

PORTLAND SOCIAL EVENTS

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 27

on, Thursday. Her guests were: Mrs. Amanda McHolland, Mrs. William Stokes, Mrs. John Carson, Miss Pearl Mathena and Miss Opal McHolland.

Chapter "A. P. E. O." held an open meeting for mothers, November 26, at the home of Mrs. J. D. Sims, 609 High street. An enjoyable programme was rendered.

WEDDINGS.

Church-Titus.

A pretty Autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Titus, 1815 Haven street, this city, on Wednesday noon, November 23, when their daughter, Miss Effie Evaling Titus, was married to Mr. Charles J. Church. The bride wore a very dainty gown, cream nunsveiling and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. W. B. Penland and Miss Bertha Titus, while the wedding march was played by Miss Ethel Church. After the ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. J. Bowcross, the guests retired to the dining-room, where a tempting dinner awaited them. In the evening they were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Church, 1171 Minnesota avenue, where about 150 guests were assembled to greet them with congratulations and many beautiful gifts. The rooms were decorated with evergreens and flowers. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Ethel Constable. Mr. and Mrs. Church will be at home to their friends at 1185 Minnesota avenue after December 15.

Mathers-Wright.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, November 27. The contracting parties were Mr. Martin L. Mathers and Miss Josephine E. Wright. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Tilman, pastor Holy Cross Church, University Park. The bride wore a gown of white silk with long tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Grace Mathers was bridesmaid and Mr. Eric Granby best man. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mathers. Mrs. Ella Jones gave several fine selections of the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Mathers will make their home in University Park.

McDowell-Gray.

A very pretty affair took place last Tuesday evening, November 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tooley, 348 Clay street, when Daisy M. Gray, of Columbia, Wash., and William H. McDowell, of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the White Temple. The bride wore a gown of white net over silk, carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by Miss Pearl Tooley, while Mr. Fred Tooley acted as best man. About 20 guests were present, and immediately following the ceremony, light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. McDowell intend making Portland their home after a brief visit in Washington.

Hunt-Brennan.

Mr. Michael Hunt and Miss Mary Brennan were united in matrimony at St. Lawrence Church, Wednesday morning, Rev. J. C. Hughes officiating. Mr. John Hunt and Miss Alice Fleming were the attendants. Miss Brennan is a leading soprano vocalist in St. Lawrence choir, and during the mass which followed the wedding ceremony, some exquisite music was rendered in her honor. Miss Har was sang Gounod's "Ave Maria," and Miss Kelly presided at the organ. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, 524 Fourth street.

O'Bryon-Matchette.

On November 28, Miss Emma L. Matchette and George E. O'Bryon, of the law firm of O'Bryon & O'Bryon, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Matchette, at La Du. Rev. Mr. Snyder officiated. Mrs. Matchette is a sister of Mrs. E. A. King, of King's Heights, and is an accomplished elocutionist.

Walker-Jones.

Mr. Flins C. Walker and Miss Mary A. Jones were married by Rev. E. L. House at his home last Tuesday evening, November 27. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside in Montavilla, where Mr. Walker is in business.

Bogan-Stevens.

Mr. Lora Bogan and Miss Nellie Stevens were married November 28, in the reception room of the pastor, at the White Temple. Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher performed the ceremony.

Buckler-Sayres.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson united in matrimony at 10 A. M. Thanksgiving day Mr. Edmund T. Buckler and Mrs. Maud Sayres, both of Portland; residence, 580 Second street.

Grant-Mackay.

A pretty home wedding took place at noon Thanksgiving day at the residence of D. W. Mackay and wife, at Troutdale, when their only daughter, Janet Elizabeth, was united in marriage to R. W. Grant, of Portland, Rev. W. T. Scott, of Fairview, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Grant will make their new home in Portland.

Simpson-Nelissen.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Simpson and Miss Margaret Nelissen were married in the pastor's reception room at the White Temple, November 29, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Announcement has been made in Los Angeles of the engagement of Miss Helen Grace Snow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Snow, of Los Angeles, and Mr. John Sherman Taylor, of Portland, Or. The date of the wedding has been set for December 23, and will take place at the Church of the Angels, Los Angeles. The ceremony will be a very simple one, the bride's only attendant being Miss Hazel Tomblin, of Ocean Park, Cal., and the best man will be Mr. Alfred J. Snow, Berkeley, brother of the bride. Miss Snow, though for many years a Los Angeles girl, has but lately returned to that city from Portland, where she has spent the last year and a half. Mr. Taylor is a young business man of Portland, where he is well known.

