

PRINTERS DEMAND INCREASE OF PAY

Refused, the Employes of Job Shops Will Walk Out Wednesday.

UNION AUTHORIZES STRIKE

Minimum Wage Scale Now $19.20 a Week, and Union Demands $22.50—Employers' Offer of Compromise Rejected.

Nearly 100 journeymen job printers of Portland will strike Wednesday morning unless their demands for an increased wage scale are granted.

The printers made a request recently that the minimum wage scale for job printers be raised from $19.20 a week to $22.50 a week.

When the employers were heard from at a special meeting of the printers yesterday afternoon the members of the local Typographical Union met and authorized the strike, which means that unless the employers grant the raise the job and book printing business in Portland will come to a standstill.

The employers are dissatisfied with the present agreement with the journeymen and it is possible that a serious strike will result, as the printers are obdurate and are not willing to agree to less than $22.50.

Practically every printer in Portland is a member of the Typographical Union, which is recognized as one of the strongest labor organizations in the country.

UNION LABOR WILL PARADE

To Express Sympathy for Moyer, Heywood and Pettibone.

The Moyer-Heywood-Pettibone demonstration by the labor unions of the city, endorsed by the Federated Trades and the Building Trades Alliance, will be held next Wednesday night at the Armory, the gathering there being preceded by a parade in which 44 labor organizations of the city will take part.

The parade will start at Second and State streets. The line of march is as follows: Second to Alder, Alder to Sixth, Sixth to Burnside, Burnside to Tenth and thence to the Armory. The parade will start at 7:30.

On a few of the signs which will be carried are the following words painted in red letters: "We want justice for Moyer, Heywood and Pettibone, and we'll have it."

Members of the Freight Handlers' Union, it is reported, will be fined $2 for absence from the parade.

The agitation committee will hold a meeting at 2:30 this afternoon for the purpose of completing their plans for the demonstration.

Commissioner Schuchnought points out that the 35 cities visited not one escaped having sold within its limits milk from unclean and unsanitary cans and vessels or milk not properly strained, showing a deposit of filth in the bottom of the bottles or other vessels, and in 22 of the cities skimmed milk was sold as standard, and was adulterated with formaldehyde, which authorities pronounce a poison, "much used as an embalming fluid."

Anthony Comstock Has Pneumonia.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Anthony Comstock, secretary and special agent of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, is seriously ill with grip at his home at Sumner, N. J. It is feared that the attack may develop into pneumonia. His wife is dangerously ill of pneumonia, and it is said is threatened with death. Her sister, Miss Hamilton, is ill in an adjoining room, also with pneumonia.

Mr. Comstock caught a severe cold during a recent snow storm. He insisted on coming to New York to attend to his business, notwithstanding the wishes of his friends. This cold, together with worry over his wife's illness and overwork, has had the effect of greatly weakening him.

Stanford's New Oval Ready.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Palo Alto, Cal., Feb. 15.—The new track, adjoining the Stanford field is practically finished. All that remains to be done is to erect the bleachers.

A straight-away of 200 yards runs off at a tangent to the regular four-lap oval. Alongside of the straight-away will be erected the bleachers in the form of an angle, so as to permit all the spectators to see the finishes without rising from their seats. The bleachers will seat 3000.

Flood Damage in Gilliam $50,000.

ARLINGTON, Or., Feb. 15.—Show in Gilliam County has about all disappeared, lying only in patches now. The weather is ideal, being warm and balmy. As yet it is hard to estimate the damage done by the recent rainstorms and floods, but conservative men say the loss in Gilliam County can be put down about as follows: To the O. R. & N., at least $20,000; county wagon roads, $200; property in city of Arlington, $300; to stock lost by starving and floods, $25,000; making a total of $25,000.

Sargent's Pictures at Venice Show.

VENICE, Feb. 16.—In the International Art Exhibition which will open here February 22, there will be a special room for the work of John Singer Sargent, R. A., the American portrait painter. There will be exhibited among others, Sargent's canvas of the Misses Achenon, owned by the Duke of Devonshire; his portrait of the Countess of Warwick, owned by the Earl of Warwick, and of Frances Cranmer Penrose, owned by the Royal Institute of British Architects.

Has Used Duffy's for Fifty Years

MRS. ANNA B. DEPEW.

Mrs. Anna B. Depew, of Wharton, Ohio, who has just celebrated her 101st birthday, is still hale and hearty, says that she would have been under the sod if it had not been for DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY.

Mrs. Depew has a good appetite, sleeps well and enjoys perfect health, notwithstanding that the doctors gave her up to die 14 years ago, and she says she believes that she would have died if it were not for the prompt use of the great family medicine—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

The following are Mrs. Depew's own words, written Aug. 17th, 1906, after she had celebrated her 101st birthday.

"I wish to tell you what DUFFY'S MALT WHISKEY has done for me. Fourteen years ago the doctors gave me up to die. We had some DUFFY'S MALT WHISKEY in the house which I commenced to use right off, as a last resort, and I grew better, and finally became well, taking it according to directions. I have used it for fifty years, and have had it in my family for general use for that length of time. I eat heartily and sleep well. I was born in Vermont, east of the Green Mountains, in 1806, and I would now be under the sod if it were not for DUFFY'S MALT WHISKEY."—Mrs. Anna B. Depew, Wharton, Ohio, Aug. 17th, 1906.
