Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. F.
C. Stackpole, of 1273 East Yamhill street, were completely surprised by the arrival of the M. P. G. Club, of Taylor-Street Church. The girls marched in one at a time and remained silent for a period of about five minutes. Mr. and Mrs. Stackpole were, by this time, considerably mystified, but when a male shorus was heard outside the house, the mystery was solved. The young ladies of the M.
P. G. and the young men of the TaylorStreet Church Glee Club had planned and executed a pleasant surprise for the lately married couple of their circles.
Games and music filled the evening with enjoyment, after which light refreshowment, after which light refresh-nts were served.

The Kykaha Club gave another of its delightful dances at the new Ringler Hall on the East Side last Friday night. The affair was successful in every way, about 75 couples of the younger set being pres. ent. Calcium colored lights were used very effectively in the twilight dances and the letters of the club name were thrown on the dancers. Refreshments were served between numbers. Everest's were served between numbers. Exercists orchestra furnished the music. The club members are: Grace Naylor, Emma Fordyce, Hazel Bradley and Mary Howard. The patronesses are Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Mrs. J. S. Fordyce, Mrs. C. C. Bradley, Mrs. S. W. Bullock, Mrs. C. V. Howard and Mrs. M. M. Ringler.