The Young Women's Christian Association extends a cordial invitation to young women to attend the "Sunday at Home" today. Don't forget the time, 4 to 6 o'clock, and the place, 312 Oak street. An interesting programme has been arranged. Miss Carrie Holbrook will speak of her "Jantings Through Japan." A piano solo will be given by Miss Lena Merts, and vocal solos

POPULAR ROSEBURG YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED

W. D. BELL

MR. AND MRS. W. D. BELL.

ROSEBURG, Or., Dec. 1.—(Special)—Mr. W. D. Bell and Miss Vivian Jewett, popular young people of Roseburg, were married at the residence of the bride's grandfather, Mr. M. Parrott, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Bell is one of the most successful business men of this city. He recently disposed of his business and devoted his time to the construction of a beautiful home in South Roseburg, in which he and his bride will go to housekeeping in a short time. Miss Jewett has been one of the printers in the Review office for several years, for a year past having been assistant foreman of the office.

Following the wedding a reception was tendered to allow the friends of the couple to meet and extend to them congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left on the midnight train for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon.

place at the Church of the Angels, Los Angeles. The ceremony will be a very simple one, the bride's only attendant being Miss Hazel Tomblin, of Ocean Park, Cal., and the best man will be Mr. Alfred J. Snow, Berkeley, brother of the bride. Miss Snow, though for many years a Los Angeles girl, has but lately returned to that city from Portland, where she has spent the last year and a half. Mr. Taylor is a young business man of Portland, where he is well known.

On Friday evening, December 7, the William G. Elliot Fraternity of the First Unitarian Church will hold a social reunion in the Sunday school rooms. A musical and literary programme will be given, after which refreshments will be served. All members and all young people who are interested in the work of the fraternity are cordially invited to be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Free Association will be held Friday, December 7th at 3 o'clock at St. Helen's Hall. Those interested in education are invited to be present. The programme is in charge of Mrs. M. McIntosh. There will be a talk on "Consumer's League" by Miss Montgomery; vocal solo, by Miss Dorella E. Snook.

Company F will give its annual ball Wednesday evening, December 3, 1906, at 8:30 P. M., given in celebration of the company's 5th anniversary. The committee is composed of Lieutenant W. B. Odale, Sergeant E. C. Blackwood, Sergeant V. Wetterberg, Corporal C. T. Alden, Corporal H. McIntosh, Corporal J. Letz.

The next meeting of the Home Training Association will be held next Thursday, December 6, in the usual place of meeting. Dr. Walter F. Lewis will lecture on "The Dental Problems of Children," a question of importance to all mothers. A general invitation is extended to all. Small children accompanying their mothers will be cared for in the nursery.

The ladies of the Hassala Street Congregational Church will hold their annual bazaar and sale of useful and fancy articles, home-cooked food and confectionery next Thursday and Friday afternoon and evening, December 6th and 7th, at the Clarno building, 243 Holladay avenue, near Crosby street.

The annual Xmas sale of fancy articles and table delicacies given by St. Matthew's Women's Guild, will be held in the Guild Hall, 299 Commercial street, Tuesday evening, December 5, and Wednesday afternoon, December 6. Useful as well as ornamental gifts for sale. Refreshments.

The Warren Bible Class will hold a bazaar Tuesday evening, December 4, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church. All are invited.

The Troubadour Club will give its December party Monday, the 3d, at the Woodman Hall, East Sixth and Alder.

B Company's next dancing party Friday, December 7.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. Cora Fleckenstein recently visited friends in Hillton, Or.

Mr. John Antrim, of Estacada, recently visited relatives in this city.

Mrs. A. Weinstein will be at home Sunday afternoon, 519 Clay street.

Miss Mabelle Withycombe, of Corvallis, is a guest of Mrs. Ralph Hoyt.

Mrs. William E. Stokes is visiting her son, Roy Stokes, at Mosier, Or.

Mrs. Anna Read was the guest the past week of Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, of Eagle Creek, Or.

J. Alfred McHolland has returned from visiting relatives at Spring Valley Farm, Hillton, Or.

Miss Emma M. Howatson was one of the guests at the dance of the Scottish Rite Masons.

Mrs. S. A. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. Edward Diederich, recently visited relatives at Beavouir.

Rev. Charles Godman, of Seattle, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Strauch, 232 West Fifteenth street.

