Army Officers Will Take Action Unless City Moves Bad Lands District.

TOO CLOSE TO BARRACKS

Entrances Open Through Govern ment Property-City Council Dallied Until Commander

Is Forced to Act.

VANCOUVER. Wash, May 4 .- (Sperial.)-Inaction on the part of the City Council of Vancouver to remove a portion of the tenderioin district on Reserve street, between Fifth street and the river front, has caused an order to be issued by Colonel Woodbury, commander of the Department of the Columbia, directing Captain J. J. Bradley, acting judge-advocate of the de partment, to close the Fifth-street road, partment, to close the Fifth-street road, the only road running east from the city; also closing Reserve street.

This action comes as a surprise to most of the citizens, despite the fact that the matter has been under consideration between the Council and the army officers for almost two months. It is in fact due entirely to repeated promises on the part of the City Council to Improve conditions that the matter has been staved off until now.

Will Accept No Compromise. Captain Bradiey, in speaking of the matter, said:

"We have been negotiating with the Council about this matter for almost two months, ever since the time that the district was established. Its position is such that the entrances to these lon is such that the entrances to these houses are on Government property, a condition that is not paralelled any place in the United States. As the matter now stands, we are not in a position to and do not propose to compromise with the City Council. As the Government owns both the Fifth-street road through the garrison and all of Reserve street, they have a right to close the roads as the order directs, and inless the City Council accedes to our requests we are in a position to close are in a position to close nese streets." Captain Bradley stated further toat army officials about the proposition of granting the City of Vancouver con-cossions to the waterfront below the railway grade of the North Bank Rail-road and within the garrison had no connection with the present contre-

Close to Officers' Homes.

The proposition with the army officials is that directly opposite three officers' quarters these houses are located, within 75 to 100 feet. Of course there are complaints from the officers who are alloted these quarters, thus who are alloted these quarters, thus the project arose. This portion of the city is better suited for this purpose than any other if it were not for the close proximity to these officers' quarters. The district was set aside some time ago by the City Council, and all inmates of the tenderloin were forced to remove there.

To the city Reserve street is of little importance, though the Fifth-street road is considered to be more traveled than any other road in the county. If this road were closed it would cause those living east of the garrison to travel around the garrison a distance of about 1½ miles.

Members of the City Council express themselves as favorable to the request asked by the officers, and state that they are sorry the matter was made public, as they intended to do what was right in the matter. They are localized to feel that the action of the officers in making the matter one of public comment was rather hasty, though they themselves appreciate the fact that the country opposers no that they have been negligent in matter, legal question involved when the matter of closing Fifth street is con-sidered, though it is generally conceded that the Government has a right to close any road through its reserves regardless of how many years it has be open and conceded to be public.

HORSE SHOW BIG SUCCESS

Parade at Pendicton Surpasses Expectations of the Promoters.

PENDLETON, Or., May 4 .- (Special.) in the presence of thousands of spetators, the most successful horse show ever pulled off in Pendleton was held here this forenoon under the direction of the Fair Association. More than 100 thoroughbred horses were entered. and during the hour that the parade lasted the sidewalks and second-story windows from one end of Main and Court streets to the other were filled cheering crowds.

The affair was much more of a success in point of attendance, interest and the number of entries than had been dreamed possible by the most sanguine of the promoters. That it will be made a semiannual event and repeated in the Fall that is no doubt. In the show today there was every class of horse, from the monster draft stallions, weighing more than a ton, to the tiniest Shetland ponies, weighing but a few pounds. The feature of the parade, however, was the 40 young ladies, mounted on the finest riding horses that are to be found in this section of the state, which is justly famous for this class of horses.

The weather was ideal, no accidents happened to mar the occasion, and

How We Came to Change the Name Tabor Terraces to

TERRACE PARK

Portland's new and most delightful suburb, situated among full-grown cherry trees and strawberry plants. * * * Just east of Mt. Tabor, on the "M.V" carline. * * Take this car at Second and Yamhill; it goes direct to the tractor come to our office, 270 Stark street, opposite Chamber of Commerce, and go with us in the auto. OFFICE OPEN ALL DAY TODAY.

There is a law in this state, and it reads like this:

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

All plats of towns or additions hereafter filed for record in the office of the Recorder or County Clerk must not bear the name of any other town or addition in the same county, nor can the same word, or words, be used in making a name for said town, or addition, except the words town, city, place, court, addition, or similar words.

There is no need going against the law. It's bad business; besides, it's bad citizenship. So we changed our name and kept the law.

Terrace Park—that's the new name—is the most ideal home spot in Portland—just east of Mount Tabor, and commanding an absolutely unobstructed view from Mount Helen's to Mount Jefferson.

Terrace Park will be formally opened one week from today (May 12). The surveyors haven't quite finished their work yet; we can't file a map of the tract till they are through-besides, the street-graders will have made a fine showing before the end of the week, and we want you to see this magnificent property at its best.

While we can't give title to purchasers of lots until after we are recorded, there is nothing to prevent us reserving as many lots as you may want. Come out today (the M-V car at Second and Yamhill), or the auto at our door, 270

Here is the Proposition-Select any number of lots you want, and from the prices we make on our opening day you will have a discount of 10 per cent. We would like to have half Terrace Park sold before we open-and it will be, too, if buyers will but look at Terrace Park before finally deciding.

Our Opening Prices Will Be $300 to $600-On easy installments. We will build any kind of a house you want and you may pay for that on payments, like rent.
