Schmitz's Partner Must Tell About

Graft in Tenderloin. SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—(Special.)—Warned by Schmitz and Ruef to fly the country, Tred Hilbert was on the point of feaving this city yesterday on his way to Seattle and Manila, when he was served with a subpena to appear before the grand jury. Had not William J. Burns kept Hilbert under constant surveillance, he would now be on his way to foreign parts, but just as soon as Mr. Burns ascertained Hilbert's intention of thing on the advice of the Mayor and the "boss." he restrained him with the process, which will keep him in town during the pleasure of the grand jury. Hilbert made a scene when he was served with the subpens. When Mr. Burns' representative accested him, his smotlen was unmistakable. He turned red, then his color went to white and finally he fell in a fit, which was so carefully acted that it almost seemed was will be to a seemed and the seemed was the seemed was a will be to a seemed when the was a will be to a seemed when the was served with the was seemed when the was seemed w carefully acted that it almost seemed real. Hilbert was summoned before the inquisitorial body today, but was excused until Monday.

He wilf be examined with regard to a series of transactions implicating the Mayor and Ruef, which will lead to further indictments for the two. Hilbert was a member of the defunct Hilbert Mercantile Company, a corporation which sold liquors in wholesale quantities. It was by the co-operation of this corporation that Mayor Schmitz grew fat in the tenderion trade.

The money he took was all the slimy small change of petty sources of corruption, Schmitz reserving the mighty things for division with other partners. The mulcting of the lowest and most desperate of failen women, holding up obscene dens of vice, the black-mailing of the worst kinds of dives, were among the means by which Schmitz raised money.

In addition to these sordid sources of corruption money, the Mayor earned a profits against the sording sources.

ALL GAVE TO RECEPTION FUND

Grand Jury Learns City Employes Were Forced to Contribute.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.-Contrib tions to the municipal campaign funds of 1805 were investigated by the grand jury today. Among the witnesses called were James V. Kelly, of Los Angeles, Chief Deputy Tax Collector George Berger, Secretary Louis Levy, of the Board of Public Works; Supervisor John J. Furey, State Senator Frank Markey and Fairfax H. Whelan

Louis Levy was questioned at length to determine the source of the fund used to defray the expenses of the public recep-tion given to Mayor Schmitz in December. 1906, upon his return from Europe. Levy testified that $4500 was raised for that purse among municipal employes, "each e contributing about $25." He said the mey was collected by George Berger, in McGlynn and Supervisor Furey, under the direction of the Metrop League, a Schmitz political organization; that it was turned over to himself, and that he in turn gave it to President Duf-fey, of the Board of Public Works; that Duffey disbursed the money, and that the accounts were audited by a committee composed of Berger, Supervisors Furey, Duffey, Res and Coleman, and T. F. Woodward and Max Fernam, "Is it not a fact," asked Assitant District Attorney Heney, "that these munic al employes you spoke of contributed to be fund because they feared that, if they sfused, they would lose their lobs? "Well," replied Levy, "they were all hu-

"They may have," replied the witness, I do not know." Before he entered the jury-room Mr. Whelan issued to the press a long type-written statement denying that the San Francisco Republican Lengue, of which he was chairman, accepted any sum of money from individuals or corporations in the 1905 campaign with the understanding that by such acceptance the league was bound as to its policy or obligated to sup-port the candidacy of any person either before or after the election.

Peculiar Situation in Chicago Is Caused by Mayor-Elect's Action.

EDDY TRUSTEES SUED TOO

Next Friends Say Appointment Is Admission of Insanity.

CONCORD, N. H., April 6.—A supplemental bill in equity called forth by the recent announcement that the propthe recent announcement that the prop-erty of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy had been transferred to three trustees was flied in the Merrimac County Court to-day by the original complainants of "next friends" in the suit for an accounting of Mrs. Eddy's property.

The bill flied today is the answer of the complainants to the motion made by the defendants last Tuesday that the three trustees, Archibald McLellan, of Boston; Henry M. Baker, of Boston, and Joseph H. Fernald, of this city, be substituted for the "next friends," be empowered to prosecute the suits against the defendants in the cases, asks that the three trustees be added to the list of defendants on the ground that the trustees are working for the same ends as the original defendants; that is, that they are unduly influenc-ing Mrs. Eddy and managing her property to their own purposes. Judge Robert N. Chamberlain issued an order that all the defendants, including the original defendants and their trustees, shall enter appearance in court by April 15 to make answer to the petition filed today.

The supplemental bill also asks that the deed of trust be vacated on the ground that Mrs. Eddy was not com-petent to execute it and that it was a device contrived by the defendants to defeat the original suit. The supplemental bill is as follows:

The petition of Mrs. Mary Glover Eddy, who sues, by her next friends, George W. Glover, Mary Baker Glover, George W. Baker, Fred W. Baker and Ebenezer J. Foster Eddy, against Calvin Frye, Alfred Farlow, Erving C. Tomlinson, Ira C. Knapp, William B. Johnson. Stephen Chase, Charles Armstrong, Edward A. Kimball, Hermann S. Herring, Lewis C. Strang, Henry M. Baker, Mr. Melellar and J. Fernauld.

First. The complainants say that upon the first day of March, 1907, they filed their original bill of complaint against all the above-named defendants except Baker, McLellan and Fernald and there in stated the grounds of their action and prayed for appropriate relief, and copies thereof were duly served upon the defendants. Second. The complainants say that after the filing of said bill the defendants in duced Mrs. Eddy to transfer all her estate to Henry M. Baker, Archibald McLellan and Johlah H. Fernald, and thereon Baker and McLellan proceeded to take Possession of all the estate.

Third. The complainants charge the Baker, McLellan and Fernald are the agents and attorneys of the defendant in complainants' original bill and are sub-ject to the control of said original de-fendants; are a part of the combination to surround and seclude the person of Mrs. Eddy and in connection with the other defendants to take charge of her property and herself and to manage the same solely according to their own pleasure and that they have completely suc seeded in effecting the purpose of their combination and that there is abundant eason to believe that they and their associates have wrongfully misappropriated or unlawfully diverted large sums of money and large amounts of the property of Mrs. Eddy. Fourth. The complainants say that Mrs. Eddy was not competent to execute said deed of transfer, by reason of her con-dition as set forth in the original bill in equity, and that the same is a device of all the defendants, conceived and carried a receiver and to defeat the regular course of the original suit.

Therefore the plaintiffs pray that their supplemental bill be made part of the original bill, and that the defendants Baker, McLellan and Fernald be required to appear and make answer thereto and also be required to transfer to the receiver, when appointed by the court under the prayer for relief in the original bill. the prayer for relief in the original bill. all the property of Mrs. Eddy taken pos-session of or received by them under the provisions of the deed signed March 8, for such further relief as the court may deem requisite and just.

Plaintiffs Say Trust Deed Evidence Mrs. Eddy Is Insane.

BOSTON, April 6.—Frederick W. Pea-body, of counsel for the complainants in the suit for an accounting of the prop-erty of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, said