Miss Wilma Wagener, the musical director of Pacific University, was the

Select Your Suit, Coat or Skirt

From the Largest Stock on the Coast

MONDAY AND TUESDAY SPECIAL

$17.50 Coats $7.00

Semi-Fitting, Button Back Effect. Gray Color with Black Trimming. Very Stylish. On Display in Our Window

Extra Special SILK PETTICOATS

$5.00 Values . $2.85
$6.00 Values . $3.50
$7.50 Values . $3.85

Skirts SPECIAL

$10 Skirts
MONDAY AND TUESDAY,
$4.85

Including Blacks and Mixtures.

THE J. M. ACHESON CO.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

131 FIFTH ST., Bet. Alder and Washington, PORTLAND, OR.

We have the most competent fitter and tailor on the Pacific Coast. Each garment we sell is a guarantee of this statement.

Notice to Out-of-Town Merchants—We are prepared to furnish you with Suits, Coats and Skirts at New York prices.

Miss F. Read, and her niece, Miss M. Fayerweather.

Miss Edna Albin, who has been here the past three months, left early in the week for her home at Seattle.

Miss Edna Shirrell was the guest of friends at St. Helen's over Thanksgiving. Miss Georgia Kinnon was home to Cascade Locks for the annual fest.

New Dancing Classes Now forming at Portland Dancing Academy. Prof. Ringler, Miss Buckenmeyer, instructors. 309 Alder. Main 1931.

Dancing. Mrs. Nina Larow will form some new classes. Main 2329.

LOVING CUP FOR MR. ROSS Employees Present Him With Token of Esteem.

J. Thorburn Ross, president of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, returned yesterday from an extended trip to the home of his childhood, Scotland, and to other continental countries, and his return was the occasion for a pleasant surprise given him by his large force of employees, consisting of some 65 people.

Upon Mr. Ross's return from luncheon the burglar alarm was sounded in the office, which brought all of his employees together, and when he appeared, he found them all confronting him. Mr. John F. Shields, who had been selected as spokesman, stepped forward and expressed the pleasure of the assemblage upon Mr. Ross's return from his journey.

The speaker then presented Mr. Ross with a massive and beautiful loving-cup, upon which there was the following inscription:

J. THORBURN ROSS From His Friends—His Employees December 1, 1906.

Mr. Ross was completely taken by surprise, but nevertheless expressed his thanks and appreciation of the gift, and of the spirit that animated the gathering. At the conclusion of his remarks three hearty cheers were given and the young men sang "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTES. Christmas Bulletins and Books on Hand; Teachers' Round Table.

Christmas bulletins and their accompanying books may be found in both the circulating and children's departments. Teachers will be especially interested in this collection.

A round table for teachers upon library usage will be given in the patent room of the library beginning Monday, December 3, at 3 o'clock.

The subjects to be considered are the use of indexes, the catalogue of the library and the most useful reference books. The plan of the course will be upon the line of work given to students in normal schools on the use of the library, and the books are those that the pupils should learn to use. After the first meeting the day and hour will be changed, if necessary, to suit the convenience of as many as possible.

Must Study Country's Needs. WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Joseph Leo,

American Minister to Ecuador, last night addressed the National Geographical Society on the commercial opportunities offered to the American trader in the South American republics. Mr. Leo declared that the United States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

States would never be able to do an extensive business in South America until the manufacturers of this country made a closer study of the needs of the people of the Latin-American republics.

SEATTLE MAN WEDS CENTRALIA GIRL

EDWARD P. LEMAGIE

MISS MAUDE PARKS

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD PAUL LEMAGIE.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 1.—(Special)—A wedding of unusual prominence took place in Centralia Thursday afternoon, when Miss Maude Lillian Parks, daughter of a well-known mill man of Centralia, was united in marriage to Edward Paul Lemagie, of Seattle. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents near Centralia at 5 o'clock. Thanksgiving afternoon. Rev. W. D. Simonds, officiating. A large number of friends of the bride were present at the wedding, shortly after the wedding dinner was served, the bride and groom drove to Centralia, where they were supposed to take the train for Portland. In Centralia they gave the crowd the slip, drove to Chehalis and took the train for Portland and California, leaving a big crowd of disappointed merry-makers at the Centralia depot waiting to see them off. Both the young people are well known in Centralia and Seattle. Mr. Lemagie is connected with the United States Government Internal Revenue Service. They will spend their honeymoon in California.

At the Women's Union. Miss Leticia Connell spent Thanksgiving at her home at Hillsboro.

Miss Grace Glancey spent Thanksgiving at Salem at the home of her uncle.

The Misses Akerman partook of the time-honored turkey at Beaverton on Thursday.

Mr. W. F. Reed, of Albany, is here for a few days' visit with her daughter,