Evangelical Conference Busy With Financial Duties.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 6.—(Special.)

The proceedings of the thirteenth annual conference of the United Evangelical Church today were largely given over to routine work of committees, particularly the ways and means, the latter of which made arrangements for liquidation of debts on local churches and parsonages. The report of the statistical secretary showed a small net gain in the numbers of the denomination in the conference district, and a very healthy increase in financial arrangements. The report of the financial agent showed an increase in the endowment of Dallas College to $13,115. Thirty-five dollars were collected at the afternoon session to go into a fund for educating young men for the ministry. Bishop Heil is to preach tomorrow morning and evening in the local church, and other pulpits in the city are to be filled by visiting ministers of the denomination. The conference has adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock Monday morning, at which time the announcement of appointments will be made and other business of the conference closed up for adjournment.

Defeat Corvallis College in Discussion of Ship Subsidy.

M'MINNVILLE, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—In a very closely debated contest last evening the judges unanimously gave M'Minville College the decision over Oregon Agricultural College on the question: "Resolved, That the United States Government should subsidize her merchant marine." Oregon Agricultural held the affirmative and M'Minville the negative. Both colleges had strong teams and the debate was entirely won upon constructive argument.

place Saturday. Much interest was manifested in it by its residents, and the proposition to incorporate was carried by an overwhelming majority. Both tickets voted for were Republican, and C. M. Wolfard won out over T. Weyers for Mayor. The Aldermen elected were Frank R. Lauterbach, A. H. Jewett, A. B. Grosberg and F. L. Rosegrant. Dr. I. N. Gearhart, J. A. Byrne and A. F. Smith each got the same number of votes for that office, and will decide who shall be the fourth Alderman by some plan to be decided on later. The new Mayor is also postmaster at White Salmon and was the first Mayor of Hood River, having lived here several years before going to Washington.
