils of St. Francis' Academy on St. Cecelia's day. The music clubs of the Academy charmingly rendered an The Wednesday Afternoon Shakes- excellent programme, at the close of which dainty refreshments were served A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever The remainder of the afternoon spent in game, and amusements. R. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL

The elecutionary department of th Woman's Club, Mrs. Nina Larowe, lead-er, met at Mrs. Larowe's as usual. Wed-nesday morning. After the customary lesson, Mrs. A. H. Steadman and Mrs. Della Tomlinson gave the Romeo and Juliet balcony scene (from the play now being studied), with fine effect,

One of the most enjoyable of the Thanksgiving dinners was that given at the Scamen's Institute, Thursday even-ing, under the able direction of Mrs. St. Martin, to which about 175 sailor . . .

Mrs. Alton Whitten of 1033 Garfield avenue entertained on Wednesday afternoon the ladies of Patton Church with a tea

(Concluded on Page 29.)

Mrs. F. Marlon Mathena gave a lunch

CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER FERD. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York FOR SALE BY WOODARD, CLARKE & CO.

Electric Signs

THE AFTER DARK ADVERTISING

THE time is coming when every upto-date merchant will consider an Electric Sign just as much a necessary part of his store equipment as his show windows.

An Electric Sign in front of your store carries your message impressively to everybody on the street.

It can be seen from afar, and, in this feature alone, is vastly superior, in an advertising sense, to any day-time sign ever devised.

Teven should your store not be open for business except on Saturday nights, your Electric Sign is busy burning your good name into the people's mind, seven evenings a week.

REDUCED RATES for Current on Meter Basis, Now in Effect

¶ Better have our man tell you more about it. Phone us when.

Portland General Electric Company

FIRST AND ALDER STREETS Telephone Main 6688

H. LIEBES & CO. FURRIERS

HOLLY and FURS

Suggest the Joyous Christmas Season

We Have the Furs

N bewildering variety suited to every taste and pocketbook.

Popular styles consisting of Russian Sable, Chinchilla, Mink, Ermine, Black Lynx, Siberian Squirrel, Russian Marten, White Fox and Sealskin Jackets, etc., with full assortment of Muffs to match.

This cut shows one of our many stylish novelties.

Select your Furs now and have them laid aside before the Xmas rush. Goods will be held now subject to your order by the payment of a small deposit.

If You cannot call send for Catalog.

Northwest Corner Fifth and Alder Streets

John P. Plagemann, Manager