PLEASED WITH COLUMBIA VIEWS.—Several hundred Portland school children, with many older admirers of Columbia river scenery, visited the rooms of the Portland Commercial Club yesterday and inspected the magnificent collection of Benjamin A. Grifford's Columbia River views. The views included in this collection were enlarged and mounted by the artist by special order of William McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in the Northwest, and will be exhibited at the Jamestown Exposition and in the principal cities of the East. The fame of the scenic grandeur of the Columbia River is known throughout the country and a better collection of high-grade representative views of this scenery was never before gathered.

REPAIR MILWAUKEE STREET.—Assurances are given that Milwaukee street will be repaired in a short time. Since dry weather came the residents on that thoroughfare have been living in an almost continuous cloud of dust. The big street cars seem to pull up the surface of the street and spread it over the surrounding country. Mayor H. H. Hays, in an attempt to remedy the situation, has had the street repaved with a mixture of crushed rock or river gravel and tar, followed with oil. He is of the belief that such a street would not be dusty in the summer or muddy in the winter.

FLAGS FOR ENGINE COMPANY.—City Auditor Devlin has presented the Brooklyn and East Twenty-eighth street engine companies, Nos. 11 and 12, respectively, each with a handsome American flag, five by ten feet in size. Accompanying the flags the Auditor sent letters expressing the hope that the flags would inspire feelings of respect for the National colors. Engine company on East Twenty-eighth street went into service Thursday night. The district engine company will cover for the present will be east of East Twelfth street, and between East Stark street and Sullivan's bluff. Brooklyn engine covers the territory south of Hawthorne avenue.

GOOD CITIZEN RALLIES TODAY.—Three "good citizen rallies" will be held today under the auspices of the International Reform Bureau. Rev. C. L. Tutts will speak at all the meetings. At 11 A. M. he will speak in the Calvary Baptist Church, East Eighth and Grant streets, at 2 P. M. he will speak in the First Methodist Church, East Tenth and Sherman streets. Tutts is in charge of the Pacific Coast district with headquarters in Portland. These meetings today are initial to local option and to secure enforcement of the Sunday law.

BISHOP BOWMAN TO PRESIDE.—The Oregon Conference of the Evangelical Association will meet in the First German Church, Eleventh and Clay streets, Thursday, May 2. Bishop Thomas Bowman will preside over the conference. Monmouth was the place where conference was to be held, but owing to the discontinuance of the appropriation for the Normal School resulting in some depresion, the meeting place was changed to Portland. Bishop Bowman is the senior bishop of the Evangelical Association of America and president of the Biblical Institute at Naperville, Ill. He was in Oregon three years ago.

GRIVE MISTAKE.—The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Vernon Presbyterian Church was entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Hagadone, address was made by Dr. J. P. McGaw.

Mrs. Hope, of Seattle, sister of the hostess, assisted in receiving. Mrs. F. H.
Leithold was secretary of literature and Mrs. E. T. Battinbo secretary.
Mrs. G. A. Blair presided.

ASSURED FOR DAMAGES.—Mark Schu-sler was assured for the sum of $25,000 damages, in Justice Reid's court yesterday morning, in the suit brought against him by Mrs. Edna Adams, of whom he purchased the Linda Vista house recently. Goods claimed as belonging to the plaintiff were also awarded to her.

before July 1, unfurnished house, must be modern and have six or seven bedrooms. Would lease for term of years if owner will build; location and plans to be satisfactory. Address Charles F.
Habe, Twelfth and Carter streets,

Mount Scott railway, will be dedicated this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. Lawrence Black will deliver the sermon, and Brougner will take part in the services.

Your Chance to Make Good

There's a letter in your pigeonhole from an Eastern friend asking about Oregon, and it has not been answered because you have not had time, or because you have not had at hand satisfactory information or attractive printed material. Now it will be easy for you to satisfy your correspondent and to discharge a duty you owe to your state by sending just what he wants.
It is to be found in the TOUR-ISTS' AND HOMESEEK-ERS' EDITION OF THE OREGONIAN, to be issued tomorrow. The Oregonian will print many thousand extra papers in preparation for the heavy demand certain to follow the appearance of the edition, for it is found to appeal to every one as just the thing to send away.

The edition has been prepared with great care. It is edited by a large staff of well-known Oregon citizens. The pictures, which are very numerous, are the best to be had.
The text is readable, interesting, varied and convincing.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY.—There will be a rally of Sunday school workers at the Taylor-Street Methodist Church next Tuesday afternoon and evening. Mrs.
J. Woodbridge Barnes, elementary secretary of the International Sunday School Association, and the Rev. Charles A.
Phillips, Oregon state field worker, will participate in the proceedings. The afternoon session will convene at 2:30 under the auspices of the Primary and Junior Union. A round table conference on elementary Sunday School work will be the principal feature. Mrs. Barnes will teach the next Sunday's lesson, in lieu of the usual meeting of Friday afternoon. At 8 P. M. she will deliver an address to all Sunday School workers.

MUSEUM OF ART IS CLOSED.—The Museum of Art is now closed in preparation for the exhibition which will be shown to members of the association and holders of students' tickets on Tuesday afternoon and will be thrown open to the public on Wednesday. The exhibition of applied arts on the second floor includes a selection from the late exhibition of the Art and Craft Society in Boston with a loan collection, white in a lower gallery a number of paintings in oil by well-known American artists will be displayed. The exhibition will close May 18. The building is open daily from 9 been robbed of a diamond watch, a gold charm and a gold watch, after spending $500 in the resort at 229 Davis street, conducted by Elsie Douglas. Acting Detectives Kay Spring, Kitcher arrested every woman in the house yesterday and locked them up in the city jail. According to the police, Buzo had been drinking heavily for several weeks, ever since coming here, and had spent much time in the Davis street resort. Elsie Douglas upon being arrested, admitted she had taken his jewels, but declared that he owed her a bill of $500. She turned the property over to Constable Lou Wagner, and he took it to Chief of Police Gritzmaier last night.

Lulu Lundy, who died at the North Pacific Sanatorium on April 24 was buried in ty, Illinois, on June 30, 1871, and was married to John W. Lundy, October 8, 1902.

interesting speaker.

ployed by Marshall Bros. cement con-son now closing at the Exposition rink will occur on Wednesday evening in a May-Day festival. Plans have been made to make the affair one of the most memorable of the Exposition rink's social events and many novel features have been arranged. Prominent among them will be a great hippodrome race of four teams of skaters, each team to be each driven by a lady. This will undoubtedly prove the most sensational and spectacular race that has ever been skated at this rink. No advance in Want an Open Car Record.

TACOMA, April 27.—At a conference between the State Railroad Commissioners and the transportation committee of the railroad manufacturers today it was decided that if the railroads kept the record book of cars open for inspection of shippers at Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, it would be a satisfactory compliance with the law in that particular.

Three Players in One Piano

This statement may seem rather odd on the face of it, but it is true, nevertheless, for with the great Melville Clark "Apollo Player-Piano" you can play 58-note music, 65-note music and 88-note music alike. When played by means of the perforated roll, the Knabe Angelus, Weber Pianola, Sohmer Cecilian and in fact all other player-pianos have a range of only 65 notes, while the "Apollo Player-Piano" Plays the Entire Keyboard, or 88 Notes.
The comparison is obvious, and yet this is only one of the many points of superiority. Come in and let us explain them all to you.
Also 10 different makes of fine pianos on reasonable terms of payment.
