NEGRO GAMBLERS CAUGHT

Resort in the North End Falls Into

Police Clutches.

A midnight raid on a negro resort at 162 North Sixth street resulted in the ar-rest of ten men charged with gambling.

Captain of Police Bailey detailed Patrol men Evans. Wendolerf, Howell and Phillips in plain clothes to investigate a report that gambling was in progress at the Climax saloon. The officers entered and took the players unawares, which resulted in a wild scramble for escape. Some of the gamblers succeeded in getting out of the room and were caught in the cellar. Patrolman Gruber, who arrived with the patrol wagon, took the cellar. Patrolinan Gruber, who arrived with the patrol wagon, took them into custody. The men in the room where the game was being played were corralled by Wendorf and Evans, while Howell and Phil-

SCORES OF PARTICIPANTS.

Columbia's fourth annual indoor athletle meet was held in the blg gymnastum at University Park yesterday afternoon and although no records were broken the meet was replete with sensations and the performances of the winning athletes brought forth prolonged applause from the largest crowd that ever gathered at the Columbia gymnasium, and when the last event was run off and the spectators began to file out, the meet was generally eed an unqualified success

'Bill' Hayward's crack team from th University of Oregon won first place, with 54% points, and the team from the Oregon Agricultural College stood second, with a score of 20. The local Y. M. C. A. won 3½ points and Multomanh 2.

Oregon's team showed great strength in the sprints, hurdles, shot put and broad jump, and in a general way outclassed its rivals. It is doubtful whether a better team ever visited the city than the aggregation that Hayward brought to town resterday. Oregon won points in every event of the day, with the single excep-tion of the 40-yard dash, and in the 50-yard dash and shot put the men from Eugene won all the places.

Dan Kelly the Star.

Dan Kelly, as usual, was the bright particular star of the day. He won both the sprinting events with ease and would have taken first place in the broad jump had not Kuykendall, another Oregon ath-lete, won the event. Kelly contented him-self with second place in this event, but in an exhibition jump cleared 22 feet 7% Kelly was not the only Oregon man cho showed good form in the sprints, for Four Moore, the 'varsity captain, was a close second in both races, and Huston, a freshman from this city, won a place in the 50-yard event. Big "Hank" McKinney.

Oregon's All-Northwest fullback, won the sliot put with a magnificent throw of 44 Hector second, Princess Titania third; feet 6 inches, while Hug and Moullen, both of whom have made great records for Oregon in several branches of ath-letics, won the remaining points in this event. from start to finish. O. A. C. Strong in Long Runs.

The strength of the Corvallis team lies in its long-distance men. De Volt won the mile and half-mile runs, although Wood, of Oregon, made a close second in the latter race. De Volt had things all prised everybody by winning second place in the mile event, after a hard struggle with Patt, an Oregon freshman. Swann, of the Agricultural College, bear Moullen in the pole-vault, after a struggle shar in the pole-vault, after a struggle that lasted nearly an hour. Neither man was in very good condition, but Swann's fleetness and agility enabled him to go just one inch higher than the big fellow from Eugene. Moullen weight 187 pounds and is much larger than the average vaulter. Chapman, a Corvallis freshman, took first place in the high jump, after a prolonged struggle with Henderson and Kuykendall, of Oregon. Greenhaw, the speedy middle-distance man from Corvallis, took first place in the 440-yard dash, with apparent ease, while Howard (O. A. C.) made a pretty run for second place. In Greenhaw and DeVelt, the Agricultural College has two exceptionally fast men, and has two exceptionally fast men, a it is doubtful whether any runners the Northwest could have passed them

Eugene High School Fast, Too.

"Bill" Hayward has evidently been giving the lads of the Eugene High School a few pointers, for these young sters won most of the academic events. Robert Kuykendall, the youngest of several brothers who have won athletic fame for Oregon, took first place for the Eugene High School in the 50-yard dash and 50-yard hurdles, while Sam May, of Hill Military Acad-emy, won the 2-0-yard dash. Columbia University won the academic re-lay race, amid thunderous applause from the Columbia rooters. The Port-land High School took second place in race, and Eugene High School

REFUSES TO LINE UP FOR U. OF O. REFERENDUM. OREGON CITY, Or., April 12-(Special.)

> Unanimous Resolution Opposing "Blow at Education" Sent to President Campbell.

ORBAIN CITY, Or., April 12.—(Special.)

—In an exciting scholastic game of baseball yesterday between the Barclay and Farkplace High School team, the latter team won by a score of 6 to 3. An error in the last inning did the business for the Barclay boys. This is the second game that has been played by these teams, and both have been won by Parkplace. The batteries were Shank and Blanchard for Barclay and Johnson and Gault for Parkplace. Lents Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, took the stand yesterday that the invoking of the referendum against the $250,000 appropriation for the State University was unwise and antagonistic to the cause of education. Pro-fessor Hershner, lecturer of the Grange, brought the subject to the at-tention of the meeting with the state-ment the movement against the appropriation was against the interests of higher education, and ought not to suc-higher education, and ought not to succeed. He remarked further:

"It is well understood that Oregon has not been in line with other states on this subject of higher education in her support of her institutions. The appropriations made for the State University have never been adequate to enable it to equip itself as an institution of the sort ought to be equipped. This referendum strikes at education This referendum strikes at education and, in my judgment, is unwise and wrong, and I think we ought to go on record as opposed to it."

Rev. niram Vrooman said: "I am isolour of the jealous of the reputation of the Grange and fearful that this referendum against the State University appropria-tion will place the organization in a to run, and he also says that he is going to make the fight to vindicate himself in the eyes of the labor unions and the people of Portland. Merrill says in conclusion that if he is nominated and elected he will subscribe the first six months' salary as Councelman to the fund for bringing Francis J. Heney to Portland. In his letter of announcement Merrill says: position as oposing education, when in fact it favors education, and is educa-tional all the way through. We should do nothing against the cause of education by weakening our state institu-tion. On the contrary, it is the duty of the Grange to help build up and support our educational institutions in every reasonable way."

A. F. Miller, while in the main coinciding with the sentiment set forth by the others, expressed the opinion that the ers have requested that I do so.
Second—Because I wish to work for a Greater Fortland, better government, nunicipal ownership of public utilities and antifriends of the State University had made a mistake by not being more frank when asking for the appropriation at the last Legislature in announcing what it was for. Had this been done, he said, there the eyes of the labor unions, the working people and all the good people of Portland. Fourth—Because I want to holp to "head oft" the franchise "speculators" and put a "checkrein" on the Indiscriminate giving would have been less objection. Mr. Miller said he was opposed to the refer-endum. Several other talks were made. when a resolution disapproving of the referendum was adopted unanimously and the secretary instructed to forward a copy to President Campbell, of the State Uni-streets.

Fiftis—Because I wish to work for better atreets, a cleaner city, a better relephone and gas system, lower taxation and a repeal of the occupation tax.

Sixth—To do as I have always done in the past—work for the best interest of the people, the taxpayers, the City Treasury and to make Portland a busy, hustling city. Seventh—Because I can refer with pride to two ex-Mayors and 20 brother ex-Councilmen as to my record when a member of the A large class was initiated, and among those receiving the first and second degrees was Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway.
